Ainsworth, Miss Katherine Ainsworth, Miss C. Flanders and Miss Dorothy Effinger, of Portland, spent several days last week at Cloud Gap Inn. They returned to this city Friday and motored to Trout Lake and vicinity, in order to see the scenic wonders around the base of Mount Adams and to view the noted ice caves there. A play by the McDonald big show company, was given last Monday evening under canvas before a large audience. The best means of judging a show is to note the effect upon the audience and as the crowd was in a hilarious uproar a great deal of the time and perfectly still during the more pathetic parts, we believe we are voicing the sentiment of all in pronouncing it a good show.—Boone County Advance, St. Edwards, Neb., May 2, 1912. Last Sunday at the Unitarian church the large audience was charmed by the excellent musical selections, including especially a solo by Mrs. Sletton, with violin obligato, and a beautiful violin solo by Mlle. Blanche Rosset. Next Sunday the theme will be "A Roomier Universe." All are invited. Hood River Quarry to Be Worked Having purchased 10 acres of the Kober quarry east of the city, a company, the incorporators of which are Chris Dethman, John Koberg and Wm. Ehrek, will place the heavy basalt on the market. The stone is excellent for building or paving purposes. Indeed, Mr. Koberg has received strong offers for cobble stones from the quarry.

Fixing the Evangelists An English clergyman visiting this country tells of a Bishop in England, who, when a new church in his diocese was to be consecrated, received many letters complaining that the architect had disfigured the interior with useless decoration. The Bishop decided to make an inspection of the new building, and accordingly summoned the architect to meet him there. The Bishop could find nothing wrong until, just as he reached the chancel, he chanced to catch sight of four wooden images apparently guarding the pulpit. "What do those figures represent?" he asked. "The four evangelists," "They appear to be asleep," "Do you think so?" "I certainly do." Whereupon the architect called out to a man who was at work on one of the pews: "Henry, bring your chisel and open the eyes of the evangelists."—July Lippincott's. Big Log at Coos Bay Coos Bay claims the largest saw log. The C. A. Smith Co. has sawed a giant spruce log estimated to have weighed over 18 tons, that scaled 19,000 feet of lumber. It was 75 feet long, seven feet in diameter at the butt and five feet eight inches at the top. This is thought to be the largest log ever hauled on a train anywhere. Christian Science Services.
