ODELL

If we were not hearing of weather conditions outside of Hood River valley we might be justified in saying that we have had during March quite unpleasant weather but as it is we, almost ashamed to complain. Today, March 31, the month is going out "like a lamb" and while there are likely to be days that are not the brightest we feel that spring is here and we expect sunshine and warmth and busy days in orchard, field and garden.

His five children were with him at the time of his death. Mr. Ehrck's cousin, Chas. Ehrck, of La Mar, Iowa, and Miss Anna Mammen, also of La Mar, Iowa, were also at his bedside. Mrs. J. E. Those who were residents of Odell eight, ten or twelve years ago knew Mrs. Crockett well and they will agree with the writer that to few are given the happy combination of qualities that form a personality that can win and hold friends as does she. Through the many sorrows that have been hers these friends here have been sorry for her and now they will wish her happiness in generous measure. Through the Glacier we take pleasure in extending to Mr. and Mrs. Dean the congratulations of Odell and vicinity who were so fortunate as to have become acquainted with the bride.
