There is plenty of rain and cold weather, in the neighborhood of zero, but not so much snow as in the Hood River valley." Mr. Lathuilliere also writes he had been in the hospital three weeks nursing a bronchitis at-tack and "a good dose" of asphyxiating gases.

Miss Frances Wilson and Messre. V. R. Davenport and Floyd Wilson were in Hood River Saturday. Mr. Daven-port met his sisters, Mrs. Walter Hale and Miss Marie Davenport, of Port-land, who had been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davenort. The sisters came out with Mr. Davenport and will visit here for se eral weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Rand, formerly of Hood River and who now reside in Ashland, Ore., arrived the latter part of last week for a short business trip in Parkdale. They visited with Mrs. Rand's nephew, Dewey Fabrick, of anglewood, Friday.
