Francis I. Irwin, a well known and well liked young orchardist of the Oak Grove district, walking into the automobile gate of the Columbia baseball park on the Heights last Thursday afternoon committed suicide by shooting himself through the head with a 22 caliber revolver. The young man, who has been in ill health for some months, came into the city with a neighbor Thursday morning. He has been despondent for several weeks and on the Saturday before the fatal shot had attempted to end his life by taking laudanum and strychnine.

The county paid over to the state last year the sum of $35,430. The amount to be raised this year only reaches $12,760.50.

HIGH SCHOOL WINS FROM O. A. C.

A lively game of basket ball was played at the armory last Friday night when the high school won from O. A. C. with a score of 23 to 19. The O. A. C. team was composed of students living in the valley and Portland, who were picked for the occasion.

At the end of the first half the score was 12 to 11 in favor of the high school. The game was a little rough, but close all through the game. Many good individual plays were made by all but Blagg did exceptionally good work, especially in throwing baskets from the foul line.

Much enthusiasm was displayed at the root's section. The line up was as follows:

Webb, Wilson center	Swartout
Cardine forward	Thornes
Coe guard	Noble
Nickelsen,
Nunemaker guard	Johnson

MANY HEAR COLLEGE GLEE CLUB MEN

The Monroe opera house was crowded Saturday evening, when the University of Oregon Glee club made its annual appearance here. The songs and stunts of the college club are far above the average of amateurs and the selections rendered by the club en masse as well as the skits and solos of companies and individual members pleased the large audience. A number of jokes with local situations playing the principal part were given.

Many O. A. C. students home for the holiday vacation were present for the concert and at times when the glee club stunts men joshed the students of the Agricultural College the air was slightly electrified.

One of the most enjoyable of the numbers was that of the singing of Miss Florence Avery.

Lawrence Outlines Work

Prof. W. H. Lawrence, county plant pathologist, met with the county court last week and outlined the program for his year's work. Prof. Lawrence will devote a great deal of his time in experimenting with new sprays. The orchardist is demanding cheaper sprays and it is the hopes of the expert to secure something of this kind. He will also continue the experiments with cover crops and the effects of different methods of irrigation. The pests that worry orchardists are for the greater part under control. Efforts will be made to more safely combat them.

P. P. & L. CO. MAKES FURTHER STATEMENT

The Pacific Power & Light Co. has made a further announcement of construction work on the proposed dam across the Hood river near the city. Instead of letting the contract the company proposes to do the work under supervision of its own engineers and officials, who also state that the company has signed a contract to furnish the electrical energy for pumps for an irrigation system to be installed near Granddallies.

It is proposed to stretch a cable across the Columbia at The Dalles and convey the power from Oregon points to those in Washington, where the company operates.

Coming under the auspices of the Spinlet club, a musical organization of the neighboring city, Maud Powell, the noted violinist, will appear in The Dalles at the Vogt theater on the evening of Friday, Jan. 17. Maud Powell is one of the most noted world artists and the foremost American violinist. She has appeared in all parts of the globe and because of her efforts to reach the hearts of her hearers rather than to dazzle them with technical proficiencies, she has won a deep appreciation from all audiences.

Many local people have journeyed to Portland to hear the noted instrumentalist, and a number will visit The Dalles for her concert in that city.

O-W. CO. HAS FILED NO NOTICE OF APPEAL

It is thought by local officials that the announcement that the O-W. R. & N. Co. has appealed from the decision of Judge W. L. Bradshaw in dissolving the temporary restraining order of the railway company, preventing the county from laying out a road around Shell Rock mountain is erroneous. Judge Geo. R. Caster says: "If the railroad company has made any appeal the county officials have never received any notice of the same. I think the report that the case has been appealed is a mistake."

Double Header at Odell

The H. R. H. S. team lost at Odell Tuesday night by a score of 6 to 3. The H. R. H. S. second team won their game from the Odell team by a close score of 18 to 16. The Hood River team were greatly handicapped in the games, as they were played in the Union gymnasium at Odell, where the beams were much in the way. The second team won their game only by hard fighting, and as their first team were not evenly matched H. R. H. S. could not put the necessary strength in to win its game. At the end of the first half the score stood 6 to 6. Return games will be played soon on the Hood River floor.

Stevenson Here Friday

Stevenson comes here Friday night to appear in what should be the best game of basket ball seen on the local floor this season. Stevenson has greatly strengthened her team since the last game which Hood River won, while Hood River is greatly helped by the return of Noble and Laflerty, two of the former stars. New fire escapes have been erected at the old armory and Union gymnasium at Odell, where the games on that account can now do so and feel secure. This will be the last game of the Hood River team at home for awhile, as they will be playing out of town.
