Garrabrant & Parker in New Quarters

With their place of business spick and span, Garrabrant & Parker have removed to their new quarters in the LaFrance building, next to the Hood River Banking & Trust Co. building on Oak street. The confectionery and tobacco firm have added a number of new and attractive tables to their equipment for the pleasure of the public. The pool room, lighted by large overhead windows, is one of the best in the city. New tables have been placed in the store, where those with leisure moments may lounge on summer days and sip cool drinks from the soda fountain. Garrabrant & Parker issue many of the fishing and hunting licenses used by local sportsmen.

The Viking Makes Ice Cream

The young lady proprietors of The Viking, the new lunch room recently opened in the Smith building on Third street, occupying the room formerly used by the county library, are receiving many compliments on the warm days of this week on account of the delicious ice cream served. The young ladies are making a number of different flavored creams in their own kitchen, and the flattering comments of patrons who have tasted the cream are usually an incentive to those who listen to hurry to The Viking.

Johnson Nominated By all Parties

In addition to leading his own ticket by a large plurality, Thomas F. Johnson, the Republican aspirant at the primaries, up for reelection, received the nomination on both the Democratic and Progressive tickets as well. These nominations were unexpected, and were not known until the final count was completed Tuesday. The nominations came as a gratifying surprise to Sheriff Johnson.
