

Summer Gordons

There's a cool look and a cool feel to the New Gordon Ideas for Warm Weather

Attractive Styles in Summary shades and colorings for town, lake or country

The Gordon

in shades of

Brown
Green
Tan
Pearls
and Blacks

$3.00

The Gordon

in many

New and Classy
Shapes for Young Men and Old

$3.00

Headquarters for all New Ideas and Dependable Grades in Men's Headware. We are satisfied only when we have sold you the hat that best becomes you and that you will give you the greatest amount of wear and satisfaction for your money.

All the Style and Quality you expect to find in $5.00 Hats is evident in THE GORDON.

J. G. Vogt

Oregon Lumber Co.

Dee, Oregon

ALL KINDS OF LUMBER, SHINGLES SLAB WOOD, ETC. CAN FURNISH CEDAR SHIP LAP, ANY QUANTITY

Both Phones

Estimates Furnished

"Something New Under the Sun"

The Mount Hood Ironing Cabinet

CONSISTS OF THE FOLLOWING COMBINATIONS:

Lap Board, Ironing Board, Sewing Cabinet, Writing Desk, Etc.

CALL AND SEE IT

CALL AT OLD ARMORY

EVANS NOVELTY AND MACHINE WORKS

Hood River, Oregon

AGENTS WANTED—Pacific Coast State Rights For Sale

Sherwin-Williams Arsenate of Lead

$7.00 Per Hundred Pounds
In 250 Lb. Keg, $6.50 Per 100 Lbs.

D. McDONALD

TIP-TOP RANCH

Thoroughbred Prize Winning Strain of

BARRED PLYMOUTH ROCKS

A Pen Specially Mated For Pullet Raising : : :

Single setting, 13 eggs, $2.50. Incubator lots, price furnished on application.

Telephone 82-M

General Blacksmithing and Woodworking

If you break one of the shafts of your vehicle, do not think you need a new pair; we can make a new one for you. We keep a stock of ironed shafts and poles, powder spoons, choke hooks, etc.

W. G. SNOW

(Successor to Snow & Upson)

Phone 62-K

Fourth Street

ODELL

Miss Hazel Miller, of Mount Hood, spent several days last week visiting Misses Blanca and Vera Lafferty.

Misses Eva Boyed and Viola Mapes left Saturday for Seaview, Wash. They will also stop at other points before returning home.

Almont Ferguson, John Plog and Mr. Mellroy spent last week at Badger Lake hunting and fishing.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Naumes Sunday, Aug. 11, a son.

About fifteen friends of little Miss Laura Folts were invited to assist her in celebrating her ninth birthday Wednesday, August 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hull and children are now at home in the house known as the Johnson house. Mr. Hull is in the employ of Oscar Vanderbilt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Eggert, Messrs. Wm. Ehrck, O. H. Ehrck, Chris Eggert and Masters Elmer, Louis and Fred Eggert and Floy McCoy returned Monday from Lost Lake with quantities of fine huckleberries. Elmer and Fred Eggert and Floy McCoy walked from Lost Lake home, getting in ahead of the team. We think Fred beats the record for a seven-year-old boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chamberlain and party, of Mosier, passed through Odell Sunday noon for Lost Lake.

E. W. Lafferty and Louis Lafferty have gone to the country about Bend for their outing.

Miss Mabel Hagey won the beautiful toilet set, given by a medicine company by popular vote, the contest having closed last Saturday evening with Mabel two thousand votes in the lead.

Miss Jessie Sweeney, of Washougal, Wash., has been here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

Marion I. Neal, of Odell and Viva Shumway, of Rainier, Ore., were married in Hood River last Saturday at 3 p. m. They are now at home with Mr. Neal's parents in Odell.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

After noon on Wednesday of last week while mounting a horse, Job Sheppard was kicked and one leg was broken below the knee, both bones being broken in two places and badly mangled. While all knew that this was a serious injury none were prepared for the awful shock that came with the news of his death which occurred Sunday afternoon but but a few moments warning. The funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the home, Rev. T. S. Handsaker officiating. Internment was made in Jewell cemetery. We believe that with Miss Eleanor Coe, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

Frank Monroe and Thos. Wyman.

Fred Evans and family returned from Lost Lake this week. They reported a fine time, lots of huckleberries and some venison.

R. Becker, who represents the Cudahy Packing Co., was in town Thursday.

Messrs. Bennett, Chamberlain and Huskey have returned from a ten days stay in the wilds, bringing back with them three deer and some bear meat. Two bear were killed, but one was so far from camp it was impossible to bring it all in. The boys had a fine time and plenty of strenuous mountain climbing, huckleberries, huckleberries and the best of water.

Dr. Robinson has the cement work finished for the new apple house.

Miss Jennie Carroll celebrated her birthday last week with an afternoon party and a few invited guests.

Miss Anna Godber, Mrs. E. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. Stroup and Mrs. Geo. Huskey came home Thursday from Hood River.

A. P. Bateham left Thursday for a trip of ten days to Vancouver, B. C., and some Washington points.

Geo. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Eastman and Mrs. C. H. Dunsmuir left Friday for a week's camping at Lost Lake.

Wm. Nielson and W. Thurston came home Thursday from Portland.

Roy Abernathy returned Thursday from a visit with relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Allington spent Friday in The Dalles.

J. M. Carroll and family left Thursday for Mount Hood station, where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Craft.

Wm. Bancroft, of Portland, is spending some time here with his daughter, Mrs. C. A. Brown.

Mrs. Geo. Emery spent Thursday night here with home folks, returning to her home in Hood River Friday afternoon.

Mrs. E. U. Phillips and little daughter came from Portland Thursday to see Mrs. Robinson, who has been very ill, but is now nearly recovered.

Wm. Rowland and family, Geo. Chamberlain and family and Mrs. Erntson and son left Sunday for camping trips in the Hood River valley and mountains.

Alex. Stewart transacted business in The Dalles Friday.

Messrs. Cherry and Davenport were business visitors to The Dalles Saturday.

Mrs. N. P. Sturgess and son, Ed, were in Hood River Saturday afternoon.

J. E. Clark came over from White Salmon Saturday evening for a short visit.

G. S. Hall, of Portland, was spending a few days here the last of the week with his sons.

Dr. Knepper, of The Dalles, was in Mosier Saturday.

H. T. Hetsel, of the Oregon Agricultural College, spent two days here the first of the week, gathering information to be used by the state immigration bureau.

J. E. Cole and two children went to Portland Sunday for a two days' stay.

Messrs. Elliott and Lamb left the first of the week for Tillamook, where they will enjoy the sea breeze for a week or so.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McGregor left Monday for Vancouver, B. C., where they expect to remain some time.

Mrs. Decker, aged 90, died Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Tilton, who resides three miles north of Husum. The funeral was held on Tuesday, the body being interred in the Odd Fellows cemetery, of this place. Mrs. Decker came to this county with her daughter about nine years ago and made friends with every one with whom she became acquainted.

M. E. Church Services.

Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Themes: Morning, "The Glory of the Gospel;" evening, "What Luck I Yet." Epworth League at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend these services. Strangers will be made welcome.

Misses Lewis and Champagne, who have been visiting friends left for their homes in Fargo, N. D. last Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Benton are entertaining friends from Peoria, Ill., this week.

Mrs. Amanda Sears and daughter have as their guests friends from Portland this week.

A prenuptial miscellaneous shower was given Miss Minnie Pansch at her home last Saturday evening. Twenty young ladies were present and a very enjoyable time was shared in by all.

J. G. Jarvis is in Washougal looking after his business interests.

Mrs. J. E. Andrews is entertaining her brother and his daughter from Quebec this week.

Messrs. B. Lee Paget and Leslie Butler, of Hood River, gave excellent addresses at the hall in their itinerary Monday morning, and we trust their Prohibition principles will gain adherents as they go on. A vote for principle is never lost. This party is the only one identified in protecting the boys and girls of our country, from the slavery of the drink curse.

Miss Hazel Stanton returned last Friday from a visit with friends in Seattle.

Freeman Mason left last week for a visit with friends near Sandy, Ore.

Miss Ethel Albright is visiting Mrs. Chas. Hays at Eggenmont.

J. N. McKinnell and "Blondy," his horse, left last Friday for a jaunt in Washington.

Road Supervisor Eastman has had the Hall hill gravelled during the past week and it is a decided improvement.

Messrs. Shinn, Mason and Harmon came back from their trip through the mountains back of Green Point last week, well supplied with venison. Bob Shinn says he saw his friend, the bear, but failed to land him.

The story in last week's paper about the tame deer (deer) at Mr. Vanderbilt's was good. However, we think we could tell a better one about Joe Hall's cougar, but will refrain from doing so.

The McCurdy lawn will be the scene of an ice cream social Thursday evening, given by the Ladies' Aid of the Oak Grove church, and all are cordially invited to come and have a good time.

John Weaver spent several days last week in central Oregon near Redmond.

Mrs. Lindberg and three sons, Arthur, Russell and Earl, from Stromberg, Nebr., Mrs. Dale and Mrs. Larson and Mr. and Mrs. Hahn, from Polk, Nebr., have been visiting the Stantons.

Frank Lucas was in Portland last week.

W. L. Nichols and father returned last Thursday from a trip in Idaho. This being the case Mr. Nichols claims that it was someone else who was breaking the speed and light ordinance. Possibly Mrs. Nichols was driving the car.

E. R. Moller reported Squire Lemmon's name to the sheriff and claimed he was driving his car at less than the minimum speed limit. He stated further that he turned out for Mr. Lemmon to pass and that he had to wait so long for this to happen that he missed his train.

HEIGHTS NEWS

P. W. Dark, H. D. McLain and Clarence Hall spent a portion of last week back of Green Point on the headwaters of Eagle Creek, where three bucks were killed.

Mrs. Hubbard Taylor and youngest daughter, Miss Alice, are at Washougal, Wash., visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Atkinson and other friends.

Mrs. Sanford Smith, who has been very ill, is reported to be improving very rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Holman and little daughter, Edna, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barton and J. Provence are at Seaside, enjoying a vacation. Mr. Holman and Mr. Barton made the trip from Portland to the coast in Mr. Holman's car.

Carson Bucklin and two friends left Tuesday morning for Lost Lake on a hunting and fishing trip.

Miss Thayer has moved her hat shop from State street to Twelfth street, on the Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Imbler and children returned last week from the West Fork of Hood river, where they have been camping. They hiked in to Lost Lake, while on their vacation. They report the fishing pretty good.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith and children left the first of the week for Trout Lake, Wash., where they will spend a short time.

T. D. Tweedy celebrated his sixtieth birthday last Thursday evening at the Holman hall. He invited about 30 of his young men and boy friends to participate in the celebration of the event. Ice cream and cake were served. The visiting ladies wish Mr. Tweedy many happy returns of the day.

WHITE SALMON.

(From the Enterprise)

On Wednesday afternoon of last week at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Kathryn Gray, occurred the marriage of Miss Henrietta Massie Bullitt and Chester T. Dewey, Rev. Tate officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Binford, of Portland, old friends of the Aggers, visited at Overlook last week. Mr. Binford is a local storage man and believes the local union should take steps to store its apples in order to get the best price.

The Misses Getchell are enjoying a visit with their aunt, Mrs. E. Morrison, and cousin, Miss Emily Longfellow. Mrs. Morrison and Miss Longfellow are on their way home to Minneapolis after visiting relatives in Seattle, Wash., and Ashland, Ore.

Wm. Wells, John Smithson and wife and the editor of the Enterprise expect to climb Mount Hood on the 18th, leaving this place on Saturday.

Mrs. Decker, aged 90, died Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Tilton, who resides three miles north of Husum. The funeral was held on Tuesday, the body being interred in the Odd Fellows cemetery, of this place. Mrs. Decker came to this county with her daughter about nine years ago and made friends with every one with whom she became acquainted.

M. E. Church Services.

Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Themes: Morning, "The Glory of the Gospel;" evening, "What Luck I Yet." Epworth League at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend these services. Strangers will be made welcome.

Misses Lewis and Champagne, who have been visiting friends left for their homes in Fargo, N. D. last Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Benton are entertaining friends from Peoria, Ill., this week.