A good time assured. Heights Sewer Complete The Heights sewer has been entirely completed, and residents of the new district are notified that connections may be made. Library Board Makes Statement Editor Glacier: In last week's issue of your paper there was a budget for the library fund, as made by the county court. Now, the county court decides the appropriation to be made, but according to both the law and the contract, it is not the function of that body to decide how it shall be spent. Lord's Oregon Laws, Sec. 4350—Board of Directors—Organization—Powers—reads as follows: They (board of directors) have exclusive control of the expenditure of all money collected for the library fund and the supervision, care and custody of the rooms or buildings constructed, leased or set apart for that purpose. They may appoint a librarian and assistants and prescribe rules for their conduct and fix their compensation, and shall also have power to remove such appointees; shall in general carry out the spirit and intent of this act in establishing and maintaining a public library. The contract under which the library is operated reads as follows: That the board is vested with the sole and exclusive power and authority to care for the library rooms and buildings, to appoint and remove employees, to fix the salaries of the same, and in general to manage the details of a library conducted for the use of the people of Hood River county. J. P. Lucas, President of the Library Board. Franz-Steinhoff The wedding of Earl Franz and Miss Bonita Steinhoff was quietly solemnized at nine o'clock on Wednesday of last week in Seattle at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Steinhoff, former Hood River residents. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Franz took the train for Hood River, arriving here before the close of the day. Mr. and Mrs. Mark's dance. Their appearance was a great surprise to their many local friends, for it was understood that the wedding would not occur until Wednesday night. Preparations had already been made to meet the young couple at the train, and a grand charivari was being planned. The unexpected arrival was a sad disappointment for those who had been forming stunts of welcome. Mr. and Mrs. Franz, who are at home at the Sproat residence on Twelfth St., both have many Hood River friends, with whom the Glacier joins in heartfelt congratulations and best wishes. Jensen-Mayes At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. S. Mayes, Carl Jensen and Miss Olive Mayes were married on Monday, December 28. Rev. W. B. Young officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Jensen, who will make their home with the bride's mother until spring, are now enjoying a honeymoon in Portland. They expect to be at home the first of the next week. In the spring they are planning on going to southern California to make their home. The wedding occurred on the 23rd anniversary of the bride's mother. Methodist Church Sunday school at 10 a. m. Mrs. Marsh Entertains in Portland

Mrs. G. Haskell Marsh, who owns a beautiful home on the heights at Underwood, commanding a view up and down the Columbia and overlooking the Hood River valley, entertained at her Portland home Wednesday afternoon of last week. Her guests were Underwood women who are spending the winter or the holidays in Portland. Half a dozen tables of progressive 500 were set. After an hour's play the tables were placed together to form one long board and the guests were seated together and served most delicious refreshments by Mrs. Marsh and her sister, Mrs. McKinley, assisted by Elizabeth Goddard and Virginia Irwin. Those present were: Mesdames A. W. Goddard, E. C. Goddard, H. M. Greiner, Churchill, Fox, Young, Mann, Laurie, E. M. Cummins, E. J. Cummins, Harry Cummins, Irene McKenny, H. W. Hamlin, Henderson, Arnold, I. H. Amos, Wm. Amos, J. C. E. King, Frank Kerr, Hannah Haselton, Gage Haselton, H. C. Lowden, Geo. A. Cooper and P. I. Packard, and Misses Knapp, Dorothy Mann, Edna Cameron, Grace Amos, Edna Amos and Delberta Stuart. O. A. C. Notes C. Edwin Hill, who has been attending the Oregon Agricultural College, visited at the home of A. J. Brunquist during the latter part of the Christmas holidays. Mr. Hill, who is in his senior year in college, is assistant editor of the Oregon Countryman, a monthly agricultural journal published by O. A. C. students. Henry W. Blagg, a sophomore student at the Oregon Agricultural College, spent a few days last week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Blagg. "Heinie" has been making good on the college basketball team this season, and he promises to get a berth at center. Lester Murphy returned to resume his studies at the North Pacific Dental college after spending a few days visiting with his parents in the Belmont district. Miss Edythe Brunquist, who has been teaching at Newberg, returned to resume her duties after spending the Christmas holidays with home folks in the valley. Miss Brunquist, who is a last year's graduate of the Oregon Agricultural College, was accompanied as far as Newberg by an old friend, C. Edwin Hill, who returned to Corvallis to resume his studies at O. A. C.

NEW YEAR'S SOCIAL A PLEASANT EVENT

The New Years reception given by Mrs. James E. Robertson and Mrs. Kay W. Sinclair at the home of the former on Columbia street last Friday afternoon was one of the pleasantest of recent social events. About a hundred and fifty guests enjoyed the charming function. The hostesses were assisted in receiving by Mrs. F. E. Newby. The reception lasted from 2:30 to 5:30. During the first hour Mrs. A. L. Page and Mrs. J. F. Miller assisted with serving; during the second hour Mrs. W. M. Stewart and Mrs. P. M. Morse served and Mrs. Ed B. Winter and Mrs. R. D. Gould the third hour. Refreshments were passed by the following six young ladies: Misses Florence and DeForrest Gould, Ethel and Ella McDonald, Esther Husbands and Ruth Miller. Punch was served during the first hour by Mrs. W. H. McClain, by Mrs. E. D. Kanaga the second hour, and Mrs. Geo. Stranahan the third hour. The Roberson home was beautifully decorated with Christmas greens, carnations and chrysanthemums. City Buys Fire Siren The Monday night meeting of the city council was very short. It was announced that the city had purchased a large electric siren to be used in sounding fire warnings. The big siren will have two openings and can be heard in all parts of the city. The Monday night meeting was the last of the old council. On the night of January 18 the new members, recently elected, M. H. Nickelsen and Truman Butler, will be sworn into office. E. A. Franz was re-elected. The retiring members of the board are James Stranahan and Charles H. Gastner. Mayor-elect Dumble will assume his duties of office, succeeding A. P. Reed. How to Cure A La Grippe Cough "Coughs that hang on" demand treatment. Stop and think! Reason and common sense tell you that it is folly to "grin and bear it." Those racking la grippe coughs that wrench the body and cause soreness and pains in the lungs yield more quickly to Foley's Honey and Tar than to any other treatment. Forty years' record of successes proves this. For coughs, colds, croup and other distressing ailments of throat, chest, lungs, larynx and bronchial tubes, you can find nothing that will compare with this reliable remedy. Sold by C. N. Clarke.

CREAMERY REPORT SHOWS INCREASE

The report of F. W. Blumh, superintendent of the Hood River Creamery, shows a decided increase since last month. During December the creamery manufactured 2,400 pounds of butter. While the report of the month previous showed a deficit, the last month's business gave a profit that cared for the deficit and left a balance. Mr. Blumh reports that not only are the local cream receipts increasing but that good quantities are being shipped from points both up and down the Columbia. Riverside Church Special New Year's meetings are held at the church every evening at 7:30 o'clock, except Saturday.
