

GET READY FOR SUMMER

GALATEA CLOTH Use Our Big Assortments of COOL UNDERWEAR

For Outdoor Wear
BEST QUALITY

12¹/₂ Per
2c Yard

ALL NEW 1912 PATTERNS

Summer Merchandise Freely

MEN'S B. V. D. | New Assortments
SUMMER UNDERWEAR | OF
50c Each | SUMMER SHOES

Unions $1.00 | Just Received
New Soft Collar | Shoes for Everybody
SHIRTS | Women's New
Right Up-to-Date | Underwear
75c to $3.00 | 5c to $5.00

See Our New Models | We Keep the New Goods
in | New Trimmings
SUMMER SUITS | Including
$15.00 to $25.00 | ALLOVER LACES, FLOUNCINGS
NEWLY ARRIVED | BANDS

Forest Mills
For Men and Women

WE SELL FLORSHEIM SHOES

FRANK A. CRAM

WE SELL HOLEPROOF HOSE

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION

Shoes made or repaired at Johnson's Car of Nephli land plaster just in at Whitehead's.
W. A. Schaffner was a Portland visitor last week.
Clover, timothy and oat seed for sale—KELLY BROS.
Mrs. W. B. Dickerson was a Portland visitor last week.
Plenty of good roses for cemetery use at the Oakdale Greenhouse.
Capt. C. P. McCan was a business visitor in Portland Tuesday.
Now is the time to buy cheap slab wood. A. C. Lofts, phone 310-X.
Rev. and Mrs. Edmund True Simpson were Portland visitors last week.
If you appreciate good cooking, call 209 State Street. Phone 245-M.
Wood for Sale—All kinds, carlots, only. H. K. Davenport, Phone Odell 166.
Ben W. Oleott, secretary of state, was among the Press club visitors Sunday.
Miss Brown, of Portland, spent the week end here with her sister, Mrs. E. E. Duncan.
Mrs. Helen Gilday, of Portland, is visiting Mrs. Louise Boyden at her ranch in Oak Grove.
Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Conger, of Seymour, Ia., are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Earl K. Bartness.
Mrs. J. K. Carson has been suffering this week from blood poisoning, caused from an abscess on one of her fingers.
Mr. and Mrs. August Cedarberg, of Portland, where Mr. Cedarberg is Norwegian consul, spent the week end here.
Miss Ruby Pieplow has arrived here to relieve her father at the Western Union office. Mr. Pieplow plans a month's vacation.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Elkington, of Gresham, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Andrews and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Gladen in Oak Grove.
Misses Hazel Holmes and Margaret Brown, of Underwood, were here for the Blossom Festival dance at the Heilbroner hall Friday night.
Dr. Byron E. Miller, of Portland, Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Dumble and Mrs. Iad Jones were Sunday visitors at the R. H. Kemp home in Odell.
Mrs. Sinnott has been here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ainsworth, and Mrs. Wm. Stewart. While here she gave a talk to the school children.
First-class line of wall paper samples, Phone 324-M, after 6 p. m., and we will be pleased to show them at your home. L. F. MORRIS.
A number of prominent Portland musicians spent Sunday in the valley. Among them were Miss Irene and Miss Esther Weust, Miss Artingstall and B. Roach.
Ernest J. Bloom, who has just returned from a visit in Portland and other down river points, accompanied the Press club excursion Sunday and secured a number of photographs.
Don Allen was master of ceremonies at a surprise party given Saturday to Scoutmaster Edmund Irew Simpson by the members of Troop No. 1 Boy Scouts of Hood River, who presented Rector Simpson with a handsome pearl handled knife, the day being his birthday.

Get a 75c whip free. Ask McDonald about it.
Car of Nephli land plaster just in at Whitehead's.
If your shoes have gone wrong take them to Johnsons.
F. C. Sexton was in The Dalles over the week end with his family.
L. G. Westfall, of Underwood, was a visitor in the city last week.
Now is the time to buy cheap slab wood. A. C. Lofts, phone 310-X.
Mrs. H. Garabrandt is convalescing from an operation performed Sunday.
J. K. McGregor, of Mosier, was a business visitor in the city yesterday.
Miss Lelia Radford visited friends in Portland the latter part of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Vaughan left the first of the week to visit Mr. Vaughan's parents near Chicago.
A. W. Onthank has made arrangements with the Aetna Insurance to represent them in Hood River.
Miss Lucile Smith, of Portland, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kimball during the last week.
J. H. Sutthoff, of Seattle, came down to spend the week end and attend the Blossom Festival with his family.
A. A. Jayne came up from Portland to attend the Blossom festivities and to attend to business over the week end.
Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Henkle and E. V. Knapp, of Portland, spent Sunday here the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sprout.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward McGregor, of Portland, were here last week. They formerly lived here on the ranch now owned by John Weaver.
Mr. and Mrs. Horace Butterfield and daughter, Miss Genevieve Butterfield, have arrived from Portland to spend the summer on their ranch in the Oak Grove district.
The Bailey Gatzert has taken the place of The Dalles City on the Mid-Columbia run of The Dalles, Portland & Astoria Navigation Co. The latter boat has been laid up for repairs.
J. B. Breneman, who recently purchased a place in Mosier, accompanied William Thurston here for the Blossom dance Friday evening. Mr. Breneman is a graduate of the Boston Institute of Technology.
Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Watson arrived last week from Arkansas. Mr. Watson, who has been doing soil survey work in the Arkansas country, will assist A. C. Strahorn in making the survey of the Hood River and White Salmon valleys.
The following citizens were present at the luncheon given in honor of Samuel Hill at the Hotel Oregon Friday: Truman Butler, P. S. Davidson, W. L. Clark, C. N. Clarke, Geo. A. McCurdy, O. H. Rhoades, E. O. Blanchard, A. D. Moe, Murray Kay, Chas. Hall, J. H. Heilbroner, Judge Geo. D. Culbertson and S. Benson.
Rev. W. B. Young, who was violently ill for a short time Sunday, suffering from ptomaine poisoning caused from eating fish, left Monday for Minneapolis to attend the general conference of the Methodist church, and to secure art glass windows for the church now being erected.
On next Sunday evening at the Baptist church on the Heights Mr. Hargreaves will preach sermon number three on "Simple Principles." The subject, "When the World has Peace." This sermon will anticipate the "Peace Day" which will be observed in some place on May 18.

R. R. Bartlett, who has been ill for the past week, is convalescing.
Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Sidney were week end visitors in Portland.
Mrs. J. W. Wiedrick, of Portland, is here visiting Mrs. C. D. Horrich.
Miss O. G. Bostick, of Seattle, was here for the Apple Blossom Festival.
Call H. E. Johnson, phone 51, for figures on building in all lines of construction.
Born—To Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Wedemeyer at their Oak Grove home Friday May 3, a daughter.
The Sons Social club will meet with Mrs. R. P. Orr, on Sherman street, Thursday afternoon.
Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glendinning, at their home near Odell, Tuesday morning, May 7, a son.
Mrs. Carl Larsen and family, of Mount Hood, have been here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hinrichs.
Misses Caroline and Elizabeth Seal, Miss Helen Huston and Miss Campbell spent the week end here with Miss Helen Davidson.
Assisted by Mrs. H. F. Davidson and Mrs. E. D. Kanaga, Mrs. Ralph Root entertained a number of friends last Thursday afternoon.
The E. A. Franz Hardware Co. has received from Prof. W. H. Lawrence, county fruit inspector, seventy self-registering thermometers, which are being distributed to the growers.
The boys and girl of Hood River are invited to a party to be given by the Sunshine club at the Unitarian church at 2:30 Saturday afternoon. Program, games and refreshments, 10 cents.
Chief Justice and Mrs. Geo. H. Brennard, of Salem, spent the week end here visiting their friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McCully and Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Huelat. Chief Justice Brennard had not been in the valley for 10 years. He was greatly impressed with improvements that have been made in that time.
Now is time to secure your spring plants. We have 40,000 assorted kinds now ready for sale. Geraniums, heliotropes, salvia, petunia, carnation, canna, lobelia and alyssum. All kinds of vegetable plants. We sell tomato plants in little flower pots. They are easy to transplant. Come and make us a little visit at the Heights green house. Phone 284-M. Geo. Haslinger, manager.

The First Congregational church of Bingen was formally dedicated Sunday, three services being held. Rev. W. W. Seudder, of Seattle, preached the dedicatory sermon. Fellowship addresses were made at the afternoon service by Rev. J. H. Matthews, of Seattle; Rev. J. G. Tate, of White Salmon; Rev. H. G. Loudon, of Underwood; Rev. E. A. Harris, of Hood River and Herbert Mills, of Aberdeen. Special music was rendered by the choir of White Salmon, with solos by Mrs. F. M. Wright, of Stevenson, and Mrs. R. L. Hemsan, of White Salmon.
At Kader temple's delegates to the Shriner's convention at Los Angeles are: W. C. Bristol, Wm. Davis, Geo. F. Robertson and R. D. Cannon. At Kader temple has secured quarters in the Alexandria hotel, where about 60 boxes of Hood River apples are to be distributed among visitors. The patrol of which F. M. Davis is captain, expects to take part in all the contests, and plans to carry off a share of the prizes, as much practice work has been done. The patrol is to give special drills on afternoons this week.

J. N. Matuschek, of Portland, spent the week end here with his classmate, Ned Van Horn.
Rev. J. R. Hargreaves attended the Wason county Sunday school convention at Mosier last week.
Miss Bertha Masters, of Portland, spent the week end here with Prof. and Mrs. C. D. Thompson.
Because of the high water, the steamer J. N. Teal is landing north of the O.-W. R. & N. station at the Underwood ferry wharf.
Miss Anna Morrow has been here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Brock. Judge and Mrs. Morrow were among the guests at the Press club picnic Sunday.
Don't fail to see Jimmie's Aunt Jane, the play brimful of wholesome fun that will be presented by the Baracca and Philathea classes of the Congregational church at the Monroe opera house tomorrow night.
Don't fail to see Jimmie's Aunt Jane, the play brimful of wholesome fun that will be presented by the Baracca and Philathea classes of the Congregational church at the Monroe opera house tomorrow night.
Don't fail to see Jimmie's Aunt Jane, the play brimful of wholesome fun that will be presented by the Baracca and Philathea classes of the Congregational church at the Monroe opera house tomorrow night.
Horace G. Day and son, Kenneth Day, of the large fruit firm of Sigobel & Day, of New York City, spent the first of the week in the city. They are making a tour of the Pacific coast fruit districts, sitting up prospects for the coming marketing season. The northwestern crop will be one of the largest of the history of the fruit industry in the region, they declare.
J. B. Winstanley, of the F. T. Crowe Building materials Co., of Portland, arrived in town yesterday to give a demonstration of water, dust and wear proof concrete processes. A portion of the walk in front of the Franz Hardware Co. was taken away and the new method applied. O. C. Dean, the ferrymen, has the local agency for the new methods of concreting.
Mrs. H. D. W. Pines left the first of the week for a visit with her parents in Boston. Mrs. Pines will spend the entire summer in the east, visiting other relatives in Montreal and at other points on the eastern coast before returning here.
Dog Tax is Due.
Marshall Robert T. Lewis has begun the collection of the annual dog tax. He declares that the law shall be strictly observed this year. Last year the officer collected $300 from canine taxes. Forty-seven unfortunate "houn' dawgs", no protectors coming forward with the tax, were sent to the happy hunting ground.
The Gem's Program
The gem is enjoying a good patronage these nights. The entertaining and instructive program for tomorrow night contains the following films: "Some Mothers-in-law," "River is Jealous," "Capturing Polar Bears," and the "Bully of Bingo Gulch."

Moving Picture Man Secures Views
E. M. Wuster, of the Wuster Moving Picture Co., of Portland, was here Saturday and Sunday and secured views of the activities of the excursionists and of the blossoms. He accompanied the Commercial club excursion to Parkdale and secured pictures of the land clearing at Boneboro. Sunday he took pictures of the Press club picnic at Eggermont. Mr. Wuster and his machines were transported over the valley by C. R. Bone in his automobile.
Stamps made to order. Phone 37.
C. L. Parsons, Sec'y and Treas. of the C. H. Ward Drug Co., Pasadena, Calif., writes: "We have sold and recommended Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for years. We believe it to be one of the most efficient expectorants on the market. Containing no opiates or narcotics it can be given freely to children. Enough of this remedy can be taken to relieve a cold as it has no nauseating results and does not interfere with digestion." C. A. Plath.

A real bargain in a nice well improved 10-acre tract, all in trees, good house; half mile from town; easy terms; Inquire of H. P. ALLEN. Phone 333 K
We are Open for Business
WITH A NICE LINE OF FRESH AND CURED MEATS. OUR GOODS WILL SATISFY YOU, SO WILL OUR PRICES. LET US SHOW YOU.
CARMAN'S MARKET
Phone 147-X On The Heights

INSURE WITH REED & HENDERSON, Inc.
Fire--Accident--Life--Automobile--Plate Glass
Burglary -- Employer's Liability, including FARMERS and ORCHARDISTS, also Judicial Official and Indemnity Bonds.
Resident Agents for: Travelers Insurance Co. Pacific Coast Casualty Co. Hanover Fire Insurance Co. of New York. Pelican Assurance Co. of New York.
REAL ESTATE LOANS INVESTMENTS

SEND IT EAST
THE NEW MT. HOOD
Hood River's Grand Mountain
FOR SALE ONLY BY
SLOCOM'S BOOK & ART STORE