E. S. LaCroix, deputy national director of the Loyal Order of Moose, arrived here yesterday from The Dalles, where a large lodge had just been installed, to organize a lodge in this city. Mr. LaCroix expects to spend a month in Hood River. Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Blythe left Tuesday afternoon for Portland, where they will spend a week with the family of their son, E. N. Blythe, and then proceed to Escondido in southern California, where they will spend the winter with their daughter, Mrs. David T. Marlor, and family. H. B. Langille, formerly city recorder here, having been succeeded by Recorder Howe, is now in Berkeley, Cal., where he is a professor in the mechanical engineering department of the University of California. Writing last week to renew his subscription to the Glacier, Mr. Langille says: "Hope you people up there are not yet snowed in. We have had only a little rain here. It poured yesterday, but the sun is streaming merrily as I pound the machine writing this." The Heights Greenhouse will give a special Christmas sale beginning next Saturday, Dec. 19, at the Soule Music house in the Bell bldg. We have a nice lot of potted plants, and everything goes at half price. Primrose, baby primrose, cyclamen, Christmas cactus, Christmas cherry, Rex begonia, poinsettia, calla lily, six different kinds of fern, palms and phlox. We have plenty of carnations, chrysanthemums and violets. Send your orders in early for shipments. We give free a primrose with every dollar purchase. See our window display in the Soule Music house. The Heights Greenhouse. Sheriff Johnson was in Portland last week attending a conference of the Anti-Saloon League and members of Committee of 100, who were discussing the proposed bill to be submitted to the legislature for the enforcement of the dry amendment. Mr. Johnson was the only sheriff present. The state attorney general and other officials were present. "The meeting was very harmonious," says Sheriff Johnson, who was called on to make a number of suggestions as to details of the proposed law. "Although some of the smaller points of the bill were not settled."

Lawrence Meets With Arch Committee

Ellis F. Lawrence, a prominent architect of Portland and who owns a ranch in the Odell district, was here Monday conferring with the Benson memorial arch committee, composed of O. F. Dahney, S. A. Mitchell, Walter B. Kimball, M. B. Noble and Roy D. Smith. The American Society of Architects is offering to furnish plans for all monuments, such as the Benson arch, along the Lincoln highway free of charge. On account of no definite action having been taken as to the location of the Benson arch, Mr. Lawrence as yet is able to submit no definite plans.

IF I WIRE your house, I will give it a number in my book of over 1000. I have wired that many houses in Oregon and still am in my prime. Give me a chance to figure on your work. Remember I have a shop at 406 Oak street and carry a nice line of reasonably priced fixtures, when you talk to me, you talk to the man who will do the work first hand. Our slogan: "Less than Portland Prices."
