

ODELL

Mrs. J. E. Ferguson and daughter, Miss Martha, returned home early last week after a visit of 10 days in Portland. While there Miss Martha submitted to an operation for the removal of tonsils and adenoids. She is recovering nicely from the operation.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stephenson and daughters, Audrey and Beatrice, of Wasco, Ore. were callers at Odell post office last Thursday. They came overland via auto for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Ward.

Rev. and Mrs. H. O. Perry, of Kennewick, Wash., with their daughters, stopped in Odell for a short call Wednesday afternoon on their way to the Mt. Hood K. R. runs a strawberry special each day for the convenience of growers who cannot be ready to ship the day's picking at the time the regular train towards Hood River is due.

Mr. and Mrs. Troy Shelley are enjoying a brand new buggy in which they ride sheltered from sun or storm.

Rev. Wm. A. Sunday and family expected to have been here for their summer vacation, but L. C. Heizer received a message Sunday bearing the sad news of the sudden passing away of his mother, who was also the mother of the great evangelist, Mr. Heizer started east immediately on receipt of the message and he will attend the funeral services. Friends here extend sincerest sympathy for those who sorrow and feel keenly the loss of the mother they loved and delighted to honor.

Sympathy is felt, too, for other relatives who mourn, but for all is consolation in the knowledge that here was a life that will win rich reward in the life hereafter.

A special meeting of the Christian Brotherhood was called for the evening last week to consider the question of community celebration of the Fourth of July. The sentiment as expressed at this meeting was favorable and committees were appointed to carry out plans. Grounds near the home of O. L. Walters were selected as the best available for the purpose.

Mrs. A. J. Lawrence, Mrs. E. F. Lawrence and Miss Josephine Lawrence and the three sons of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Lawrence, all of Portland, arrived last week and expect to spend the summer in their fine Odell property.

E. F. Lawrence spent the week end with the family in Odell.

Miss Georgia Prather has been elected teacher in the Hood River schools. She is now attending summer school at Berkeley, Cal.

Miss Otilie Boetzkes and her mother are enjoying a vacation at Lodge Severe, Miss Boetzkes' Odell property.

H. E. Smith, of Chicago, Ill., was a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. I. Hull for the week end. Mr. Smith represents the Produce Reporter and is making a tour of the fruit districts in the interest of that publication. He is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Hull.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hansen, of Irving, Iowa, are visiting Mrs. Hansen's cousin, Mrs. J. H. Eggett, Mrs. James McFarlane and O. H. and W. C. Ehrick. They came via San Francisco and Portland and will stop over in Montana for a visit with Mrs. Hansen's brother.

Omar Creason left Sunday for Montana, where he expects to find employment.

Mrs. Geo. McIntosh, of Corvallis, has been spending a few days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lockman. She will also visit Mrs. Diane Kemp and Mrs. Oscar Cameron. Mrs. McIntosh formerly resided in Hood River valley and she has many friends in Odell and vicinity.

A mass meeting will be held at the high school tonight in order that patriots may have an opportunity to become informed concerning the plans for proposed high school building and thus be able to vote intelligently on the proposed bond issue which will be submitted to voters Friday.

Sydney Rose, who has been employed by Barclay Henderson at Netherly left yesterday for Montana, where he has a position with his uncle.

Ralph Caldwell has decided to remain in Odell and he and his family now enjoy trips made with speed and comfort in a new Dodge.

The Merry Matrons held a meeting Tuesday afternoon to get back to their regular schedule. This brought a meeting, closely following the last. They were entertained at the home of Mrs. Geo. Sheppard.

Two trains carrying cars of sheep passed through Odell last week bound for pastures further up the valley.

A. B. Shelley was a Portland visitor Sunday.

One has but to read a bit of verse that contained both truth and poetry to know that Odell has a poet who has been up to this time undiscovered. The verses appeared in the Oregonian dated June 23 over the signature of O. M. DeWitt.

A strawberry festival and musical program was given Tuesday evening at the Methodist church under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society.

The camp of the Plumer-Ellison Construction Co. gradually becomes smaller and B. F. Beamer, in charge of construction work for the East Fork Irrigation, under the direction of R. A. McClanathan, expects to finish all work now under way and be ready to return to his home in Portland Saturday.

For the convenience of patrons as well as postmaster, the following should be noted: Office and store will be open Sunday until further notice as follows: 8.45 to 9.30 a. m. 12 m. to 5 p. m.

Though rain fell and the weather was far from pleasant about 75 persons enjoyed the dinner Sunday when Messer folk came over for the day at the Union church. Plans had been made for a picnic dinner on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Young, and the tables were moved into the shelter of the home and the dinner went on as happily as though the day was bright.

A meeting of the Sunday school board of the Methodist Sunday school will be held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Ferguson this evening for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year.

Members of the Ladies' Aid society were very pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon last week at the home of Mrs. H. S. Galligan.

The Merry Matrons spent a very pleasant afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Meister Tuesday last week.

PINE GROVE

Mrs. F. H. Blackman left last week for the east, where she will spend several weeks visiting friends. Mrs. Mattie Briggs, of Portland, aunt of Mr. Blackman, is homekeeper during Mrs. Blackman's absence.

Clifford Porter and Charles Crane and their young brides gave a reception to their friends last week Wednesday evening. The party was held at the Sears & Fortie apple house. The hostess, Mrs. J. C. Porter, served a delightful lunch.

At the last regular school meeting in Pine Grove Mrs. S. G. Campbell was elected director, F. H. Blackman retiring from the board. R. H. Waugh was elected clerk. The meeting was well attended.

Miss Bowers and Miss Howe are elected as teachers the coming year in Odell and he and his family now enjoy trips made with speed and comfort in a new Dodge.

The next social meeting at the Grange, which will occur next Saturday evening, will be in charge of the committee, Miss Ferrin, Walter Wells and Ralph Densen. A good program has been arranged. O. T. Wedemeyer, of Oak Grove, will sing and also give a ten minute talk. Mr. Wedemeyer is well and favorably known in the valley.

Others who will assist are Mrs. C. E. Coffin, Misses Radford and Ferrin, Misses West and Burton. The boys' orchestra will furnish music for dancing.

A mothers' meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. S. G. Campbell Friday afternoon of this week. Mrs. N. E. Fertig will have charge of the program. Mrs. Campbell will serve lunch. All mothers are invited.

Arthur Fertig, of the O. A. C., is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Fertig.

There will be regular services next Sunday. Preaching by the pastor at 11, Sunday school at 10 o'clock. In the evening Miss Lulu Hunt will lead at the young people's meeting. Temperance subject will be presented. An announced for last Sunday morning, Mrs. Geo. C. Gladen was present and gave pleasure by singing a solo following special singing by the choir.

Miss Imogene Bishop arrived home Saturday from visiting her grandparents and other relatives in Portland for several weeks.

James Woodcock spent the week end visiting his wife, returning Tuesday to his home at Wasco, Ore.

Mrs. Anna Sawyer and daughter, Miss Constance spent Saturday in Oak Grove as guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. King at Rainbow ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Church are the proud possessors of a new car. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Allen were enjoying a ride with them.

C. E. Miller and his brothers are enjoying a visit with their father who came Wednesday from his home at Hillsboro to visit his children. Mr. and Mrs. Miller formerly lived here but moved to Hillsboro some years ago. Five of their sons live in Hood River county.

Mr. and Mrs. Regnell and family and Mr. Metcalf and family went to Hood River Thursday to attend the wedding of Miss Edythe Brunquist and Mr. Hill, of Moro, Ore. Mrs. Hill is a niece of Mrs. Regnell.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry and son were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barker and family, parents of Mrs. Perry.

Mrs. Will Somerville spent Thursday afternoon visiting at the home of Mrs. Iensberg who has returned from a long visit with her daughters who live at Wasco. Mrs. James Woodcock accompanied her mother home.

Several of the Frankton people are losers from the continued rains of the last week. All had more or less hay down and it is a big loss.

Carl Larsen, who is sawyer for the Laumann-Newby mill on the head of Phelps creek, is home this week on a forced layoff. One of the donkeys broke down and it will be after the Fourth before repairs can be made.

Miss Ruth Phillips, who was assistant principal in the Frankton school last year and who was engaged to fill the same position the coming year, has resigned.

The road supervisor and a crew of men have been doing good work on the Clifton hill road this week. If they keep it up and finish this road as well as the other roads in the district they will have the envying thanks of the people that have to travel it.

Mrs. C. F. Gray has been under the doctor's care for the last week, but at this writing is some better.

The Four Leaf Clover Club will meet this afternoon with Mrs. J. I. Moreland, on Phelps creek.

We believe, from a canvass that has been made, that the people would open their hearts and pocketbooks and help put the Rutherford bill in better condition if the county would do what it ought to do, but from the answer made by Commissioner Hawkes to the generous offer made by Mr. Benson for donation work or money, it probably would be useless to offer anything.

W. A. Mack, who lives near the Phillips mill, is entitled to the blue ribbon for gardening. Mr. Mack certainly has the finest garden we have seen this year.

George Stokes and family who motored down from their home in Lake county and have been visiting here and down at Myrtle with relatives and friends, will return to the sage brush country soon. Mr. Stokes left with his car the other day and his wife and kiddies will follow by train.

Mrs. Agnes Jacobs and daughter, Isabel, from Portland, were week end visitors at the home of W. A. Mack and wife. Mr. Jacobs is a traveling salesman for some business concern in the big city.

John Phillips and family and the little Ford started the first of the week over the Columbia River highway for the Willamette valley for a short outing. Mr. Phillips will visit his father and mother in the Waldo hills and other relatives and friends in the valley before returning home some time after the Fourth.

CENTRAL VALE

Miss Bessie Henry went to Portland Saturday to see her nephews before they departed for Mexico.

Prof. and Mrs. Henderson spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Bone.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Spencer went to Hillsboro Monday to visit with the home folks. They will return in a few days, bringing their little daughter with them.

Mrs. Foul Hansen spent the week end with the home folks.

Dr. and Mrs. McVay, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Hansen, spent Sunday on the highway. They report a very enjoyable trip.

Lloyd Morse came very near having a serious accident Saturday night when the team he was driving ran away. There was no damage done.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Massee visited Mr. and Mrs. Mark Cameron, of Hood River, Saturday.

MOUNT HOOD

Mrs. Emma Ruhnke received word Friday of the death of her father at Redmond.

Will Rand and Ivan Dakin were cruising timber around Bald Butte the other day.

Cliff Kitchel and George Cooper have been spending a few days with Harry Rood at Parkdale.

Dorsey Smith, Wesley Ladd and Dave Cooper made an inspection of Cloud Cap Inn. Work will start in getting the road to the Ion Tuesday.

Wm. Edick and family were in Hood River one day the past week.

Rangers Barney Cooper, Walters and Barr came home from Long Prairie Saturday night.

Marjorie Barr and Geo. Ertle spent Sunday at the Barr home.

Dr. Miller spent Sunday with his wife and son, who are staying for a few weeks with Mrs. Geo. Barr.

Mrs. A. C. Jordan has gone to Seattle for a stay with her relatives.

Charlie Kitchel went to Hood River Friday with Lawrence Puddy.

Mr. Eccles, who has been working on the telephone lines at Mount Hood during the past week, returned to Odell for a few days.

Charles Gunn attended lodge at Mount Hood Saturday night.

The valley is thickly populated at present. The strawberry crop is pretty badly neglected on account of the cold, rainy weather. We hope for a better week. Lawrence Puddy is hauling berries to the market, taking the berries for W. E. Clark, E. G. Miller, Mr. Geo. Barr and Mr. McIlwraith from this side, and many of the berries from Parkdale.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Leroux sold an acre to the county for $100. J. B. Doggett will move the rock crusher from Parkdale and work will begin the first of the week.

Idaho Fruit Men Seek Work The destruction of practically the entire fruit crop of Idaho fruit sections has caused men who have formerly engaged each season in the harvest there to look for employment in the coming summer and autumn in other northern and western fruit sections, is the statement of F. C. Ahlstrand, who formerly had charge of a central packing plant at Fruitland, Ida.

"The central packing system," says Mr. Ahlstrand, who is here seeking employment in the community packing plants that are under way, "has been found the method of handling fruit in our country, and I predict that it will be in general usage throughout the Northwest in the next few years."
