Personal Service Dentistry

Maybe you have asked yourself, "How can Dr. Post do his dental work at a price not increased over that of large offices in Portland?"

This is a question very easy to answer.

I give you personal service and thus save the expense of having someone else do the work for me.

Still I purchase the best material to be secured from the large dental supply houses in Chicago. I pay cash and thus get cash discounts, another saving for my customers.

By paying cash for your work you also save money.

Certainly, my price list is the same as the big Portland dentistry concerns.

CENTRAL OREGON TRIP IS ENJOYED

Hermann Kresse, Harold Herberner, Frank Davenport, Jr., and Kay W. Sinclair returned last week from an automobile tour of central Oregon enthusiastic over the good roads in that section and in the Moro, Wasco and Shanks regions. The return home, however, was made by way of the Warm Springs Indian reservation.

"The roads through this section," said Mr. Sinclair, "were in a very poor condition and I would advise no motorist to take that route."

The motorist's say that the roads between here and The Dalles are in fair condition for mountain roads, except for a short stretch just this side of the summit of the range between here and Mosier in Hood River county.

"We visited Jack Stanley on the big Stanley ranch near Bend," says Mr. Sinclair, "and also went through the big new sawmills. Bend is in a very prosperous condition and many new business houses and residences, all of a substantial type, are being built."

J. B. RAND, VETERAN, DIES AT EUGENE

J. B. Rand, who passed away Wednesday, May 24, at Eugene, was formerly a pioneer resident of Hood River county, having moved here in 1887. Mr. Rand, born May 31, 1841, in Jackson county, West Virginia, was a veteran of the Civil war, having been a member of the Second Wisconsin Infantry, a part of the Iron Brigade. He fought at Gettysburg and the Battle of the Wilderness. At the latter place his hat was shot from his head and his clothing was pierced by numerous bullets, but he remained untouched. His brother, T. H. Rand, of Vancouver, Wash., was shot through the mouth and neck in the same battle.

The funeral of Mr. Rand was held at Eugene Friday, May 26. In addition to the Vancouver brother, two other brothers survive: Robert Rand, of River, and M. V. Rand, of Portland. Mr. Rand is also survived by a daughter and four sons, all of Eugene—Mrs. Jack Luckey and Seelye, Guy, Grover and Bonnie Rand.

AT NEW ELECTRIC

Today

An exceptionally strong Triangle bill with Besiege Barricade in "The Green Swamp," and a two reel Triangle Keystone, "Love, Will Conquer." "The Green Swamp" is a very strong drama of modern life and comes to us very highly recommended.

Friday and Saturday

Theodore Roberts will be seen in E. Phillips Oppenheim's famous story, "Mr. Green of Monte Carlo." This is a famous story, a famous star and produced by Jesse L. Lasky company of plays which alone should speak highly of the picture. Also a comedy cartoon by Bray.

Sunday

Wilfred Lucas will be starred in "Acquitted," a story of an innocent man's suffering through an unjust arrest. "His Hereafter," a two reel Triangle Keystone with that prince of fun makers, Chas. Murray, will also be shown on the same bill.

Monday and Tuesday

"The Cheat," with Fannie Ward in a Paramount program. "The Cheat" is a modern drama in which Miss Ward appears as Edith Hardy, whose husband is a hard working man of extensive business affairs. She is interested in charity movements and is ambitious socially. Also she is vain on the subject of clothes. Through her position as treasurer of a charity fund she has many thousands of dollars in her keeping. Tempted to speculate in stocks in order to satisfy her desires for wealth, she takes the fund money.

Exposure faces her when she seeks the aid of a neighbor, a wealthy Japanese, who tries to make a bargain in return for the loan. The successful and thrilling situation furnish a thoroughly exciting photoplay, replete with suspense.

After 40 Years Stranahan Sees Cousin

When the doorbell rang at the home of C. H. Stranahan Sunday night and when Mr. Stranahan, who had retired answered in his pajamas, he was surprised to hear the voice of his first cousin, W. C. Stranahan, of Gilmore, Ida., whom he had not seen for 42 years. The local man, now 72 years of age, who came here from Minnesota in 1875, forgot his sleeping time, and his cousin, now 62 years of age, settled down to discuss old times.

W. C. Stranahan, who has been engaged in mining at Gilmore for a number of years, left Minnesota in 1885. He is en route to Los Angeles.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

This is a remedy that every family should be provided with, and especially during the summer months. Think of the pain and suffering that must be endured when medicine must be sent for or before relief can be obtained. This remedy is thoroughly reliable. Ask anyone who has used it. Obtainable everywhere.

Board Will Condemn Property

Entanglements having arisen over an option on the property, the city school board has begun a condemnation suit against Mr. and Mrs. D. McDonald for the purpose of acquiring lots on Eugene street, the proposed location of a new grade school, which will be built this summer.

Restored to Good Health

"I was sick for four years with stomach trouble," writes Mrs. Otto Gans Zanesville, Ohio. "I lost weight and felt so weak that I almost gave up hope of being cured. A friend told me about Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using two bottles of them I have been a well woman." Obtainable everywhere.

CALIFORNIA TO RE-FUSE POOR FRUIT

Acting under a law passed in 1915 California fruit interests will prohibit shipment into the state the coming season of any scab infected apples.

The following is a letter received from the California state commissioners of horticulture by the Northwestern Fruit Exchange:

"I wish to call your attention to the fact that the marketing of California apples packed under a standardization act, passed by the 1915 session of the legislature, was greatly injured by the shipment into California of exceedingly poor grade, scabby fruit from the Northwest last season. The Watsonville Apple Distributors, representing 90 per cent of the growers of a section which produces more than 50 per cent of the entire state's output of apples, packed all their best apples under state label, in accordance with the terms of the act. To them your shipments have meant little short of disaster, and if, each season, the Northwest were allowed to unload this kind of stuff onto us, our standardization law, which promises so much, would be of little value. That your people recognize the detrimental effect upon their own market, and the disastrous lowering of a standard which they have tried so hard to maintain, and that they do not countenance the practice of shipping scabby, worthless fruit, is indicated in the resolutions adopted by the North York market, a copy of which I am enclosing.

"Can you not give us some assurance that the class of fruit allowed to come into California last season will be kept out in the future? Unless you can, California will be compelled to deal with the situation in a drastic manner, in order to protect the high standards of the legislative act of 1915."

LOCAL GIRLS GRADUATE AT U. OF O.

Two of Hood River's daughters, Miss Eva Brock and Miss Grace Edgington, are members of the year's graduating class at the University of Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Brock and Miss Lillian Brock, respectively the parents and sister of the former, and Mrs. Jessie Edgington, mother of the latter, have been at Eugene this week to attend the commencement exercises.

Both young ladies have been prominent in student affairs. Miss Brock, who finished her work at the end of the first semester in February, was secretary of the student body organization, president of the Woman's Glee club and a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. Miss Edgington has majored in journalism. She was night editor recently of the issue of the Eugene Guard issued by the students of the department of journalism. Miss Edgington has accepted a position with the Eugene Register and will assume her duties with the paper as soon as commencement celebrations have been concluded.

Miss Brock is a popular bride elect of the season, and her wedding to Norton R. Cowden, a member of last year's class at the State University, will be a social event of next week. The wedding will be solemnized Monday night at Riverside Congregational church.

LANCASTER WILL GIVE LECTURE

Samuel C. Lancaster, builder of the Columbia river highway, will deliver a lecture on the scenic route at Pine Grove grange hall next Saturday evening. The lecture, to be given under the auspices of the grange, will be illustrated with stereoscopic pictures. No charge will be made for admission. Mr. Lancaster will come here on an evening train. The meeting, however, will convene at 8.30 o'clock, the program beginning with musical selections.

Mr. Lancaster is one of the noted road engineers of the country. He has written a most entertaining book on the Columbia river highway. The people of Pine Grove are to be congratulated on having secured him for his famous lecture.

Waynick Wants $5000 for Broken Nose

C. R. Waynick, who sustained the injury last October when an apple box fell on the member, has brought suit against E. R. Mosier, a West Side rancher, asking damages to the extent of $5000, alleged to have been suffered because of a crushed nose. The plaintiff says that permanent injury and facial disfigurement has been sustained.
