A WOMAN'S FAIR

An agitation is being made to have year extended to take in the activities of the communities' housewives. The suggestion is one worthy of commendation, and we hope the women will see their desires gratified.

The Hood River valley's innumerable good cooks should be permitted to vie this proposed branch of the fair of and do not let the Oregon space go unnext year as in the fine stock. The filled with our excellent products, husbands should not be allowed to go forth with all the glory.

Often people become accustomed to some old, worthless, unsightly building, not only an eyesore to the town but an ever menacing fire trap. Catching from a carelessly tossed match or from some other source the old structure is suddealy in flames, igniting valuable neighboring property. Several months ago we saw the old Armory go up in flames. Hood River was never luckier. If a high wind had been blowing the damage of a night might have reached a thousand times the worth of the old

NEWS THAT IS GRATIFYING

The preponderance of opinion, as expressed by those who have visited the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francieso, is that Hood River and the state of Gregon have greatly benefited from publicity at the great world's fair. It was indeed gratifying news, that brought to us last week by H. C. When the petitioners walked to the royal palace, however, it was noticed that they wore no wigs themselves. As this seemed unfair to the onlookers they seized several of the leading processionists and cut their hair with any implement that came most readily
