ODELL

Mrs. E. E. Gould left early last week for a two weeks' visit with friends in Portland.

Mrs. Harvey Kemp left Wednesday last week for a visit with friends at Mosier and The Dalles.

A very interesting game of basketball was played in Hood River last Friday night, when the Odell Athletic Association team played H. R. H. S. first team, resulting in a score of 26 to 20 in favor of Odell. O. A. A. second team played H. R. H. S. second team, the score being 19 to 13 in favor of Hood River. This was a good team game throughout. The lineup follows: O. A. A. first team: W. Sheppard, Davis, forwards; C. Sheppard, center; Lewis Lafferty, guards. H. R. H. S. first team: Noble, Swartout, forwards; Blagg, center; Johnson, McGuire, guards. O. A. A. second team: Mellroy, Eusminger, forwards; Krohn, center; Hale, Trusty, guards. We did not get the lineup of H. R. H. S. second team.

Odell library is proving a very gratifying success. A dinner was served the day of the election for proposed bonded district and $12 was added to the library fund as a result. This amount was applied on the purchase of one dozen library chairs. Only a very short time was taken to plan for this dinner and those who were not asked to contribute at this time will be given an opportunity at some future time when refreshments are needed served. Over one-half the books are out, and this is as the management desires. Fifty-three books were out last Friday. Remember, library days are Tuesday and Friday each week, one hour afternoon and evening. Remember also this library is absolutely free to everyone in the community.

E. G. Hagey came home Saturday evening, returning Monday to the big dam at Underwood, Wash., where he is employed teaming.

L. A. E. Clark returned Saturday evening from Stanfield, Ore. He intended remaining there another two weeks, but snow and bad weather prevented continuing pruing.

The quarterly meeting of Pine Grove church will be held Saturday, February 1, in the Methodist church at Odell. The hour has not been decided upon. On Sunday morning at eleven o'clock Dist. Supt. H. O. Perry will preach. Rev. Perry is a splendid speaker and every one who can should be present on Sunday morning, February 2, and hear him.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira G. Boyce and daughters, Ruth and Bertha, of John Day, are here for a visit with Mr. Boyce's sister, Mrs. P. L. Smith and brother, J. E. Boyce, of Barrett. Mr. Boyce has been in the mercantile business eight years and is taking a vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Boyce and daughters leave soon for Portland, from which city they will go via the southern route, and they expect to arrive in Washington, D. C., where they will attend the inauguration ceremonies at the time Woodrow Wilson becomes president of the United States.

Sunday school 10 a. m.; Epworth League 6:30 p. m.; service by pastor, 7:30 p. m., at the Methodist church next Sunday. Sunday school 10:30 a. m., Christian Endeavor 7 p. m., at the Union church next Sunday.

"The melancholy days have come, The saddest of the year," When snow does fall, and sometimes rain, And one carrier does not appear.

Along the river road, Through Odell way and Willow Flat, Along the course he should pursue, The patrons all stand pat. They know his path is not rosy, But better yet, the snow so white, Makes sleighing that with one and all is cause for pure delight.

Sometimes they go to Hood River And ask for Odell's mail. They find the carrier's gone his way And they follow on his trail. But soon or late, 'tis all the same; They reach their homes to find He's never seen Odell that day. Nor had their wish in mind.

There is a call that some will heed While others fail to hear And Duty, who should guide us all, Would make the way all clear. We'd solve these puzzling problems That yearly we must meet, If every one along the route His neighbor thus would greet:

"Now let us first be very sure That we have done our part; Have shoveled snow from our mail box And are fair and just at heart." And if the carrier would treat His patrons in the way He would that they might treat him, And bring the mail each day, Should he fail to make each box each day.

Then the patrons' duty is plain. A notice to the postmaster Is the way we should complain. Now as regards this matter Let us not be given to despair. There is a way we'll find it: Service for all or none. 'Tis the only way that's fair.

CENTRAL VALE

Mr. Hansen and daughter, Gertrude, went to Hood River Thursday to meet Mrs. Hansen, who returned that day from The Dalles, where she had been visiting friends.

The voters of the neighborhood went to Middle Valley Tuesday to attend the ditch meeting.

Miss Mary Sheppard went to Hood River to attend the basket ball game Friday. She returned Saturday. Although more could not attend the game on account of the inclement weather, all were glad to hear of the victory of the Odell team, especially as two of its members were from Central Vale.

Robert Scarlett with his fine bobs gave great pleasure to a party of young folks, who gathered on the schoolhouse hill Thursday night and enjoyed the coasting.

Archie Moss was a Hood River caller Friday.

Walter Niehans returned Saturday from Hood River, where he has been enjoying himself for some time.

Ray Creson is in Hood River, where he is detained on business.

UNDERWOOD.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lowden are spending the week in White Salmon.

Miss Katherine Hewitt spent a few days with Mr. R. J. Rhodes last week.

Rolland Cash was in Stevenson Thursday to take the January examinations.

Mrs. H. S. Adams returned Friday night from an extended visit with her relatives at Cascade Locks.

Miss Ruth Vinton made a business trip to Hood River Saturday.

The county commissioners have the plans completed for a new high water dock 650 feet long, which will be a much needed improvement to shipping facilities at this point.

The business in the E. A. Franz store has so much increased that it is necessary to employ extra help.

The North Bank railroad is experiencing some trouble on account of snow and washouts, the trains not being able to run on scheduled time.

The condition of Allie Adams, who suffered a severe stroke of paralysis, is much improved.

The Hood River-White Salmon ferry has suspended operations on account of the ice in the Columbia river.

MOSIER.

Ralph Duval returned Monday evening from Independence. He will pack his household goods and return to the valley Saturday afternoon.

At the telephone meeting held Tuesday afternoon the following gentlemen were chosen to conduct the affairs through this year: Dr. Robinson, C. J. Littlepage, Geo. Chamberlain, W. E. Chow and E. H. Hart.
