

Announcement Extraordinary

It has been definitely proven that the residents of Hood River and vicinity know bargains when they see them. The rush and onslaught on the Groceries, Dry Goods, Hardware, Drugs, Shoes, etc., with the opening of the doors last Saturday was terrific. There is satisfaction in the knowledge that no one was disappointed. Every one found bargains according to his or her needs, for every nook and corner is just crammed full of bona fide bargains. The same spirit has had full sway up to the time of this paper going to press---

Eager People Buying, Buying, Buying

In your anxiety to load your baskets with the Groceries, don't forget that there are other departments, viz: Shoes, Dry Goods, Hardware, Paints, Drugs, Jewelry, etc. You cannot afford to overlook anything. For an idea of prices please refer to your last week's paper. Great as the rush has been, it has not spoiled the lines of merchandise, nor has it made any serious inroad. In a stock of general merchandise of the size and magnitude of this brought here to turn into cash quickly, it would naturally take a good many days of hard selling to make much of a hole in it.

$15,000 W. S. Gribble Stock of Mt. Hood

We Wish to Further Announce

That we have opened up the rest of our Dry Goods. Everything for much less than cost. We are also now better equipped for handling the crowds. More salespeople and more room. We can assure you that no one will now be turned away without being waited upon.

Last But Not Least

Remember WHY we are here.
Remember WHERE we are located.
Remember WHATEVER your need may be, this is the time to save money by taking advantage of perhaps the last last sale of its kind to come to Hood River.
