A. W. Onthank has been kept busy of late adjusting losses from fires. He has had five recently, including that of J. A. Stranahan on his household goods. Next came that of J. C. Johnson on his house on Cascade avenue. Sunday morning he was hit again by a small fire in the house occupied by P. A. Bishop on State street and Monday night one of his companies suffered a loss under policies carried for the owner of the property, A. H. Howes, and for the tenant, W. K. Gibson. Fortunately in all these cases the fire was discovered in time to prevent total loss. Attention should be called to the fact that in at least two instances the fire was occasioned by faulty construction of the building. Wood will burn if exposed to intense heat and this simple fact is sometimes forgotten.

MRS. JOHN BRANDT
FRANKTON ROAD (Formerly Frank Caddy Ranch)

Want Better Lost Lake Road.

Headed by D. I. Stone, who has been actively engaged for a number of years in developing the region and in boosting for it, a number of ranchers of the headwaters of the West Fork appeared before the county court and asked for a better road to their ranches and to Lost Lake. At the present time, the way leads down a precipitous canyon just this side of Sandy Flat. The proposed way, which the ranchers ask, will eliminate this heavy grade and give a road with but little grade into the wonderful mountain lake.

Unitarian Church

Services next Sunday are as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m. Morning service of worship at 11 a. m. Study hour at 7:30 p. m. At this latter service the music will be furnished by the double quartette of the Congregational church who will render two selections and a duet by Mr. Osmond and Mr. Epping. You are cordially invited.

Snow King Rules

The snow king rules in the Hood River Valley. While a half sleet and rain fell yesterday over the lower altitudes, the heavy blanket, already several feet deep in the higher districts, has been constantly added to. The snow in the city is now over a foot deep. At Oak Grove on the Green Point road, C. G. Lemmon yesterday reported five feet and 10 inches. All delivery wagons in the city are on runners and the orchardists travel in their cutlers.
