ODELL.

R. E. Miller finds he needs more storage space for apples and he is enlarging his apple house.
W. M. Barnett has requested that the horse sheds near the school house and Union church at Odell be removed and by mutual agreement, as expressed in a meeting of the Development League of Odell, the proper disposal of the sheds was left to school district No. 5. As the school district was the heaviest subscriber to the structure as it has stood, this seemed the most reasonable arrangement that could be made. T. M. Mitchell has been engaged to take down the sheds and remove and rebuild them on a site selected by the directors of school district No. 5.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stanion and Mr. and Mrs. Guy F. Smith and daughter, Josephine, and son, Francis, are enjoying an outing at Longbeach, Wash.
A large number of members and friends of the Development League of Odell attended the smoker given for Wilmer Sieg last Friday evening.
Miss Leita Bowerman returned Saturday from a two weeks' visit with relatives near Washougal, Wash.

Mrs. Paul Hanson gave a party last Saturday evening in honor of the fiftieth birthday of her daughter, Gertrude. About 25 young people were present and enjoyed games, conversation and delicious refreshments and then went to their homes wishing Miss Gertrude many happy returns of the day.
The members of the Ferguson Bible class were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Shute, Hawthorne home last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, of Forest Grove, Ore., were visitors recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Shute. Mrs. Smith is Mr. Shute's sister.
Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Coe, of Hood River, have been spending the week at the home of Mr. Coe's sister, Mrs. G. E. Bowerman, and Mrs. Coe's brother, Chester Shute.
Mrs. James Rimmer, of Belmont, visited Mrs. J. H. Eggert several days last week.
Austin Lockman was a Portland visitor last week during the Elk's Carnival.
Messrs. T. Lacey and J. R. Crosby have purchased a hay press and they are having their own hay this week.
Messrs. Wood and Lafferty finished baling their first crop of clover and timothy early in the week and are now looking after their oat hay.
Cooper & Walter are building an apple house. The main store room is 32 by 50, grading and packing room 18 by 50. The upper story, 32 by 50, will be used as a box room. This apple house will be equipped with modern facilities, machine grader and practical conveniences and will greatly simplify caring for the apple crop of this firm.
Mr. and Mrs. M. Zeller, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Shurbon, Mr. and Mrs. Weinheimer, Algae Weinheimer and Chester Stansbery left Monday for an outing at Trout Lake, Wash.
Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Richter, of Trout Lake, Wash., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Witt Sunday. While at home at Trout Lake Mrs. Richter fell, breaking her left wrist, and she came to White Salmon, Wash., Saturday for surgical attendance and Sunday she and Mr. Richter came to their former home in Odell.
O. H. Ehek attended the Elk's carnival in Portland last week.
J. H. Eggert and sons, Elmer and Fred, returned Saturday from Portland.
Mrs. J. B. Lafferty, of Weiser, Ida., has been here for a visit at the home of G. W. Lafferty. She will now visit at the home of I. U. Lafferty and Mrs. W. F. Young.
The Ladies' Aid society meets this week with the president, Mrs. E. G. Hagey. The officers for this year are: Mrs. E. G. Hagey, president; Mrs. Howard Leeson, vice president; Mrs. J. H. Eggert, secretary; Mrs. H. D. Emery, treasurer.
Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Barnett and family spent several days last week in Portland.

Wesley Locke and a companion left with a pack horse for the mountains northwest of Adams to prospect in the district where the lost mine has been an object of search for a good many years, and which was believed to have been found a year ago.
W. G. McCready, of Gilmer, has traded his 250-acre tract of land at Gilmer to his brother, G. P. McCready, for 300 acres of Iowa land. The money basis of the trade was $25,000. The McCready tract is a good piece of land lying just north of the George Gilmer place, 100 acres of which is cleared, 18 acres into orchard, and an annual income of $2,000.
Jake Prah, of this county, made perhaps the largest purchase of sheep which has ever been made in the county. Last week he bought 15,000 lambs at Glenwood for shipment to Portland. The purchase was made from the owners, whose hands are now in the receiver, one of the largest bunches coming from Trumbull.
J. R. Knight and wife, of Vancouver, have come to spend the summer. With Roy Knight, from Whitman college, and his other brother, Lloyd Knight, of this place, they have rented a house in the north end of town. J. R. Knight is an accomplished violinist, and was one of the instructors in the Oregon Conservatory of Music at Portland until his private class grew so large that he had to give up the college work.
While fishing for trout on the Little White Salmon river just below the Willard place, on the Fourth, Chas. Kelley, of this place, nearly lost his young son, Ray, by drowning. They were both wading, but the father finally told Ray to stay and hold in a certain spot while he went farther down to a likely looking pool. The boy stepped farther into the stream, which was so swift that it threw him off his feet and swept him into deep water. The father hastened to the spot and saw the boy in a whirlpool. He had gone down three times when Mr. Kelley succeeded in grabbing him by the back of the neck and swam with him to safety. After working over the boy for some time, rolling him on the bank and moving his arms his lungs were emptied of water and a stimulant administered, he finally regained consciousness.

"Our Personal Guarantee to all Skin Sufferers"

We have been in business in this town for some time and we are looking to build up trade by always advising our patrons right.
So when we tell you that we have found the sesame remedy and that we stand back of it with the manufacturer's iron clad guarantee, backed by ourselves you can depend upon it that we give our advice not in order to sell a few bottles of medicine to skin sufferers, but because we know how it will help our business if we help our patrons.
We keep in stock and sell all the well known skin remedies. But we will say this: If you are suffering from any kind of skin trouble—eczema, psoriasis, rash or tetter, we want you to try a full size bottle of D. D. D. Prescription. And, if it does not do the work, this bottle will cost you nothing. You alone to judge.
Again and again we have seen how a few drops of this simple wash applied to the skin, takes away the itch, instantly. And the cures all seem to be permanent.
D. D. D. Prescription made by the D. D. D. Laboratories of Chicago, is composed of strychnine glycerine, oil of wintergreen and other healing soothing, cooling ingredients. And if you are just crazy with itch, you will feel cooled and soothed. The itch absolutely washed away the moment you applied this D. D. D.
We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommending this remedy to a skin sufferer here and there and we want you to try it now on our positive money guarantee.
