

FALL DRESS GOODS SILKS AND TRIMMINGS

Free Hardwood Rulers To School Children

LET IT RAIN!

Outing Flannel Night Robes at Factory Cost
Ladies Gowns, Children's
Gowns, Men's Night
Gowns, all reduced 20
per cent to 33 per cent

New School Suits
New Rain Capes
New Broadwalk Shoes
New Mary Jane Shoes
New Napa Tan Shoes
New Olympia Sweaters
New Umbrellas

FRANK A. CRAM

XTRAGOOD

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION

Shoes made or repaired at Johnson's. Buy your coal of Taft Transfer Co. A. Niehaus spent Friday in Portland. If your shoes have gone wrong take them to Johnsons.

Chas. Castner spent Sunday in Portland.

Hammocks and Porch Furniture at cost. See Franz's ad. page 2.

Gus Godbersen, of Mosier, was in the city Monday.

Wanted.—A man for orchard work. Telephone 4648. a14-21

Miss Florence Brown visited friends in The Dalles Saturday.

Trunks, suit cases, bags at Franz's. Largest variety—lowest prices.

E. L. Jenkins went to Portland Monday for a few days' stay.

Wilmer Sieg went to Portland Monday on business.

Can deliver coal or wood promptly. Taft Transfer Co. 1201f

Mrs. W. E. Shay spent Thursday in Rubthon.

Hammocks and Porch Furniture at cost. See Franz's ad. page 2.

Ray Acheson went to Portland Thursday for a few days.

W. S. Nichol went to Portland on business Thursday.

Coal or wood delivered on short notice. Taft Transfer Co. 1201f

C. J. Calkins spent Thursday in Portland on business.

G. D. Woodworth went to Portland Thursday on business.

If you want shoes that don't go wrong go to Johnson's.

O. B. Eyringer spent Thursday in Portland on business.

W. G. Bellows, of The Dalles, was a visitor in the city last Sunday.

For prompt delivery of coal, call Taft Transfer Co.

W. F. Werskull, of Portland, was here Friday looking over the valley.

Bishop R. L. Paddock was in the city the latter part of the week.

Trunks, suit cases, bags at Franz's. Largest variety—lowest prices.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carter spent Thursday in Portland.

Howard Isenberg made a business trip to Cascade Locks Thursday.

Wm. Klint came Friday for a visit at the home of M. N. Scroggin.

Get GUARANTEED Eastern Blue stone at McDonald's.

W. J. Baker spent Thursday in Portland witnessing the base ball game.

J. S. Smalley, of Parma, Idaho, was here last week looking over the valley.

Mrs. J. J. Mortimer, of the Barrett district, visited in Portland Thursday.

A. Welch, of Portland left Friday after a visit with Mrs. Geo. Vreeland.

Red Clover seed for sale. Kelly Bros. s11

Miss Wilma Donnell, of The Dalles, is here visiting Mrs. W. E. Hanson.

Misses May Shay and Alice McCurdy went to Rubthon Thursday.

Lou Morgan spent the latter part of the week in Portland.

E. L. Simon, of Barrett, went to The Dalles Thursday for a few weeks' visit.

Miss Susie Vaughan went to Viento Monday to assume charge of her school.

Merrill Gessting spent Sunday and Monday in Portland attending the ball games.

Bishop R. L. Paddock, of the eastern Oregon diocese, was here the first of the week.

Mrs. R. L. Williams has returned to Portland after visiting with Mrs. B. E. Wright.

Mrs. Harriet Marden, of The Dalles, came Thursday for a visit with Mrs. W. E. Hanson.

Sewing wanted by young lady by day. Prices reasonable. Tel. 3211, 119 Sherman Ave. j24-1f

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Huxley and family returned Thursday from Cannon Beach.

Miss Ellen Nunemaker went to Los Angeles, Calif., Friday for a visit with friends.

Mrs. Fleming Jones, of La Cruces, N. Mex., left Friday after a visit with Mrs. F. T. French.

Tom Shuck returned to his home in Wasco, after spending a few days here with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Handraker, of Portland, were here over the week end looking over the valley.

Miss Etta Blagg left Monday for Ellensburg, Wash., where she will attend normal school.

The choicest 75x100 in Hood River, corner 9th and Oak Streets, at a bargain if taken quick. Call W. J. Baker & Co.

Lester Murphy left Monday for Corvallis, where he will enter Oregon Agricultural College.

Leonard Carlson, of Portland, left Friday after a week's visit with W. Frege in the valley.

Mrs. F. M. Firebaugh and children, of Orlay, left Friday after a visit with Mrs. B. D. Loomis.

Mrs. E. J. Everett returned to Portland Friday after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Woodard.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Reiser, of Detroit, Mich., were here Friday looking over the valley.

Mrs. E. M. Daniels and children, of Tillamook, left Thursday after a visit with Mrs. E. R. Crump.

C. L. Rogers came home Thursday after spending some time in Portland and the Willamette valley.

W. S. Nichol went to Bend Monday and will spend some time in the upper county on business.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bengt, of Sterling, Colo., arrived Friday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Morlan.

Lawrence Gerdes, of The Dalles, came down Thursday on account of the serious illness of his father.

Miss Ruth Phillips left Friday to take up her duties as teacher in the school south of Mosier.

Mrs. F. Hall, who has been visiting Mrs. Mark Cameron, in Odell, returned to Cascade Locks Thursday.

Mrs. H. E. White, of McMinnville, came Thursday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. C. O. Huelat.

Grain for fall and winter seeding, hay and cover crops. Phone your order early.—Kelly Bros. a21-f

Mrs. A. W. Norblad and little boy, of Astoria, left Thursday after a visit with Mrs. Austin Osburn.

Mrs. Harriet Marden has returned to The Dalles after visiting here with her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Hanson.

Miss Cora Lampton, of Seymour, Wis., a cousin of F. H. Button, left Monday after a few days' visit here.

Geo. Doty, who has been here visiting his brother, Paul Doty, left Thursday for his home in Pandena.

Miss Rosie Maire, of Oswego, left Thursday after a visit with Miss Laura Guignard, who accompanied her home.

Miss O. Markley, of Portland, left Thursday after a visit with her brother, Ray Markley, on the Lake Branch.

Mrs. B. Johnson returned Thursday to her home in Wyeth after visiting here with her mother, Mrs. W. E. Shay.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Wessell have returned to Laidlaw, where Mr. Wessell is employed as a government surveyor.

For most reasonable prices call on Height Garage, 1219 C Street. Accessories, tires, supplies, repairs and auto delivery. Also plumbing. Telephone 3151. J. F. Volstoff, Prop.

Mrs. R. H. Alexander, and Mrs. W. F. Witham, of Portland, left Friday after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Early.

Miss Mildred Bartholomew, of Portland, spent the week end with her former college roommate, Miss Pearl Bradley.

Mrs. R. W. Ordway has returned from Vancouver, Wash., where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Welday and daughter, of Detroit, Mich., were here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Snow.

Joe Dahney left Thursday for Bakerville, California, where he will work in the oil fields.

Mrs. E. L. Root and three children, of Mosier, returned Thursday after a visit with Mrs. Bert Middleswart, of Parkdale.

Miss Irene Harlety and Miss Marie England, of Portland, left Friday after several days' visit with Miss Mae Davidson.

Miss Pearl Hoover, of Wabash, Indiana, returned to her home Friday after a nine months' visit in the valley.

Miss Bell Gray left for her home in Los Angeles Thursday after a visit with Mrs. J. H. Jeffreys, in the Barrett district.

Miss Elizabeth Thomas left Friday for her home in Los Angeles, Calif., after spending the summer here visiting with friends.

Edward Strohm, of Seattle, a nephew of A. W. Isbell, of Belmont, returned to his home last Thursday after a week's visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Schlegel, of Portland, and their little son, Francis, were visitors the past week at the home of F. R. Absten.

Mrs. E. B. Moss and daughter, Bernice, arrived Saturday from an extended visit in Hudson, Wis., which was their former home.

Mrs. G. E. Williams and two children, who have been visiting in Gleneden, Alberta, Canada, arrived Friday for a visit with relatives here.

R. E. Johnson, American Express agent here, returned last Wednesday after a month's visit with friends and relatives in Normal, Illinois.

Misses Ethel Jane and Ella McDonald went to Cascade Locks Thursday, where the former has secured a position as teacher in the schools.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smullins, who had been visiting in Portland, passed through the city Sunday en route to their home at Mount Hood.

Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Kennedy and baby, of The Dalles, came Monday for a visit with their parents, Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Kennedy.

Miss D. C. Minor, of Portland, and Mrs. Rose Ross, of Bloomington, Ill., left Monday after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Russell and daughter, of Seattle, Wash., and Gearhardt and Frank Carroll, of Seattle, left Monday after a two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Suthoff.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Emry, Mrs. Ralph Barton, Miss Susie Emry and Mrs. Nelson Emry went to Portland Thursday for a few days' visit.

Wanted.—Position as governess or companion, by young southern lady. References exchanged. Address 609 Clackamas St., Portland, Ore. s11

D. McDonald and son, Angus, C. K. Marshall and Roger W. Moe enjoyed a fishing trip on the West Fork above Sandy Flats last Sunday.

Capt. James P. Shaw will give a lecture on Gettysburg at the Woman's Relief Corps hall on Saturday, September 13. G. A. R.s and friends are cordially invited.

Dr. J. M. Waugh went to Tillamook Thursday for a few days. A. D. Rowland, of Rickreall, who has been visiting Dr. Waugh, returned home Thursday.

W. S. Gribble, formerly proprietor of the Mount Hood store, is now ranger in that section of the forest of the national reserve in the Lost Lake district.

Mrs. J. H. Oakes and daughter, Sarah, of Boise, Idaho, were here last week visiting her sister, Mrs. J. P. Lucas, who accompanied them to Prineville Friday for a visit.

LOST—A trunk which was brought from the J. F. McLain place down town about three weeks ago. On trunk were initials H. R. Owner will pay $10 for information leading to recovery of trunk. Call M. Niguma & Co., Tel. 2431.

Miss Mabel Francis, who has been here visiting with Mrs. A. O. Anderson in Oak Grove district, left last Thursday for Portland where she will enter the Behnke-Walker business college.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. McCann and little girl, of Joliet, Ill., left Thursday for their home after a visit with Mr. McCann's sister, Mrs. Henry Hardman, of Parkdale, and brothers, E. O. and S. M. McCann.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Griffith, of Portland, passed through the city Sunday, having returned from Cloud Cap Inn. Mr. Griffith is general manager of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Co.

Edwin Randolph Jr., the young son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Pooley, was christened at their home Sunday evening. A party of friends of the family were present. The christening ceremony was performed by Rev. Remington, of Portland.

We have more land than we can handle and will sell any part cleared or uncleared. For prices and terms address Harry Bennett, Lyle, Wash. s25

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Donahoe, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, were here last week looking over the valley. Mr. Donahoe has orchard interests in the Bitter Root country and was greatly impressed with the prospects of the Hood River valley.

Mrs. R. R. McDonald and daughter, Gail, and Misses Lorraine and Mary Sharp, of The Dalles, Miss Helen Hagenbach, of Portland, returned to their homes Friday after a three weeks' camping trip near Parkdale.

Mrs. J. A. Epping, who has been in California, where she accompanied her daughter, Miss Dorothy, to Berkeley, where the latter will attend the University of California, has returned to her home. Mrs. Devlin, of Astoria, will arrive here the latter part of the week for a visit with her niece, Mrs. Epping.

Geo. S. Smith, of the Keystone Watch Case Company, of San Francisco, Calif., Mrs. Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Butterfield, of Portland, took a 50 mile ride through the valley with W. F. Laraway last week. They were greatly impressed with the scenery, and Mr. and Mrs. Smith will not be asked until they are residents of the Hood River valley.

Mrs. W. Mercer entertained at dinner Sunday evening for Misses Rose Haas and Myrtle Fisher and Harry Farrell and Herbert S. Field. Those present at the delicious dinner in addition to the guests of honor and the hostess and her husband, were: Miss Marie Fenwick, Miss Agnes Deschler, the Misses Dart, Miss Sherrieb, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Sherrieb and Mr. and Mrs. August Deschler.

Miss Caroline Copple returned to Portland Saturday, where she is assistant supervisor of music in the public schools, after spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Copple.

The members of Canby Relief Corps will hold another of their enjoyable socials this afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. F. Summer, on the heights, to which their friends are cordially invited.

At a meeting of the members of Riveride church last Sunday, after an informal ballot on the acceptance of the pastor's resignation, which was offered last May, the vote was made unanimous to reject it and retain him as pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Blanchard spent a portion of last week on the East Fork visiting Geo. A. Clough. While there Albert Clough, the nephew of Mrs. C. F. Summer, and his uncle accompanied him to his home in Portland.

Yesterday was the 48th anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Deitz. Their many friends wish them many happy returns at the home of Mrs. C. F. Summer, on the heights, to which their friends are cordially invited.

Miss Grace Allen and Miss Cora Smith came down from Parkdale Tuesday, Miss Allen to spend a few days at the home of Rev. W. P. Kirk, and Miss Smith going on to Portland to visit friends for ten days.

The regular services of Asbury M. E. church will be held Sunday morning. The pulpit will be filled by a man of prominence, Rev. W. B. Young, pastor of the church will be away to attend the annual conference of the church at Walla Walla, Wash.

The county court was presented yesterday with the petitions that have recently been circulated asking for the office of roadmaster to be abolished. A number of warm addresses were made to the court. Those circulating the petitions were: F. C. Sherrieb, Ed Miller, J. C. Diamond, H. J. Jeffery and A. L. Mason.

L. C. Baldwin, who will finish the work on Hans Lage's house this week, will immediately start the construction of Geo. P. Hitchcock's new bungalow in the Belmont district. Mr. Baldwin also has the contract for all the wood work in the new Carnegie library which will be done upon the completion of Mr. Hitchcock's house.

Bert Stranahan bagged three bear near Evans' bridge Monday. He was hunting in that vicinity, when he saw an old bear and two cubs. The hides have been sent to a taxidermist to be mounted.

C. H. Sproat spent Saturday in Portland on business.

Harold Ingalls went to Salem Saturday to work in the hop fields.

Miss Irene Fisher, of Mosier, was in the city Tuesday.

Miss Norma Barker spent Tuesday in Portland.

Elwood Luckey, of Eugene, came Tuesday for a visit with W. C. Hanson.

Miss Maud Milton went to Portland Saturday to spend the winter.

Chas. Hall returned Saturday from a two days' trip to Goldendale, Wash.

Mrs. E. V. Bronson of Latah, Wash., came Tuesday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Church.

Miss Rachel Anderson, of Portland, left Tuesday after a visit at the home of B. F. Shaw in Van Horn.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. T. Early returned Tuesday from an extended visit in Portland and on the coast.

Rev. E. A. Harris spent the week end with R. E. Harbison and family at Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Sommer, of Parkdale, left Tuesday for Portland, where they will spend the winter.

Miss I. M. Woods left Tuesday for the Willamette valley after a visit here with her brother, L. R. Woods.

Leslie Butler returned Saturday from the east where he has been for the past month at a family reunion.

Mrs. C. D. Hoyt and two children returned Tuesday from an extended visit in Cleveland, Ohio.

Miss Alice Ogden, of Milwaukee, Wis., returned Tuesday after visiting her cousin, Mrs. John G. Ogden.

Fred Deitz, Jr., came up from Portland Sunday to spend a few days with the home folks.

Thomas Hill has been employed as leader of the newly organized band of White Salmon.

Mrs. David M. Wolfe, of Portland, who has been here visiting her sister, Mrs. C. A. Cass, left Saturday for Pittsburg.

Dr. James W. Sifton, of Mountain Home, Ida., left Tuesday after a few days' visit with his brother, John W. Sifton, of Belmont.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. N. Clarke and children returned Sunday from Cannon Beach, where they have spent the summer.

Mrs. Fred Bailey and Miss Jessie Baxter, of Portland, returned Saturday after a visit with Mrs. H. H. Bailey.

J. H. Heilbronner and Ernest C. Smith spent Monday afternoon grouse hunting. They were accompanied by their wives.

Everybody's Doing It! Doing What?
Getting Ready for School

WE ARE READY
Everything Is Here
THE DEPOT
for SCHOOL BOOKS

And Everything That Goes With Them

Slocum & Canfield

Prepare For Fall

Let us make those alterations in your garments. Put on new collars and make new linings for your coats. Both ladies' and gentlemen's garments.

And we are sure that the ladies of the city will be glad to hear that we can make their button holes and dostoning and other work for them.

Earl M. Spaulding
Cleaning and Pressing
Under Brosius Building Telephone 1124

A Woman of Your Choice

Will certainly appreciate a gift of some of the many articles of Jewelry to be had here. Jewelry is the best of all gifts and ours is the best of all Jewelry.

ARTHUR CLARKE
JEWELER AND OPTICIAN
Opp. Butler Bank

HERE IS YOUR CHANCE!

53 acres about 25 acres in cultivation fronting on Columbia River. 71 miles east of Portland on S. P. & S. Ry. (North Bank) fair improvements on place. This land is similar and equal to places on the river near White Salmon for early vegetables, fruit and berries. I am going to sell this place; if interested write or call on

F. W. DEHART,
Hood, Washington

For Anything In Jewelry And Fine Watches

GO TO LARAWAY'S
Expert Watch Maker at Your Service