

Hood River Glacier

ARTHUR D. MOE, Publisher. Subscription, $1.50 Per Year.

When subscribers desire a change in address this office should be notified promptly, and a week before if possible.

Except it pertain to live news matter, communications, or articles of a general nature, should be in the office by Monday to insure their appearing in the issue of the current week.

FRANKNESS

Boosting for a community is all very proper, but it is gratifying to see the change in sentiment from the old day exaggerations to that of real facts.

THE AVALANCHE

Last Friday a number of business men called at the Glacier office to propose, since we had had no news from the outside world since the preceding Tuesday morning, that Portland's news sources be tapped and that a local temporary daily sheet be issued.

PROHIBITION

A great many of the states of the United States have tried prohibition. There have been laws and laws, and many of them have not been enforced because of the overwhelming anti-prohibition sentiment in certain centers of population.

F. I. CO. POWER SITE TO BE DEVELOPED

At the annual meeting of the Farmers' Irrigating Co., held Saturday at the K. of P. hall, the board of directors were instructed to appoint a committee with authority to proceed to finance the development of the power site controlled at their intake on Hood River.

SHARP RISES NOTED IN SPRAY MATERIALS

In some instances spray materials have almost quadrupled in price since last year, because of the demand for the materials in the manufacture of munitions of war.

DABNEY'S BROTHER DIES IN PORTLAND

Richard T. Dabney, aged 60 and a brother of O. P. Dabney, of this city passed away at his home in Portland last Thursday afternoon. Heart trouble was the cause of death.

BOWLING TOUR-NAMENT IS ON

The snow is no worry to some of Hood River's athletes, who began last week a bowling tournament at Pat Lindsey's alleys in the Ferguson building.

PRASE FOR DISTRICT

C. C. Chapman in his "Oregon Voter" of last week praises the East Fork Irrigation district. After reciting the acreage under the ditch, the indebtedness and a statement that the land is carrying an indebtedness of $20 per acre for irrigation; The Voter says:

BANKS WILL CLOSE SATURDAY

The banks will be closed Saturday, a legal holiday, in observation of Lincoln's birthday.

UNION COUNTY AGRICULTURIST

Union county's newly appointed agriculturist, Paul H. Spillman, began his duties February 1st. Mr. Spillman was formerly assistant superintendent of the Eastern Oregon Branch Station and had had experience in horticultural work as a practical orchardist at Hood River and in Rogue River.

WANTED

Wanted—To exchange for bearing orchard, clear of incumbrance, my equity of $300 in 7 room house on 10x130 and two clear lots, value $1500. Write owner, 243 6th St., Portland.

OFFICE OF MARKETS REPORT IS OUT

Dated at Washington, February 1, the first preliminary report of the Office of Markets and Rural Organization of the United States Department of Agriculture on the distribution of northwestern boxed apples the past season was received yesterday.

NOTED AUTHORESS TO ADDRESS WOMEN

Mrs. Eva Emery Dye, noted for her historical works, "McLoughlin and Old Oregon" and "The Pioneer," will deliver an address before the Women's Club at Library hall next Wednesday.

AT NEW ELECTRIC

Today Chapters 7 and 8 of "The Goddess." Friday Myrtle Stedman in "Wild Olive." Saturday Victor Moore in "Chimney Fadden." Sunday and Monday "The Wolf Man," a Mutual masterpiece in four acts.

BIRTHS

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dreeske at their West Side home Tuesday evening, February 1, a son, Mrs. Dreeske is a daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. T. A. Reavis.

WANTED

Wanted—To buy pure bred silver faced Wyandotte fowls. R. F. D. No. 4, Box 163, Hood River, Oregon.

WANTED

Wanted—To exchange for bearing orchard, clear of incumbrance, my equity of $300 in 7 room house on 10x130 and two clear lots, value $1500. Write owner, 243 6th St., Portland.

WANTED

Wanted—Steady work on ranch by married man. Excellent experience. Address, W. Stanton, Route 2, Hood River, Or.

WANTED

Wanted—To buy pure bred silver faced Wyandotte fowls. R. F. D. No. 4, Box 163, Hood River, Oregon.

WANTED

Wanted—To exchange for bearing orchard, clear of incumbrance, my equity of $300 in 7 room house on 10x130 and two clear lots, value $1500. Write owner, 243 6th St., Portland.

WANTED

Wanted—To buy pure bred silver faced Wyandotte fowls. R. F. D. No. 4, Box 163, Hood River, Oregon.

WANTED

Wanted—To exchange for bearing orchard, clear of incumbrance, my equity of $300 in 7 room house on 10x130 and two clear lots, value $1500. Write owner, 243 6th St., Portland.

WANTED

Wanted—To buy pure bred silver faced Wyandotte fowls. R. F. D. No. 4, Box 163, Hood River, Oregon.

HOOD RIVER GLACIER

ARTHUR D. MOE, Publisher. Subscription, $1.50 Per Year.

When subscribers desire a change in address this office should be notified promptly, and a week before if possible.

Except it pertain to live news matter, communications, or articles of a general nature, should be in the office by Monday to insure their appearing in the issue of the current week.

FRANKNESS

Boosting for a community is all very proper, but it is gratifying to see the change in sentiment from the old day exaggerations to that of real facts.

THE AVALANCHE

Last Friday a number of business men called at the Glacier office to propose, since we had had no news from the outside world since the preceding Tuesday morning, that Portland's news sources be tapped and that a local temporary daily sheet be issued.

PROHIBITION

A great many of the states of the United States have tried prohibition. There have been laws and laws, and many of them have not been enforced because of the overwhelming anti-prohibition sentiment in certain centers of population.

F. I. CO. POWER SITE TO BE DEVELOPED

At the annual meeting of the Farmers' Irrigating Co., held Saturday at the K. of P. hall, the board of directors were instructed to appoint a committee with authority to proceed to finance the development of the power site controlled at their intake on Hood River.

SHARP RISES NOTED IN SPRAY MATERIALS

In some instances spray materials have almost quadrupled in price since last year, because of the demand for the materials in the manufacture of munitions of war.

DABNEY'S BROTHER DIES IN PORTLAND

Richard T. Dabney, aged 60 and a brother of O. P. Dabney, of this city passed away at his home in Portland last Thursday afternoon. Heart trouble was the cause of death.

BOWLING TOUR-NAMENT IS ON

The snow is no worry to some of Hood River's athletes, who began last week a bowling tournament at Pat Lindsey's alleys in the Ferguson building.

PRASE FOR DISTRICT

C. C. Chapman in his "Oregon Voter" of last week praises the East Fork Irrigation district. After reciting the acreage under the ditch, the indebtedness and a statement that the land is carrying an indebtedness of $20 per acre for irrigation; The Voter says:

BANKS WILL CLOSE SATURDAY

The banks will be closed Saturday, a legal holiday, in observation of Lincoln's birthday.

UNION COUNTY AGRICULTURIST

Union county's newly appointed agriculturist, Paul H. Spillman, began his duties February 1st. Mr. Spillman was formerly assistant superintendent of the Eastern Oregon Branch Station and had had experience in horticultural work as a practical orchardist at Hood River and in Rogue River.

WANTED

Wanted—To exchange for bearing orchard, clear of incumbrance, my equity of $300 in 7 room house on 10x130 and two clear lots, value $1500. Write owner, 243 6th St., Portland.

HOOD RIVER GLACIER

ARTHUR D. MOE, Publisher. Subscription, $1.50 Per Year.

When subscribers desire a change in address this office should be notified promptly, and a week before if possible.

Except it pertain to live news matter, communications, or articles of a general nature, should be in the office by Monday to insure their appearing in the issue of the current week.

FRANKNESS

Boosting for a community is all very proper, but it is gratifying to see the change in sentiment from the old day exaggerations to that of real facts.

THE AVALANCHE

Last Friday a number of business men called at the Glacier office to propose, since we had had no news from the outside world since the preceding Tuesday morning, that Portland's news sources be tapped and that a local temporary daily sheet be issued.

PROHIBITION

A great many of the states of the United States have tried prohibition. There have been laws and laws, and many of them have not been enforced because of the overwhelming anti-prohibition sentiment in certain centers of population.

F. I. CO. POWER SITE TO BE DEVELOPED

At the annual meeting of the Farmers' Irrigating Co., held Saturday at the K. of P. hall, the board of directors were instructed to appoint a committee with authority to proceed to finance the development of the power site controlled at their intake on Hood River.

SHARP RISES NOTED IN SPRAY MATERIALS

In some instances spray materials have almost quadrupled in price since last year, because of the demand for the materials in the manufacture of munitions of war.

DABNEY'S BROTHER DIES IN PORTLAND

Richard T. Dabney, aged 60 and a brother of O. P. Dabney, of this city passed away at his home in Portland last Thursday afternoon. Heart trouble was the cause of death.

BOWLING TOUR-NAMENT IS ON

The snow is no worry to some of Hood River's athletes, who began last week a bowling tournament at Pat Lindsey's alleys in the Ferguson building.

PRASE FOR DISTRICT

C. C. Chapman in his "Oregon Voter" of last week praises the East Fork Irrigation district. After reciting the acreage under the ditch, the indebtedness and a statement that the land is carrying an indebtedness of $20 per acre for irrigation; The Voter says:

BANKS WILL CLOSE SATURDAY

The banks will be closed Saturday, a legal holiday, in observation of Lincoln's birthday.

UNION COUNTY AGRICULTURIST

Union county's newly appointed agriculturist, Paul H. Spillman, began his duties February 1st. Mr. Spillman was formerly assistant superintendent of the Eastern Oregon Branch Station and had had experience in horticultural work as a practical orchardist at Hood River and in Rogue River.

WANTED

Wanted—To exchange for bearing orchard, clear of incumbrance, my equity of $300 in 7 room house on 10x130 and two clear lots, value $1500. Write owner, 243 6th St., Portland.

HOOD RIVER GLACIER

ARTHUR D. MOE, Publisher. Subscription, $1.50 Per Year.

When subscribers desire a change in address this office should be notified promptly, and a week before if possible.

Except it pertain to live news matter, communications, or articles of a general nature, should be in the office by Monday to insure their appearing in the issue of the current week.

FRANKNESS

Boosting for a community is all very proper, but it is gratifying to see the change in sentiment from the old day exaggerations to that of real facts.

THE AVALANCHE

Last Friday a number of business men called at the Glacier office to propose, since we had had no news from the outside world since the preceding Tuesday morning, that Portland's news sources be tapped and that a local temporary daily sheet be issued.

PROHIBITION

A great many of the states of the United States have tried prohibition. There have been laws and laws, and many of them have not been enforced because of the overwhelming anti-prohibition sentiment in certain centers of population.

F. I. CO. POWER SITE TO BE DEVELOPED

At the annual meeting of the Farmers' Irrigating Co., held Saturday at the K. of P. hall, the board of directors were instructed to appoint a committee with authority to proceed to finance the development of the power site controlled at their intake on Hood River.

SHARP RISES NOTED IN SPRAY MATERIALS

In some instances spray materials have almost quadrupled in price since last year, because of the demand for the materials in the manufacture of munitions of war.

DABNEY'S BROTHER DIES IN PORTLAND

Richard T. Dabney, aged 60 and a brother of O. P. Dabney, of this city passed away at his home in Portland last Thursday afternoon. Heart trouble was the cause of death.

BOWLING TOUR-NAMENT IS ON

The snow is no worry to some of Hood River's athletes, who began last week a bowling tournament at Pat Lindsey's alleys in the Ferguson building.

PRASE FOR DISTRICT

C. C. Chapman in his "Oregon Voter" of last week praises the East Fork Irrigation district. After reciting the acreage under the ditch, the indebtedness and a statement that the land is carrying an indebtedness of $20 per acre for irrigation; The Voter says:

BANKS WILL CLOSE SATURDAY

The banks will be closed Saturday, a legal holiday, in observation of Lincoln's birthday.

UNION COUNTY AGRICULTURIST

Union county's newly appointed agriculturist, Paul H. Spillman, began his duties February 1st. Mr. Spillman was formerly assistant superintendent of the Eastern Oregon Branch Station and had had experience in horticultural work as a practical orchardist at Hood River and in Rogue River.

WANTED

Wanted—To exchange for bearing orchard, clear of incumbrance, my equity of $300 in 7 room house on 10x130 and two clear lots, value $1500. Write owner, 243 6th St., Portland.

MEN'S SUITS. When in need of a suit of clothes at a reasonable price don't forget to look at our Hart Schaffner & Marx and Clothcraft guaranteed all wool suits. The goods of these suits are thoroughly shrunken before they are made into the garments, insuring a lasting shape. The workmanship is of the highest order, the patterns new, the styles are right and we guarantee you a perfect fit. We are offering some big values now that we quote as follows: $10.00 Suit of dark grey cassimer, now $7.00. $12.00 Suit, worsted, London smoke $9.00. $15.00 dark brown worsted suit $11.93. $20.00 H. S. & M. make, now $14.85.

THIS PROBLEM CONFRONTS ALL ORGANIZATIONS. THE ACTIVE MEMBER. THE INACTIVE MEMBER. They Must Pull Together to Crack the Nut. FROM THE DETROITER. The Glacier reproduces a cartoon recently printed by "The Detrouiter," and appearing in the January number of "The Nation's Business," the official journal of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

The Glacier reproduces a cartoon recently printed by "The Detrouiter," and appearing in the January number of "The Nation's Business," the official journal of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. Every organization has nuts to crack, and no organization succeeds in cracking them which does not have members pulling on both handles of the nut cracker.

NOTED AUTHORESS TO ADDRESS WOMEN. Mrs. Eva Emery Dye, noted for her historical works, "McLoughlin and Old Oregon" and "The Pioneer," will deliver an address before the Women's Club at Library hall next Wednesday.

AT NEW ELECTRIC. Today Chapters 7 and 8 of "The Goddess." Friday Myrtle Stedman in "Wild Olive." Saturday Victor Moore in "Chimney Fadden." Sunday and Monday "The Wolf Man," a Mutual masterpiece in four acts.

BIRTHS. Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dreeske at their West Side home Tuesday evening, February 1, a son, Mrs. Dreeske is a daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. T. A. Reavis.

WANTED. Wanted—To exchange for bearing orchard, clear of incumbrance, my equity of $300 in 7 room house on 10x130 and two clear lots, value $1500. Write owner, 243 6th St., Portland.

Work Shirts for men and boys. Made of blue chambray and twilled shirting. Boys sizes 12 to 13 1/2 neck. Men's sizes 16 1/2 and 17 neck. Splendid values for the money. Your choice 25c. Boys Medium Weight Shirts and Drawers fleece lined; biggest kind of values at the garment 10c. Men's Fleeced Lined Cotton Union Suits—A nice medium weight ribbed garment, well made and neatly finished. One that will give the very best of wear 90c.

The Paris Fair. THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY. HOOD RIVER'S LARGEST STORE. Political Announcements. Hood River, Ore., Feb. 9, 1916. To the People of Hood River County: I am an applicant for the county superintendent of schools made vacant by the resignation of Mr. C. D. Thompson.

NOTED AUTHORESS TO ADDRESS WOMEN. Mrs. Eva Emery Dye, noted for her historical works, "McLoughlin and Old Oregon" and "The Pioneer," will deliver an address before the Women's Club at Library hall next Wednesday.

AT NEW ELECTRIC. Today Chapters 7 and 8 of "The Goddess." Friday Myrtle Stedman in "Wild Olive." Saturday Victor Moore in "Chimney Fadden." Sunday and Monday "The Wolf Man," a Mutual masterpiece in four acts.

BIRTHS. Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dreeske at their West Side home Tuesday evening, February 1, a son, Mrs. Dreeske is a daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. T. A. Reavis.

WANTED. Wanted—To exchange for bearing orchard, clear of incumbrance, my equity of $300 in 7 room house on 10x130 and two clear lots, value $1500. Write owner, 243 6th St., Portland.

WANTED. Wanted—To exchange for bearing orchard, clear of incumbrance, my equity of $300 in 7 room house on 10x130 and two clear lots, value $1500. Write owner, 243 6th St., Portland.