W. M. STEWART TELLS ROAD ADVANTAGES

"We saw many automobiles in central Oregon, while on our recent trip fishing on the headwaters of the Metolius and Deschutes," says William Stewart. "While we were at the hotel of Dan Heising two machines from the Willamette valley that had come from Portland to The Dalles by boat, stopped there with loads of sportmen. We saw machines from California, from British Columbia and many eastern states. If we had the road opened, we would get many, or most all of these cars here. "While at The Dalles at a garage I saw a number of cars. I think there were eight of them. I asked where they had come from and they told me up the river on the boat. With the road open we would have a continual stream of cars passing through the valley."

SPOKANE MAN OPENS UNDERTAKING STORE

C. C. Anderson last week leased through the agency of Scott & Pifer the building owned by E. H. Hertzog on Cascade avenue between the stores of D. McDonald and the Gilbert Implement Co., in which he will open an undertaking establishment on July 1. Mr. Anderson, who is a graduate of the Barnes Undertaking College in Chicago, where he worked at his business for two years, comes here from Spokane. He has been in the business for eight years. Mrs. Anderson joined Mr. Anderson the latter part of last week. The building leased will be remodeled. A portion of it will be used for a chapel, while Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will occupy the other part of the building for their home.

PARCEL POST FRUIT SHIPMENTS LARGE

Since the fruit season opened here, parcel post shipments of all kinds of fruit have been large. Whole crates of strawberries have been sent to Portland, Eugene and Seattle. Many cherries are now going out, some to the farthest eastern zones. Making an estimate of the daily amount of fruit shipped by parcel post, Tel W. Blount said last week: "I think it will easily reach 100 pounds a day. Some days we have a great deal more than this." The parcel post has made it convenient for shipments of fruit in all fruit growing sections.

Locke Opposes Columbia Road

Editor Glacier: I am informed that a special election has been called to bond this county for $75,000 to build a road from the Multnomah county line to Viento. It will take a million dollars to build that road in good shape on the proposed survey through Hood River. For 33 years the O. W. R. & N. Co. has kept a man on the line to keep the rock off the track at Mitchell Point. Can we afford such an expense to maintain a road that will never be used to haul wheat or other farm produce over, but simply for pleasure for the fortunate few who own autos? If the road were built and presented to us as a gift, it would be a big contribution to us as the Philippine Islands are to the government. E. Locke.

East Side Grade Danger Cited

Recent travelers over the East Side grade point out some dangers that may easily be avoided by the expenditure of a little labor. Just outside the city limits, where the road, very narrow, makes a sharp turn, it is impossible for the driver of a car going up the hill to see a team or machine approaching the city, or for the man coming down the hill to see around the curve, for that matter. Thick bushes have grown up along the roadside. If these bushes are slashed, a clear view of the road may be had and possible accidents averted. Within the city limits, where the road has been widened for turnouts, a number of sharp stones stick up at the outer edge of the road that prevent automobiles, on account of fear for tires, from driving out as far as they could otherwise.

The addition will be 40x50 feet, and with space already at hand, apple packing and storage facilities will be provided for the growers of the neighboring valley. Middlewart & Marsh have the contract for the new structure.

Founder of Dufur Dead

Andrew J. Dufur, well known to many local people, founder of the town of Dufur in Wasco county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. P. Balch, in Dufur last Friday. Mr. Dufur, who has been residing in Portland for a number of years, was visiting his old home. Interment will take place in Portland. Mr. Dufur was uncle of Mrs. Charles N. Clarke, of this city.

"THE MIKADO" IS ROUNDING INTO SHAPE

The forthcoming performance of the famous comic opera, The Mikado, on the night of the Fourth, is destined to put Hood River on the musical map of the Pacific coast. Hood River is the smallest community on record to present this big production, and added to this, the fact that this will be the first open air performance of the Mikado ever given west of Chicago, a better appreciation may be had of the importance of the coming presentation. The big cast is made up entirely of local talent. J. Adrian Epping is especially well qualified to put on the production. A better conductor does not exist in the northwest, and he has the further advantage of having personally appeared in the opera. In a very pretentious Portland production a number of years ago Mr. Epping sang the role of "Poochiah."

In the chautauque production Otto Wedemeyer is to take this role. Mr. Wedemeyer brings to the part the experience of several years on the professional stage and with his magnificent voice, he should make a tremendous hit. At the rehearsal the other night, one of the chorus ladies was heard to remark: "If I had that voice I would never think of raising apples." Mrs. P. S. Davidson, the part of "Yum Yum," also has the advantage of a previous appearance in the opera. The role is admirably suited to her voice. The rich contralto of Mrs. C. O. Huelat will be heard in the role of Pitt Sing and Miss Lella Hershner as Peep Bo will complete the Three Little Maids. Miss Hazel Stanton appeared for the first time in the part of Katisha at Monday's rehearsal and was warmly congratulated on her rendition of the difficult part. The Mikado is to have full orchestral accompaniment, which alone will be worth the price of admission.

The chautauque concert on Friday night, July 3, will be one of the finest things musically that we have ever had here. The members of the Ad Club quartet are great favorites everywhere and they have a host of friends here who are planning to give them a royal reception on that occasion. The combination of Mrs. Ralph Root and the Ad Club is one that cannot be excelled anywhere. This will be the last appearance of the Ad Club quartet in Hood River, as they have been signed for an extensive tour of America this coming fall, followed by a European engagement.

Rehearsals for the high school play, Esmeralda, with which the chautauque will open, will begin early next week. Allan Harris and his sister are expected to arrive from Hillsboro on Tuesday and the entire cast will then be ready to freshen up in their various roles.

The reserved seat sale for all three performances will begin at Clarke's drug store Saturday morning, June 27. Holders of season tickets will be entitled to reserve seats in the parquet or main floor section of the auditorium at all performances.

MOTORISTS ENCIRCLE MT. HOOD ON TRIP

The second machine to have encircled Mount Hood in making the trip from Portland to this city drove up to the Mount Hood hotel last Sunday containing Mr. and Mrs. A. Rawson, of Vancouver, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Williams, of Portland. "We were determined to make the trip into the Hood River valley on our own power," said the motorists, "and we, contrary to our expectations, found little difficulty. The roads around the mountain, although very steep in places, were very good. We did not have the least trouble." Local motorists consider the feat unusual for this time of the year. N. C. Evans drove in his car from Portland by route taken by the victors over the Barlow road last summer.

LAWSON TRAVEAS IN SPECIAL DAY COACH

When the Pendleton Express of the O. W. R. & N. Co. pulled out Saturday morning to it was attached a special car bearing Thomas W. Lawson and party, who have been spending the past three weeks at the Cottage Farm of Mrs. Alma Howe, at Redmond. The car, however, was not a palatial Pullman, but on e of the ordinary steel day coaches, which cost Mr. Lawson for the trip the sum of $101.

GRANGE HEADS UPPER VALLEY CELEBRATION

The grangers of the Upper Valley are promoting the celebration which will be held in a grove near Parkdale on the Fourth of July. The grangers are expecting a royal good time, and assure visitors of a hearty welcome. Big red posters have been distributed over the valley, calling attention to the event. One of its paragraphs reads: "Enjoy a day beneath the noble fir where nature's purest air circulates, wafted by the cooling breeze which sweeps gently down from the glaciers of Mount Hood. Listen to 'The Inspiration of the Hour,' as it comes from the lips of Parkdale's most gifted citizen, W. L. Van Nuys. Enjoy the harmless sports as played by the ranchers themselves. All of the different kinds of sports the ranchers enjoy." Athletic events will include foot races, sack races, biscuit races, tag of war, baseball and nail driving contest. All will be held in the afternoon and in the evening.

A bilious, half-sick feeling, loss of energy, and constipated bowels can be relieved with surprising promptness by using Herbine. The first dose brings improvement, a few doses puts the system in line, vigorous condition. Price 50c. Sold by Chas. N. Clarke.

$500.00

A. I. Mason says he would give $500 for a big oak tree in his front yard. Many a buyer of a home often pays more than this for the effect shade trees, hedges and flowers give.

Roadside trees are another thing that adds greatly to the looks of a country district. We should save our roadside trees always, not just when it is convenient. Our original beauty is what first attracted buyers to Hood River, and later ones have in some instances not found the home spot where they were looking for.

Buyers are far apart, not only here, but everywhere. However if the Columbia River road should be opened, a class of home people will be attracted here, who will care nothing much whether the orchard makes 6 per cent or 25. They will come in looking for attractive home spots, therefore it behooves us all to do what we can, if the road goes through, to help make our Valley even more attractive, by a little attention to these details.

The home people of California today, are the tourists of yesterday. Let us learn by their example.
