HOOD RIVER COUNTY TAKES PALM

Statistics gathered by the Oregonian from 24 counties of the state show there were 29 cases of homicide in the 24 during the year 1912. Multnomah county being the most populous and containing the largest city of the state, of course, leads the list. The number in this county was 15.

Umatilla, Lincoln, Gilliam, Douglas, Baker, Grant, Jackson, Clatsop, Linn, Lane and Lake counties report one each. Crook county had three killings, but of these two were determined to be accidental, and there were no prosecutions.

On the roll of honor, meaning there were no homicides, are Washington, Wallowa, Polk, Wasco, Tillamook, Yamhill, Hood River, Marion, Benton, and Josephine. There was one accidental killing in Wallowa, a boy shooting his brother while hunting.

The special palm of honor is won by Hood River county, and reports are that, so far from there being a homicide, there was not a single arrest because of quarrels or broils, and this despite the fact that there are many industries employing at times a variegated lot of people.

Railway Business for May

During May the railways of the United States received for their services to the public an average of $8,230,000 a day; it cost to run their trains and for other expenses of operation $5,320,000 a day; their taxes were $341,500 a day; their operating income $1,972,322 a day for the 220,897 miles of line reporting, or at the rate of $8.93 for each mile of line for each day. Thus for every six dollars of their earnings which remained available for rentals, interest on bonds, appropriations for betterments, improvements and new construction, and for dividends, the railways had to pay more than one dollar in taxes.

All of these amounts are substantially greater than the similar returns for May, 1912. They are from the summary of the earnings and expenses compiled by the Bureau of Railway Economics from the monthly reports of the steam railways of the United States to the Interstate Commerce Commission. They include over 350 per cent of the mileage and earnings of all of the railways of the country.

C. J. HAYES DIES NEAR VANCOUVER

C. J. Hayes, who for many years was a resident of this city, died at his home near Vancouver, Wash., Monday, August 4, 1913, at the age of 79 years. Mr. Hayes, who removed from here in 1903, was prominent in local religious and social circles, having been an early member of the Riverside church. He in early life had been a minister of the Methodist church, but later affiliated with the Congregational denomination. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity and the funeral services, which were in charge of Rev. J. L. Hershner, of this city, were conducted by representation of the local Masonic lodge from the late residence at 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

Mr. Hayes came to Hood River in 1888. During the administration of President McKinley, he was Deputy United States Surveyor for Oregon. He was a member of Canby Post, G. A. R., having served for three years during the civil war in Company A, Second Minnesota Cavalry. Mr. Hayes was also a justice of the peace, while here. The deceased had been married twice. He is survived by his second wife who was Mrs. Anne Stranahan, and to whom he was married April 14, 1897. Mrs. Hayes is a sister of Hon. C. H. Stranahan and Mrs. Geo. P. Crowell, of this city. Two children of the first marriage survive: Mrs. Minnie Udell, of Yocalt, Wash., and C. E. Hayes, of Marshfield, Ore.

Boy Scouts Set Walking Record

Mark Moe and Paul Harris, members of the local troop of Boy Scouts, who have been spending the week at Lost Lake in camp with the Mosier troop, who were there under the supervision of Dr. David Robinson, of that city, made a time record on a hike in to the city from the lake Sunday. The two Scouts made the 28 mile trip in exactly seven hours. The road for a greater part of the way out from the lake is very rough, and the time made is considered remarkable. The boys were also encumbered with their roll of blankets. Others who started in from the lake about the same time were outstripped and did not arrive in the city until after night.

The boys declare that they had a glorious time on the outing. Newton Clark, Jr., another member of the local troop, was a member of the party.

Letter Praises Wedemeyer

A letter just received from Portland sings the praise of Otto T. Wedemeyer, one of the singers at the "Musical Night" of the Chautauqua. "No number was more impressive than that of Mr. Wedemeyer's," reads the epistle, "and the rendition of 'Mourning' made an especial appeal to the audience."

Mr. Wedemeyer, who for three years was leading man for the noted prima donna, Fritz Scheff, now spends his days in caring for his West Side orchard.

Minister Praises This Laxative

Rev. H. Stabenoell of Allison, Ia., in praising Dr. King's New Life Pills for constipation, writes:—"Dr. King's New Life Pills are such perfect pills no home should be without them." No better regulator for the liver and bowels. Every pill guaranteed. Try them. 25c and 50c per bottle. Sold by Chas. N. Clarke.

LOCAL WOMEN BEGIN TO REGISTER

Hood River women are beginning to register. The first to avail themselves of the privilege of the franchise last week were Mrs. Kent Shoemaker, wife of the deputy county clerk, and Mrs. B. F. Shoemaker, his mother. But four women have yet registered. The other two are Mrs. Louise Boyden, of Oak Grove, and Mrs. Helen G. Gilday, also of that district.

Men who registered last year and who have not changed their precincts do not have to register for the coming election, according to County Clerk Hanson.

Stark Not Leader, It Is Said

"Sam Stark, is not the leader in the recent fight, as the impression seems to prevail in some places," says B. D. Harger, of the Barred District. "Mr. Stark was chosen as the legal adviser for the people promoting the fight against the county court because of its retention of C. K. Marshall as road master. It is our intention to explain to those who do not understand that the contest is in no way a personal one between Mr. Stark and the present county judge.

Foreigners Enquire for Boxes

Not only has the Hood River apple's fame penetrated to foreign countries, but now the cry comes for Hood River made apple boxes. A letter was received last week by J. E. Robertson, manager of the Stanley-Smith Lumber Co., from Rotterdam asking for quotations on different sized boxes. The writer, who stated that a large number of such boxes would be needed by his firm, said that the advertisement of the lumber company had been seen in the Timberman.

Teething babies always have a hard time of it when this process occurs in hot weather. They not only have to contend with painful gums but the stomach is disordered, bowels loose and the body uncomfortable. The best help you can give the little sufferer is McGEE'S BABY ELIXIR. It corrects sour stomach, cools and quiets the bowels and helps digestion. Price 25c and 50c per bottle. Sold by Chas. N. Clarke.

COAD BECOMES DEAN OF HOLMES COLLEGE

Edward E. Coad, for two years principal of the Hood River high school and for four years superintendent of the Hood River city schools, has recently secured an interest in the Holmes Business College of Portland, and is dean of the faculty and president of that institution.

Mr. Coad was the first county school superintendent of Hood River county. He resigned his position as principal of the Santiam Academy to come to Hood River. He was educated at Dallas College and the University of Oregon. He has an enviable record as a school administrator and is a thorough believer in the education and training of young people along the lines of practical utility and for the actual conditions of everyday life. He has had a wide and varied business experience and is well fitted for his present work.

FISH, FURS AND FEATHERS

A. R. Cruikshank, who has been spending the summer here, in the employ of the city as an inspector on the new municipal water system, makes a suggestion that might well be followed by local sportsmen. Mr. Cruikshank was a member of a fish and game club in Pierce county. The members of the organization were sworn to uphold the fish and game laws of the state and to work toward the propagation of game birds and fish. Each year a large number of Bob Whites, Chinese pheasants and other fowl were liberated. Fish fry were secured from the state hatcheries for the streams.

Each fall a big "varmint" hunt was held. The club was divided into sides and each raccoon, skunk, coyote, etc., scored so much. The winning team was awarded a cup and the individual high score received a prize. In this manner the county soon had more game than any in the state.

Hunters Should Wear Red Coats

When you start out in quest of the coveted buck deer wear a red shirt and a red hat, or the brightest color you can find. This advice has been given by State Game Warden Wm. L. Finley, who declared he awaited the opening of the

MERCHANTS WANT DISTRIBUTOR MELONS

Hood River merchants declare that the North Pacific Fruit Distributors should ship cantaloupes and other melons into this city from districts in the northwest in which they have affiliated associations and in which such products grow to perfection. Although cantaloupes are not grown here in any commercial quantity, there is a great demand for them, and large quantities are sold every year. According to expressions from local merchant grocers last week, it is hoped that the Distributors will work out the broadest distribution among the districts in which its associations are found as well as in all of the rest of the country in which it operates.

Cantaloupes were received here last week from points in Arizona.

BASE BALL

B. M. A. Get Revenge

Despite the fact that they felt the loss of some of their stars, J. A. Epping, Harry T. DeWitt and Albert P. Reed, the Business Men's Association team walked away with their clerks Sunday morning and got sweet revenge for some of the defeats administered by the boys earlier in the season. The B. M. lineup was as follows: Fuller, Kresse, Wright, Sherrick, Tate, Davenport, Cruikshank. The opposing team: Shimmerhorn, L. Carson, Shelley, Schiller, Shaw, C. Carson, Lill, Dunn and Thornbury. The score was 9 to 4. The game came very near being exciting on account of a scrap that brewed for a moment.

Lawrence Leaves for Arizona

Prof. W. H. Lawrence, who came here two years ago as the plant pathologist of the Fellowship Association and who later was appointed in a similar position by the county, left Monday for Tucson, Ariz., where he will be acting head of the department of horticulture at the state university.
