It takes a strong imagination to believe in some of the promises made by some sellers of shoes. Things that you know are impossible are offered as glibly as the most reasonable propositions. We are not selling shoes for our health nor do we believe any one else is. But we know that our prices are as low as honest qualities will permit.

"And all of our friends thought they were plums until they had eaten some of the cherries. I never saw such fine fruit." The cherries sent to Kentucky were grown on the place of J. R. Nunemaker.

VIRGINIA MINSTRELS COMING TO TOWN

J. W. Johnson's Virginia Minstrels are coming to town. The colored troubadours will arrive here next Saturday, and they will make things lively while in the city. A free street parade is a part of the program, and the lively music will be an additional feature to attract the Saturday afternoon crowd. The Virginia Minstrels include good dancing, singing, novelty acts, juggling, wire walking, hoop rolling and fire eating. The colored minstrels will appear in their own big tent. The press in other parts of the country, where the Virginia Minstrels have appeared, have the highest praise for the performances. The following clippings evidence this:
The Old Virginia Minstrels was the first genuine colored minstrel show of the old school to ever visit Beaumont. Such a decided success was scored that the management cancelled his Fort Arthur date and will show here tonight.—Beaumont, Texas, Enterprise.
San Jose was scarcely expecting the high class performance given by the Old Virginia Minstrels.—San Jose, Calif., Herald.
The Virginia Minstrels made a big hit and turned out excellent musical and vaudeville program. Orpheum crowded to its capacity.—Ogden, Utah, Examiner.

Valley Lures Japanese
"It is not alone the profit to be derived from berry and small fruit areas, but the beauty of the region that lures the Japanese here," says S. Yumibe, of Dee, who was in the city last week. "I have been away from my home for 10 years," says the Japanese boy, "and if I should remain away for 100 years I would never forget the beautiful mountains of Japan, nor the excellent scenery. But I can keep for getting lonely by looking upon what's the word you use here—magnificent, yes that's it, your magnificent mountain, Mount Hood."
