He was former neighbors in eastern Oregon. Mr. Warner has won marked recognition for his poems. "The Buckaroo" has been very popular at Pendleton Round Ups.

ODD FELLOWS HOLD ANNUAL CONVENTION

More than 100 visiting members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows from Sherman and Wasco counties were in the city Monday night to attend the annual district convention of the fraternal organization. Following the business meeting, held in the Odd Fellows' hall, the visitors and their hosts repaired to the Knights of Pythias hall, where a banquet was served. The chief addresses of the evening were delivered by J. D. McLucas, Noble Grand of the local lodge; and Ashley Wilson, of this city, who was retiring president of the district organization. Representatives from lodges in the following cities were here: Dufur, The Dalles, W. W. Moore and Cascade Locks. A special train brought the delegates from eastern Oregon. Tygh Valley was chosen as the meeting place next year. Officers elected for the ensuing term at the convention were: J. T. Hargrett, Tygh Valley, president; A. A. Bonney, Tygh Valley, secretary; O. D. Doan, of The Dalles, treasurer. A wrestling match between Will McGuire and Clinton Mooney was staged for the entertainment of the lodge men. During the banquet at the K. of P. hall an Edison phonograph, furnished by Keir & Cass, made music for the occasion. Col. Tucker Brings Suit Col. W. F. Tucker has brought suit against G. L. Kirkpatrick, a neighboring rancher, and the county court to enjoin them from running a road across his Upper Valley home, "El Corregidor," to the Kirkpatrick place. Col. Tucker also calls for an adjudication of rights to a spring over which he and Mr. Kirkpatrick are in dispute. The county court recently began such action as is necessary to declare the road across Col. Tucker's place a county highway. The case of Fred Howe against Col. Tucker, the plaintiff claiming damage of $500 for the detention of his automobile, was dismissed by Judge Bradshaw Tuesday. Recently Mr. Howe, accompanied by S. W. Stark, visited the Kirkpatrick place. On the return across the Tucker ranch the car was stopped, trees having been felled across the road, one of Mr. Howe's horses failed to make out his case, since no actual detention of the car was shown, he having driven the machine back to the Kirkpatrick ranch. T. J. Canning is Dead News has just been received here of the death of Thomas J. Canning, a former prominent business man of the valley, who passed away at his home at Long Beach, Cal., Wednesday, November 3. The funeral of Mr. Canning, who was a pioneer of the valley and member of Canby Post, G. A. R., of this city, was held Monday. Mr. Canning removed with his wife to Long Beach about five years ago. According to his will he is survived by two sons, Alton Canning, of the Oak Grove district, and Arthur Canning, of Cocks, Wash. Roller Slides Down Fourth Street A heavy city roller becoming unmanageable on a heavy grade on Fourth street Monday afternoon slid down the hill and striking a telephone pole over a foot in diameter at the corner of Oak street with fearful impact, broke the pole to pieces and threw it into a match. Harry Jarvis, driver of the roller, stuck to the machine, attempting to guide it, until he saw it would collide with the pole. The smooth wheels of the roller failed to hold on the wet surface of the oilbroad macadam street. Damage Suit May Be Transferred An effort will be made by the defendant company in the case of D. L. Rowntree vs. The Mount Hood company to have the case transferred to the district court in Portland, since the railway company is a foreign corporation. The move will be contested by the plaintiff, Chas. T. Early, manager of the company, having been made a party to the suit. Judge represents the plaintiff, while the railway company's attorney is Ernest C. Smith. The point of change of venue will be argued in the federal court. Buchanan-Hogan The wedding of Miss Kathleen Hogan, formerly of this city, and Lloyd A. Buchanan, a popular young Portland business man, was solemnized Sunday afternoon at the newly furnished home of the contracting parties, Rev. Father Black, of Portland, officiating. Miss Ruth Kinnear was bridesmaid, and Jack Clark was Mr. Buchanan's best man. Little Miss Margaret Kauffman was the flower girl. Mrs. Buchanan has many local friends, having resided here with her aunt, Miss A. Ray. Lyman Smith Dies Suddenly Friends of the deceased received news yesterday of the sudden death of Lyman Smith, a Hood River pioneer, who was found dead in bed yesterday morning at the home of his son, Will Smith, in Portland. Mr. Smith, who formerly owned the old city spring property, had been living in Portland for several years. Funeral services will be held tomorrow at the graveside in Idlewild cemetery, where interment will take place. White-Burnett The wedding of L. H. White, a son of F. M. White, and Mrs. Ella Burnett, both of this city, was solemnized last Thursday in Portland, Rev. M. J. Ballard, pastor of the Latter Day Saints church in Portland, officiating. Mrs. B. B. Powell accompanied the bridal party to Portland. Mr. and Mrs. White will make their home at 1506 Cascade avenue. Japanese Will Celebrate Sunday The coronation of Emperor Yoshihito, which took place Wednesday, will be celebrated by local Japanese Sunday. The local subjects of the Nipponese ruler had planned to celebrate last night but postponed their festivities until Sunday, when K. Kusanagi, Japanese consul, of Portland, will be present. Spray Factory is Rising The excavation having been completed, work was begun Tuesday on the new spray factory of J. C. Butcher. The contract for erecting the building was awarded to H. Cramer. E. E. Kaesser's Mother Dead E. E. Kaesser received a telegram Monday telling him of the death of his mother, Mrs. Magdalene Kutz, of Rowley, Ia. Mrs. Kutz was 65 years of age. MASONS WILL HONOR TIEMAN TONIGHT

The local lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons will celebrate Tieman night at the Masonic Temple this evening, the occasion being in honor of the late Andrew H. Tieman, who left his entire fortune for the construction of the lodge building in which the celebration will be held. Masons from all parts of the valley will gather for a supper at 6.30 o'clock in the banquet hall, built according to the instructions of the deceased benefactor that his surviving fellow lodge men might meet and make merry. Library Notes The library will open, during the remaining weeks of this month, on Sunday afternoons from 2 until 5 o'clock. The following statistics will best indicate the growth of the library. The circulation for home reading for the month of October was 210; a gain of 500 over last month and a gain of 284 over that of October of last year. The reading and reference room attendance increased 290 over that of the corresponding month of last year. The number of new borrowers for the month was 55; 17 of these were from the county. New books ready for the shelves are: James—"Talks to Teachers." Edersheim—"Sketches of Jewish Social Life." Boswell—"Life of Dr. Samuel Johnson." Munsterberg—"On the Witness Stand." Edison Mazda Lamps This is the time of the year one begins to needs more lights. Don't forget that we carry the Edison Mazda Lamps. There are none better to be had. Apple City Electric Shop, Third Street Hood River, Ore. E. S. COLBY, Mgr.

Underwood Will Have Electricity The town of Underwood will soon have its first electric lights. Contracts have been signed by merchants of the town, D. G. Jackson & Co., H. L. Adams and H. J. Frederick, with the Northwestern Electric Co., the contract calling for lights within a month. Mr. Jackson was instrumental in securing the lights. Dinner, Not Dance Through an error of the compositor and an oversight of proof reading the notes of the Barrett correspondent of the Glacier were made to state last week that a dance had been given at the Valley Christian church the week before, instead of a dinner. The error, an obvious one, has caused no small amount of mirth. Castor Bean Makes Child Ill The little seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Wilson, Edith, was very ill for a time Sunday evening, suffering from the effects of having swallowed part of a castor bean. The child was playing with bright, mottled beans, when she chewed one up, swallowing only a portion of it. First Snow Sunday Night First snow fell in Hood River Sunday night. Although the "beautiful white" did not stick, sidewalks on the Heights were covered. Surrounding rangesides were covered. Mount Defiance now shows a snow capped top.
