VALLEY APPEALS TO NEW YORK WOMAN

To no visitor of last year, was the Hood River valley more appealing than to Miss Mary Meredith, of Phoenix, N. Y., who, while en route to the California coast, stopped for a visit of a week with her cousin, D. I. Stone, whose place is on the headwaters of the West Fork of Hood river. Miss Meredith, whose life has been spent as a teacher and who has traveled much in foreign lands, on returning to her home, writes as follows in the Phoenix, Oswego county, Register: "Then the great Columbia river, walled on either side by lofty mountains and old pined rocks, leaves far behind in wonders of natural scenery, the Hudson or the Rhine. "One of the series, never to be forgotten, is a ride through Hood River valley over its fine roads and through the well kept and productive orchards, then leaving the cultivated section, up the Cascade mountains over narrow roads, looking hundreds of feet down on one side, hundreds of feet up on the other, thankful that our chauffeur was both careful and skillful. On through some of the greatest forests and lumber camps of Oregon to a ranch situated about 2,000 feet above the sea and almost at the foot of Mount Hood, the most beautiful mountain of the west or east either, for that matter. Here we spent a week with the glorious mountains all about us. Not far away in the same section is Billy Sunday's ranch, where he spends some time each year, and where the scenery, the fresh air and water and a more restful spot could not be found. We can understand how he can gather strength here for his strenuous labor."

MAN WITH BIG FAMILY GETS BIG FINE

Because he had a family of four children, Tamp Osborne, as Judge Bradshaw declared Monday morning while passing sentence, was let off with the small fine of $100, after having pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery on James Hawthorne. Osborne, who is known in minor northwestern baseball circles, according to the complaint became enraged at Hawthorne and struck him when the two were having a dispute over charges for hauling wood. Judge Bradshaw Monday morning granted three divorces. Steven E. Innes Carrigan was given a decree against Innes Carrigan, the charge having been cruelty. The bonds of matrimony between Irma Pearl Clarke and Russell O. Clarke were dissolved, suit having been brought by Mrs. Clarke, who alleged cruelty on the part of her husband, who also ordered his wife out of their home. Mrs. Clarke was given the custody of two small children, Florence Ison, who keeps a boarding house here, was granted a divorce from James Ison, on grounds of desertion.

MISS FURROW, FORMER TEACHER, PASSES AWAY

One of the saddest of recent deaths was that of Miss Flora E. Furrow, who after an illness of more than a year, passed away last Thursday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Furrow, of the West Side. The funeral was conducted on the afternoon of New Year's day by Rev. L. Herberner from the home, burial following at Idlewild cemetery. For four and a half years Miss Furrow had been one of the most popular teachers at the high school, having held the chair of mathematics and history. She resigned her position a year ago because of failing health. Miss Furrow was 27 years of age, having been born at Tripoli, Ia., September 25, 1888. She was a graduate of the Iowa State Teachers' College and later did work at the University of Minnesota. She came to Hood River with her parents in 1910. Miss Furrow had a large circle of friends. Many and beautiful were the floral offerings on her bed. Several handsome pieces were sent here by Portland friends. In addition to her parents, Miss Furrow leaves surviving two brothers, Ray and Harry Furrow, of the valley, and Miss Grace Furrow, a teacher in the city schools of Chicago. The pall bearers at Miss Furrow's funeral were her former pupils in the high school, Allen and Malcolm Button, Fred C. Cowley, of the valley, George Bragg and Lawrence Hersher. The funeral was directed by the Anderson Undertaking Co.

UNIVERSITY GLEE CLUB PLEASURES

The University of Oregon Glee club, which gave its annual concert here at the Heilbronner hall last Friday evening, made one of the hits of the year. No program of the Varsity singers has ever been more appealing to local people. The classical numbers, as well as the simple harmonies, were well rendered, and rounds of applause, time after time, called the entertainers back for encores. The U. of O. boys are always welcome in Hood River because of the many local alumni and friends, and they have never yet worn out that welcome by lack of "pep" or real merit to their shows. One of the stars of the 1915 glee club was Albert J. Gillette, baritone. Especially pleasing was his rendition of the "Fugue" from Paganini. The club's ensemble work was all good, and especially meritorious was the bass singing. No number on the program was more interesting than that of Ho-Sheng Yang, who in his native language rendered the hymn to the Chinese Republic. It will be a year now before another U. of O. glee club concert, but because of the excellence of the programs of the past, it can safely be predicted that a good audience will greet the Varsity singers.

Underwood Bouquets and Brickbats

Roosevelt calls President Wilson a Byzantine Logothete. Let the high school pupils and others look up the dictionaries, encyclopedias and Gibbon's "Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire" and get oriented on this latest discovery of Teddy. There was delightful weather and many good Christmas dinners around the neighborhood the past week. The Underwood Sunday school had an excellent celebration and everybody wishes everybody a Happy New Year. Some philanthropists has donated a number of people in the vicinity free subscriptions to The Woman's Home Weekly, a sheet published in Minneapolis. Better give your friends a subscription to The Glacier, for this Minneapolis sheet is filled with ads of liquor, patent medicine and other worthless nostrums, and carries an illustrated funny page for children which can only vitiate the taste and demoralize the young. The same is true of the funny papers about in the Sunday papers. As works of art their illustrations are execrable and they teach, as a general thing, irreverence, disrespect and priggishness, and Young America has enough of these without special instruction.

Resolutions of Respect

Whereas, it hath pleased the Heavenly Father to take from our midst Miss Flora E. Furrow, a friend and teacher loved and respected by all, and Whereas, the loss of such a friend and teacher is keenly felt by all who knew her, and especially by those who as students of the Hood River high school came under her loving guidance and instruction, Be it Resolved, That the Hood River High School Alumni Association extend to the bereaved family the deepest sympathies of the Association during this, their great hour of sorrow, and Be it further resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread in full upon the minutes of the Association at their annual meeting held December 30, 1915, published in the Hood River paper, and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased.

Wedemeyer Will Sing in Portland

Otto T. Wedemeyer will participate in a production of Romeo and Juliet to be given in the near future in Portland. Speaking of the part Mr. Wedemeyer will play the Oregonian of last Sunday says: "Otto T. Wedemeyer, baritone, will appear in the role of 'Capulet', the pompous and affluent father of Juliet. It is in the stately mansion of Capulet that Romeo, as an intruder at the ball, first sees and falls in love with Juliet. Mr. Wedemeyer, well known in musical circles, and during the six years that he has lived in Oregon he has participated in the production of a number of light operas, among which are the Mikado, the Chimes of Normandy and the Bohemian Girl. "Mr. Wedemeyer is actively engaged in musical work both in Portland and Hood River. In the latter city he also is engaged in producing some of the famous Hood River operas. In the east Mr. Wedemeyer is well known for his concert and oratorio work and he was at one time a member of the Fritz Scheff Opera Company. At present he is director of the choir of the First Unitarian church, this city."

Worse Every Year

Plenty of Hood River Readers Have The Same Experience Don't neglect an aching back. It generally gets worse every year. To cure kidney backache you must cure the kidneys. If you don't, other kidney ills may follow—Urinary troubles, danger of dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease. Follow the advice of this Hood River citizen. Mrs. A. Samuel, of 1210 Seventh St., Hood River, says: "I was taken down with kidney trouble and suffered for four or five months from gravel. Backache followed and the kidney secretions were frequent but scanty in passage. As a neighbor had been benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills, I gave them a trial. Less than a box cured the trouble." Over two years later Mrs. Samuel said: "I still have great confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills and confirm all I have previously said in their praise." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Samuel had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, New York.

Bad Cold Quickly Broken Up.

Mrs. Martha Wilcox, Gowanus, N. Y., writes: "I first used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy about eight years ago. At that time I had a hard cold and coughed most of the time. It proved to be just what I needed. It broke up the cold in a few days and the cough was entirely disappeared. I have told many of my friends of the good I received through using this medicine, and all who have used it speak of it in the highest terms." Obtainable everywhere.
