A Real Genius.
"What kinder a feller is Pete Doolittle?"
"Bright as a dollar, patient, an' a hard worker."
"Wh? he can't hold a job fer more'n a week, an' I hear his family ain't got enough to live on."
"Sho; that may be, but what's that got to do with it? You see that moose-schaum pipe o' his'n? Colored it himself. You see that there hoss-hair watch chain he wears? Braided it himself. Notice the peach stone charm hangin' to it? Carved it himself, an' it took two months to finish. See that houn' dawg he's got? Pete trained that dawg to do everything a circus dawg kin do. Ever hear Pete play on the mouth harp an' accompany himself on the guitar? Taught himself. Ever see his handwritin'? Just like copperplate, all shaded an' flourished, an' he kin make a swan without takin' his pen from the paper. Pete may not keep a job or feed his family, but he's a genius—that's what he is!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Presence of Mind.
"Colonel Cody ("Buffalo Bill") once told the following story of one of his comrades of the plains known as Wild Bill:
"A man who nursed a grudge against Wild Bill swore to kill him. He stood concealed in a doorway, stepped out and confronted Bill as the latter passed and leveled a pistol at his head.
"I've got you now, Wild Bill," he said, "and I'm going to kill you, but I'll give you one minute to pray."
"Well," said Bill with an easy smile, "it does look like the jig's up."
"Suddenly Bill peered over the man's shoulder and waved a deprecatory hand.
"Don't hit him, Andy," he said.
"The man wheeled to protect himself from the supposed enemy in his rear. He gazed into empty space. There was no Andy nor any one else behind him, and before he could turn round again Wild Bill had killed him."

The Wild Bear.
The wild bear is a most courageous animal. The element of luck counts for a great deal in pig sticking, as in most other forms of sport, and it often happens that the foremost sportsman who by dint of hard riding or thanks to the fastest horse has come up with the quarry is deprived of the coveted honor of "first spear" by a sudden "jink" or turn of the pig. The bear, in spite of his clumsy appearance, is not only possessed of a great turn of speed, but is extraordinarily active. He will turn and twist like a hare, putting every obstacle in the shape of bushes, rocks, water, etc., between himself and his pursuers, but all the time making for the nearest patch of jungle and safety. The pace after a pig is faster than the best of runs with hounds, but is sooner over.

Canned Music in Scotia.
Early in the last century an old Forfarshire lady installed in the bedroom corridor of her castle an automatic organ. It was her delight of a morning to wake her guests with its strains. But it was not the delight of one of them, Miss Sophia Johnstone of Hilton, to be so awakened, and she said she—"Ye dinna like the music? Ye shouldna say that, Sophy," said the hostess. "Ye'll no' win to heaven an' ye dinna take pleasure in music. It's to be all music there, ye know."
"Deed," said the incorrigible one, "an' if heaven's a place w' auld wives playin' on hand organs at 6 o'clock in the mornin' it's no the place I tak' it for, nor yet the place I want to be in."—New Witness.

Handel in Dublin.
There was a period of his life in which Handel, the famous composer, retired from London in a fit of disgust. He went to Dublin, and it was there—in the Dublin Music hall—that his great masterpiece, "The Messiah," was produced. "The performance," writes D. A. Chart, "was for the benefit of Mercer's hospital. In order to provide room for a large audience ladies were requested to lay aside their hoops and gentlemen their swords. By this means an audience of 700 was crowded into the space, and the concert realized £400."

Oblong Houses.
Square and oblong houses are cheaper to build than odd shaped structures. The oblong house is cheaper than the square. Timbers come in certain lengths, and the house that is long and narrow takes less timber than one that is square—that is to say, the material cuts to better advantage in the oblong house than in the square house; also less labor is involved in the making.—Pictorial Review.

Wasted Sarcasm.
Indignant Wife—I wonder what you would have done if you had lived when men were first compelled to earn their bread by the sweat of their brows. Indolent Husband—I should have started a little notion store and sold handkerchiefs.—Chicago Tribune.

Flattering Epitaphs.
Charles Lamb, when a little boy, walking in a churchyard with his sister and reading the epitaphs, said to her, "Mary, where are all the naughty people buried?"

Kill Catarrh Germs Use Booth's Hyomei
Try the sure and most effective way to reach the raw, tender inflamed mucous membrane infested with catarrh germs—use Hyomei. You breathe it—no stomach dosing.
If you suffer from raising of mucus, frequent sneezing, from raising of mucus, frequent sneezing, discharge from the nose, droppings in the throat or any other symptoms of catarrh—breathe the germ-destroying air of Hyomei. It acts directly on the inflamed membrane, destroying the disease germs in the nose, throat and lungs and giving quick and permanent relief, or money refunded by Keir & Cass.
The complete outfit, including pocket inhaler and bottle of liquid, costs $1.00. Extra bottle of liquid, if later needed, 50 cents.

THE WORD HELL

A Little Book That Contains Some Startling Information.
A little book selling at only five cents, postpaid, is having a very wide circulation—running up into the millions. It contains some very startling information respecting the meaning of the word Hell. It claims to demonstrate, both from the Hebrew and the Greek of our Bible, that Hell is NOT a place of eternal torment, but merely another name for the TOMB, the GRAVE, the STATE OF DEATH. It affects to show that man was not redeemed from a far-off place of eternal torture, but quotes the Scriptures proving that he was REDEEMED from the GRAVE at the cost of his Redeemer's LIFE and that the Scriptural Hope, both for the Church and the World, is a resurrection hope based upon the death and resurrection of Jesus. The book is certainly worth the reading. The information it furnishes is certainly valuable, far beyond its trifling cost. Order it at once from the Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.
