FINCH RECOMMENDS COMPLETE ROAD MAP

In his report to the county court, R. J. Finch, an engineer of the United States Office of Good Roads, who recently made a survey of local county highways, urges the necessity of a thorough survey of the county and a comprehensive map, showing in detail the main trunk lines, the primary and secondary laterals of a county road system. At present, according to Mr. Finch's report, the county has a total length of 250 miles of roadway. The completed system, he states, should comprise approximately 300 miles, of which, he says, 50 miles should be hard surfaced, 100 miles gravelled and the remainder dirt roads. He states that gravel deposits on the West Side of the valley make improvement of gravelled roads there easy of solution, and urges that a search be made on the east side of the Hood river canyon for similar deposits, otherwise secondary highways may have to be built of crushed rock, which would increase the cost.

Mr. Finch states that he does not believe it advisable to include the Columbia river highway in his report as a trunk line, since it is admitted that this route should be built and maintained by funds secured through the state and outside the county.

Mr. Finch was called here primarily to make recommendations on the improvement of four miles of East Side macadam. He suggests that eventually the cheapest construction will be some form of hard surfaced highway, but that at the present time the road should be well drained and the waterbound macadam surface replaced by a similar preparation, wherever disintegration has taken place. The county is now engaged in following out the latter suggestions, in order to put the road in condition for heavy traffic of the season. Funds are not available for the permanent improvement.

BAD ROADS HURT LOCAL MERCHANTS

The most effective competitors that local merchants have to contend with, declared J. R. Steele, a Middle Valley rancher, who was here last Friday for the first shopping tour since last December, are poor roads.

"I am confident," said Mr. Steele, "that no less than $1,500 has been spent by the residents of my section during the past winter in purchasing goods from mail order houses. Of course for weeks the past winter we were unable to break through to the city because of the deep snow, which was six feet on the level at my place. However, even after the snow left the roads were almost impassable, and it was a great deal easier for us to order of the mail order houses than to come to Hood River for our purchases. The orders were delivered to us who are located on rural routes, and in all cases we were forced to travel only a short distance to reach the nearest post-office."

Mr. Steele left $300 in the city Friday, having paid his taxes and made heavy purchases of supplies.

Confection Plant is Ready

The new apple confection plant, built by W. A. Schaffner, A. F. Adams and Randall S. Pratt, the latter formerly of Wenatchee, will be in operation very soon. Mr. Pratt formerly operated a plant at Wenatchee, the equipment of which will be shipped here. Mr. Pratt had also purchased apples in the Wenatchee district, and these will be shipped to Hood River for process in the new plant.

The output of the new factory will consist mainly for the first year of a confection known as "apple bonns," a confection with an apple base, but which will be flavored with assorted fruit flavors.

Liquor Packages, 112

Up to April 1 the local office of the American Express Co. had delivered 110 packages, of two quarts each, of liquor to citizens under the new prohibition laws. Sixty-three of the packages were delivered in March. A small proportion of the liquor users have secured the limited amount of two quarts each month. But two shipments of beer have been delivered by the O. W. R. & N. freight office since the first of the year.

Splendid for Rheumatism

"I think Chamberlain's Liniment is just splendid for rheumatism," writes Mrs. Dunbar, Eldridge, N. Y. "It has been used by myself and other members of my family time and time again during the past six years and has always given the best of satisfaction." The quick relief from pain which Chamberlain's Liniment affords is alone worth many times the cost. Obtainable everywhere.

DRINK SIX GLASSES OF WATER DAILY

An Interesting Statement by One of the Big Men in the Drug Business

A. E. KIESLING
of Houston, Texas, says:
"If you have a muddy complexion and dull eyes, you are constipated. Six glasses of water daily and one or two Rexall Orderlies at night will correct this condition and make you fit as a fiddle." Rexall Orderlies, in my opinion, are the best laxative to be had, and can be taken by men, women or children. We have the exclusive selling rights for this great laxative.

KELLY FAVORS STATE ROAD MAINTENANCE

The proposal to establish convict camps to work on the the Columbia river highway between this city and Mosier meets with the hearty approval of J. L. Kelly, of The Dalles, representative in the legislature from Hood River and Wasco counties, who is now seeking the Republican nomination looking to reelection. Mr. Kelly, who was here last week, says:

"I see no reason why we should not establish such convict camps. I would be in favor of paying the men a small daily salary—of 50 cents, say. If the men are single the money could be saved for them until the termination of their term of imprisonment. Where the prisoners are married men, their wages might very well be given their families for support.

"The objection might be raised that such a movement would meet with an opposition from organized labor. However, I think that labor unions should concede the right of working the convicts on roads. We now have in the penitentiary several hundred men, the most of whom should be given some kind of employment."

Mr. Kelly, who is president of the Wasco County Good Roads Association, declares that his chief reason for aspiring to reelection to the legislature is actuated by a desire to introduce a bill that will, if passed, make the following roads state controlled and maintained highways: The route from Astoria to Portland; that from Portland south to the California line, known as the Pacific highway, and the Columbia river highway from Portland up the Columbia river to the Washington line in the eastern part of the state.

"Such a move," says Mr. Kelly, "I think can be carried to success. We have the support of the State Highway Commission, the Multnomah county delegation and Governor Withycombe. I would propose in my bill that the State Highway Commission be provided with funds for the construction and maintenance of the state roads by an annual levy, to begin the first year with a half mill and then to increase the second year, say, to a maximum of a mill. The system of building roads by county bonding results in a lot of unfinished highway. The counties, as experience has shown, soon reach their limits with poor results."

TROUT LAKE.

Trout Lake grange held their regular meeting Saturday. They accepted a challenge from the young people's L. I. G. society for a joint debate on the subject of "Preparedness."

They also adopted the following resolutions:

Whereas, the present custom of making the public highways 60 feet wide represents an unnecessary waste of land, an injustice to the taxpayer, and donating the said right of way; and as the unused part of said right of way becomes unsightly because of accumulation of brush, weeds and other debris, therefore be it

Resolved, That from every standpoint it would be better to have said roadways 40 feet wide, instead of 60 feet, and we most respectfully ask that our county commissioners declare all roads 40 feet wide and give the property owners along rights of way permission to fence accordingly.

Trout Lake Grange No. 210, P. of H., protests by resolution most vigorously against the Madden Rider inserted in the postoffice appropriation of the H. R. Bill No. 10484, or the making of any change whatsoever or meddling with parcel post regulations, thereby taking the conduct of it to any degree out of the hands of the postmaster general.

This resolution is ordered to be sent by the above grange to the senators and representatives of our state, and also to the president of the United States, that in case of the passage of the above bill by the senate we demand the veto of the bill or such part as would restrict the powers of the post office department in the conduct of the parcel post business.

The farmers prophesy that spring will be about two weeks late, but that nature some way adjusts itself and the hay crop will not be over a week late.

J. W. Exon brought in a big bunch of high grade Jersey stock lately.

Richard Thompson and Monty Mapes left the first of the week for Portland.

The Republican precinct convention of Trout Lake precinct will be held at Pearson's store April 8, between 12 and 2 o'clock, and delegates to the county convention which will be held in Goldendale April 22. All Republicans in the precinct are urged to attend.

WHITE SALMON.

(from the Enterprise)

Miss Della Morton, who has been in Australia for the past six months, has returned to the States and is now in Sattle visiting friends. She will be home in a week or so.

W. C. Watrous and wife, of St. Paul, Minn., were here recently for a couple days' visit at their ranch just north of town, and found the place in fine condition. Mr. Watrous has secured I. N. Williams as manager of his tract and has made arrangements for setting out 50,000 newberry plants this spring. There are already five acres planted to strawberries on the Watrous place.

Improvements are still going on at the big Acme Orchard Co.'s holdings in the Mountain Brook district. Manager E. B. Dorsey reports that 40 more acres will be planted to apple trees this spring. Last year 70 acres were logged off by C. N. Ackley, who is now finishing his contract of plowing. It is understood that 60 more acres will be cleared this year. The Acme Orchard Co. already has 110 acres of fruit trees.

University of Washington
(By Dorothy Baker)

The spring vacation began Friday, March 31, and lasts until Monday, April 10. Owing to the shortness of the vacation few students went home.

Dorothy Baker had as week end guests Mr. and Mrs. Hervey, of Portland.

The spring regatta will be held on Lake Washington Saturday, April 8. Washington will row against California. During the past year athletic relationships between the two states have grown decidedly. California has already met Washington in football and basketball for the first time in several years, and been victorious each time.
