ELKS HONOR THEIR DEPARTED BROTHER

Despite the rain storm that prevailed unday about fifty members of the B. P. O. E. formed a funeral cortege here and proceeded in automobiles to Pine Grove to pay the last tribute to William Ehrck, a pioneer of the valley who recently retired from active orchard work and was residing in Portland with his daughters. Mr. Ehrck was a member of The Dalles Lodge 303, and a large number of the members of the neighboring city were here for the fun-eral services. Mr. Ehrck died in Port-land last Friday shortly before noon. He had been in poor health for more than a year and had been confined to a hospital in Portland. The funeral services were conducted at the Pine Grove church, after which interment followed at the Pine Grove Mr. Ehrck left surviving five child-

Macnamars, of Glendive, Mont., will take charge of St. Mark's Mont., will take charge of St. Mark's Episcopal church here to succeed Rev. E. T. Simpson, who resigned the first of the year. Mr. Macnamara is expected the middle of this month. "I believe that I have just the man for the place," the bishop wired. Yesterday afternoon he met the ladies of the church and in the evening the men. He spoke highly of the new rector, whose work in Glendive has been very successful.

this time. William Ehrck was one of the pio neers of Hood River valley and he with his family carved from the forest a competence. In the earlier days years he worked at his trade as plasterer and mason, as well as at clearing the land from which he would later harvest fruit and other products, and he shared n the privations of the earlier settlers in this valley that is now a valley of beautiful homes. He was ever honest and industrious and was respected by those who knew him.

At the time of his death he was a stockholder in the First National bank of Hood River and in the Home Telephone Co. He was interested in the National Apple Co. and in the Gibral-tar rock quarry. His funeral was held Sunday, March 30, from the Pine Grove Ehrek's in April last year, and Mr. Ehrek's in March of this year. The Elks, of which order Mr. Ehrek was a member, attended the funeral in a body and had a part in the service.

There were many old friends as well as later ones who came, thus giving evi-dence of their esteem. Rev. Troy Sheiley and M. D. Odell officiated and Mr. and Mrs. Guy F. Smith sang tenderly and with feeliling. There were many beautiful floral pieces in white and colors, carrying with them messages of love from relatives, friends and brother Elks.
