ODELL
Mrs. John Kroeger and son, John, went to Portland Saturday for a short visit. They returned home Sunday.
Mrs. Sarah E. Tousey, of Portland, came up Tuesday. She will probably spend a week or more looking after her interests in Odell and visiting friends. She will return to Portland before the opening of school. She has been re-elected as teacher in the primary department of the schools of that city.
Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Sheirbon and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Yaw went to Portland Wednesday, returning via the Bailey Gatzert Thursday.
Ruth Clark returned home last Thursday from a three weeks' visit with friends near Cape Horn, Wash., and in Portland, Ore.
Dr. Emily G. Kluff expects to leave today for her home in Provo, Utah, after having spent several months here visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. R. Leedman.
Mrs. Alice Kemp has returned from a visit at the home of her grandson, Lewis Rhoades of Middle Valley.
The Ladies Aid society met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. K. Davenport.
Sherman Lafferty went to Portland Wednesday, returning home Wednesday night.
Blanche Lafferty went to Portland Wednesday of last week for a week's visit at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Edwin Anders.
J. Lindgren is building a new house 32x40, two stories, five large rooms besides pantry and closets. Mr. Lindgren owns a fine place near the home of the William Ehek homestead.
Harry Conaway spent last week in Portland and Mrs. Conaway and three sons visited at the home of Mrs. Conaway's parents in Scio, Ore.
Clinton Wood came near suffering a heavy loss by fire last Friday about 5:30 p. m. when a fire started in the grass north of the house and backed against the wind to a point very near the buildings when neighbors saw the smoke and hurried to extinguish the flames. There are two theories as to how the fire originated: One that a smoker dropped a burning match or cigar stub beside the road, another that a cinder from the forest fire then raging several miles west carried sufficient fire to set the grass burning.
W. L. Fagley has purchased three acres of land from Frank Purdy and is now building a cozy bungalow. Mr. Fagley is a son-in-law of W. H. Hicks, of the Hicks Co. mill, and is employed at their saw mill and wishes to provide a home convenient to a good school.
W. P. Kemp and G. F. Purdy spent Sunday in The Dalles.
Cameron & Sheppard have removed their saw mill to Fir. The mill has been located in the Upper Valley.
J. E. Windle, of Portland, came up Tuesday of last week for a two days' visit with his little daughters and his mother, Mrs. Sue Windle, who are spending the summer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Zellar.
J. C. Marshall, of Portland, came up Saturday for a short visit with his wife and children who are also spending the summer at the home of Mrs. Zellar's home. Mr. Marshall returned home Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Wilson and daughters, Frances and LaVerna, and son, Floyd, and Mrs. Sue Windle left early Thursday morning via auto for Clifton and Mount Hood. They made a partial ascent of the mountain, but because of smoke from forest fires their view was confined to tops of neighboring mountain peaks. A member of the party reports that the last two miles of the trip going to Cloud Cap Inn was made on foot and Mrs. Wilson, whose convictions regarding a "wet" or "dry" Oregon are well known, became so thirsty and tired of heat and dust that she exclaimed, "I would not vote for a dry state."
L. A. E. Clark is pruning the 40-acre orchard of A. W. Stone. This orchard is located above Dee.
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ferguson and daughter, Martha, are enjoying an outing on the coast.

The Camp Fire Girls came home Saturday. Dr. and Mrs. Dutro remained over for a few days at the lake. Misses Letta Bowerman, Olga Plog and Frances Lindgren walked the entire distance from the lake home.
Rev. Wm. A. Sunday has consented to give a part of the short time left of his vacation and he will address a congregation at the Methodist church next Sunday morning at 10:45. This is a union service, the Union and Methodist churches of Odell and the Pine Grove church planning to avail themselves of this opportunity to hear once more this evangelist through whose efforts converts numbering many thousands have been won, and who for a short while each summer stops in our valley for much needed rest, which we fear has been often disturbed by requests for service.
Announcement for next Sunday at the Methodist church: Sunday school at 9:45; service, Billy Sunday, 10:45.
Union Church: Service, Rev. J. G. Tate, evening at 8 o'clock.
J. W. Coovert, of Dayton, Ore., is here, visiting with his son, C. B. Coovert.
Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Morrill and son, Malcolm, of Portland, are here looking after their property and visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Sheirbon.

BELMONT.

Mrs. Libbey and small son, of White Salmon, Wn., spent a few days last week at the Sawyer home. On Saturday Dr. Ferguson operated on the little ones for adenoids.
The Ladies Aid met Thursday in the League room. Nothing was settled in regard to Aid work for the coming year until after the annual conference has met. Then it will be known whether the church services at Belmont will be continued or not.

MIDDLE VALLEY
One Sunday recently Mrs. J. P. Hilstrom, with her family, visited the Punch Bowl. Mrs. Hilstrom has lived here 25 years and this was her first time to see the Punch Bowl.
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Root were Hood River visitors Friday.
J. R. Steele was in Hood River Saturday. Meanwhile Mrs. Steele spent the day with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Davidson, in the Lower Valley.
Mrs. M. H. Craft, accompanied by her little niece, Patience Simenstad, attended a Cooper family reunion at their farm home at Zena Spring Valley, near Salem, making the round trip from Portland via the Willamette valley by auto.
A message was received from Miss Cleo Shoup that she had been called to Lincoln, Ill., on account of serious illness in her father's family there. Consequently our school, which was to have begun September 7, will be postponed until further notice. Good wishes of her friends in Middle Valley go with her.
Mrs. Wm. Loughton and family spent last Sunday at the Punch Bowl.
Mr. Barnes sold a couple of Jersey heifers last week to Mr. Cameron, of Odell.
Louis Rhoades, in company with his father, O. H. Rhoades, and brother, Loyd, of Odell, were recently on a hunting and fishing trip at the head of the East Fork of Hood river, finding plenty of fish and venison. (Louis captured a deer the first day.)
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Calkins drove up to the home of G. L. Warden on the Elppa orchard place recently. Mr. Calkins' mother returning with them.
Grandma Kemp, of Odell, has been visiting at the home of her grandson, Louis Rhoades.
The rain has very kindly put out the forest fires, so that the smoke has cleared away again.

CENTRAL VALE
The mothers' club met with Mrs. J. Shepherd in Central Vale Thursday afternoon. As usual the attendance was good.
The political committee with Mrs. Chipping as chairman, is doing much in looking up the subjects to be voted upon this fall. A number of paper clippings upon the subjects were read, followed by discussions. Mrs. Meloid read some paragraphs on Child study, which were followed by discussion. After roll call, which was answered by some quotation or current event, refreshments were served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Niehans Aug. 20.
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hansen and family will spend two weeks camping on the Lake Branch, leaving this week. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lewis will spend a few days of this week camping near Lost Lake.
Mrs. Courtney Allen and little daughter from Hood River were guests of Mr. Allen's parents in Central Vale last week.
Mrs. Geo. Shepherd, of Odell, visited the mothers' club, of Central Vale Thursday.
Mrs. Coshov, of Hood River, visited her daughter, Mrs. Fuller, in Willow Flat a few days last week.
The school board will make some improvements to the building and grounds which will be greatly appreciated by the children and parents.

Auto Men Travel Barlow Road
E. L. McClain and Louis H. Goodenberger, respectively president and secretary of the Columbia Auto & Machine Co., left yesterday morning for Portland by way of the old Barlow road. The trip was made in Mr. McClain's new six passenger 30 horse power Franklin.
"We expect to make a leisurely journey," said Mr. McClain, "and shall probably reach Portland about noon Thursday. We shall probably spend Wednesday night at Government Camp."
While in Portland the local automobile dealers will inspect new machines at the distributing plants in that city.
