

THANKSGIVING SALE

NEW MEN'S SUITS

$30.00 VALUES
$27.50
$25.00
$22.50 CHOICE
$20.00

$14.50

SEE WINDOW

FRANK A. CRAM GET ACTION

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION

Buy your coal of Taft Transfer Co.

Shoes made or repaired at Johnson's D. G. Cruikshank was a Portland business visitor last week.

If you want shoes that don't go wrong go to Johnson's.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Holbrook, Thursday, November 13, a son. For prompt delivery of coal, call Taft Transfer Co. 12041

Born—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Nickelsen, Friday, November 14, a daughter.

F. H. Coolidge was a business visitor in Portland the first of the week.

Special Thanksgiving dinner at the Hotel Oregon, 75 cents.

Get GUARANTEED Eastern Blue stone at McDonald's.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hurlburt Thursday, November 13, a son.

Coal or wood delivered on short notice. Taft Transfer Co. 12041

Joe Vogt was a visitor in The Dalles last Sunday.

Orville Thompson, of Parkdale, was in the city last week on business.

If your shoes have gone wrong take them to Johnson's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Culbertson were Portland visitors over the week end.

For sale, a Victor Phonograph. Call 1171, Hydro-Electric office.

Can deliver coal or wood promptly. Taft Transfer Co. 12041

Mrs. J. W. Palmer left Tuesday for a visit with Portland friends.

A. J. Graham was a business visitor in Portland last week end.

Good music at Unitarian church every Sunday evening. 811-11

Guy A. Pound, of Wasco, was in the city last Saturday on business.

Special Thanksgiving dinner at the Hotel Oregon, 75 cents.

C. O. Huelat was a business visitor in Portland over the week end.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Downing at their home in the Belmont district, Sunday, November 16, a son.

Read the Picture Story of the Squirrel Family running in Blue Ribbon Bakery weekly ads.

Mrs. Ralph Root entertained a number of friends last week with a series of card parties.

Fielding Kelly, of Portland, was here Sunday visiting his brother, "Buck" Kelly.

Insure your house and contents against fire, and your auto against theft, fire and accidents. Reed & Henderson. 6011

M. Carrigg, of Portland, was in the city the first of the week visiting friends.

Wanted, a room and board with private family. Call Hydro-Electric office, Tel. 1171.

Mrs. Ida M. Jones, of Portland, has been here visiting her sister, Mrs. H. L. Dumble.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. McVay are now occupying the Schmetzler house on Oak street.

G. H. Carrier has left for the Willamette valley, where he will spend the winter.

Mrs. J. E. Welland has left for Wisconsin to spend several weeks visiting relatives.

W. G. Palmer is at the Spokane National Apple show, exhibiting his new grader.

Mrs. H. M. Francis, of Oak Grove, has been spending several days in Portland with friends.

Master Forrest and Miss Katherine Carter spent Sunday in The Dalles with their mother.

Miss Pearl Deitz accompanied her aunt, Mrs. Savage, to Portland Monday for a short stay.

A. Morse, of Portland, was here the latter part of last week visiting his son, P. M. Morse.

Dorsey B. Smith, secretary of the Oregon Travel Bureau, was in the city Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Gladen plan to remove from their Oak Grove home to the city for the winter.

Dr. J. F. Beaumont, of Portland, was here over the week end looking after his ranch property.

Col. and Mrs. W. F. Tucker were down from their Upper Valley home, El Corregidor, last week.

W. R. Warner, III, will leave Friday for Duffrynawr, where he will spend the winter with his parents.

A. C. Loftis spent the first of the week in the Willamette valley, where he was looking for dairy cows.

J. M. Clark, agent of the Mt. Hood Railroad Co. at Parkdale, was a Portland business visitor last week.

It is now time to put on your lime fertilizers. We have the air slacked lime and raw ground limrock. Kelly Bros. phone 1401.

Judge Derby left yesterday for Salem to attend to legal matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Fike left yesterday for Portland to visit friends.

$1000 to loan on good real estate security. See Reed & Henderson. 6011

C. R. Bone left yesterday for Jefferson to bring home his carload of Jersey heifers.

Richard Hunt, son of R. M. Hunt, is now with the United States Army on the Mexican frontier.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spencer, at their home on the Heights, Sunday, November 16, a daughter.

Read the Picture Story of the Squirrel Family running in Blue Ribbon Bakery weekly ads.

Dr. J. F. Worcester was in the city yesterday, having come up to look after his ranching interests here.

Mrs. J. M. Schmetzler left Sunday for Portland, where she will spend six months at the Holmes Business College.

Mrs. W. H. Allen, who has been spending the past several weeks in Ogden, Utah, has returned to her home here.

Misses Lottie Kincaid and Bess Albright were in Portland last Saturday to witness the Oregon-Washington football game.

After seeing the Oregon-Washington football game Mrs. L. A. Henderson spent Sunday with her parents at Oregon City.

Miss Bella Steele, of the Middle Valley, was in the city last week shopping and visiting with Mr. and Mrs. James B. Anderson.

Mrs. J. H. Suttthoff and children, John and Miss Helen, will remove from their Oak Grove ranch to the city for the winter.

Miss Ethel McDonald, who is teaching at Cascade Locks, spent Sunday in the city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. McDonald.

C. H. Vaughan, Clarence Gilbert and Arthur Clarke were in Portland Tuesday to see the Giant-White Sox baseball game.

Arthur P. Tift, a Portland attorney, who owns property here, was in the valley over the week end looking after interests and visiting friends.

G. L. Goodell, of Portland, special agent for a number of fire insurance companies, was in the city last week visiting friends and on business.

J. K. McGregor, of The Dalles, who had been goose hunting in eastern Oregon, came down to the city Tuesday. He was accompanied by Mark Mayer.

Attorney E. C. Smith was a visitor in Portland last week end, having gone down on legal business and to attend the Oregon-Washington football game.

S. A. Keim, of Ridgefield, Wash., was here last week inspecting the poultry yards of E. P. Batten, of the East Side. Mr. Keim is a fancy poultry raiser.

G. L. Finley, of Elgin, Ill., has arrived here and is now with F. H. Coolidge in his jewelry store. Mr. Finley is a watch maker and jewelry manufacturer.

The ladies of the Baptist church will give a reception to their pastor and his wife at the church parlors on Friday, Nov. 21. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Markely have removed for the winter from their place on the West Fork to the Hinrichs place on the West Side macadam road.

Mrs. Clara Osgood and daughter, Miss May Osgood, have moved to the city for the winter. Miss Osgood assumed her duties yesterday as assistant in the library.

Harry DeWitt and Harold Bershner were in Portland Saturday to see the Washington-Oregon football game, which resulted in a score of 10 to 7 for the University of Washington.

Misses Frances and Kitty Pragg, former students of the University of Washington, were in Portland Saturday to meet friends and to see the Washington-Oregon football game.

Special Thanksgiving music will be rendered at the Ashbury M. E. church Sunday evening. The choir will be assisted by the orchestra, and the evening will be devoted largely to music.

J. C. Blake, of Keokuk, Ia., an expert horsehooper, has arrived here and is now located with K. C. Bucklin at his Twelfth street shop on the Heights. Mr. Blake's family accompanied him.

News has been received here that Miss Hulda Weber, formerly employed at the office of the Hood River Abstract Co., was married at San Diego, Calif., November 5, to Robert N. Kennedy, of that city.

William Baker, Culver K. Osgood, Lawrence Hershner, Ray Furrow, Claude Thompson, John Coshaw, John Suttthoff and Este Brosius were in Portland Saturday to see the Oregon-Washington game.

Butter Wrappers Printed at this office

Local members of Al Kader Temple of the Mystic Shrine of Portland have received an invitation to join the Nile Temple, of Seattle, and go with them on a tour of the Philippine Islands and the South Seas. The Shriners will visit Manila, where they will confer degrees.

Charles Sonnikson, the young line-man, who was badly burned week before last while at work in Duke's Valley for the Hood River Gas & Electric Co., submitted to an operation Sunday to have his arm removed. He has been resting well since then.

E. N. Strong, district supervisor of the Oregon Life Insurance Co., accompanied by Mrs. Strong, was in the city last week on business. He left here for The Dalles. L. M. Baldwin is local agent for the Oregon Life.

News has been received here that Ex-Councilman Edward Mayes, who has been at the Woodman Sanitarium at Woodman, Colo. for the past eight months because of his health, is recovering and will return home in February.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wood, of Kent, Wash., where Mr. Wood is agent for the Milwaukee & St. Paul and U. & N. systems, have been here visiting Mr. Wood's sister, Mrs. O. B. Nye, and family on the West Side.

Miss Aldine Bartness, who has been back in Cincinnati for more than a year studying music, has returned to her home here. Miss Bartness has spent the past two months in Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Indiana, Kansas and Oklahoma.

The usual morning worship of the Congregational church will include a sermon by the pastor on "The Nation's Need and the Church's Answer Therein," with special reference to the Thanksgiving season. Music by the big male choir. The public is invited.

The Hood River Plumbing Co. has moved its place of business from the corner of Third street and Cascade avenue to the corner of Second and U. & N. streets, the new building formerly the real estate office of Dr. W. S. Nichol, opposite the Hotel Oregon.

A thief entered the Portland home of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. McArthur Saturday afternoon and stole jewelry valued at more than $1,000. Mrs. McArthur, formerly Miss Lucile Smith, who has frequently visited here with her aunt, Mrs. Robert H. Wallace, is well known to Hood River folk.

County Assessor Wickham, who left last week to appear before the State Tax Commission, returned Monday evening. Mr. Wickham states that assessors from all parts of the state were present, advancing reasons why the commission should not advance their assessments.

A class in the study of expert endeavor will be started at the First Christian church next Sunday evening, with Miss Lorena Shuck as teacher. This class will meet, for the present at least, at 6.15 just preceding the regular C. E. service. All those completing the course will be entitled to a C. E. E. (Christian Endeavor) Exert pin. Anyone will be gladly welcomed to membership in this class.

Mrs. Nora L. Savage, of Kansas City, who has been visiting Mrs. H. C. Deitz, left for Portland Monday for a visit with her brother, T. A. Senall, before taking up her journey home. Mrs. Savage is a sister of Mrs. Deitz, and came here several weeks ago with her mother, Mrs. E. E. Schall, who will remain indefinitely.

Dr. Elwood P. Lyon, Ph. D., who is well known in Hood River, will begin a series of meetings in the Christian and Missionary Alliance chapel Sunday, Nov. 23. Dr. Lyon is an eloquent and forceful speaker and those who have once heard him will be glad of this opportunity to hear him again. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these meetings, and those who do not hear him will certainly miss a rare treat.

W. I. Sinclair is recovering from a broken leg. Mr. Sinclair and men were grubbing a tree at his home. He was on the trunk of the tree after it had fallen, jumping up and down, trying to cause it to bounce from an obstruction. The tree suddenly gave way and Mr. Sinclair jumping from the trunk to the earth stepped on a limb, his foot twisting under and snapping one of the bones just above the ankle.

Chas. Hall, who has spent the past two months in eastern cities on business, returned to the city Sunday. "I found that while no new enterprises are being begun," says Mr. Hall, "that the ordinary channels of business are moving well, and that prospects for future business seem good all over the country. I spent ten days just before starting west in Minneapolis, where I saw Jim Montgomery, who was formerly in this city. He seems to be getting along fine, being connected with the Wells & Dickey Co., one of the big bond houses of the middle western metropolis."

Rev. E. A. Harris attended the state conference of Congregational churches at Salem last week, and while there was the guest of Geo. T. Watson, formerly of the Jayne & Watson law firm here. Mr. Watson is married and has a baby boy that would take the prize at any fair. Mr. Watson has established a very prosperous abstract company and sends his regards to all friends in Hood River. Mr. Harris also met Mr. Newhall, formerly nursery agent here. Mr. Newhall is now selling Canada land in Salem. Last Thursday a baby boy came to gladden the Newhall home.

Visiting Man Drops Dead

Shortly after returning from the house, where he had just had dinner, to the field Wednesday afternoon of last week, Melvin E. Mack, who has been here for a month visiting his daughter, Mrs. Dell Hutson, in the Upper Valley, dropped dead. Mr. Mack was assisting with farm work and was just beginning to harness his horse when the fatal stroke came.

The deceased came here with his eldest son, Harry A. Mack, and both were awaiting the arrival of their wives, who were coming from Montana to join them during the Christmas holidays. In addition to the widow and eldest son, Mr. Mack leaves surviving six other children: W. B. Mack, Lewiston, Ida.; Guy Mack, McLeod, Alberta; Mrs. Wilkinson, Valin, Mont.; Arnold Mack, Browning, Mont.; Mrs. Hutson, Parkdale, Ore., and Frank Mack, Valin, Mont.

Interment took place Sunday at the Mount Hood cemetery.

Multnomah County Has Roadmaster

J. B. Yeon was appointed Tuesday by the county court of Multnomah county as roadmaster of that county. Mr. Yeon, who is a millionaire, is a offered his services to the county free of charge, provided the court will levy a special road tax of two mills. This levy, which will be made, was asked for by the citizens of all classes, including laborers and bankers.

Indian Nellie Dies

Indian Nellie, an old Indian woman, who for many years has been a charge of the county, died at the home of Indian Aleck, east of the city last week. Nellie died suddenly, dropping dead out of her chair. She was the aunt of Mrs. Aleck.

The body, accompanied by many of the old Indian woman's white friends, was interred at the K. of P. cemetery.

Thieves Enter Packing Plant

Thieves broke into and entered the packing plant of E. J. Young Sunday night. Lynn Young, who manages the business, discovered Sunday morning that the only articles secured were a gun and a watch.

Petty thefts always become numerous here at this season of the year. Many hungry tramps pass along the Columbia gorge and the factories along the railroad are broken into annually about this time.

McVays Grow Novel Apples

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. McVay have grown some novel apples on their Century Vale ranch this summer. Mrs. McVay cut the images of a number of animals in miniature and pasted them on the green fruit. As the apples colored the patch shut out the sunlight from the spot it covered and when removed from the mature fruit left the little brown animals on the surface.

Attention, P. P. O. E.

November 25, The Dalles Lodge, B. P. O. E., will be at the Christian and Missionary Alliance chapel Sunday, Nov. 23. Dr. Lyon is an eloquent and forceful speaker and those who have once heard him will be glad of this opportunity to hear him again. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these meetings, and those who do not hear him will certainly miss a rare treat.

W. I. Sinclair is recovering from a broken leg. Mr. Sinclair and men were grubbing a tree at his home. He was on the trunk of the tree after it had fallen, jumping up and down, trying to cause it to bounce from an obstruction. The tree suddenly gave way and Mr. Sinclair jumping from the trunk to the earth stepped on a limb, his foot twisting under and snapping one of the bones just above the ankle.

Chas. Hall, who has spent the past two months in eastern cities on business, returned to the city Sunday. "I found that while no new enterprises are being begun," says Mr. Hall, "that the ordinary channels of business are moving well, and that prospects for future business seem good all over the country. I spent ten days just before starting west in Minneapolis, where I saw Jim Montgomery, who was formerly in this city. He seems to be getting along fine, being connected with the Wells & Dickey Co., one of the big bond houses of the middle western metropolis."

Butter Wrappers printed at this office

Winchell-Stockwell

At the home of Rev. Troy Shelly, who performed the ceremony, the wedding of Geo. V. Winchell, son of V. Winchell, a prominent East Side orchardist, took place Sunday. The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Stockwell, of Dover, Okla., after a visit with friends in Spokane, arrived here on the Soo-Spokane train Sunday morning. The young people immediately after the wedding returned to the ranch home, where they will reside.

Rev. Shelly just 27 years ago officiated at the wedding ceremony of the bridegroom's father and mother.

Columbia University Team Victors

The Columbia University juniors football team defeated the high school team Tuesday afternoon when they crossed the line twice, which with the successful kicks, gave them a score of 14-0. There were a few good plays in the game, but the playing was rather slow. Stars for the Columbia were McKenna, Murphy, Deahunt, and Shay. For the high school McGuire, Dethman, Laraway and Coshaw did good playing.

M. E. Church Services

Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching services at 11 a. m. Theme: "Abide With Me." The evening service will be devoted largely to music, the choir being assisted by the orchestra. This will be a Thanksgiving service, and a brief address will be given. Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

Christian Church

Bible school, 9:45; communion, 11; sermon, 11:30; subject, "What shall I Render Unto God For All His Benefits?" Special music, C. E. service, 6:15; preaching service, 7:30; subject, "The Blood of Christ Cleanseth From All Sin."

First Baptist Church

Sunday school at 10 a. m.; preaching 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sermon topics: 11 a. m., "What is Making the World Better?"; 7:30 p. m., "The Man That Stopped Christ." All not attending elsewhere are cordially invited.

The body, accompanied by many of the old Indian woman's white friends, was interred at the K. of P. cemetery.

Unitarian Church

Special attention is called to the beautiful service being arranged next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, E. A. Kincaid will play a clarinet solo, and Mrs. Ralph Root is to sing two series of children's songs. In connection with these songs Mrs. H. M. Huxley will read a charming story by Annie Hamilton Donnell, entitled, "The Girl Who Ought to Have Been a Boy." At 10 a. m. the Sunday school meets; at 11 a. m. the morning service of worship; at 6:30 the study hour, on the subject, "Unemployment." All are invited.

Christian Science Services.

Christian Science Services will be held in the Room 2, Davidson Building, Sunday, at 11:00 a. m. Subject: "Soul and Body."

Sunday School at 10 a. m.

Wednesday services, 8 p. m.

The reading room is open daily from 2 to 5 p. m., room 2, Davidson building.

O-W & N. Time Table.

WEST BOUND

No. 9, Fast Mail (Mail Only), 5:00 a. m.

No. 7, Portland Local, 7:35 a. m.

No. 11, Soo-Spokane-Portland, 9:35 a. m.

No. 5, Ore. & Wash. Exp., 9:18 a. m.

No. 1, Portland Local, 3:00 p. m.

No. 17, Ore. & Wash. Limited, 4:20 p. m.

EAST BOUND

No. 2, Pendleton Local, 10:05 a. m.

No. 18, Ore. & Wash. Ltd., 11:55 a. m.

No. 8, The Dalles Local, 6:20 p. m.

No. 10, Salt Lake Express, 2:25 a. m.

No. 6, Ore. & Wash. Exp., 8:32 p. m.

No. 12, Soo-Spokane-Portland, 10:52 p. m.

J. H. FREDRICK, Agent.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our sincere thanks to our many friends of the Upper Valley, who aided us with their sympathy during the time of the death and burial of our husband and father, Mrs. Frances Mack and Children.

Coat Stolen Twice

A new overcoat, the property of C. U. Dakin, having been stolen from his picture show and taken from Fred Ray, a young man who had been working for Mr. Dakin, was stolen a second time, the thief the last time taking the garment from the city hall. Ray, who had been given a position by the picture show man, who had found him out of employment, said he took the coat to make preparations for winter. He is now in the city lockup.

Thanksgiving Day

is but one week away then comes

Christmas

We have anticipated the growing custom of Early Xmas Shopping and have put on display our Xmas Greeting and Remembrance Cards. This year's assortment is by far the daintiest ever shown in Hood River.

Beautiful Designs—Embossed in Color—Engraved Verses, not the old, printed kind. Come in and look them over before the line is broken.

Slocum & Canfield

A Woman of Your Choice

Will certainly appreciate a gift of some of the many articles of Jewelry to be had here. Jewelry is the best of all gifts and ours is the best of all Jewelry.

ARTHUR CLARKE

JEWELER AND OPTICIAN

Opp. Butler Bank

Assignee's Sale

The Rockford Store has been assigned to me, together with several parcels of Real Estate, all of which will be sold at greatly reduced prices. The Rockford store is an old established business and enjoys a good patronage. Here is a chance for someone to step right into a live business and instead of paying a bonus, it can be bought for less than invoice price. The following property will be sold at bargain prices:

- 280 acres of wheat land in Sherman County.
- Two business lots with improvements in Hood River.
- 25 acres of unimproved land in Dukes' Valley.
- Automobile Truck in first class condition.
- Several sets of harness, wagons, etc., etc.

All of the above property must be sold quickly for the benefit of Creditors.

J. H. HEILBRONNER,

Assignee.

FRUIT STAMPS

MADE TO ORDER

AT THE GLACIER OFFICE

Get Your Suit Cleaned and Pressed at Spaulding's Tailor Shop

UNDER BROSIOUS BLDG.

Telephone No. 1124.