

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION

Go to Law, The Cleaner. Shoes made or repaired at Johnson's "Peggy," the guaranteed attraction at the Electric today. Dave Burnett, of Condon, has been visiting relatives here. Randall S. Pratt has been in Portland this week on business. E. Shelley Morgan, of Portland, is here looking after his Frankton ranch. First class work guaranteed. Chris Ranley's Shop. D. P. Gilliam was in Portland last week on business. "Rupert of Hentzau," at the Gem today. H. Eilers, of Portland, was here last week looking after property interests. Dr. and Mrs. Stanton Allen spent a portion of last week in Portland. C. A. Tocker was a business visitor in the Dalles last week. Use the river daily service; route your freight over Regulator Line. M. T. Oliver, of Dec, spent the week end in the city. If you want shoes that don't go wrong go to Johnson's. F. W. Angus was a Portland visitor last week. Half Soles, pair 75c; rubber heels, pair 40c. Chris Ranley's Shop. W. F. Tobey, of Portland, was here over the week end on business. Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Lill are visiting friends in Eugene. G. H. Carrier, piano tuner, Hood River; work guaranteed; tel. 3102. Alex Sweek, of Portland, was here last week on business. F. G. Church has purchased an Oakland six from the Heights garage. Have your shoes repaired at Chris Ranley's Shop. G. Wertgen, of the Upper Valley, spent the week end in the city. Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Reed were Portland visitors last week. If your shoes have gone wrong take them to Johnson's. T. A. Robertson, proprietor of the Cat's Fiddle cafe in Portland, was here last week seeing the valley. Pauline Frederick will be shown in "Lydia Gilmors" at the Electric Friday and Saturday. Mrs. S. E. Douglas and son have been visiting Mrs. Douglas's daughter, Mrs. Chas. Early, at Lyle, Wash. Chas. Smith, of Portland, has been here visiting his brother, W. G. E. Smith. Auction sale of furniture Friday and Saturday afternoons from 2 to 5.30. S. E. Bartness. After a visit with her grandmother in Portland, Miss Ann Shepard has returned home. Miss Helen Davidson is in Canterbury, O., the old home of her grandfather, visiting relatives. A Buck Parvin story appearing in the Saturday Evening Post, will be at the Gem Friday and Saturday. Robert Taylor has returned from Portland, where he attended the Pioneer convention. Baggage transferred day or night. Phones, day 2521, residence 3473. Geo. Carlton. Mrs. Marion MacRae is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker at Little Boy ranch. Our closing out sale of furniture positively closes Saturday night. S. E. Bartness. Films left with us up to 4 o'clock p. m. are ready for delivery the next evening. Slocum & Canfield Co. Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Kiskern, of Centralia, have been here for a visit with Mrs. Kiskern's father, Leslie Butler. Jack Anderson has joined Oregon's fighting force through a Portland recruiting office. Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Schreuders have been visiting Portland friends and relatives. Don't you just love doughnuts and coffee? Try some of our baking. Blue Ribbon Bakery, phone 2373. Carroll, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl K. Bartness, is recovering from an operation for throat trouble. The operation was performed Tuesday. Mary Pickford at the Electric next Monday and Tuesday. "Peggy" at the Electric today, is the picture sensation of the year. Joe M. Johnson, who has been attending Whitman College at Walla Walla, where during the past year he has won numerous honors, returned home last week for the summer vacation.

Mrs. A. R. Shank has been ill and confined to her bed the past week. Mrs. Georgiana Gilbert left last week for San Francisco. Mrs. A. Morton and Miss Pearl Morton left last week for Ager, Calif. J. D. McLucas was in Portland last week on business. Mrs. Tel W. Blount and children are visiting Mrs. Blount's mother, Mrs. Anna Lenz, of the Odell community. Kodak finishing-expert work-twenty-four hour service. Slocum & Canfield Co. A. Millard and son, A. Millard, Jr., were here last week from the Upper Valley. Mrs. T. A. Schall, of Portland, is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Fred Deitz. For special dinners on Saturday, Mr. Orchardist, visit the Hoff Brau in rear of Garrabrant's cigar store. Tony Frohn and J. E. Robertson were business visitors at Ruthton the first of the week. Miss Bennett, of Parkdale, and Miss H. L. Buchanan, of Tampa, Fla., were in the city over the week end. Mrs. A. W. Rahles and little daughter, of Portland, have been here visiting relatives. Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Winningbaum, of Seattle, motored here and spent the week end seeing the valley. J. R. Caldwell last week purchased a Dodge touring car from the Columbia Auto & Machine Co. One Hood River boy, Milo Frederick, who is in the naval reserve list, is expecting a call to report for service. Miss Flora Wilson is taking a vacation, visiting Portland, and Puget Sound and coast points. The U. S. Ladies Aid will hold a bake sale at Bartness' store Saturday, July 1. A fine line of "cats," as usual. Mrs. Kent Shoemaker was called to Portland last week because of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Thomas. J. W. Morton has been in Salem the past week attending to matters of business. T. A. Cone, a prominent Chicago business man, is visiting the ranch of Dr. E. J. Welty, at Dec. Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Simonon, who spent the winter at Astoria, have returned here. The front of the Bartness building, which is soon to be occupied by the D. G. Cruikshank Co., is being remodeled. Will Cass has been elected principal of the Odell schools for the coming year. Miss Virginia Johnson spent the week end with friends in Portland and visiting the Clackamas range. Judge Stanton has returned from St. Paul, Minn., where he has been to attend to business. Mrs. J. L. Hutchins is in Freewater, where her husband is now engaged in the printing business. F. W. Blumh was at Lebanon over the week end looking after his ranch there. Mrs. A. L. Dean left last week for San Pedro, Calif., for a visit with relatives. Miss Dorothy Cram left last week for Lake Park on the Tillamook beach for a visit with friends. State Engineer John H. Lewis was here last Saturday inspecting the Columbia River highway west of the city. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Peters who have been visiting in the valley, left last week for Central City, Ohio. Miss Maude Carlisle left last week for Ise, where she will spend the next several weeks visiting friends. Earl Weber and Art Kolstad motored to Portland the latter part of last week in Mr. Kolstad's automobile. Charles and Henry Steinhauer were here from the Upper Valley last week attending to business. George Davis, of Silverton, has accepted a position with the Keir & Cass drug store for the summer. Mrs. A. E. Macnamara entertained Monday evening in celebration of the birthday of her brother, King Tyler, who is visiting here from Portland. We will write your Fire, Automobile, Life and Accident Insurance and Bonds in the largest and best companies; old-time insurance agency in the city. J. M. Culbertson & Co., phone 2483. Miss Dorothy Epping, who has been at home visiting her mother, Mrs. Emma Epping, returned last week to Berkeley, Calif., where she will take work in the summer school. Accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ethel Farley, Mrs. J. D. Farley arrived Sunday to spend the summer with her son, Sherman J. Frank, and wife.

Men's Sport Shirts $1.00 to $1.75 Plain and fancy, colors fast. Ide Quality. Ide Guaranteed Shirts $1.50 and up Just received a dandy big lot of these splendid shirts. Hundreds of bright, new patterns and colorings. Plain and pleated bosoms, starched or soft cuffs and shirt tailoring that is faultless from collar to hem. Every size and sleeve length—every splendid quality of material that makes a good shirt. See them to-day. 75c to $2.50

We Are Fully Prepared With every requirement for up to date dressers; let us furnish you with stylish and serviceable wearing apparel at lowest prices. We are OBEYING THE LAW in dismissing ALL FEMALE EMPLOYEES at EIGHT-THIRTY SHARP Saturday Nights We earnestly ask your kind co-operation by shopping early so we can give you our usual efficient service. Frank A. Cram Ederheimer-Stein Young Men's Clothes

Mrs. William Pasch spent the latter part of last week at Viento with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Ostergard. "The Price of Malice," a strong Metro picture, will be seen at the Gem Monday and Tuesday. Also a Drew comedy. Mrs. Will Kemp and Mrs. E. O. Duto and children, of Odell, spent the week end here with Mrs. Harry Conaway and family. Dorsey B. Smith, who has charge of Cloud Cap Inn was here over the week end making preparations for the opening of the mountain hostelry. Every article of furniture at wholesale or below at our positively closing sale. Closes Saturday night. S. E. Bartness. F. E. Weidenmueller, of Pasadena, Calif., a student the past year at the University of California, is here this week on business. Bring us your films for development and printing. Prices the lowest for GOOD work. Twenty-four hour service. Slocum & Canfield Co. G. B. Viets, of Portland, district superintendent of the American Express Co., was here the first of the week to visit the local office of the company. W. S. Phillips and daughter, Miss Hazel Phillips, of Grant county, were here last week visiting Mr. Phillips' sister, Mrs. S. B. Carlisle. Mr. Stranger leaves Portland 7 a. m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday; leaves The Dalles 7 a. m. Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday; fare 50c; meals 25c. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dean and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Barton motored to Portland over the Columbia River highway Sunday. R. J. Melasac, of Parkdale, motored to town Sunday to meet his mother, who is here from Iowa to spend the summer. Str. Dalles City leaves Portland Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday 7 a. m. Leaves The Dalles Monday, Wednesday and Friday 7 a. m. Fare $1.25. D. W. Rockhold, a San Francisco teacher, who spends the summers on his Upper Valley ranch, is visiting at Trout Lake this week. Al Whitehead is at White Salmon where he is employed by the fruit growers' agency in taking care of strawberry shipments. Mr. and Mrs. Peironnet have arrived from Chicago to spend the summer in the Upper Valley with their son, James Peironnet. J. O. McLaughlin, Grand Worthy Patron of the Eastern Star of Oregon, was at Wasco Saturday attending the installation of a Chapter there. Accompanying Miss Myrtle Meadows, whose brother, Floyd Meadows, is a member of the Oregon National Guard, Miss Dorothy Battey and Miss Clara Rand went on a picnic to Camp Withycombe at Clackamas Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Zimmerman and children, of Chicago, and Miss Genevieve Kress, of Milwaukee, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Rogers, will return to their respective homes this week.

A. O. Adams, Jr., of Cascade Locks, was here the latter part of last week on business. Miss Adrienne Epping, who has been attending the University of Oregon, has returned home for the summer vacation. Mrs. Helen Bootsches arrived last week from Seattle and will spend the summer at Lodge Serene with her daughter, Miss Ollie Bootsches. The members of the White Apron club spent one day last week at Dec visiting the big mill of the Oregon Lumber Co. W. E. Imholz began work this week to remodel the front of the shoe store of J. C. Johnson. A single large show window will be installed. A. Fertig, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Fertig, is home from the Oregon Agricultural College and will spend the vacation here. Anthony Euwer arrived last week from New York to spend the summer with his brother, Eugene C. Euwer, in the Upper Valley. Miss Leone Steinhoff, of Seattle, is here visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Blount, and her sister, Mrs. Earl Franz. Jack Stanton, who is now with the Ellison-White Chautauqua Co., spent several days here this week with his parents. The meeting of the Altar Society of St. Mary's Catholic church will be held next month at the home of Mrs. Hubert Cramer. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Thomas and J. J. Johnson, of Portland, motored here last week over the Columbia River highway for a visit with friends. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harbke, of Portland, were here last week visiting friends. They came by automobile over the highway. Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Waldie, Miss Genevieve Kress and Ed Eberly motored to Portland over the Columbia River highway Sunday. Mrs. Ben Johnson and children were here from Wyeth last Thursday to help Mrs. Johnson's father, W. E. Shay, celebrate his 54th birthday. Miss Sue Shannon, of The Dalles, was here last week visiting friends. Miss Shannon has just returned from the University of California. Patriotic services will be held at the January M. E. church next Sunday morning. Rev. Young will speak on "The Perils of the Republic." All are cordially invited. Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Howes and daughters will leave this week for New England, where they will spend the next three months visiting relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Butterfield and sons, Buster and Hazard, accompanied E. G. Walther on a picnic trip to Starvation creek on the Columbia River highway Sunday. Kirby Ross has enlisted with a company of National Guard and is now in camp at Camp Withycombe. Mr. Ross, formerly a resident of this city, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Ross.

Go to Law is right. You are right when you go to Law, the Cleaner. The Hood River band has purchased the open air pavilion on the corner of Oak and Fourth streets. Semi-weekly dances are planned for the summer months. Mrs. Ralph Laraway and little daughters, Barbara and Adelaide, after a visit here with friends and relatives, left last week for their home in Marshfield. J. P. O'Brien, vice president of the company, and other officials of the O. W. R. & N. Co. were here last week in Mr. O'Brien's private car inspecting local O. W. property. Ed Creighton, who was formerly agent for the Regulator line at White Salmon, has accepted a position with the People's Navigation Co. in Portland. The Congregational Ladies' Aid will hold their next meeting at the home of Mrs. M. S. Crowell, 1115 Montello avenue, Friday at 2.30 o'clock. Everyone please be there. Jack Cram is at Twin Rocks, visiting friends. His sister, Miss Evelyn Cram, is visiting her school friend, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Slade, at Husum, Wash. Mrs. W. R. Wall, of Omaha, Neb., has arrived here for a visit with her brother, S. T. Miller, and family. Mr. S. T. Miller recently moved here from Portland. Harris Wilder, of Chicago, and Mrs. P. S. Malcolm, of Portland, are visiting Col. and Mrs. W. F. Tucker at El Corredor, their Upper Valley home. Mr. Wilder is a nephew of Col. Tucker. Mrs. Louise Stebbins will leave this week for Chicago and adjacent points in the middle west, where she will visit with friends and relatives for several weeks. Hans Kollandsrud, of Mosier, is recovering from an operation performed at the Cottage hospital yesterday, when the bones of a broken leg, sustained several weeks ago, were reset. Bad weather prevented the Unitarian picnic at the E. J. Cooper place west of town Sunday. The members of the church spread their picnic lunches at the church. M. E. McCarty now owns the most powerful automobile in Hood River—a Ross eight, 80 horsepower car. The machine was recently purchased from a San Francisco agency. Edmund Gehring, a native of Germany who now resides in the Summit district has applied for his second papers of naturalization. Mr. Gehring landed in New York in 1909. Dr. J. M. Waugh was in Portland last week to attend the convention of Pacific Coast Society of Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialists. Dr. Waugh read a paper before the convention. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murray have been here visiting Mrs. Murray's mother, Mrs. Coose, of the West Side, and Mr. Murray's sister, Mrs. W. G. Weber, and family. Misses Georgia Prather and Louisa Halvorsen left last week for Berkeley, Calif., to attend the University of California summer school. The trip from Portland to San Francisco was made aboard the steamer Rose City. Mr. and Mrs. David Cooper and Mrs. George Gregory, of Mount Hood, were in the city Tuesday to meet Mrs. John Cooper and little daughter, who had arrived from Clackamas, where they had been visiting. When you want breads, pastries, pies, foods that will make you think of the days of your youth, for they will bring back the appetite of your growing days, they are so good, just call the Blue Ribbon Bakery, phone 2373. Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Cruikshank, Mr. Cruikshank's mother, Mrs. Jennie Cruikshank, and their little nephew, Walter Manville, motored to Tacoma last Sunday. Mrs. Cruikshank and her little grandson have been spending the winter here. Mrs. G. H. Lynn has received news announcing the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Moore, of Portland, Tuesday, June 27. Mrs. Moore was formerly Miss Carrie Byerlee, for several years a resident of the valley. The young man has been christened Robert Edward. R. B. Bennett will return today from a visit with his mother at Utica, N. Y., and will resume his duties as editor of the News. During the absence of Mr. Bennett W. H. Walton, formerly engaged in local newspaper work, has been attending to the editorial work of the News. Clyde Arnold and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Arnold motored to Portland Sunday over the Columbia River highway, the trip being made in the former's automobile. Mrs. Clyde Arnold, who has been visiting Seattle-relatives, met her husband in Portland and returned home by way of the highway. Chas. Florer, who was taken to Portland last week for medical treatment, was found to have been suffering from appendicitis. An operation was performed and Mr. Florer is resting well. Mrs. Florer is with her husband. Mrs. Edith Sexton, who accompanied the ill man to Portland, has returned. J. S. Wells, who has been spending the past year in Memphis visiting relatives, has returned and is now making his home at Mount Hood. Mr. Wells declares that he never expects to leave the Northwest again. "This climate, with its bracing atmosphere, makes one feel like a new man," he says.

Mrs. Chas. N. Clarke and children are visiting Dufur relatives this week. Mrs. Flora Hartley and daughter, Miss Kathryn, have arrived here for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Bartness and other friends. Miss Myrtle Husbands, who has been attending the Oregon Agricultural College, has returned home to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Husbands. Dr. J. W. Davis and family, after a visit with Dr. Davis' sister, Mrs. William Irwin, and husband, left the first of the week for their home at Glens Ferry, Ida. Mrs. Davis has recovered from an attack of spotted fever. Bishop C. J. O'Reilly, of Baker, recently administered confirmation to a class at St. Anthony's Catholic church at Parkdale. He was assisted in the confirmation by the pastor, Rev. M. J. Kelly. Rev. Frank Spaulding, who now resides at Forest Grove, was here last week visiting Rev. W. B. Young and other friends. Rev. Spaulding was pastor of the Methodist church a number of years ago. Some of the largest strawberries recently seen in Hood River were grown by W. F. Shannon, of Dec. The berries, almost as large as apples, were exhibited last week at the store of W. F. Laraway. Adah Wallace Unruh, national lecturer of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist church Sunday evening. Mrs. Unruh is a brilliant speaker and the public is invited to hear her. Miss Bessie Henry spent the week end in Portland and at Camp Withycombe. At the latter place she visited her two nephews, Frank and Edwin Henry, who are members of Company H. H. E. Smith, representing the Chicago Produce Reporter Co., was here last week calling on apple sales agency officials. Mr. Smith formerly represented the North Pacific Fruit Distributors in Chicago. "Preparedness" is not only applicable to national affairs, but to those of every private individual. Are your finances in case of sudden reverses in a state of "preparedness" for the protection of your own and your family's interests?—John Goldsbury, Local Representative of Northwestern Mutual Life.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lineham, who have been stopping at the Mount Hood annex for the past several months while Mr. Lineham was looking after a contract for construction work on the East Fork Irrigation District system, have left for Camas, Wash. Mrs. William Summers and two sons, Leslie and Norman, after a visit here with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dobson and family, returned to their home in Portland last Friday. Little Miss Elizabeth Summers will remain for a more prolonged visit. Howard Davis, who was engaged in the berry harvest on the Fay Dinsmore ranch, was brought to the hospital Sunday in a serious condition caused by a telescoping of the intestines. The young man was later taken to his home in Portland. After falling about two feet, the Columbia began slowly raising here again the first of the week. The river came up a little more than four inches Monday night and Tuesday morning. "The latest raise," says Roy Roberts, "I think is due to heavy rains that have prevailed over the eastern part of Oregon and Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver K. Jeffries, Mr. and Mrs. Gravelly, Miss Allen and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carpenter motored up over the Columbia River highway Saturday. They spent Saturday evening at the Carpenter East Side ranch and Sunday motored to the Rainbow ranch, the Oak Grove home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. King, where Mr. Carpenter's birthday was properly celebrated. Wilmer Sieg has joined the auto owners' club, having last week purchased a Studebaker from Foust & Merle. "I have had J. M. Culbertson give me every possible kind of insurance," says Mr. Sieg, "and I don't think that I can get the car out of the garage and go skimming over the valley." Mr. Sieg, however, does not contemplate many motor rides until after the strawberry season is over. J. W. Crites and family arrived last week from Eugene where they visited for a while with friends after leaving Coquille, where Mr. Crites for the past year has been principal of the high school. Mr. Crites was recently elected principal of the local high school for the coming year. Both Mr. and Mrs. Crites are popular in Hood River and they will be welcomed back by a host of friends.

STORE CLOSED ALL DAY TUESDAY, JULY the 4th This Is the Last Week, Monday July 3, Is Last Day of Our Big Sale Take advantage of the Real Money Saving Opportunities now. Prices such as we are now making will not be duplicated for a long day to come, if ever, as all lines are now advancing. New Arrivals this Week, Are Greatly Reduced Ladies Sport Skirts 89c to $4.38 Cretonne Middie Suits, white and colored middies. Silk and Lisle Hose, black, white and colors. Men's Sport Shirts, Sport and Wash Trousers. Men's Silk and Lisle Socks and New Wash Ties. ALL GO ON SALE AT PRICES that SAVE YOU MONEY Remember you have but a few more day in which to profit by the great Unloading Sale of our Entire Stock—July 3 last day. Bragg Mercantile Co. HOOD RIVER OREGON Wood's Cash Grocery Retail Grocers at Wholesale Prices Hood River Phone 1221 Odell Phone 173 The same goods, same service, same prices and same specials at both stores