W. J. Baker & Co.Dealers in*REAL ESTATE*Fruit and Farm*Lands*Resident Agents For*Phoenix Assurance Co.*OF LONDON*Local Horses for City Fire Department

As every one knows it takes a perfect horse to pass the tests made by a big city fire department. J. W. Mc-Donald recently took a pair of big greys belonging to the Bonoro Orchard and Co. to Portland, where they were taken on trial by the fire department of that city. The big animals, which were purchased in eastern Oregon by C. R. Bone, have been used in land clearing and orchard cultivation at Bonoro and Central Vale. They were in the pink of condition, and Mr. Bone received a letter last week saying the horses had been accepted and that they were fair to become part of the animals of the fire teams. The orchard company has a team of blue ribbon bays.

Ross Crane Pleases Audience

Unquestionably the best number so far given on the U. B. Lyceum course was that of Ross Crane, given last Thursday evening. Mr. Crane, who is an artist in his particular line of entertainment, had his audience well amused for nearly two hours. His drawings, which were very good, were accompanied by a steady flow of wittisms and terse statements. His clay modeling was done in a manner which left no cause for criticism, and his musical numbers were mirth provoking. Altogether it was an evening well spent, and the patrons will look forward with anticipation to the next number, which comes early in January.

Slocum Exhibits at Portland

One of the handsome exhibits at Portland this week in conjunction with the Country Store of the Commercial club, wherein is displayed the agricultural products of the valley, is the photographic panorama views sent down by the Slocum Book and Art store.

The book and art store company have just completed two more panorama views of the orchard districts, one of them from Summit looking over the Odell district toward Oak Grove, and the other taken from an eminence back of Odell.

Cooper Morris Paroled

W. Cooper Morris, convicted and sent to the state penitentiary for bank robbing in Portland, has been paroled by Governor Oswald West on recommendation of the prison board. Morris, who if his behavior is good during the parole it is believed will shortly be paroled, has been working on the Hood River-Portland highway at Camp Benson.

School and Home Association

The next meeting of the School and Home Association will be held Friday evening at the high school building at 7:45 o'clock. Dr. Luther Dyott, of Portland, will give a address on "A New View of Boy Life." All patrons of the schools are urged to be present.
The annual fee of 25 cents is now due.

the Royal Arch degree, Hood River

Nov. 15, and conferred the degree on made a deep and lasting impression on the candidates who expressed themselves as greatly pleased.

By invitation of the Hood River chapter Washington Chapter, No. 18, of Portland arrived at 6:20 p. m., 33 strong. They were met at the depot by a delegation of the Hood River companions and escorted to the banquet room of the Masonic hall, where all partook of an excellent chicken dinner, after which they repaired to the lodge room, where visitors conferred the Royal Arch degree on E. A. Franz, Jay P. Lucas and Ernest C. Smith.

The following officers officiated: Roy also P. H. P. Peter Hume, of Linn Chapter, and S. F. Straecker, of Chicago.

After the ceremonies of initiation Companion E. G. Jones, acting King, delivered the Royal Arch lecture in a masterful and deeply impressive manner, showing that he possessed marked ability as a speaker and was a careful student of higher Masonry. Each officer performed the work assigned to him so thoroughly that it was indeed a most impressive service in every particular, filled with valuable instruction and creating a worthy desire for the higher and nobler things of life. Washington Chapter, by reason of the high standard of its members and quality of its work is a credit to the fraternity and has the honor of such lasting impressions on the initiates that some of them declare that this degree is still being constantly brought to their minds and cannot easily be forgotten.

Indeed, the visit of Washington Chapter No. 18 is one of the happy events of fraternal intercourse that will ever be cherished by the members of Hood River Chapter, No. 27.
