BRAGG CO. WILL NOT SELL GROCERIES

"Because of the increase in our dry-goods and men's togery business, it having become necessary for us to increase our space in this line, our grocery business will be discontinued," says C. O. Huelat, of the Bragg Mercantile Co. "Our grocery business will be closed out and all of our store will be devoted to the other lines we carry. The side of the store now occupied by the grocery department will be turned into a gent's furnishing headquarters and A. J. Graham, who has had charge of the grocery department, will have charge of this part of the store."
 The store was closed yesterday and will continue closed throughout the day.
 "We will not be able to handle any business," says Mr. Huelat, "until Friday, and no telephone orders will be taken. Candidates in the piano contest should bring in their votes Friday."

AUTO CO. SELLS TWO MORE CARS

On Monday the Columbia Auto & Machine Co. sold two more Ford automobiles, making the total number of sales for this popular machine nine for the fall.
 "Business is looking good," says Louis Goodenberger, president of the company. "The orchardists are looking for good prices for their apples, and are buying machines, not so much for pleasure as for the convenience of having the small, light machines. We could sell more cars if we could get that Portland is short on Fords, not having received any for the past two weeks. I wonder what becomes of all the Fords turned out. The factory makes more than a thousand cars some days and yet they are always short."
 The recent purchasers of machines are W. B. Dickerson and A. D. Ramsey.

Hallow'en Night Quiet
 Last Hallow'en night was the quietest the city has experienced in many years. The very young children, from three and four years to ten years of age, seemed to have the most fun. Many of these, with masks and garbed as witches, called on friends and spent the early part of the evening merrymaking.

CIDER EXPERT FINISHES HIS WORK

H. C. Gore, of the Bureau of Chemistry of the United States Department of Agriculture, who has been here for the past three weeks making tests of a new process to reduce apple cider by freezing, finished his work this week. Mr. Gore has had a large number of pieces of machinery shipped here and the experiments have been conducted on a commercial scale.
 The cider is first frozen into blocks, which are then crushed and placed in a centrifugal basket with perforated sides. These baskets are whirled at the speed of about 1200 revolutions a minute. The syrup is thrown off, while the water is left in a frozen state in the basket. "The process is not a new one," says Mr. Gore. "It has been used for a number of years. We find patents covering similar methods for reducing milk as early as 24 years ago. As to whether or not the basket shall make a successful advent into the commercial world, just depends on whether the producers of cider decide to take it up. The fruit juice reduced in this manner retains all of the natural flavor, while that reduced by other methods has a cooked taste."

HEIGHTS NEWS

 The election board was honored with one lady helper, Mrs. Laura Simonton. Miss Edna Johnson is confined at home, nursing the mumps.
 Mrs. Carl Sumner entertained the Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church last Friday.

MANY HALLOW'EEN PARTIES ARE GIVEN

Many Hallow'en parties were given late week. A jolly party, all masked and garbed in handsome costumes, convened at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kinsey on Cascade avenue Thursday night. The rooms were beautifully decorated with Hallow'en emblems and Hallow'en refreshments were served. Those enjoying the party were: Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Morlan, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Ross and little daughter, Katherine, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Cruikshank, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vogel, Mrs. C. C. Gillett, L. D. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Imholz and daughter, Lois, and Edgar Button.
 Many enjoyed the pleasant Hallow'en dance given by the ladies of the St. Mark's Guild at the Heilbronner hall last Friday evening. The parties of the Guild have been among the most pleasant given here, and the fall dancing season was most auspiciously ushered in. The committee in charge of the joyful event was composed of Mrs. E. D. Kanaga, Mrs. Robert R. Carter and Mrs. Harry T. DeWitt.

Mt. Hood R. R. Co. Makes Improvement

The young people's Sunday school class of the Methodist church who are taught by E. O. Hall, were entertained by Mr. Hall at his home on the West Side macadam road. About 20 journeyed out to the country, where games were played, where wishes stricken and where everybody feasted on the good Hallow'en "feeds", pumpkin pies, cider, nuts and sandwiches.
 With a large crew of men Trow Bros., Portland contractors and railway construction people, are at work filling in the long trestle just southeast of the Mt. Hood Railway Co. depot and on the line of that company leading out up the Hood River gorge. The earth and stone are being secured along the line of the O. W. R. & N. Co. west of the city, where the right of way is being improved and graded.
 The approximate cost of the fill will be $10,000. A portion of this will be borne by the O. W. R. & N. Co., which owns one of the tracks over the fill jointly with the Mount Hood line.
Packers Will Meet Saturday
 The apple packers of the valley have planned a mid-harvest festival at the Monroe opera house for next Saturday evening. They will meet at eight o'clock and conduct business of the organization, after which a smoker will be enjoyed.
For Children there is Nothing Better
 A cough medicine for children must help their cough and colds without bad effects on their little stomach and bowels. Foley's Honey and Tar exactly fills this need. So opiates, no more stomach, no constipation follows its use. Stuffy colds, wheezy breathing, coughs and croup are all quickly helped, and sweet refreshing slumber instead of feverish tossing at night. It is easy therefore understand why an increasing number of bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is sold yearly. For sale by Chas. N. Clarke.
