Mrs. Edith Tozier Weathered and her husband, Albert Tozier, both well known in the state's journalistic circles, are camping near Deo. James Wishart has returned from the Willamette valley, where he has again visited for the purpose of securing cows for his Upper Valley herds. D. C. Eccles and N. O. Huey, of Ogden, Utah, were here last week inspecting the Oregon Lumber Co. interests. The Mission circle of the Baptist church will meet with D. B. Smith today at 2 o'clock. The lesson will be on home missions, by Mrs. Wm. Monroe. Miss Georgia Prather, who has been attending the University of Oregon at Eugene, has returned to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Prather. Great excitement was created at the intersection of Oak and Fourth streets yesterday when the steam roller of the Reliance Construction Co., which is doing the street work, turned on its side. No damage was done and the huge machine was soon righted. The Cutler Sizing Machine will be on demonstration next Saturday, June 21, at the Union warehouse of the Apple Growers' Association. Appointments for demonstrations at any later date during the summer may be made by telephone to Cutler Bros. Unfortunately for the local dealers, Howe & Ingalls, they failed to have their first demonstration on Saturday, when J. K. McGregor, of Mosier, came to the city looking for one of these machines. Mr. McGregor left for The Dalles hoping that he might find a Ford there. Mr. and Mrs. McGregor spent the first of the week in Portland at the rose carnival. Mrs. J. A. Epping is in Astoria this week visiting relatives and attending the commencement exercises of the Astoria high school, where her daughter, Miss Dorothy, is a member of the graduating class. Accompanied by Miss Dorothy and Miss Betty, the latter of whom is also in Astoria in school, Mrs. Epping will return home Saturday. Howard Bigger, a graduate of the University of South Dakota, who has been at O. A. C. at Corvallis for the past year, was here last week visiting his friend, C. C. Starring, of the local experimental station. Mr. Bigger returned to Corvallis for a camping outfit with the intention of coming back here and taking part in the strawberry harvest. J. Seclars, of the Great Northern demonstration farms in North Dakota, who has been at O. A. C., was also here visiting last week. Miss Hazel Holmes, of Underwood, Wash., is enjoying the pleasures incidental to a sojourn in the land of pines and balsam. She is a guest of Mrs. A. A. Brubaker. The Harbor Springs, Mich., Republican. Miss Holmes, who has spent the past several summers here on her ranch in the Underwood section, owns a large tract of timber land in the Michigan country, where she will spend the summer disposing of portions of it. The Harbor Springs country is an orchard district and similar in some respects to the Hood River region.

Electric Theatre The program at the Electric theatre today will be a two reel broncho drama "Grey Sentinel"; "Tanhouser drama, "Bared From the Walls," Keystone comedy, "Algy on the Force." On Saturday "The Marble Heart," a two reel Thanouser film, will be a special feature. Boarding Place for Children Wanted I desire to secure a place on a ranch for my two children, a boy and a girl, aged 7 and 9 respectively, where they can get plenty of eggs, fresh milk and other wholesome food. I will pay $30 a month for each of them. Those having such a place please address C. H. LEHMAN, 1405 Yeon Bldg., Portland, Ore. Row Boats for Rent Enjoy an afternoon on the water in a rowboat among the coves north of the O-W-R. & N. station. Boats may be secured at the office of the Regulator Line dock. Telephone 4522.
