

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION

Go to Law, The Cleaner. Shoes made or repaired at Johnson's Paul Sahle, of Portland, is here visiting the family of T. W. Carmody. K. L. Hicks was a Portland business visitor last week. Insure your hay, Hood River Abstract & Inv. Co., phone 1331. W. H. Davis journeyed to Seaside Tuesday, returning home Wednesday. If you want shoes that don't go wrong go to Johnson's. H. L. Dean has accepted a position with the Star Grocery. For a famous 25c lunch go to the Hotel Oregon. W. W. Dakin was a Portland visitor the first of the week. Insure your hay, Hood River Abstract & Inv. Co., phone 1331. Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Blowers and family motored to Trout Lake Sunday. Bert Head, auto service to all Valley Points; call Mr. Hood Hotel, 4421. Hugh and Alfred Millard, Jr., were here last week visiting friends. A Sidney Drew comedy at the Gem Monday and Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold and Mr. and Mrs. Will Clark motored to Cannon Beach Saturday for a two weeks' vacation. Don't miss "Excuse Me," at the Gem Friday and Saturday. The play is as good as the book. Geo. A. Clough has joined his family on their East Fork ranch for a vacation. Shoes shined, dyed and whitened at Arnold Mitchell's, Oregon Hotel Shining Shop. D. I. Stone, of the Upper West Fork, was a business visitor in the city the first of the week. Wm. Farnum in one of his strongest photoplays, "The Nigger," at the Gem Sunday. One day only. Dr. E. Miller and family have returned from Trout Lake, where they were being spending an outing. For Sale—3,000 cabbage and 2,000 celery plants, 50c per 100. Heights Greenhouse. Fielding Kelly, of Portland, was here the latter part of last week visiting his brother, R. W. Kelly. "For the Love of Mike and Rosie," a comedy at the Gem today. Mrs. W. H. Furrow left Tuesday for Waterloo, Ia., where she will visit with relatives. The family of L. Plog motored down over the Columbia highway last week end. Get your faces, polish, white shoe cleaner at Oregon Hotel Shining Shop, Arnold Mitchell. C. B. Compton, of Dee Flat region, was a business visitor in the city Monday. D. W. Jordan, of the Upper Valley, was in town on business the latter part of last week. "He Fell in Love With His Wife" at the Electric Friday and Saturday. A. E. Woolpert, apple buyer of White Salmon, was a business visitor in town the first of the week. Let L. E. Look, phone 2732, haul your express, baggage or freight. General draying. Miss Nell Blowers has been elected one of the teachers of the Metolius graded school. Mrs. Chas. T. Early, of Portland, was here last week visiting at the home of her brother, L. N. Blowers. Don't fail to see Wm. S. Hart in "The Aryan" at the Electric today. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Colby journeyed down over the Columbia River highway Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Blackman and children spent Sunday seeing the Columbia River highway. Try Driscoll's new Merchant's Lunch. B. F. Powell and family motored down to see the Columbia River highway Sunday. Miss Susie Emry, who spent the past month in Walla Walla, has returned home. She will teach at Lamonta next term. Deputy Game Warden Hadley, of The Dalles, attended the grange encampment at Parkdale the latter part of last week. Try Driscoll's new Merchant's Lunch. F. B. Snyder and family motored down over the Columbia River highway Sunday. Banks Mortimer, of Butte, Mont., where he is engaged with one of Montana's largest garages, arrived last week for a visit with friends. Mrs. R. N. Young and children returned last Saturday evening from Cannon Beach, where they had been spending a vacation. After a visit with her brother, C. J. Wurtz, of Buhl, Ida., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Pearl, has returned home. Mrs. Chas. N. Clarke and children and Miss Julianne Creighton left for Cannon Beach on an outing last Saturday. Try Driscoll's new Merchant's Lunch. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnson, of Normal, Ill., after a visit here with the family of their son, R. E. Johnson, have returned home. We will write your Fire, Automobile, Life and Accident Insurance and Bonds in the largest and best companies; oldest insurance agency in the city. J. M. Culbertson & Co., phone 2483. J. L. Morrison, following a second operation performed last Sunday for gall stones, is resting well at the Cottage hospital. Mr. and Mrs. F. H. St. Clair, of Centralia, Wash., arrived last week for a visit with Mrs. St. Clair's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. White. Try Driscoll's new Merchant's Lunch. Louis A. Henderson has left for Oregon City, where he will join Mrs. Henderson and a party for an outing at Government Camp. G. I. Schetty, accompanied by Mrs. Schetty's niece, Mrs. G. H. Cross, is here from British Columbia spending several weeks on his East Side orchard place. R. P. Loomis and family, have arrived from New York city to visit their Upper Valley summer place near the Lava Beds.

Insure your hay, Hood River Abstract & Inv. Co., phone 1331. Miss Lucille Johnson and Mrs. J. K. Carson are enjoying a vacation on their father's ranch at Trout Creek. If your shoes have gone wrong take them to Johnson. Dr. Duro and family spent Sunday in the vicinity of Trout Creek, where they fished and spent the day camping. Insure your hay, Hood River Abstract & Inv. Co., phone 1331. Mrs. Ila Smith Dean has returned from Portland, where she has been purchasing autumn millinery. Baggage transferred day or night. Phones, day 2521, residence 3473. Geo. Carlton. Miss Madge Otis is spending a vacation at coast summer resorts. Go to Law is right. You are right when you go to Law, the Cleaner. Hubbard Taylor, accompanied by his family, was in Portland last week to attend a meeting. Buyers' Week. I. U. Lafferty has moved from the Jayne place to the S. W. Stark property on Viola street. For special dinners on Saturday, Mr. Orchardist, visit the Hoff Brau in rear of Garbrandt's cigar store. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schenk have arrived from Omaha, Neb., to spend a vacation on their East Side orchard place. Miss Dorothy Battay is spending a vacation on the beaches and in Portland. Films left with us up to 4 o'clock p. m. are ready for delivery the next evening. Sloom & Canfield Co. T. F. Johnson, Thomas Flagler and A. C. Staten have organized a community packing house. After a visit here with her daughter, Miss Nettie, Mrs. Allen has returned to her home at Bull Run. Don't you just love doughnuts and coffee? Try some of our baking. Blue Ribbon Bakery, phone 2373. Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Davidson motored down to Troutdale Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Judd were here from The Dalles Monday visiting friends. Kodak finishing—expert work—twenty-four hour service. Sloom & Canfield Co. Searches of records and reliable abstracts made by Oregon Abstract Company, A. W. Ontank, Manager, 306 Oak street. Phone 1521. J. R. W. Kelly spent the first of the week in Portland and Oregon City attending to matters of business and visiting relatives. Mrs. W. L. Finley accompanied her husband to the Upper Valley last week, when Mr. Finley delivered his lecture on wild birds and their habits. Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Snodgrass, of La Grande, spent the first of the week in town, having motored down over the Columbia River highway. Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Dabney, who have been on a tour of several weeks in British Columbia, returned home last week. Kenneth McKay spent a portion of last week at Bend and other eastern Oregon points in the interest of the Fruit Growers Exchange. L. W. Stanley, of Seattle, spent Sunday here visiting his cousin, E. O. Elander. Mr. Stanley motored down from Seattle. You want a loaf of good bread. You haven't time to bake it. You don't want to send to the bakery. It's a long walk. Just call 2373, Blue Ribbon Bakery, and it will be delivered. Dr. and Mrs. J. H. McVay left last week for a tour of Alaska. Dr. McVay has recently been in poor health and this trip is taken that he may have recreation and rest. D. Tomlinson, of Tillamook, arrived here the first of the week with his family. Mr. Tomlinson journeyed by wagon up over the Columbia River highway. He contemplates locating in Hood River. W. I. Mason, of the Upper Valley, was a business visitor in town the first of the week. From orchards of which Mr. Mason has charge, approximately 6,000 boxes of fruit will be harvested, the coming year. I. D. Parkins, of Pendleton, after spending a vacation in the Dec'vicinity on the West Fork of Hood river, left for home Monday. Mr. Perkins was formerly in the Joe G. Vogt store. B. T. Coit was down from Parkdale town, where he just completed a week's work. Coit is the first of the week to visit country homes in the Hood River valley. Mrs. J. L. Hutchins and daughter, Caroline, left the first of the week for Freewater, where they will join Mr. Hutchins, engaged there in the printing business. Ernest Colby, who has been at Marshfield and other Oregon points engaged in electrical work, has returned here to make his home. Mr. Colby was formerly a local business man. Al Whitehead will leave soon for New York city, where he will join H. P. Davidson and assist in the distribution of from the metropolis of North-western boxed apples. Miss Dorothy Rand, while in Portland sang before several musical crit- lland all of whom pronounced her as unusually gifted and predict a bright future for her musically. B. E. Duncan, en route to his home in Portland from Glenwood, where he has been engaged in harvesting his hay crop, visited local friends Tuesday. "We have a fine brass band at Glenwood now," says Mr. Duncan. A call is extended to all the Dry workers to meet in conference at the Library hall Thursday evening of this week at 8 o'clock. At this meeting the three fold plan of handling the fall campaign will be fully outlined and discussed. One of the state field workers will be present to address the meeting. Accompanied by Mrs. Moe's sister, Mrs. Laura Clapp, and daughter, Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Moe and daughters, Florence and Frances, motored down over the Columbia River highway for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clapp. Mrs. Clapp and daughter remained for a visit of several days, while the remainder of the party returned home Monday evening accompanied by Mrs. Nan Polifka, of Portland, who will visit for a while with the Moe's.

Regardless of Market Conditions Our Great Clearance Continues

Old and new customers are finding pleasure and profit by concentrating their purchases here while these reductions prevail. People are shrewd, they are buying winter goods right now, for, well they know that with the price of raw materials soaring all kinds of merchandise is bound to cost more money later this Fall. We have a big stock, bought right, priced right, quality right. While the sale lasts you buy any of our goods at less than we can replace them for.

Big Reductions on All Shoes

Frank A. Cram

Ladies Suits $25 values 9.85

J. C. Butcher was a business visitor in The Dalles last week. W. M. Dickerson spent a portion of last week in Portland last week. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stranahan are taking a vacation at their cottage at Cannon Beach. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ferguson and daughter, Miss Martha, were Portland visitors last week. Born—To Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Mortimer, of the Belmont district, Thursday, August 3, a daughter. Mrs. E. H. Shepard and children, after a visit with relatives in Portland, returned home last week. En route to Crater Lake Mayor H. E. Albee and party stopped last week at the Hotel Oregon. M. M. Russell, of Coos, Wash., formerly a local resident, spent last week here visiting old friends. Miss Gertrude Rosecrans, of Oberlin, Ohio, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Wm. Rand. C. O. Huelst is in Portland last week to attend sessions of Buyers' Week. Mrs. Dailey, of El Paso, Tex., has arrived for a visit with her friend, Miss Grace Eberly. Lon Norton, who has been at work at mines near Wallace, Ida., returned home last Friday. Teddie Hackett, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hackett, has been ill at his home on the Heights. Mrs. A. E. Hayes, of Portland, after a visit with Mrs. Maribeth Crowell, returned home Tuesday. Mrs. Hayes is a pioneer of Hood River. Mrs. Mary A. Hicks, of Portland, who has been visiting at Wasco, arrived here Monday for a visit with the family of her brother, V. C. Brock. Miss Jean Morrison, of Portland, who has been here visiting Mrs. Carroll M. Hurburt, has left for Prineville to visit relatives. Erwin Sheffield, Western Union operator, fell from his motorcycle last Saturday and sustained severe bruises on his leg. C. L. Ireland, editor of the Moro Observer, and wife, returning from the Oregon State Editorial Association meeting at Medford, passed through Hood River Tuesday. D. McDonald and daughters, Misses Ella and Ethel, after a vacation at Cannon Beach, left yesterday, motoring home over the Columbia River highway. They will arrive in Hood River today. Miss Estelle Rich, formerly a teacher in the high school, is here visiting Misses Kitty and Frances Bragg. Miss Rich, who taught last year in the Ohio State Normal at Bowling Green, O., will teach the coming year in Seattle. Rev. U. S. Crowder, of Wasco, en route to Portland on a visit, joined also to hear Mr. Hughes, with whom Rev. Crowder has a personal acquaintance, spend Tuesday afternoon here visiting friends. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Imholz were in Portland to see Mr. Imholz's old schoolmate, Chas. Johnson, and wife. Mr. Johnson is at medical missionary in China. The party of friends met at the home of Mrs. Bohine, a Portland physician.

Dave Fleming and family, of Estacada, were here last week on a visit with Mr. Fleming's sister, Mrs. W. B. McGuire, and family. Mr. Fleming motored up over the Columbia River highway. Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Johansson were here the first of the week on the look out for a cottage. Mrs. Johansson and daughter will move from the Upper Valley for the winter in order that the latter may attend the city schools. Miss Dorothy Blodgett and J. W. Blodgett, who have been here visiting their brother, Geo. W. Blodgett, of Blodgettville, left the first of the week to return to their home at Northfield, Minn. J. R. Edgar has returned from a tour of eastern and central Oregon, where he was establishing agencies for the West Coast Life Insurance Co., of which he was recently made agent for the eastern part of the state. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Laraway have left on an automobile trip to Eugene. From the University city they will motor over to Marshfield, where they will visit their son, Ralph, and family. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Harper and children and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sherwood and family spent Sunday seeing the scenery round the Mitchell Point tunnel. F. M. Gill, of Dufur, Republican nominee for the joint senatorship from Hood River and Wasco counties, spent a portion of last week here. Mr. Gill visited the Pomona grange encampment at Parkdale.

Miss Louise Nelson has left for La Grande, where she will reside with her brother, Neil Nelson and attend school the coming fall. Fred W. Wilson, Republican nominee for circuit court judge, was in town last week calling on friends and supporters. Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. DeWitt entertained last Friday in honor of B. T. Coit, Hugh and A. Millard and F. Berger, of the Upper Valley. R. H. Eccles, of Baker, and J. E. Earl and J. Goddard, of La Grande, were here last week visiting Chas. T. Early and looking over Oregon Lumber Co. interests. The men were taken on an automobile tour of the valley. Hon. M. A. Briggs, supreme representative from Columbus, O., to the Portland K. of P. convention, was here last week to visit his old friend, John Baker. Mr. Briggs participated in the pleasures of a day's fishing while here. Mrs. L. Winans, who has been visiting at Seaside, was called to Portland to meet her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Walter Dickey, and two sons. From Portland Mrs. Winans came here for a visit of a week. T. J. Schuler and family, accompanied by Mrs. Alice Oaturs and children, arrived here Monday for a visit with Mrs. Schuler's car. Mr. Schuler's car was the second to arrive at the Inn this season. A special meeting of the Masonic Lodge will be held Saturday evening, where work in the F. & G. degree will be conducted. All visiting Masons are given an invitation to be present at the meeting. Lawrence Gerdes, en route to Chicago, was a passenger on a Burlington train wrecked last week near Boru, Mont. Mr. Gerdes wired his parents, and Mrs. J. H. Gerdes, immediately that he was uninjured. Next Thursday Canby Relief Corps will have a social at the home of Mrs. B. E. Wright in Barrett district. All members and friends are invited to be present. For particulars regarding transportation call Mrs. Steed, phone 2332. Prof. F. X. Arens spent a portion of last week in Portland. Prof. Arens, who has acquired a healthy coat of tan in the forests around Lost Lake, declared while in town that he was going back again straight for the mountains. Pres. Campbell, of University of Oregon, and Mrs. Campbell have announced the engagement and approaching wedding of their daughter, Miss Lucia Campbell, and Sidney Henderson, brother of Louis A. Henderson. The wedding will be an event of October. Arthur Serr, of Portland, was here last week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Serr, and conferring with Gilbert & DeWitt, local representatives for the Overland Automobile Co. Mr. Serr brought a large new car up from the Portland distributing agency, with which he is connected. Miss Hazel Smith entertained the Evening Department of the Woman's club Monday evening in honor of Miss Lee Bruscutti. Last Friday evening Miss Lydia Johnson entertained at dinner for the Misses Brunquist, who will leave this week for the University of California.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Holmes, of Portland, made the trip over the highway last week, bringing with them Clara, Marion and Dorothy Rand, who spent July in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes have rented the Simonton cottage and are spending a month in Hood River. Mrs. C. J. Wagner and children, of New York city, are here visiting the family of her friend, Mrs. G. A. McCurdy. While Charles, Phillip and Willie remained at the Oak Grove home of the McCurdys last week end, Mrs. Wagner and the other children visited friends at Portland and Centralia, Wn. Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Scobee motored down to Portland last week end, taking with them their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fletcher and son, who were returning to their home at San Luis Obispo, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher were delighted with their visit to the Hood River valley. "Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hall and my aunt, Mrs. June Dickey, of Minneapolis, and I are seeing Crater Lake," wrote James E. Montgomery Saturday evening. "Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Dunbia and Mrs. P. E. Coolidge have just arrived from Hood River. Mr. Montgomery and party motored up from Marshfield. The following Hood River teachers, who spent the summer at the University of California summer school at Berkeley, have returned home: Misses Frances and Kitty Bragg, Aldine Bartmess, Louise Halvorsen, Georgia Prather and Ann Vannet. Mrs. Henney, of Portland, was also a member of the party.

Accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Ramsey and daughter, Dorothy, Robert Blythe, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Blythe, arrived Saturday for a visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Blythe, at Twin Oaks Farm. Miss Elizabeth Rosboro and Miss Hanna Epper have left for their respective homes at Marchand, Pa., and New Ulm, Minn. They will stop for a short visit with relatives and friends at Spokane. From that point they will proceed to New Ulm, where Miss Rosboro will visit for a time before leaving for Pennsylvania. The following party was here over the week and in company of State Forester T. H. Sherrard and wife: F. E. Harris, of Ashland, Ohio; T. L. Mitchell, of Racine, Wis., and H. W. Mitchell, of Portland. Messrs. Mitchell are manufacturers of automobiles. The party stopped at the Hotel Oregon. According to the latest figures, the highest prices paid per M feet for raw material by any industry in the state of Oregon was by the manufacturers of vehicles and vehicle parts. Only small quantities and highest grades are used. This covers not only the manufacture but the repair of wagons, carriages and automobiles, and includes the local demand only. The Florida national forest is one of the self supporting forests, due to the system which the government has inaugurated there in the leasing of the turpentine in such a way that the perpetuity of the forest is assured. About 54 million pounds of artificial silk are made directly from wood pulp are used annually in the United States. It is manufactured into such articles as linings, tapestries, neckties, ribbons and sweaters. A plan of cooperation between forest officers and postoffice employees has been put into effect whereby all rural mail carriers and postmasters in or near national forests are to report the discovery of forest fires to the nearest forest officer. Nearly 50 per cent of the pulps and tubs made in the state of Washington are sent to the middle west for consumption. Pres. Kerr Praises Vaudeville Pres. Kerr, of the Oregon Agricultural College, who spent last week at the Upper Valley grange encampment, had the greatest praise of the vaudeville show staged by the Pine Grove grange members. "My family and I were at a vaudeville performance in one of Portland's best show houses last night," said Pres. Kerr, the day following. "I must say that we enjoyed your show a great deal more." Those participating in the event were: Nelson and Haskins; Mrs. E. T. Foltz, E. E. House, Miss Clara, Miss Ferrin, Mrs. Forden, Miss Mason, Forrest Moe, P. J. Mohr, Graff and Sexton, Newman, Frank Davidson and Russell McCully. A City Being "Jacked Up" Throughout the entire business district of Astoria big buildings are being raised to conform with the new grades being established under the city reclamation program, which provides for the elimination of all tide flats hitherto in evidence. The initial stages of this work have been accomplished by pumping sand from the Columbia river at a cost of nearly $500,000. The second stage is now in progress, when, when completed, will comprehend the hard surfacing of all streets throughout the business district, with a viaduct system covering approximately 50 blocks on all main and intersecting streets. The cost of these latter improvements will be in excess of $350,000. Schools Open September 18 Because of work being done on new homes of local schools, the opening dates of both the high school and the grade schools has been postponed from the first Monday in September to Monday, September 18. A new $30,000 annex to the high school building and an $18,000 grade school are under course of construction. Odell Store Burglarized For the fourth time in the recent past, the store of the Consolidated Mercantile Co. at Odell was burglarized Sunday night. The burglar only took the sum of $1.70 from the store's till. No merchandise was molested. Authorities have no clue to the burglary.

WEDDINGS

Ross-Radford

With immediate relatives and only a few close friends present, the wedding of Clifford Coleman Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Ross, of Portland, and Miss Lella Lincoln Radford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Radford, was solemnized at high noon yesterday at the East Side orchard home of the bride's parents. Rev. G. E. Heineck, pastor of the Pine Grove Methodist church, was the officiating minister. The bride wore a gown of Georgette crepe over white mesaline and white brocade satin. The living room and dining room of the Radford home, where a three course wedding luncheon was served immediately following the ceremony, were decorated with banks of sweet peas. Mr. and Mrs. Ross left on an afternoon train for Corvallis, where Mr. Ross is connected with a mercantile concern and where he and his bride will be at home after September 15. Both Mr. Ross and his bride are graduates of the Hood River high school. The former later attended the Oregon Agricultural College, where he was a member of the Gamma Upsilon fraternity. Mrs. Ross, following her graduation at the high school, attended a girls' school at Pasadena, Calif., where she specialized in music.

Prohibitionists Are Active

Hood River county Prohibitionists will conduct an active campaign to defeat the proposed brewers' bill, according to Mrs. W. B. North, one of the active workers of the party in this city. The following committee has been appointed to explain the proposed amendment and to wage a war on its passage: Rev. Morris Goodrich, Mrs. North, Mrs. Alma Howe, Leslie Butler and Mrs. G. A. Clough. The committee was appointed under the suggestion of Rev. A. C. Moses, Congregational minister, who is working with the Anti-Saloon League, who was recently here from Portland. Record Tomato Shipments in Prospect Record shipments of garden truck and produce will be made from Hood River this season. The Fruit Growers Exchange, which in addition to apples, berries and other fruits, is handling all kinds of produce this season, has already shipped large quantities of cucumbers and vegetables and will begin this week of carlots of tomatoes. The Exchange estimates that tomato shipments will reach a total of six carloads. Methodist Church Sunday school promptly at 10 a. m. Public worship at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Themes: Morning, "A Storm in the Path;" evening, "Trifles." Epworth League at 7 p. m. Midweek service Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The public is invited to attend these services. Christian Church Bible school at 9.45. The lesson is on "The Riot at Ephesus." Communion service at 11 o'clock. Endeavor at 6.45 p. m. The lesson is on "Growth; Body, Mind and Spirit." Luke 11:40-53. The Endeavor will give an ice cream social on the lawn next Thursday evening, when music will be furnished by the Royal Boys' orchestra. Little Weather Stories Recently a local man picked up the Oregonian early one morning and began to read to his wife. "Listen here," he said, "The thermometer registered 104 degrees at Des Moines, Ia., yesterday." "But his wife had heard—he had gone out to stand beside the kitchen range and get warm. Lester Price, who recently returned to his home at Evanston, Ill., after a visit here with his mother and sister, Mrs. F. S. Davidson, has written back: "You have heard of the Eskimo boy who sleeps in his deer and bear skin and feels fine. Well, since returning here I have been sleeping in my deer, bear skin, and feel like —."

Cass-Taylor

The wedding of Miss Constance S. Taylor and William Cass was solemnized Monday night at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. B. C. Taylor, in Portland. A few friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony which was read by Rev. H. M. Breck, chaplain of St. Helen's Hall. Miss Doris Smith was the only attendant. The bride wore a simply made gown of white chiffon and carried tea roses, the favorite flower of Mr. Cass' fraternity, Alpha Tau Omega. Miss Smith was attired in a pale pink frock and carried flowers which matched her dress in color. The bride is a graduate of St. Helen's Hall and a former student of the University of Oregon, where she was prominent in Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Cass is principal of the Odell school. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cass, the groom's parents, and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Keir, of Centralia, Wn. were present for the wedding.

Mortimer-Adams

A surprise to their many local friends, the wedding of Banks Mortimer, a former local resident, who for the past several months has been making a success of the automobile business at Butte, Mont., and Miss Lenore Adams was solemnized last Saturday afternoon at the rectory of the Episcopal church in Portland. Rev. W. R. Powell officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer were accompanied by Brooks Hawthorn and the bride's mother, Mrs. M. Sue Armstrong, who gave her daughter away in marriage. After returning here and spending a few days with Mrs. Mortimer's mother, Mrs. Armstrong on Paradise farm, Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer have left on a motor trip to Butte. Chautauqua Shows $5.77 Balance The financial statement of the recent chautauqua as compiled by R. E. Scott, secretary of the Commercial club, shows a balance of $5.77, which was turned back to the Commercial club for postage advanced. Go to Law, The Cleaner.

Taberna Wharftboat Moved

The wharftboat of the People's Navigation Co. was moved Saturday from the slough on the Columbia river north of the business district of the city to the permanent low water landing east of town. Other boat lines moved out of the slough a week ago. The landing places of ferry systems plying between Hood River and points on the Washington shore, too, have been moved because of the fall in the Columbia. Dating Stamps, Self Inking Stamps Pocket Stamps, Pen and Pencil Stamps Etc., made to order at the Glacier of fice at Portland prices.

C. N. Ravlin

Successor to J. H. Heilbronner & Co.

General Insurance and Exclusive Real Estate Snaps

If you have any property to sell, get on the band wagon and list it with us. We will handle nothing but strictly first class propositions. Scenic and homesites preferred.

TOMORROW IS COMING