Foster Peaches

One of the best flavored peaches grown in the Hood River valley is the Foster variety, W. L. Smith, of the Heights, who has made such a success of strawberry culture, has a number of Foster trees. They are loaded with perfect specimens of the luscious fruit.

Union Lays New Pipe

The Hood River Apple Growers' Union is now engaged in replacing the wood stove pipe of its water system, purchased last fall from Joseph A. Wilson, with iron pipe. The new stretch of pipe is 150 feet long and will extend along Second street to the reservoir on the Heights.

Greek Laborer Injured

One of the Greek laborers was brought to the Cottage hospital from the Stone & Webster camp on the Little White Salmon Tuesday, suffering from a fractured leg. All men when injured at this camp are treated at the local hospital, Drs. Bronson & Waugh, of this city, being the company physicians.

Fiks Will Be Seen at Gem

The moving pictures of the parades of the recent Elks' Convention in Portland will be seen at the Gem theatre next Monday and Tuesday evenings. The program for tonight is as follows: "Neighbors," a farce comedy; "Indian Gratitude," "Making Photo plays in Egypt, where the Pharaohs Lived," Friday and Saturday nights the following reels will be seen: "A Temporary Truce," "Any Old Clothes," The first play will require two reels. The Gem continues the Pathe Weeklies. A new baby grand piano has just been installed.

New Station Opened at The Dalles

Several Dallesites "got up before breakfast" Saturday morning to witness the departure of the local train at 6:50 a. m., an event which marked the opening of the new $40,000 O.-W. R. & N. depot.

Mayor Judd S. Fish arrived at 5 o'clock and camped with his breakfast in front of the ticket window so he could buy the first bit of pastebread sold at the new station. No, he didn't go away. He spent 10 cents for a ticket to Crater. He is going to have the ticket framed.

More Fry Next Week

An additional shipment of trout fry will be received by the Commercial club here next week. The trout received this week were distributed in the small streams in the Upper Valley, the minnows having been taken to Parkdale over the Hood River. The fry to be received next week will be used in the streams nearer the city. Some will be placed in Phelps, Indian and other smaller streams in the Lower Valley.

It is urged by Secretary Scott that all who desire these fish in certain streams and who are willing to assist in distributing them let him know immediately.

Saturday, Baby Day at Electric

Saturday evening the Hood River babies will be the ruling feature at the Electric theatre. The management of the show is going to have a big baby show. They have secured the services of a photographer, who will visit your home and secure a picture of your little one, if you will let it be. Phone 4725. Every paid admission will entitle the person visiting the show to 25 votes. The prettiest baby will thus be chosen. A number of prizes will be awarded the handsome babies.

Sharp Case to Be Called Again

The case of E. F. Sharpe, plaintiff, against W. H. Robertson and The United States Fidelity & Guaranty Co. has just been decided by Judge Bradshaw in favor of the plaintiff, allowing him $3,450. This was an action brought by the plaintiff, receiving $2750 damages from the defendants, for failure to clear sixty acres of land near Parkdale in accordance with the contract. While the plaintiff was given a judgment for $1000 less than he had hoped, still defendants feel dissatisfied, and the case will be appealed by the defendants to the supreme court. Huntington & Wilson, of Portland are the attorneys for plaintiff and W. S. Stark for the defendants.

Soule Opens New Store

We wish to announce to our customers that we have leased a large and desirable store room in the new Bell building, we now propose to put in a ten-thousand-dollar stock, part of which is already here and others on way from the eastern factories.

This stock will include baby grand, interior player and upright pianos, Victrolas, gramophones, Amberolas, phonographs, latest sheet music and all other small musical merchandise.

We are not connected with Portland houses and on account of small expense, can give our customers much better prices. Thanking our many friends for their liberal patronage received in the past and soliciting a continuance of same in the future, we remain, Soule's Piano House, Silas H. Soule, Prop. Phone 114-L.

National Company Will Ship Carloads

Two carloads of this season's fruit will be shipped out from the valley Sunday and Monday by the National Apple Co. The fruit, which will be composed of the varieties, Kings and Gravensteins, will be sent to Alaskan dealers.

A. P. Sprague, of the Union, states that they will begin carload lots the latter part of this or the first of next week. Wilmer Sieg, general manager of the Union, who has been on an extended trip over the east, will return today.

H. F. Davidson, president of the Davidson Fruit Co., is expected back tomorrow afternoon. He has been at Chicago to attend the convention of the National Apple Shippers. The Davidson Co. has already been making express shipments to the Alaskan trade.

Rubber Stamp Inks and Pads at this office, also stamps made to order. Stamps made to order. Phone 37.

JOB SHEPPARD IS CALLED BY DEATH

Job Sheppard, one of the leading orchardists of the Duke Valley region, was called by death Sunday, Mr. Sheppard, who was a native of Eugene, came to Hood River valley about four years ago. He was formerly a resident of Indiana. He was born April 9, 1860. After funeral services had remained were buried yesterday at Hillside cemetery.

REMINGTON ENTERS HOOD RIVER BANK

W. W. Remington, who recently returned from the flour milling industry, of Winnetka, Minn., has purchased the interest of Joe C. Copeland in the Hood River Banking & Trust Co. and has assumed the vice presidency of that institution. Mr. Remington visited Hood River several weeks ago and was an interested and pleased with the community that he decided to make his home here. His family has arrived and they have taken up their residence at the Chandler house on Ninth street.

The Misses Pearl and Edith Ellis, who climbed Mount Adams with the Marston two weeks ago, returned to their home in Portland. They have been visiting their friend, Miss Margaret Brown in the Little White Salmon Valley.

A controversy of 17 years' standing over a line fence was settled last week by Judge W. L. Bradshaw. The fence in question is that separating the Peter Henriks estate and the farms of George W. Brown, Mary E. Galliger and Ida E. Merce. The court decided in favor of the latter, the defendants, and that the Henriks fence was across the line too great a distance.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Hoyd, of Spokane, who were among the guests at the Commercial club luncheon Saturday, say they greatly enjoyed a splendid chicken dinner. This is their first visit to Hood River and they are enthusiastic in their admiration of the scenic beauties of the city and valley and their wonder at the great apple crops seen everywhere. Mr. Hoyd is advertising and managing the partnership dissolution sale at Morlan & Lathrop's and says business done has far exceeded expectations.
