

Three Pair for One Dollar NEXT SATURDAY

Over One Hundred Dozen Fancy Hosiery for Ladies Imported by Marshall, Field & Co.

Values up to $1.00 per pair, all full fashioned, 3 pair $1.00
All sizes, your choice, all colors 3 pair - - - $1.00

Only Three Pair Sold to Each Person.

New Line of Boy's
Shirts and Blouses

FRANK A. CRAM

100 Cents'

Worth

The Turtle Snappy

A complete showing, $5.00

of shoe satisfaction for every dollar invested in

The Florsheim SHOE

Make the Test with your next pair

We can please you as we have every shape and style known to shoedom.

Priced $4.00 to $6.00

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION

Butter Wrappers printed at this office by your coal of Taft Transfer Co.

Shoes made or repaired at Johnson's. E. E. Stanton has been in Spokane on business.

W. N. Winter has been in Portland on business.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ward, Sunday, May 11, a son.

Can deliver coal or wood promptly. Taft Transfer Co.

If you want shoes that don't go wrong go to Johnson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tate were Portland visitors the first of the week.

Get GUARANTEED Eastern Blue-stone at McDonald's.

Coal or wood delivered on short notice. Taft Transfer Co.

M. E. McCarty was in Portland Tuesday on business.

Order your Dressed Chicken for your Sunday dinner at McGuire Bros.

Line and Sulphur Spray—Place your order early. Kelly Bros.

E. E. Newby was a business visitor in Portland the first of the week.

If your shoes have gone wrong take them to Johnson's.

Mrs. W. E. Shay was in Portland the first of the week visiting friends.

Truman Butler was a business visitor in Portland Tuesday.

For prompt delivery of coal, call Taft Transfer Co.

Attorney John Baker was in Portland Tuesday on legal business.

Line and Sulphur Spray—Place your order early. Kelly Bros.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dunn was in The Dalles last week visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Peet, of Husum, were in the city last week shopping.

Room and board, $6.00 per week. 710 Cascade Avenue.

S. J. Frank was a business visitor in The Dalles last week.

Mrs. I. R. Acheson was in Portland over the week end visiting her mother.

A. J. McDonald, of Portland, was here last week to look over the valley.

Sidney Babson, of the Upper Valley, was in the city last week on business.

A. W. Peters, of Hood River, has been registered at the Portland hotel, Portland.

Chicken dinner 50 cents at the Hotel Oregon from 11:30 to 2 o'clock Sunday.

Miss Eula McCully returned last Friday from a visit with friends in The Dalles.

We have some good values in Camas Prairie hay lands. B. E. DUNCAN & CO.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McCollum, of Portland, were visitors in the valley last week.

We have some good values in Camas Prairie hay lands. B. E. DUNCAN & CO.

John S. Beall, a wealthy contractor of Portland, was a visitor in the valley last week.

Mrs. Rinehart Rorden, of The Dalles arrived last week for a visit with Hood River relatives.

Chicken dinner 50 cents at the Hotel Oregon from 11:30 to 2 o'clock Sunday.

L. H. Hoggins, formerly in business in this city, but who is now residing at Salem, was in town last week on business.

Start making money in hay and cows. Camas Prairie offers the opportunity. B. E. DUNCAN & CO.

Mrs. Oscar Burdick, of Chicago, has been here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kimball.

Eric H. Gordon, of Mount Hood, was a business visitor in the city the latter part of last week.

H. A. Harris, of London, has been in the valley, contemplating starting a chicken ranch here.

Mrs. H. G. Moe, of Dayton, Wash., is spending a couple of days with the family of A. D. Moe.

Dr. John Worcester, of Portland, was here over the week end looking after his ranch at Summit.

Mrs. Stanton Allen and sister, Miss Mary McLaren, were Portland visitors the first of the week.

Miss Ruth Cooper, of Underwood, was here last Friday evening to attend the St. Mark's dance.

R. E. Duncan was a visitor in Bonnevile Sunday, having gone there to inspect the fish hatcheries.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Stark left Saturday evening for a visit with Mr. Stark's brother in Spokane.

Mrs. Flora E. Hartley has leased her home on State street for the summer to Mr. and Mrs. A. Millard.

Mrs. A. J. Hixby and two children, of Seattle, is here visiting her mother and her brother, A. F. Adams.

J. B. Anderson, manager of the E. J. Young packing plant here, was in Portland on business Tuesday.

W. A. Dalzell, deputy state factory inspector, was in the city last week on business connected with his office.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Evans left Tuesday for Portland, where Mr. Evans will undergo treatment for an injured knee.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Sprague is recovering from a serious illness at the Cottage hospital.

Lost—A child's plain gold bracelet, and small gold heart. Please return to Glacier office.

James Wishart, of the Upper Valley, was in the Willamette valley last week where he purchased two registered Jersey cows.

C. L. Rogers, who is spending the summer in here, was here last week looking after Upper Valley real estate interests.

Before ordering your "Barbank" and "Vermont Gold Coin" Seed Potatoes, you had better call U. C. M. Ranch, Phone Odell-327.

The recent arrivals from Hood River registered at the Hotel Seward, Portland, have been Ed Waldrip, L. E. Ireland, G. C. Haworth.

R. S. Cohoon and family are spending the summer at Trout Lake, where Mr. Cohoon is working for the Mt. Adams Lumber Co.

Start making money in hay and cows. Camas Prairie offers the opportunity. B. E. DUNCAN & CO.

E. F. Pooley, of New York, accompanied by Thomas M. Hilliard, was here last week visiting his son, E. R. Pooley, and family.

Dr. Brosius has resumed his practice here, in his former offices. He may be reached night and day by telephone No. 1881.

H. H. Albert, who has been on the staff of the Oregon and who is recovering from a serious illness is now here in the country convalescing.

Homer G. Day, formerly in business in White Salmon, but who now resides in Portland, was a business visitor in the city over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall and Miss Jennie Hall will entertain tomorrow evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hall on State street, with a card party.

The choicest 75x100 in Hood River, corner 9th and Oak Streets, at a bargain if taken quick. Call W. J. Baker & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dunlap came up from Cascade Locks Sunday to see the valley in bloom.

A number of the members of the Christian Alliance have gathered at the church this week and have built an extension on the chapel.

Wanted—A girl or woman for cook and to do general household work. A permanent place for a good cook and competent person. Telephone 2563.

Frank Meyers, while skating last week at the armory rink, twisted the ligaments of one of his legs and has been forced to use crutches for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Baird, of Portland, where Mr. Baird is well known in real estate circles, spent the latter part of last week here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith.

Homer A. Rogers, who is now in the real estate business in Portland, is spending a few weeks at his Upper Valley ranch, preparing his orchard for the summer.

J. J. Tobin, an Oregon City hotel man, accompanied by Fred Schafer, also of that city, was here last week inspecting some real estate owned by him at Winawa.

Superintendent Bollons, of the O. W. R. & N. Co., was here last Friday in his private car making inspections in the local yards, where numerous improvements have recently been made.

Mrs. Anna K. Baker, who has been spending the winter in Portland, arrived the latter part of last week and left Sunday to join her son, Geo. W. Baker, on their ranch in the Upper Valley.

Al Whitehead, who is now a horny handed son of the soil at Chenoweth, Wash., was in town Saturday shopping. Mr. Whitehead declares that there is no life like that of a rancher on the Little White Salmon.

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian church will give an ice cream social at the church parlors Friday evening, May 16, ice cream with cake, 15 cents, with-out cake, 10 cents. All are welcome.

Mrs. M. E. Harwood, of Portland, was here last week visiting her son, B. E. Duncan. Mrs. Duncan has been in Portland the past two weeks with her mother, Mrs. L. H. Brown, who recently sustained painful injuries in a fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Somerville, of Portland, spent the week end in the valley, looking after the orchard property here. Mr. Somerville, who is with Olds, Wortman & King in Portland, has recently been suffering with stomach trouble.

Miss Leah Leiser, of Vancouver, Wash., is spending the week here the guest of Miss Leah Herberner. Miss Leiser arrived Friday afternoon and was present for the dance given at the Heilbronner hall Friday evening by the St. Mark's Guild.

M. Mathiesen, an attorney from Portland, was in the city over the week end, having come up to attend to legal business and to see the valley orchards in bloom. Mr. Mathiesen spent several months in Hood River when he first came to Oregon from Stanford University.

A picnic was enjoyed on the promontory just north of the O. W. R. & N. steel bridge last Thursday afternoon by the following party: Mrs. F. H. Button and Misses Madge Otis, Helen Howe, Virginia Johnson, Greta Gerdes, Susie Vaughan, Grace Stewart, Frances Baker, and Elsie McLucas.

Mrs. E. N. Armstrong, of Peoria, Ill., is here spending the summer with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Leonard K. Armstrong. Mr. Armstrong is in Portland, where he has a position with the express company. He spends the week ends here with his wife and mother.

M. M. Hill was a business visitor in Portland last week.

Joseph Henget was a business visitor in The Dalles last week.

A. H. Nickels, of Deo, was in town the first of the week on business.

Mrs. F. R. Howard is visiting friends in Vancouver, Wash., and Portland this week.

Mr. Hargreaves will preach at the Federated church at Odell next Sunday evening.

N. F. Mears, of Husum, was here the first of the week visiting Arthur McCreary.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Belineu have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Rood in the Upper Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Tobey, of Parkdale, were in the city shopping the first of the week.

Miss Emma Robinson, of Portland, has been here visiting her sister, Mrs. L. F. Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Brown, of Portland, were here looking over the valley the first of the week.

A. M. Kelly, of the Mount Hood district, was a business visitor in the city the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Davidson, of Portland, spent the week end here with Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Marshall.

Hood River roses are blooming. Mrs. H. F. Davidson has been picking flowers from her rose garden.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Calkins entertained Mrs. Grouse and Miss Davis, of Portland over the week end.

Strayed from home—Sage Terrier dog, very old. $2 reward for her recovery. W. E. King, Phone 553.

The congregation of Immanuel church, the Heights, are invited to join in the Baccalaureate service next Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. P. Heideberg, of Toledo, Ohio, has arrived to spend the summer with Dr. and Mrs. J. H. McVay, at their Central Vale ranch.

Mrs. Flora E. Hartley will attend the United Brethren conference at Tilamook in June. The first of the week a petition was circulated here asking that Rev. J. B. Parsons be returned to the local church. The petition was supported unanimously by the congregation and many other local residents.

Mrs. Thomas Wastie, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Clara Wastie, of San Jose, Calif., is here spending the summer with her daughter, Mrs. C. N. Ravlin, on her ranch at Oak Grove.

Mr. Ravlin, who is now in business in Portland, spends the week ends here with his family.

Mort Hodges, a young logger employed by the Stanley-Smith Lumber Co., at Green Point, sustained a badly bruised shoulder last Friday, when a falling limb struck him. E. S. Olinger drove to the camp Friday night and brought the young man to the Cottage hospital, where he received surgical attention.

W. D. Fackler, W. Snow and W. Batton, all of Minneapolis, were here last week to inspect the property of the Green Point Orchard Co., near Green Point. They declare that they are going to colonize a large tract there. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walstrom in the Middle Valley.

J. T. Linthurst, of Portland, has arrived here to succeed H. V. Raymond as day clerk at the Hotel Oregon. Mr. Raymond has left for San Diego, Cal., where he has accepted a position as general auditor of the Hotel Cecil, a large new hostelry in the southern California city.

Strawberry Growers—I will manage your packing house or take entire charge of crop in lower or upper valley. Handled 10 acres last year marketing 1500 crates. Address, S. Glacier.

E. H. Arens, who has been here for more than a year with his mother on their Middle Valley ranch, will leave Monday for New York.

Miss Edith Gill, who has been here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gill, has returned to New Mexico, where she is in the Red Cross service of the government.

C. Stanford of Portland, was here over the week end looking after his orchard interests. Miss Sanford, his daughter, has been visiting Miss Genevieve Butlerfield.

Grand Commander W. E. Grace, whose home is in Portland, will be here on the evening of Saturday, May 28, to visit the Hood River Commandery, Knights Templar.

Mrs. C. T. Roberts and children have been in Portland visiting Mrs. Roberts' mother, Mrs. R. B. Fisher. Mr. Roberts' mother, Mrs. E. Roberts, came here and was with him during the absence of his family.

C. R. Bone was in Portland Tuesday to visit his mother, Mrs. F. P. Bone, who will spend the summer in the Rose City. Mrs. Bone and her granddaughter, Miss Fickrell, will come here the latter part of the week.

J. W. Felker, of Portland, was here the first of the week with Charles L. Wheeler, who is in the real estate business in the Rose City. Mr. Wheeler and Mr. Felker spent Tuesday at Camas Prairie looking over the country there. The latter, who is heavily interested in Portland property, has been looking over local country with a view to investing.

The Tuesday evening club, composed of the business women of the city, met last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Dabney. Mrs. W. B. Young gave a number of enjoyable readings. Mr. Dabney gave a talk, telling the guests of the women of foreign lands. Delicious refreshments were served. Miss Reynolds and Miss Halvorsen were hostesses.

Services at the Christian church next Sunday at the usual hours. Sunday school 9:45, communion and preaching at 11. The subject for Sunday morning will be "The Greatest Tragedy That Ever Happened in Hood River," and in the evening "Infidelity vs. Christianity, or Why Morality Wants to Save." Everybody has a cordial invitation to these services.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. DeWitt left Sunday for Portland. Mrs. DeWitt remained there to be with her sister, Mrs. Marjorie Fouts, who is ill at Good Samaritan hospital, having recently undergone an operation. Mrs. W. J. Baker, who spent last week in Portland with her daughter, returned Sunday night.

G. A. Bollard, organizer of the Foresters, who returned to Portland Tuesday, says he has had good success while here in increasing the membership and the court here is growing rapidly. Officers of the lodge are: A. R. Bradley, chief ranger; A. G. Loftis, lecturer; J. F. McCreedy, sub chief ranger; H. O. Ferguson, financial secretary; J. Hoagland, treasurer; H. J. Frederiek, deputy grand chief ranger.

Mrs. Lena Hartzell Wallace, lecturer and singer, from Kansas City, will lecture at the Methodist church on Friday evening of this week, her subject being "The Four Foundation Pillars of the Nation." Mrs. Wallace is recommended by the press everywhere as being a most interesting and convincing speaker. It will surely be a privilege to Hood River people to hear this noted woman. She comes under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. A silver offering will be taken.

The Sunday services at the Unitarian church are as follows: At 11 a. m. Mr. Macdonald will begin a series of sermons on "Revelations and the Social Question." The first sermon will deal with sin as interpreted by the individualistic theory and by the Socialistic theory. At the evening service at 6:30 p. m. the theme will be "The Five Points of our Unitarian Faith." The special music includes a piano solo by Miss Alberta Staten; vocal duet, Margaret Morrison and Eida Jackson; instrumental trio, piano, Mrs. Huxley, violins, Dr. Sharp and Prof. Harmon. All are invited.

A SNAP—10 acres at $38 or 20 acres at $35; $8 to $10 per month; 1/2 mile to good school, mill; 3 miles to town. Dairy, hogs, snuff, fruit, truss, etc. Do well! Local market, good prices. (Owner) Tract 3/4 mile out. Box 55, Stevenson, Wn. m15

Dr. Ray Palmer, of Kansas City, formerly pastor of the Second Baptist church, of Portland, announces the engagement of his daughter, Violet Lee Palmer, sister of Mrs. Arthur Clarke of this city, to Harold Steele Pratt, of Cleveland, O. Mr. Pratt has been here for the past six months installing the Auto-Manual telephone system.

S. W. Howard, who for the past two years has been identified here with the mercantile establishment of F. A. Cram, accompanied by his family, has left for Grand Rapids, Wis., where he will engage in the mercantile business. Mr. and Mrs. Howard made many friends in Hood River who regretted to see them depart.

An enjoyable dance was given by the members of St. Mark's Guild at the Heilbronner hall last Friday evening, when a number of out of town guests were in attendance. The committee in charge of the party was composed of Mrs. W. G. Snow, Mrs. J. W. Crites and Mrs. A. P. Reed. Chandler's orchestra furnished the music for the event.

Opportunity at Underwood, gateway of White Salmon Valley; shipping facilities by rail and river; good roads, water power; thickly settled fruit district; big power plant close by. Business openings in corner town. Geo. Cooper, Underwood, Wash., or E. C. Hamilton, Underwood, Wash. m15

Association Ready for Business

The management and board of trustees of the Apple Growers' Association met Saturday and completed the formalities of leasing the properties of the Apple Growers' Union. It was shown that about 90 per cent of the valley's crop for next season has been signed up with the association for shipment, and the new concern is already taking steps to handle the strawberry crop of the district, which it is declared by experts, will be excellent this year.

Dance

A dance will be given at Pine Grove Grange Hall, Friday evening, May 16th. Music by Vogt Orchestra. Tickets one dollar.

For Butter Labels printed in accordance with Dairy and Food Laws, call at the Glacier office.

For nice embossed stationery call at the Glacier office.

Picture Frames

The FRAME is often half the PICTURE.
Why spoil the picture with a poor frame?

Bring it to us and it will be framed right

A lot of new Mouldings in all sizes and shades. OVAL and ROUND FRAMES.

Slocum's Book & Art Store

"The Place That Does the Framing"

Big Ben

A rattling good alarm to wake up with.

A rattling good time-piece to tell time by.

ARTHUR CLARKE
Jeweler and Optician
Opposite Butler Bank

Comfort and Attractiveness

These two elements are the essential features of our TAILORING.

We offer you a selection of materials equal to any two tailor-shops in Chicago.

Our styles are authoritative while our fabrics are of guaranteed quality and eye-pleasing, both in design, and color values.

We are selling to all our customers of past seasons, and they are bringing in their friends.

You are cordially invited to call in and look over our beautiful line of Spring and Summer Patterns and Fabrics.

My SUITS TO MEASURE, FIT
Guaranteed—$20, $25, $30 and $35

SPAULDING'S TAILOR SHOP

Cleaning and Pressing

Basement of Brosius Block Phone 1124

Camas Prairie Hay Lands

There is money in hay and cows, and this spring is the correct time to get into the business.

We have some good farms, equipped with buildings. The prices are right, and the terms will suit your pocket-book.

B. E. DUNCAN & CO.