

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION

Shoes made or repaired at Johnson's Mike Ostergard, of Viento, was a business visitor in the city last week. Have your tires set by L. V. Driscoll, Cascade Avenue. jn241

Mr. and Mrs. E. Shelley Morgan and children, of Portland, spent the Fourth of July vacation at their West Side ranch. Mrs. J. P. Stahl, of Eagle Rock, who has been here visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. H. Coolidge, returned home last Friday.

North Dakota just to see the Fourth of July celebration and to hear the Bohemian Girl. "And it was worth it," she says. Chas. Hall, who is now located in Marshfield, where he is president and manager of the Coos Curry Telephone Co., arrived Monday, joining Mrs. Hall and children, who had been here for some time visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. English, of Oak Grove district.

CONTEST INTEREST BEGINS TO GROW

Interest in the contest now being waged among Hood River girls for a free trip to the Panama-Pacific exposition to be given by local merchants is growing. The leaders are beginning to hustle for votes, and the contest bids fair to become close and such as to draw the public eye as it draws to a finish. The following is the standing of the different contestants:

Matchless Values

In Apparel for Mountain and Seashore

This week we feature the necessities for your outing trips, whether your plans are for the mountains or the seashore, and in our plans, have not forgotten the touring parties who may plan for. No matter what your wants we can supply them economically and in these as in all our other lines. Quality is our first care.

- $3.50 Ladies' Khaki Combination Outing Skirts $2.98
Made from excellent quality wear resisting materials, with high waist band and extra deep hem—can be changed in an instant to a perfect riding skirt. New, natty and perfect fitting; this week only $2.98
$1.75 Middy and Balkan blouses in colors and materials to match; this week only $1.49
$3.50 Ladies Mesh Suits in stripe and plain wash fabrics—only a few left; choice this week $1.00
1 lot Misses', Women's, Boys' and Men's shoes, discontinued lines and odd lots; choice this week $1.00
1 lot Misses' and Children's Middy Blouses, new and in all white with neatly braided collars, special 73c
1-2 Price All remnants Dress Goods, Silks, Wash Goods, Laces, Embroideries, Curtain, Scrim odd lots of Ladies Neckwear, etc., all special at Just One-Half Regular Price

GEM PROGRAM TODAY

"The Acid Test." A Balboa Pathé Three reel feature with Jackie Saunders in the lead.
Friday
"The Wrong Woman." An Edison three reel feature. Featuring Mabel Tringali, Gladys Huletto, Augustus Phillips, George Wright and Bigelow Cooper.
Saturday
"Vengeance." An Essanay three reel feature with Richard Travers and Edna Mayo in the leads.
Sunday and Monday
"Who Pays?" "Unto Himself Alone." Fifth drama in a series of 12 of vital questions of life. Featuring Ruth Roland and Henry King. Three Parts.
Tuesday
"Mrs. Jarr and the Beauty Treatment." A Vitagraph comedy. While Mrs. Jarr is beautifying herself Jarr and the kids get into no end of trouble. Gus puts in an appearance. Smiles take the place of frowns and everything is beautiful.
Wednesday and Thursday
Wednesday and Thursday, July 14 and 15, George Kiehl, in his photo play masterpiece, "Vandetta," in five reels, from the novel by Marie Corelli.

Combination Dust and Rain Coat Shown for First Time

A new process coat, light as silk, a perfect dust coat, absolutely water and oil proof—containing no rubber—a real boon to every autoist who's touring equipment is not now complete without one of these garments; we show them this week for the first time in Hood River in men's, women's and children's. $8.50, $12.50, $4.00

Brugg Mercantile Co. Hood River, Oregon

AT NEW ELECTRIC

Today
"The Corsican Brothers." King Baggott, featured in Imp three reel picture of Alexander Dumas' famous novel. Remarkable double exposure in which King Baggott plays the part of both brothers.
Saturday
"Mrs. Black is Back." Many Hood River people saw May Irwin in "Widow by Proxy" at the Heiliglast winter. They will never forget her. Nor will you if you see her in "Mrs. Black is Back."

Our Provision Counter
Is complete for the hot days. A trial is satisfaction.
E. M. Holman
The Sanitary Market
Phone 2134

Never bought better suits than these

We say without reservation or hesitation that the values offered tomorrow in this special selection of thirty-six suits for men and young men at $20 are not to be equaled by any other store in town. You may find suits elsewhere in which one or two features are above the ordinary, you may find suits that look right, but no where will you find style, fabric, finish and fit so pleasingly and perfectly combined as in these suits from the House of Kuppenheimer at $20.00

J. G. Vogt
Copyright 1914 THE HOUSE OF KUPPENHEIMER

Miss Doris Jensen, of Dee, was here last week taking the teachers' examination. William Cass left Saturday for Grass Valley, Ore., where he will spend a portion of his vacation. Talk with Reed & Henderson about insurance of all kinds. Money to loan on first class farm property. James Hunter, of Monrovia, Calif., was here last week on business. Mr. Hunter formerly resided here. Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Wasson, of Indianapolis, are here enjoying a vacation on their Duke's Valley ranch. Misses Dorothy and Marjorie Wissinger, of Milwaukee, are here visiting their aunt Mrs. C. A. Bell. Little Miss Lena Crump, returned last Friday from Walla Walla, Wash., where she had been visiting relatives. On films left up to 4 p. m., prints will be ready for delivery at 1 p. m. the following day—Sloom & Canfield Co. Mrs. E. S. Colby spent the Fourth at Troutdale with her parents. Miss Maud Melton spent the Fourth in Portland visiting friends and relatives. Miss Alice See, of Des Moines, Ia., is expected about July 12, to take charge of the county library. Miss Lottie Reed, of this city, spent Saturday and Sunday in The Dalles, visiting friends. The family of John B. Yeon, of Portland, is spending the week at the Cottage farm home of Mrs. Alma Howe. J. B. Anderson has disposed of his interest in the Consolidated Mercantile Co. to the other stockholders in the organization. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Clark and children, of Portland, spent Sunday here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Anderson. Lost—A lady's black serge coat between Barrett and the city, going by the way of Paradise farm. Leave at H. L. Hasbrouck's. Harold Hershner, assistant cashier at the Butler Banking Co., will leave today for Mansfield, Ohio, where he will spend several weeks visiting relatives. J. F. Thompson, of Parkdale, was among the Upper Valley people down to attend the S. Benson reception Tuesday evening. Mrs. Leslie Smith and children, after a visit here with parents of Mr. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Smith, have returned to their home in Golden, B. C. Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Huggins and child have been here the past week from Salem visiting Mrs. Huggins' parents. Jake Lenz and A. M. Kelly were business visitors in the city last week, having made the trip aboard the Fashion Stables overland motor stage. Mrs. S. B. Bennett, accompanied by her granddaughters, Miss Minnie Hogue and Miss Isabelle Patterson, and her grandson, Wren Hogue, left last Friday for Kent.

Miss Marion Dunlop, of Peotone, Ill., a niece of Mrs. Imholz, and Miss Hilda Titlson, a friend of the former, after a tour of California and a visit to the expositions, are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. Imholz and family. Joe Carson, who is now in Portland, where he is at work and carrying on legal studies, spent the Fourth at Parkdale. He was home Monday visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Carson. H. A. Wilkins was here over the week end from Portland visiting his wife and baby who are spending the summer at the E. E. Gould place in Odell. Mr. Wilkins was accompanied by his aunt, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Brock, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Clough and daughter spent the Fourth at their ranch on the upper East Fork of Hood river. Mrs. Clough and her daughter will remain on the ranch during the heated season. Rev. A. S. Donat and a party of Boy Scouts, went to Parkdale, Monday aboard the train of the Mount Hood Railway Company. The boys and the Scoutmaster carried their bicycles and made the journey back to the city via the Neal creek and East Side roads. Mrs. Otis D. Trierber and children will leave this week for Denver, Colo., where she will meet her mother, who has been attending the California expositions. They will proceed from Colorado to Kansas, where relatives will be visited. S. W. Curran, of Viento, who is here this week attending the session of circuit court, being a jurymen, says that the people of the towns down the Columbia are the happiest in the state now, the completion of the Columbia highway giving them a way to other parts of the country. The ladies of Ashbury M. E. church will hold an experience meeting at the church Friday evening at 8 o'clock, at which time they will tell how they earned the dollar they had pledged to a certain fund. All members and friends of the church are invited to meet with the ladies for a social evening. Miss Della Morton, daughter of J. W. Motton, who has been making her home in this city, will leave the latter part of this week for Sidney, Australia. She will make the journey with friends of her neighboring town and remain in the far away land for a year and a half. Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Fulling and two daughters, Misses Ruth and Hilda, are here from Booneville, Ind., visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perigo and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Perigo and children. Mr. and Mrs. Fulling and daughters are en route to California to see the expositions. At the Valley Christian church next Sunday morning, the children of the Sunday school will give their Children's Day program. The program was postponed last Sunday to give all an opportunity to attend the union service at the chautauqua park. A good attendance is earnestly solicited. Miss Cleo Shoup, teacher of the Middle Valley school, who has been here visiting her sister, Mrs. Bert Walsh, left Saturday for Illinois, where she will spend the summer visiting relatives and friends, at Lincoln and Springfield. On her return trip she will make visits at Lead, S. D., and Butte, Mont. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Burns and son, Robert, of Portland, spent the week end here visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Weber. Mr. Burns is a sister of Mrs. Weber. Mr. Burns is an O. W. R. & N. conductor. Earl Weber, who has been in Portland, spent the Independence Day vacation at home with his parents. Miss Frances Farrell, of Kintire, N. D., a cousin of Mr. Farrell, and Mrs. K. Yettick and Miss Harriet Farrell, of Portland, his sisters, have been here visiting Harry Farrell. The former states that she came all the way from

Young Girl, Heroine, Drowns
Miss Dorothy Rauch, daughter of E. C. Rauch, who accompanied by Mrs. Rauch, has been assisting R. E. Johnson of the local American Express office during the strawberry rush, was drowned Sunday afternoon in the Willamette river near Salem, while attempting a rescue of her sister, who had stepped into the water. The young lady made the day before unknown to the girls, by a dredger. The sister first in peril was 20 years of age. Another sister, 22 years old, also was near death in the water. The young lady who heroically met death in the rescue of her sister, was 15 years old. With the local Western Union office closed it was difficult to reach Mr. and Mrs. Rauch with the sad news. Salem relatives finally telephoned to Portland, the last evening train for Portland had left and the grief stricken parents were forced to wait until the first westbound train Monday morning.
Winston Will Take Graduate Work
J. R. Winston, who for the past two years has been pathologist at the local branch of the Oregon state experiment station, will leave soon to take up graduate work at the University of Wisconsin at Madison. The time chosen by Mr. Winston for his absence from the station is an opportune one, since the light duties incident to make suitable appropriations for the staff of experts. About a dozen men have been dropped, among them Letoy Childs, who has been at the local station. Mr. Winston is expected to return to Hood River.
S. W. Curran Grows Fine Grain
The low water in the Columbia this season has been a boon to farmers who own bottom land. I. D. Calkins will harvest the finest crop grown in years on the Morton place which he operates under lease. Probably the finest wheat ever grown in Hood River county has been harvested on the place of S. W. Curran at Viento. The stalks reared themselves higher than a man's head all over the field. It is estimated that the yield will be more than 40 bushels per acre.
Coppel-Harry
The wedding of Berthel C. Coppel and Miss Olive M. Harry was solemnized at the parlor of the Hotel Oregon here last Friday morning. Rev. J. D. Bird, pastor of the Hermitian Methodist church officiating. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coppel are graduates of the O. A. C. school of pharmacy, had been employed in a drug store in Hermitian.
After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Coppel proceeded to Corvallis, where they spent a few days before going to Corvallis to make their home.
Mrs. Frank Sees Tunnel
Mr. and Mrs. Sherman J. Frank motored down to Mitchell Point Tuesday afternoon to see the big tunnel that is being constructed there for the Columbia highway. Mrs. Frank made the ascent of the steep blisides and climbed the ladders into the tunnel. They both proclaim the view as had from this point as magnificent.
Bert Kent Takes Over Ferry
Capt. Otis D. Trierber has disposed of his Hood River-Underwood ferry system to Bert Kent, who began the operation of the boats on Thursday, July 1. Mr. Kent announces that for the present no change will be made in service or schedule. "I shall endeavor to give the people of both sides of the river the best service available," he says.
Sherrard Offers Aid
State Forest Supervisor T. H. Sherrard, according to W. Ross Winans, who has been circulating a petition calling for voluntary subscriptions of money and labor for the completion of a passable road to Lost Lake, has offered the cooperation of the forestry service in building the proposed road.
James Ruth Dead
James Ruth, the father of Mrs. Will Isenberg, died at the home of Mrs. Isenberg at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. Mr. Ruth had reached his 80th year.

Unitarian Church
Sunday school at 10 a. m. Service of worship at 11. Mr. Wedemeyer will sing. Evening service at 8. Miss Gladys Reavis will sing and Miss Mudge Otis will play a piano solo. All are cordially invited.
United Brethren
Themes for the coming Sunday are as follows: "I. a. m.", "Abraham, the Friend of God," 8 p. m., "Investments That Never Fail." Sunday school meets at 10 a. m. You are welcome to all these services.
Riverside Church
Sunday school at 9.45. Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Solo by Mrs. Sletton. Sermon subject, "Symbol of Righteousness." Communion and reception of members into the church. Quarterly statement by financial secretary.
Christian Church
There will be regular services at the First Christian church next Sunday. Bible school at 9.45. Communion 11 o'clock, sermon at 11.30. C. E. 6.45 p. m. Sermon 8 p. m. W. H. Applegate, of Zillah, Wash., will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening.
Heights Baptist Church
Sunday school 10 o'clock. Preaching services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Morning subject, "A Delightful Pursuit;" evening, "A Question of Authority." B. Y. P. U. at 7 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend our services. John Samuel, Pastor.
Salem People Travel Columbia Highway
Reading the dispatch from Hood River Wednesday morning's Oregonian relative to the opening of the Columbia highway, the following people from Salem set out for Hood River and eastern Oregon: Chas. A. Park, E. L. McCormack and C. M. Byrd. They arrived here at noon.
Miss McLucas in Seattle
Miss Elsie McLucas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLucas, of this city, is now in Seattle, where she is children's librarian at the Queen Anne library, having received her appointment while she was a member of the training class of the Central library in Portland. Miss McLucas did her apprentice work in the local county library under Miss Della F. Northey former county librarian.

LADIES! if your Bracelet, Necklace or Rings need repairing or engraving O. E. GRUHL guarantees every job. Come in and see me. In the office of A. W. Onthank on Oak St.
Fixtures, Lamps, Motors, Ever Ready Flash Lights Columbia Dry Cells for Autos and Sprayers Electric Cooking Apparatus for the hot weather Vacuum Sweeper for rent Apple City Electric Shop, Third Street Hood River, Ore. E. S. COLBY, Mgr.