

MY FAITH IN HOOD RIVER'S DESTINY

has never wavered. Its further prosperity is sure and as evidence of this belief we are opening new fresh goods

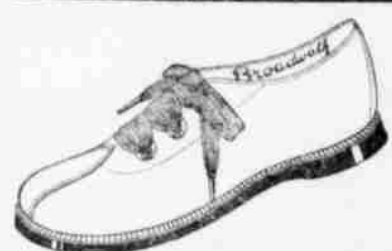

Xtragood Boys Suits

Newly arrived.

YOU BOYS who are earning money picking berries

Can Save Money Here

Come in and let us show you just how much.

Broadwalk Shoes

JUST ARRIVED

Barefoot Scandals and Scufflers

Napa-Tan Work Shoes

Florshiem Dress Shoes

See Them

FRANK A. CRAM

FITFORM

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION

Shoes made or repaired at Johnson's
Jitney dance at Moose hall Monday evening, Memorial night.
W. A. Keady, of Portland, was here set week looking over the valley.
If you want shoes that don't go wrong go to Johnson's.
Mrs. M.W. Shearer, of Parkdale, was in the city Saturday shopping.
Bert Stranahan was in Portland Tuesday to see the Sells-Floto circus.
M. Ostergard and family, of Viento, were in the city Saturday.
Jitney dance at Moose hall on Monday evening, Memorial night.
Miss Hazel Holmes, of Underwood, visited local friends last week.
W. H. Dean, of White Salmon, was a business visitor in the city Tuesday.
B. E. Duncan was up from Portland the first of the week on business.
If your shoes have gone wrong take them to Johnson's.
C. C. Lemmon was in The Dalles on business last week.
Jitney dance at Moose hall on Monday evening, Memorial night.
L. S. Broadhead, formerly a local resident but now living in Portland, spent Tuesday in town with friends.
Talk with Reed & Henderson about insurance of all kinds. Money to loan on first class farm property.
E. B. Clarke, of Portland, was here Sunday looking after property interests.
Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Ned Van Horn on Saturday morning, May 22, a son.
J. A. McConn, of the Upper Valley, was in town the latter part of last week.
Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Melsaue, of Parkdale, were in the city the latter part of last week.
On films left up to 4 p. m., prints will be ready for delivery at 1 p. m. the following day—Snoom & Canfield Co.
P. I. Packard, of Underwood, was in the city the latter part of last week on business.
Mrs. Earl M. Noble, of Wyeth, spent Saturday in the city visiting friends and relatives.
Carl P. Ross, of Portland, was here the latter part of last week on matters of business.
Harold Ingalls, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ingalls, who has been attending a Portland business college, is now employed at the office of the Apple Growers Association.

Mrs. W. J. Baker and daughter, Katherine, left Monday for a week's visit in Portland.
Give W. G. Snow a trial when that horse of yours needs shoeing. Shop at corner of 4th and Columbia Sts. apt 17
J. F. Thompson, of Parkdale, was a business visitor in the city the latter part of last week.
Geo. W. McCoy, of Portland, was here the first of the week looking after his Oak Grove place.
Orville Thompson, of the Upper Valley, was in the city the latter part of last week visiting friends.
James Peironnet, of the Upper Valley, was a business visitor in the city the latter part of the week.
Notice! After June 1, Dr. Abraham will be located in Rooms 3 and 4 of the Brosius building.
Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Hamilton, of Portland, spent the week end here looking over the valley.
Mr. and Mrs. Raoul Monner, of Wasco, motored here the first of the week for a visit with valley friends.
Misses Sarah and Jessie Howes left Monday for San Francisco for a visit with their grandfather and to see the Panama-Pacific exposition.
Mrs. Babson and little daughter, of the Upper Valley, left Monday for a visit with Portland friends.
Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Klippel and daughter, of Portland, spent the week end here looking over the valley.
Talk with Reed & Henderson about insurance of all kinds. Money to loan on first class farm property.
Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Van Dersal, of Portland, have been here this week visiting Rev. W. B. Young's family.
Mrs. F. X. Arens, and Miss Turnbull, of the Middle Valley, spent the latter part of last week in the city.
Mrs. Arthur Barendick and little daughter, Barbara, and son, Billy, of Portland, are visiting local friends.
Mrs. W. G. Weber, who has recovered from an operation in Portland recently, is expected home this week.
Mrs. Marjorie Fouts, after a visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Baker, has returned to Portland.
W. G. Snow does first class horse shoeing shop at corner of Fourth and Columbia streets.
Mrs. E. J. Evert, who has been teaching at Condon, is here visiting Mrs. L. A. Woodard, and family.
Mrs. Cornelius and Miss Bessie Goyote, teachers of the city schools have gone to Redmond to spend the summer.
Mrs. W. L. Clark and son, Newton, spent the latter part of last week at Cascade Locks visiting friends while Mr. Clark was in Portland on business.

Judge Derby left yesterday afternoon for Portland on business.
J. E. Robertson left yesterday afternoon on business in Portland.
Mrs. Chas. Wolf, of Peoria, Ill., is here with her daughter, Mrs. E. N. Armstrong.
Miss Grace A. Peck, of Portland, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. W. B. Dickerson.
E. V. Emilio, of Boston, arrived last week for a visit with his brother, S. G. Emilio, of Dece.
Miss Grace Allen, of Parkdale, has been here visiting Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Kirk.
Alfred Maenamara was in Portland Monday to visit relatives and to see the circus.
Mr. E. L. Holmes, of Wallawa, Ore., has been here visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Pooley, at their East Side place.
Mrs. E. J. Baker, of Los Angeles, has arrived here to spend the summer with her son, E. A. Baker, and family.
Children's Night, an annual event, was observed Tuesday evening by the Eastern Star at Masonic hall.
Mrs. T. D. Waldie and little daughter are in Spokane visiting the family of J. J. Wherry.
Members of Wana Temple of Pythian Sisters were entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Blagdon.
Fred Bell, who is now day clerk at the Heppner Hotel, was here last week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bell.
Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Sieg have moved to the Robert W. Pratt home on Oak street, where they will make their home.
Mrs. W. H. Staats, of Maupin, after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Chas. N. Clarke, returned to her home last Thursday.
Mrs. B. E. Duncan and daughter, Dorothy, who had been here to spend several weeks, returned to Portland last week.
Mrs. C. E. Gove, of Cambridge, Ida., arrived the first of the week for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Laraway.
Mrs. J. H. McVay, after a visit with relatives and friends at her former home, Toledo, Ohio, is expected home the latter part of this week.
Misses Adrienne Epping and Frances E. Baker, former local high school students, are members of the girls' tennis team at the University of Oregon.
Mrs. Carpenter, of Portland, was here during commencement week with her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Henney, director of music of the local schools.
Gus Nelson, an O.-W. R. & N. employe who sustained a badly bruised foot last week, has been taken to the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland.
W. H. Galvani, chief engineer of the Pacific Power & Light Co., was a business visitor in the city the latter part of last week.
O. C. Keizer, who has been spending several months at the W. S. Crapper place in Oak Grove district, left Monday for Condon.
Mrs. J. R. Newton left last week for a visit in Salem, from which place she will leave for Philadelphia where she will make her home.
C. B. Jensen, who for the past several years has been making his home in Redding, Calif., has returned to his Upper Valley ranch.
James Cluow, representing Robert T. Cochran & Co., New York commission merchants, was here last week looking over the valley.
One of the paintings of Edward Hill, formerly of this city, was shown at the exhibit of the Mutual Art Association in Portland, last week.
Leroy Armstrong left Tuesday for Portland to attend to business. Mr. Armstrong will leave soon to take charge of the Bend Bulletin.
Mrs. C. W. Simonsen and two little sons, Willie and Robert, of Portland, arrived last Thursday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Arneson.
R. A. Collins, of Dece, has just purchased a number of registered dairy cows with which he will stock his ranch. The animals were bought at Independence.
Clifford Ross, of the Consolidated Mercantile Co., who has been indisposed for the past several days, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Rose, in Portland.
T. D. Calkins brought the first ripe Loyal Anne cherries of the season to the city yesterday. Boxes of the handsome fruit were on display at the Star grocery.
Mr. and Mrs. Val W. Tomkins and Mrs. Tomkins' sister, Mrs. Warriner, were up from Cascade Locks, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lucas during commencement week.
Thurston Laraway, who is attending Behrke-Walker Business College in Portland, was here last week attending the commencement events of the high school.
The Odd Fellows baseball team is planning a game next Sunday or the Sunday following with the Hassalo team of Portland. The game will be played at Bonneville and the families of the fraternal organization members will journey with them to the pretty O.-W. R. & N. station, where is located the state fish hatchery.

J. D. O'Flynn, of Portland, passed through the city last week on route to Dece, where he will be engineer on one of the locomotives of the Mt. Hood Railway Co.
Iryan Abraham, a recent graduate of the high school, who has been staying here with his brother, Dr. V. R. Ataham, returned to his home in Forest Grove Monday.
C. H. Henney, of Portland, spent the latter part of last week here visiting friends. Mr. Henney is now in the customs office of the United States government at Portland.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Putnam, of Battleboro, Vermont, and Frank Putnam, of Los Angeles, have been here visiting their sister-in-law, Mrs. John R. Putnam, of the Mount Hood community.
Mrs. J. A. Elliott and little son were in the city from Sunny last Saturday. Mrs. Elliott is the wife of Engineer Elliott, who is supervising the Mitchell Point construction work on behalf of the state.
Misses Emma Pickler, Nellie Crocker and Lurena Shucks, teachers of the city schools, left the latter part of last week for Portland, where they will spend the summer. Miss Pickler's parents reside in Portland.
Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Sutter, of Rock Rapids, Ia., who are now in California, visiting the expositions, are expected here the latter part of the week for a visit with the family of Mrs. Sutter's sister, Mrs. S. A. Mitchell and family.
Mrs. Will Somerville presented the Glacier office with some excellent strawberries Tuesday. The fruit, of the Clark Seedling variety, was the largest seen this season. The berries were delicious.
Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Armstrong, of Peoria, Ill., have arrived here for a visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard K. Armstrong, who have come up from Portland to spend the summer on their West Side place.
Chas. Hall, now manager of the Coos & Curry Telephone Co., and H. A. Franz, who is connected with the system in the southern Oregon coast, are here from Marshfield on business. Mr. Franz was formerly in the employ of the local telephone company.
Mrs. E. Hinrichs and little daughter, Helen, of Pierce, Ariz., arrived last week to spend the summer with Mrs. Hinrichs' brother and sister, Ralph Hinrichs, Miss Frieda Hinrichs and Mrs. Ray Markley, of the West Side.
The presence of all members of the Ladies' Aid society is especially desired at the next regular meeting at the Congregational church, Friday May 28, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. D. E. Rand and Miss Della Northey will be guests of honor.
G. V. Stanifer, a member of the contracting firm of Stanifer-Clarkson Co., who are building the Columbia Highway around Mitchell Point, was here Saturday, accompanied by C. A. Pfoff, a member of the crew of engineers engaged in the work.
Mrs. R. N. Young, who has recovered from a recent serious operation in Portland, returned home last week.
Mrs. M. A. Congdon, who has had been here with her children, has returned to her home in Portland.
The members of Canby Relief Corps will hold an afternoon social at the home of Mrs. H. J. Fredrick, next Wednesday. All members and friends of the Corps are urged to take advantage of the afternoon's entertainment.
Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Page and daughter, Miss Eugenie, and son, John Page, of East Orange, N. J., motored over from Mosier, where they have property interests, the first of the week to look over the Hood River valley. They were accompanied by Miss Marjorie Page, of Mosier.
S. Hirsch, of Niagara, N. Y., who has been attending the Panama-Pacific International exposition, spent a part of last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Willis Van Horn. Mr. Hirsch was so greatly impressed with the valley that he declared he was going to return for a longer stay in July.
The members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. will attend the morning services at Ashbury M. E. church next Sunday. With them all citizens are invited to do honor to our departed heroes. Rev. Young will speak on "The Perils of the Republic." Miss Hazel Stanton will sing. The public is invited.
A piano recital by the pupils of Miss Maude Carlisle will be given this afternoon at 3 o'clock at library hall. Those interested in the work are invited to be present. This is the closing recital of the year. Miss Carlisle will teach in Hood River during the summer.
Miss Clara Bruce, a teacher-missionary in India, who is en route to Wellesley college for a class reunion, stopped here last week for a visit with her former classmate, Miss Harriet Brunquist. Miss Bruce, before returning to India, will take a special course at the University of Chicago.
Homer G. Day, manager of the Underwood and White Salmon fruit selling associations and also of the Columbia River Cooperative Cannery at the latter place, was a business visitor in the city Saturday. Mr. Day states that the cannery will not be operated this year. While here he visited the plant of the Hood River Canning Co.

J. G. Vogt spent Sunday in The Dalles visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vogt.
C. J. Calkins left the latter part of last week for San Francisco and other California points, where he will attend to business connected with the Hood River Apple Vinegar Co. J. W. Fellows, of Portland, one of the officers of the vinegar company, is here attending to business of the high manufacturing concern, while Mr. Calkins is away.
Mark Moe and Harold Blackman will leave today for Corvallis for a visit with the former's brother, Forrest L. Moe, who is a member of this year's graduating class of the Oregon Agricultural College. Mr. Moe, who has specialized in horticulture, will take charge of the orchard place of his father, A. D. Moe, on his return here.
The Parker orchestra will begin Saturday night a series of harvest dances. The dances will be held at Heilbronner hall. E. R. Parker, manager of the orchestra, states that the dances will be made as pleasant as possible, and that no unseemly conduct will be allowed on the floor. Dancing will begin at 8:30 o'clock and stop at 12.
The members of the boys' Sunday school class of the Heights Baptist church taught by Mrs. Marshall Hill will be hosts at an ice cream social on the lawn of Mrs. Hill's home this evening. The young men, assisted by some of the "Older boys" of the Heights, will render an appropriate program. Music will be rendered by Mrs. Harry Fitzgerald and others. All are urged to be present for the happy occasion.
The following members of St. Mark's Episcopal church were in The Dalles last week to attend the annual convention. Mrs. Geo. A. Stranahan, who was elected secretary of the House of Church women, Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Maenamara, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flieger, Mrs. Arthur Clarke, Mrs. G. L. Schickly, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Hitchinson, Mrs. E. D. Kanaga, Mrs. R. D. Gould and Miss Rebecca Thompson, the latter of Cascade Locks.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Stevens and little daughter, of Lone Rock, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Stevens, of Condon, making the journey in their automobile, arrived here on the 20th for a visit with the family of L. Stevens, a brother of the eastern Oregon men, and to be present at the graduation exercises of the Hood River high school, of which Miss Bessie Stevens was a member. The journey here was made in nine hours. After looking over the valley, the party returned home Tuesday, declaring that Hood River was the garden spot of Oregon.

The Studebaker Is Reliable

The Materials in all Parts of the Studebaker Machines Have All Been Tested

Down to the last .0001 of an inch the Studebaker makes sure. For the past 63 years "Studebaker" is a name that has stood for highest achievements in manufacturing. It is a name that represents millions of dollars invested and millions of friends in every country of the globe.

You can only appreciate Studebaker accuracy by riding in one of their new model, fully equipped "fours" or light "sixes."

"Firestone" TIRES

Foust & Merle
Corner of First and State Sts. Phone 3173

CAMP OUTFITS

It will soon be time to hike to the woods. Why not let us make your Camp Life more enjoyable?

- Tents
- Cots
- Camp Chairs
- Camp Tables
- Camp Lamps
- Hammocks
- Fishing Tackles
- Fishing Licenses
- Camp Baking Reflectors
- Tin Camping Ware
- All Size Fry Pans
- Hunter's Axes
- Camp Knives
- Fireless Cookers

E. A. Franz Co.

AT THE GLACIER OFFICE
Rubber Stamps

5 Cents Per Day
($18.25 Per Year)
NOW PAYS FOR $1,000.00

LIFE INSURANCE (At the Age of 29).
Older ages are only a trifle higher.
A New Low Rate Contract has a Total Disability Clause, Loan Values, Cash Surrender Values and Extended Insurance. It carries all the advantages which the highest priced policy in any other company does.

That's the New Policy of Oregon Life
The ONLY Life Insurance Company which does Business EXCLUSIVELY IN HEALTHFUL OREGON
"BEST FOR OREGONIANS"
Home Office: Corbett Building, Corner Fifth and Morrison, PORTLAND
A. L. MILLS President L. SAMUEL General Manager J. H. HEILBRONNER District Manager

We Wish to Announce
Edison Mazda Lamps, 10, 15, 20, 25, 40 watts, each 27c
Hotpoint Irons $3.00
Electric Stoves 3.05
Three Electric Fireless Cookers, while they last. 5.00
These are a genuine bargain and large enough to cook an entire meal. A complete line of flash light batteries, Columbia dry cells for autos and sprayers.
Vacuum Sweeper for rent at 50c a day
Apple City Electric Shop, Third Street Hood River, Ore.
E. S. COLBY, Mgr.