INFORMATION FOR EXPOSITION VISITORS

With a little care Oregonians going to the exposition will find it possible to stay there at no excessive cost. Down in the city good rooms at average hotels can be had at $1 to $2.50 per night, and rooms in boarding houses and homes at $5 to $10 per week. Restaurant prices are not beyond the usual and at cafeteria good food can be had at very reasonable prices. At the latter places, for everything except meat, five and ten cents is the price for the average dish.

There is an excess of rooms and eating places, but not yet having overflowed the city. For those who feel the need of apartments, one and two rooms with kitchenette and private bath range from $22.50 to $50 at thoroughly respectable and up to date apartment houses within a short street car ride of the exposition or city. On the exposition grounds prices are a little more strenuous in spots, but visitors meet this situation met by bringing their lunches with them, and the very best people do not seem to do this.

The Y. W. C. A. cafeteria occupies a building all its own and is the popular eating place within the gates. Here one can pick out a reasonably good meal for 50 cents or less, and for light lunches is ideal. However, at the M. J. B. Coffee Parlor, ham, eggs, bread, butter and coffee are obtainable at 40 cents. Waiters and coffee cost 25 cents. The Zone is filled with eating places, cabarets and restaurants offering food at all prices. "Hot dog" sandwiches and coffee joints are everywhere, and the combination can be had for 30 cents. In the Food Products building it is possible to get light lunches and tea for about 25 cents, and tea houses serving tea and rice cakes at 15 cents are everywhere.

There is but one hotel on the grounds, "Inside Inn." Rooms here without bath range from $3 per night upward, according to location; with bath, $5 and upward. Breakfast is served at 75 cents, straight, other meals a la carte. Patrons here pay the 50 cent daily admission to the grounds, but, unlike all others who attend the fair, these have a permit to leave and enter as they choose.

As a matter of general information, many Oregonians will be glad to know that hotel, room or apartment accommodations can be secured at the Ferry building. From there to the exposition the "D" car is the most popular. It is direct and lands one at the main or Scott street entrance. At the Oregon building every possible information about the grounds is available at the central hotel, and special effort is made to render Oregonians every needed service, as well as to make the visit of everyone to the building as pleasant as possible. Register at the Oregon building's central booth on your first visit and ask such questions as you may desire, also secure booklet detailing the facts about Oregon exhibits in this building and in the main palaces.

When Hot Weather Oppresses

When you suffer from a feeling of oppression, when a naturally keen and alert brain seems dull and stupid, when bodily strength seems lacking and you are inert and languid—do not blame it altogether on hot weather. The hot sun will not effect you so much if the bowels are regular and the liver active and healthy. Foley Cathartic Tablets are the ideal remedy for indigestion and constipation. They give stout persons relief from that uncomfortable bloated and congested feeling. For sale by Chas. N. Clarke.

Writer Cites Needs

HOOD RIVER, OR., July 21, 1915. To the Editor: It is encouraging to see the matter of the "Swimming Hole" for Hood River taking such practical shape, and the committee that has handled the matter deserves great credit for carrying it to so successful an outcome. The location in the city park is the only one where a swimming place could be properly regulated, and unless it is under proper restriction a swimming hole will soon become a public nuisance. Located in the city park the city could, and properly should, assist financially in installing the swimming hole and see to the proper regulation of the same when in use. This can be made the beginning of a public playground in the city park, and if a little is added each year the expense will not be appreciable, while in a short time the city will have an up to date public play grounds worth many times the cost to the city.

Now that Hood River has the Columbia river highway, with good schools, a good public library, with its matchless scenery and healthful climate, the addition of a public play grounds will add to the city's other attractions, and it is believed will assist in locating the additional industries which are necessary for the future development of the city. The low cost of power and transportation charges, by rail and water, with other local advantages make Hood River an ideal location for industrial plants. Taxpayer.

Cured of Indigestion

Mrs. Sallie P. Clawson, Indiana, Pa., was bothered with indigestion. "My stomach pained me night and day," she writes. "I would feel bloated and have headaches and belching after eating. I also suffered from constipation. My daughter had used Chamberlain's Tablets and they did her so much good that she gave me a few doses of them and insisted upon my trying them. They helped me as nothing else has done." For sale by all dealers.

O-W. Co. to Give Demonstration

Mrs. M. E. King, who has had an extensive experience in the preserving of fruits and vegetables for the home use, will give a demonstration in the Commercial club hall tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. King has been engaged by the O-W. R. & N. Co., to give these demonstrations over its entire line and has already held such demonstrations in the Yakima valley, Walla Walla district and the Spokane territory where she has met with flattering success. Mrs. King is not a graduate of domestic science, but has a happy way of telling the housewives her experience in preserving and canning fruits and vegetables for home use, which seems to make a decided impression on the ladies at all her meetings.

The O-W. R. & N. Co. believes that such good will be obtained through these practical demonstrations and not only will it increase the consumption of all soft fruits tributary to the company's lines, but will assist materially in making better and more contented homes. It is expected that Mrs. King will be greeted by a good audience.

MOTORIST SUGGESTS ROAD IMPROVEMENTS

J. F. Brumfield, manager of the Mason-Ehrman Co., of Portland, who with his family was here last week visiting C. J. Calkins and family, makes some pertinent suggestions as to the road between Hood River valley and Mosier. Mr. Brumfield and his family had been on the headwaters of the Mackenzie river. They motored over to the Metolius and thence down the Deschutes through The Dalles and on to Hood River.

"The worst place I struck on the route," says Mr. Brumfield, "was near the top of the hill between here and Mosier. It had been raining, and the car skidded badly. It was, indeed, dangerous, for at the point mentioned there is no embankment or railing to prevent a car from sliding down a precipice. The county court or officials having jurisdiction should make improvements at this place."

Accompanied by Miss Gladys Calkins, Mr. Brumfield and family left Saturday morning for their Portland home, the journey being made over the Columbia highway.

Best Diarrhoea Remedy

If you have ever used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy you know that it is a success. Sam F. Guin, Whatley, Ala., writes, "I had measles and got caught out in the rain, and it settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time, and had it not been for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not possibly have lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy, I am well and strong." For sale by all dealers.

Sunday, of Hood River, for the irrigation of 10 acres, diverting water from Shelley springs and creek, in Sec. 25, T 2 N, R 10 E. A. Guignard, of Hood River, for the development of 2,273 horsepower with the waters of Hood River, costing approximately $300,000. H. M. Fleming, of Dee, for the irrigation of 20 acres, including domestic supply, diverting water from an unnamed stream in Sec. 18, T 1 N, R 10 E.

Buelow Grows Tobacco

If anyone happens into the tailorshop of Karl Buelow, he will probably see Mr. Buelow fill his pipe from a tobacco box that sits on his ironing board. The tobacco is home grown. "It was produced right on my ranch," says Mr. Buelow, "and I have never smoked better. The leaves have grown fine and large, and the tobacco has a fragrance that cannot be surpassed." Mrs. Buelow has one of the finest gardens in the valley this year. Her corn is a marvel.
