APPOINTMENT OF JUDGE PUZZLES

The appointment of a successor to udge Geo. D. Culbertson has been before the people now for more than a week. Governor West has announced that he will make an appointment of the choice of the people and has set Saturday, June 8, as the date for a special election. He appointed, according to a dispatch from Salem, Judge A. J. Derby, Leslie Butler and G. M. Uptegrove as fa committee to take charge of the election, the expenses of which will be borne by the state. However, put a vester day, the state. However, up to yesterday the committee had received no official in-structions as to their appointment.

They met Tuesday afternoon, when t was thought for a time that W. L. Clark and S. W. Stark had withdrawn their names from the list of aspirants to the position and Lawrence N. Blow to the position and Liwrence N. Blow-ers had been chosen by the committee, who planned to write to the governor and urge him to appoint Mr. Blowers without the trouble of an election. However, Mr. Stark refused to allow his name stricken from the list of as pirants and is making a canvass for votes. Geo. R. Castner is mentioned by his friends as an aspirant,
