Mrs. D. E. Clark and her sister, Mrs. James Bryden, went to Dee Sunday to visit their niece, Mrs. Emilio.

Mrs. Harry Emery lost a parcel containing a dolly which she intended to present to Mrs. Leedom for her birthday. The dolly was wrapped in tissue paper and the outside wrapping was a Lincoln, Neb., newspaper, and was lost at the Union church or between there and the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leedom, in the telephone building.

The class party given by members of the Young Married People's Sunday School class last Friday evening at the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sheppard, was a delightful affair throughout. Plans were made for an outdoor party, with the understanding that if the weather was not favorable those invited would assemble indoors and the rainy days preceding the appointed evening did not in the least decrease the interest. More than thirty members were present and enjoyed the gracious hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard and the congenial society of the members who attended. Delicious refreshments were served and the committee in charge of this important part of the affair received much favorable mention, as did the various committees who performed well the parts assigned them. For a class whose existence dates only from February last, this is a most promising one, and we expect to be able to note many increasing and encouraging facts regarding the class and its work, as well as many pleasing social events.

Last Sunday the services at the Methodist church were arranged to conform to the Billy Sunday service at the Union church. Because of the fact that many members of the Sunday school could not be notified of the change of plans there were three teachers and officers of the Sunday school remained and received those who came, and a session was held with twenty-five present. S. E. credit was given all who attended the service at the Union church.

Service 9:30 a. m., Sunday school 10:30 a. m., Epworth League 8 p. m., at the Methodist church, next Sunday. Mrs. Fairland will lead the Epworth League service. Miss Mary Sheppard sang two beautiful songs last Sunday evening, one The Lord's Prayer and the other the League benediction set to music.

W. J. Wollam went to Portland Monday morning on business.

Howard Miller had a birthday Sunday. The young gentleman proudly says he is seven years old now.

The Belmont W. F. M. S. met last Wednesday at the home of Mr. H. T. Begeen. A good meeting was held. Items of interest in the missionary field were read and told. A good attendance was present. After the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Knowles and family spent Sunday with friends above Tucker Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Eastman and son, Lewis, spent Sunday at their ranch on the East Side.

TROUT LAKE

The rain has retarded hay making to some extent, but no hay has been lost, and the large crop has been put up in good condition.

Mrs. E. M. Landis is entertaining Mrs. Johnson and son, Neil, of Kennewick.

The fair committee held a business meeting Sunday afternoon.

The creek is lined with campers and the Gulch hotel is filled with summer people.

So far as is known Trout Lake valley furnished no victims for the U. S. Cashier Company.

Chas. Moore has commenced baling the first crop of hay.

The Wilson laundry is now in full swing, and looking for business. This is a home industry.

Many friends sympathize with John Vost in the loss of his barns and hay by fire last week.

Mrs. M. Wolf is entertaining Miss Nash, of Huum, and Miss Shelley, of Hood River.

If party who found a purse will call at Pearson's store they may find the owner.

ing bee and picnic dinner. Between 50 and 60 were present. An old fashioned hot dinner was served. The day was beautiful and the youngsters enjoyed the lawn. Mr. and Mrs. Carson have an ideal place for a picnic and they are very generous. Mrs. Carson never spares herself any trouble to make it pleasant for her guests.

Mrs. Carson and her mother and father and families are enjoying a visit from two of their cousins from Kentucky, who are on their way to San Francisco. Also two cousins from Portland.

OAK GROVE

Misses Nan and Sue Roberts, of Chicago, who were returning from the Panama exposition, in company with Mrs. Binns, of Barrett, visited at A. J. Rogers' last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. English left last week for their new home at Marshfield. They will make the trip from Portland with Capt. Shaver and his auto. Mr. and Mrs. English have many friends here who regret their leaving.

Mr. Potter, from Douglas county, left Monday for home after an extended visit with his brother-in-law, R. W. Lindsey.

Guy Ellis' house with all the furniture was burned Tuesday morning. They surely have the sympathy of their many friends in their loss. Mr. and Mrs. A. Ellis, of Caney, Kansas, are here spending the summer with their son, and it is too bad their visit should be so marred.

FRANKTON

Will Martin, from Storm Cliff, the new name for Mitchell Point, came up on the train Sunday and crossed over the river to White Salmon, where he has work in a mill as sawyer.

Wild blackberries are tempting those who can stand the hard mountain climbing it takes to get them.

Judge Gantenbein came up from Portland Saturday and joined his family, which is spending the summer vacation on the ranch up here. The Judge says he is glad to get away from the city for time and will have his muscles pruned, haying and irrigating and between times eat fried chicken.

J. Yamada and wife, the little Japs who lived on the Boorman place for so long, are the proud possessors of a bouncing big girl baby, who came last week to stay with them.

Mrs. J. R. Moreland, mother of J. I. Moreland, is expected up from Salem this week to visit for a time with Irving and family at their Phelps creek ranch.

Some friends of E. Shelby Morgan, a man and his wife, left Portland last Sunday about 8 o'clock, came over the new highway to Hood River, went out to the Morgan ranch on Phelps creek and back to Portland the same afternoon. Next.

Mrs. Dan Malner and Mrs. John Phillips were up in the hills berrying last week.

The old Henson memorial arch committee held a special meeting the other day. They want to take some action on the proposition in the near future. If they will only stay with the arch it will be a great thing, but there are breakers ahead if they try to side-step.

We were down at Wyeth the week end, and returning Sunday we were looking over the Columbia river high way. At all the springs or small streams where water and shade were available from one to three or more autos were side tracked, their occupants enjoying themselves in various ways. Some were taking pictures, others fishing, but all in all it was a sight to be remembered, and will be more than duplicated every Sunday this Summer.

E. Shelby Morgan and family and some friends from Portland started Tuesday morning for Green Point or beyond, for a week's outing. They will have a fine time and some time it is lawful to hunt fish and pick huckleberries. A good time is expected, whether they find a bear or not.

One of the benefits of fraternalism has been demonstrated in this neighborhood recently. Mrs. Richard Bellamy, who lost her husband some time ago and was left in a strange land with two small children to care for, received the insurance that her husband carried, in less than a month after his death.

The Columbia highway through Frankton is a busy street these days. Autos and other vehicles are coming and going almost continually, and some are going on foot. And those are not weary willies, either. The other morning bright and early a bunch of ladies and gentlemen, that reports say started from Hood River to hike to Portland over the new road, were seen hitting the high places. They were traveling light, having no luggage but a canteen, and it is not known even what was in it.

HEIGHTS NEWS

The Women of Woodcraft very pleasantly surprised Mrs. Ben Stevens last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Stevens. They found out that Mr. and Mrs. Stevens were going to eastern Oregon on Sunday, so met with her and had a very enjoyable time. A delicious lunch was served, and Mrs. Stevens, who had been the captain of the team of Women of Woodcraft for over a year, was presented with a fine china salad set. While in the midst of their enjoyment Miss Bessie Stevens, who had been in eastern Oregon for the past month, walked in and was much surprised to know that her brother and family were going away. Mr. Stevens shipped his goods and the family drove through with the team.

The Boy Scouts and their Scoutmaster, Rev. Donat, started on a hike for the Punch Bowl Tuesday morning to be gone two days.

Mrs. Kent Shoemaker entertained her mother and sister and three children over Sunday. Her sister left for Pennsylvania and her mother for Washington Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Prindle moved from the Stranban residence on Twelfth street last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, son-in-law and daughter of Lon Stevens, moved into the Glaze house just vacated by Ben Stevens on June street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ward and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gill took their lunch Saturday and spent the day on the river. The men fished, getting 42 fish. Mr. Ward got 30 very fine ones.

A. C. Statten's family spent Sunday on the river.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Littlefield are contemplating renting the Bert Stranban house on Taylor street.

Mrs. M. A. Zellar, of Summit, a sister of Mrs. M. Sandland, spent a couple of days here at the Sunderland home on Taylor street.

There was a very pleasant gathering at the home of Mrs. Sallie Carson last week when the Baptist Ladies' Aid and their friends met for an old time quilt-

THE CABBY IS GLAD TO GET THE GOOD JUDGE'S TIP.

THAT'S MY TIP TO YOU THE REAL TOBACCO CHEW

IT'S THE BEST TIP I'VE HAD IN MANY A DAY

IT'S a glad day for a tobacco chewer when he finds the Real Tobacco Chew.

And when a man uses it himself, finds how good it is, he takes pleasure in letting his friends hear the good news.

You get the tobacco solace and comfort.

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough—cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting.

Take less than one-quarter the old size chew. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just take a nibble of it until you find the strength chew that suits you, then see how easily and how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end, excess of licorice and sweetening makes you spit too much.

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste.
