

GOOD NEWS FOR THE LADIES

The New Robespierre Collars Are Here

We have just received by express a beautiful assortment of the new ROBESPIERRE COLLARS, Ratine Sets, new shapes in Lace Collars and made-up Lace Yokes, Princess Pats, Collar and Cuff Sets, new Wind-sors and Four-in-Hands.

Now Ready for Your Inspection

$-SHOE SALE-$

Hundreds of Pairs of Shoes at $1.00 a Pair

For Men, Women and Children--all sizes

In our final round-up of our Clearance Sale we have put all of our broken lines of Men's and Women's Low Shoes, values up to $4.00, and Children's Shoes and Low Cuts, all sizes,

And They All Go at $1.00 the Pair

SEE WINDOW

BRAGG MERCANTILE COMPANY

AUCTION SALE

OF

ARTHUR CLARKE'S HOOD RIVER JEWELRY STOCK

Will continue every afternoon and evening of his entire stock, amounting to

$10,000 WORTH

Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry, Cut Glass, Silverware, Clocks, Mesh Bags and Umbrellas

Everything must go to satisfy his creditors--NO LIMIT or RESERVE. An opportunity of a lifetime to buy goods AT YOUR OWN PRICE

Last Day of Auction Sale, Saturday, August 17th

Three Grand Presents Will Be Given Away Saturday Night

A. CRANWELL & CO., Auctioneers

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION

Miss Helen Teal is visiting Portland relatives.

Frank P. Lucas was a Portland visitor last week.

Buggy whips at Holman's at less than cost.

J. E. Dickenson was a Portland visitor last week.

L. R. Metelf, of Portland spent the week end here.

$2000, $3000 and $5000 to loan on improved ranches. G. Y. Edwards & Co. A Dream of Fairyland Friday August 16, 8 o'clock.

J. W. Pifer spent Tuesday in Portland on business.

If you want shoes that don't go wrong go to Johnson's.

Miss Irene Erchart left Friday for a visit in Portland.

Chas. Hall was a business visitor in Portland Tuesday.

Now is the time to buy cheap slab wood. A. C. Lofts, phone 310-X.

Writing tablets at cost, from 2 to 7 cents.—Holman's.

A. M. Jeffers, of Portland, was here on business Tuesday.

Clover, timothy and oat seed for sale—KELLY BROS.

Dr. and Mrs. P. H. May were Portland visitors Sunday.

Attend Arthur Clarke's jewelry sale, everything at auction.

Plenty of good roses for cemetery use at the Oakdale Greenhouse.

T. A. Decker spent the week end with Portland friends.

Go to Holman's on the Heights for bargains in chinaware.

Chicken dinner 50 cents at the Hotel Oregon from 11:30 to 2 o'clock Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Cople were week end visitors in Portland.

Albert Sutton left for Portland Tuesday morning on business.

The Hood River Apple Vinegar Co., is receiving cider and vinegar apples, consisting of early varieties and windfalls of later varieties. a5f

3, 5, 7, 8, 10 and 14 cent counters at Holman's on the Heights.

Rollie W. Watson, of Tillamook, was here Sunday with friends.

For Sale—One Schaefer piano almost new, finished in dark oak. One Jersey cow, will be fresh about November 1. J. M. Wright, phone 251-L.

J. G. Jarvis is at Washougal, looking after his ranching interests.

John W. Weaver spent a part of last week in Redmond on business.

There are some very desirable office rooms for rent in the Heilbronner Building at from $10 to $15 a month.

W. N. Winter left Tuesday afternoon on a business trip to Portland.

Clarence F. Gilbert was a business visitor in Portland last Friday.

480-acre Wheat Ranch—in the Big Bend Country, Washington, to exchange for Hood River property. L. H. Huggins.

Dr. M. H. Sharp has moved into his new home on Columbia street.

Mike Carrigg, of Portland, spent last Friday here visiting friends.

EXCHANGE Eastern Oregon stock ranch for something in Hood River. G. Y. EDWARDS & CO.

Mr. P. S. Davidson, Sr., has returned from a visit in Portland.

Dr. M. E. Weich left Tuesday for a trip through Southern California.

We are going to move and have our household goods to sell. Now if you are looking for some real bargains call on us. J. M. Wright, phone 251-L. if Hood River library benefit Friday night, August 16, Heilbronner hall.

Frank Chandler was a business visitor in Portland the first of the week.

The Hood River Apple Vinegar Co., is receiving cider and vinegar apples, consisting of early varieties and windfalls of later varieties. a5f

R. E. Harbison, of Hillsboro, was a business visitor in the city last week.

Judge A. J. Derby spent Tuesday in Portland attending to professional duties.

Now is the time to buy cheap slab wood. A. C. Lofts, phone 310-X.

Miss Abbie J. Mills and Miss Ida Reid have been at Green Point on an outing.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Miller, of Portland, spent the week end at the Fenwick ranch.

LIME and SPRAY—KELLY BROS. Phone 227-M.

Get jewelry, cut glass etc., at your own price, Clarke's auction sale on Oak street.

Lost—A black, yellow and white spotted kitten. Reward for return to 703 Oak street.

Two beautiful building lots for sale, corner Tenth and Park Streets. Bargain if taken at once.

Reed & Henderson, Incp.

W. L. Nichols returned from Twin Falls, Ida., where he had been attending to business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wilson and little daughter left Friday for a visit with Portland friends.

$2000, $3000 and $5000 to loan on improved ranches. G. Y. Edwards & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Perigo had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. F. A. McKinley, of Portland.

Maynard Quackenbush has returned to Portland after visiting the Fenwick ranch a few weeks.

If your shoes have gone wrong take 'em to Johnson's.

The Angels' Warning duet, by two Hood River angels (?) Friday evening. Be sure you hear it.

Mrs. E. R. Crump and daughter, Lena, and Mrs. W. H. Corey spent the week end in Portland.

Now is the time to buy cheap slab wood. A. C. Lofts, phone 310-X.

Mrs. Eugene Kuhne, of White Salmon, who has been ill at the Cottage hospital, is recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Anderson spent the week end in Cascade Locks with Mr. Anderson's parents.

Go to Holman's for groceries on a 10 per cent basis.

H. J. Hibbard, of Dalles, a former resident of this city, was here the first of the week on business.

2 Ralph Baldwin and Miss Fees, of Portland, were here over the week end guests of Joe C. Copeland.

Money to Loan—In amounts $500 to $1,500 on first class real estate security. Will also buy mortgages in like amounts. Reed & Henderson, Inc.

You will not regret seeing those tiny woodland sprites dance in a Dream of Fairyland, August 16, Heilbronner hall.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Yates are spending the month of August in their cottage at Cannon Beach.

Charles T. Early will again participate as one of the officials at the Astoria Regatta, August 27-29.

Post cards at Holman's.

Be sure and see A Dream of Fairyland Friday, August 16 at 8 o'clock and hear Hood River children sing.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Arnold have been at Winlock, Wash., where they visited Mrs. Arnold's parents.

The services of the Unitarian church will be discontinued until Sunday September 1.

Miss Mary Young, of Post Falls, Idaho, is here visiting the family of her brother, Rev. W. B. Young.

Low cut prices on all musical merchandise during August at Soule's Piano House, Bell Building. Phone 114-L.

The Hood River Apple Vinegar Co., is receiving cider and vinegar apples, consisting of early varieties and windfalls of later varieties. a5f

Mrs. S. E. King, who has been here visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred T. Lisco, returned to her home in Portland Friday.

R. B. Bennett, who has been spending the past month with relatives in Utica, N. Y., returned home last week.

Get your choice Victoria rhubarb for canning from S. G. Oxborrow, end of Belmont road. Tel. 325-L. a5f

Wallace Wood, who has been here visiting his sister, Mrs. O. B. Nye, returned Tuesday to Seattle, where he is located.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Heliwell and Mr. and Mrs. Homer G. Day, of White Salmon, motored through the valley Saturday.

Two beautiful building lots for sale, corner Tenth and Park Streets. Bargain if taken at once.

Reed & Henderson, Incp.

Mrs. F. L. Gunning and Miss H. Woods, of The Dalles, spent last Thursday here at the R. H. Kemp home in Odell.

Junior Pallet, of Sutherlin, who has been here visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Forden, returned home last week.

Chicken dinner 50 cents at the Hotel Oregon from 11:30 to 2 o'clock Saturday.

Mrs. E. E. Sanderson, of Tacoma, Wash., arrived Friday for a visit with her sisters, Mrs. F. A. Bishop and Mrs. Ploy Campbell.

Joe H. McCrea, who has been suffering from an obstreperous wisdom tooth, spent Tuesday in Portland, where the tooth was extracted.

I have a client who desires to sell or 3700 shares of stock in a local manufacturing plant. What have you to offer? S. W. Stark, Phone 308-M. j2Mf

Rev. W. A. Sunday will preach at the Union church at 11 a. m. Sunday July 18. This is Mr. Sunday's last address in Odell this summer.

Mrs. C. R. Griesen, who has been here for the past three weeks with her little daughter visiting friends, returned to her home in Portland Friday.

Our home on Pine street is for sale at a great sacrifice. A nice modern home, not over 5 blocks from any city school, 3 blocks from high school. Streets graded, sidewalk and curbs down, sewer in and connected. If you are coming to town, it will pay you to look this up. J. M. Wright, phone 251-L.

Shoes made or repaired at Johnson's.

The Hood River Woman's club was entertained last Thursday by the Four Leaf Clover club, of Frankton, at Noble's grove west of the city.

John Applin, who was formerly interested in the flour mill business here but who is now located in Carson, Wash., was here on business last week.

Don't fail to see the picturesque groupings of the good and evil fairies in A Dream of Fairyland Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the Heilbronner hall.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jackson on State street. The meeting will be called at 3 p. m.

Geo. H. Lynn and Geo. Howe returned Tuesday from Astoria, where they traveled last week by canoe. They declare they enjoyed the outing very much.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McCoy have returned from Corvallis, where Mr. McCoy did work in the summer course. He will resume his work at the Pine Grove school.

George Frye has returned to his home in the Upper Valley after suffering for a week at the Cottage hospital for injuries received when he stuck a nail in his foot.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Reed have left for Minneapolis, their old home, to spend a short time visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Reed will attend to business while there.

Within the next few weeks just preceding the dedication services of the church, the members of the Riverside Congregational church are planning to give an organ recital.

Miss Marie Mohr, assisted by Mrs. A. L. Mohr and Miss Gledorf, was the hostess at her home Saturday afternoon to Miss Minnie Paasch, one of the week's popular brides.

You will enjoy reading the books in the new literary move if you help along the cause, by going to "A Dream of Fairyland," Friday night, August 16. You will get your money's worth.

Forget your troubles and go to see A Dream of Fairyland Friday evening, August 16. See those sure enough fairies and the battle of Right against Wrong. Heilbronner's hall, August 16.

A. P. Bateham, of Mosier, president of the State Horticultural society, has appointed A. I. Mason a delegate to the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress to be held in Salt Lake, August 2-30.

T. McCabe, the laborer from the Stone & Webster camp on the Little White Salmon, who was brought to this city suffering from small pox, has been dismissed and has returned to his home in Portland.

Mrs. E. P. Pooley and son, Richard, are in Portland visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hoge. Mr. and Mrs. Hoge and daughter, Miss Jane Hoge, will leave soon for Japan, where they will spend the fall.

A. T. Strahorn, who has just returned from the Willamette valley, will establish an office here and compile the data that he and his assistants have secured for the soil surveys of this and the White Salmon valleys.

Miss Edith Tozier-Weathered, a magazine story writer, arrived the first of the week to visit her ranch and spend a short outing in the charming haunts of the valley. While here she will secure material for some of her writings.

Merchant's Sign Markers at this office

Earl Tate, a nine-year-old lad from Portland, who was here last week on a picnic outing, fell from the Belmont flume, breaking both arms. He was taken to Oak Grove to the home of friends and later left for his home in Portland.

Rev. J. G. Tate, who returned from White Salmon Monday morning, announces that the services of the Congregational church there will be held at the home of Mrs. L. G. Pyatt Sunday, Mrs. Pyatt has been bedridden for 15 years.

Take your outing Sunday in the Upper Valley and attend the Hood River Heights-Parkdale baseball game. It will be a warm contest. Game will be played at the Parkdale diamond. The Mount Hood Railroad Co. will make a special rate of $1.20 for the round trip.

Virgil Absten, Ed Wahl and Guy Water, the three young men who rode horseback from here to Cedar Springs, Calif., last spring, have returned to Condon, where they have been engaged in the grain and hay harvest. They will return to their homes in the late fall.

Residents in the vicinity of Eagle Cap peak between Baker and Wallawa declare that the mountain is higher than Mount Hood, which is generally conceded to be the highest in the state. Measurements were taken in the near future by C. B. Aitchison, state railroad commissioner.

Miss McEhaney, of Pittsburg, Pa., has been here for the past month, the guest of Mrs. E. D. Kanaga, has returned to the east. She was accompanied as far as Yellowstone Park by Mrs. Kanaga, who will later return from a tour of the scenic region there and visit friends in Boise.

L. J. Canfield, formerly ticket agent at the local O.-W. R. & N. passenger station, has returned to the city and is now in the freight office, having taken the place of Paul Treiber, who has been transferred to The Dalles office. Al Hauffer has resumed his position as signalman here with the O.-W. R. & N.

Father Pius, who has had charge of the Franciscan church here for the past several years, left Tuesday for Portland, where he will assume charge of the St. Anthony church. His place in the local parish will be filled by Father Victor, who comes from the St. Elizabeth church in Oakland, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jost, who were married here on the evening of Tuesday, July 30, by Rev. J. B. Parsons, of the United Brethren church, have gone to Pendleton to make their home. Mr. Jost was a member of this year's base ball team of the Lower City. Mrs. Jost was formerly Miss Ella McKahan.

Gerd Eilers, Jr., of the Eilers Music House of Portland, was here Tuesday on a business visit. While here Mr. Eilers installed a Steger baby grand instrument at the Gem Theatre. It is probable that the musical concern will establish an agency to come in closer touch with the valley patronage in the near future.

C. F. Sumner, while painting a water tank at the Park street school Monday, experienced the peculiar sensation of near asphyxiation from the fumes of the tank paint used in the work. "I felt myself reeling as though going into a sleep produced by ether or some similar anesthetic, when I thought I had best hurry from the tank," he says. "I had barely strength enough to leave my work and seek the open air."

Get a 75c whip free. Ask McDonald about it.

Mrs. Walter S. Montgomery, who has been spending the summer here with her son and daughter, James E. Montgomery and Miss Mary Montgomery, accompanied by her two daughters, Misses Ruth and Martha, left Tuesday morning on the return journey to her home in Indiana. They were accompanied by James E. Montgomery to Vancouver, B. C., the return being made over the Canadian Pacific line through Canada. Miss Ruth Allerdee, of Indianapolis, who had been spending several weeks with the Montgomerys but who left Sunday for a short visit in Salem, joined them in Portland and returned east with them.

Christian Science Services.

Christian Science Services will be held in the Commercial Club rooms at 11 a. m. Sunday. Subject, "Soul."

Sunday School at the same hour in room 6, Davidson building.

Wednesday evening testimonial meetings are held in room 6, Davidson building, at 8 p. m.

The reading room is open daily from 2 to 6 p. m., room 6, Davidson building.

See Supplies.

Everything in the Bee Line. W. W. Dakin. 1235 7th St. Phone 107X. a4f

We Clean and Press Clothes

By keeping your suit cleaned and pressed you add much to your personal appearance.

Spaulding's Tailor Shop

Basement Brosius Bldg., Phone 13X

Buy - Where - Prices - Are - Best

Beds, Mattresses, Tables and Chairs. Indeed all articles of Furniture, both new and second-hand

I'll buy your old furniture. My motto is: small profits and quick sales

O. L. HENDERSON

1215 Twelfth St. The Heights Phone 147-X

Show 'Em Where You Live

An Ideal Souvenir of Hood River Valley

A Photograph 40 Inches Long

of Hood River Valley, Showing Both Mt. HOOD AND Mt. ADAMS

Also Your Orchard and Home

SHOW YOUR FRIENDS

The Finest Valley in the World EVERYBODY SAYS They Are the Best Pictures Yet

TEN THOUSAND ACRES OF GROWING APPLE ORCHARDS

75c and $1.00

Slocum's Book & Art Store