

BOY EARNS MONEY FOR ROUND UP TRIP

Hood River's most diminutive farmer and perhaps the proudest boy in Oregon, Robert, the 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. David Vinson, left on the Oregon-Washington Limited yesterday for Pendleton to see the Round Up. Robert Vinson, although he is small for his age, has won the respect of his elders in the vicinity of Hood River for his shift and thrift, and his pockets were filled with money that he himself has earned the past summer.

Since the summer vacation began Robert has earned a net sum of $62.50, making apple boxes and doing other odd jobs. In addition he has cultivated an acre of corn, now maturing, the estimated yield of which is placed at 50 bushels.

The lad while at the Round Up will visit his father, who is working at Pendleton.

WOMAN CANDIDATE TO STUMP COUNTY

Mrs. Alexander Thompson, of The Dalles, who has just returned to her home city from a trip east made for the purpose of notifying President Wilson of his nomination by Oregon Democrats, has announced that next week she will begin an active campaign in the interest of her candidacy for the joint representativeship from Hood River and Wasco counties. Mrs. Thompson, the Democratic nominee, is the first woman ever to actively participate in local district politics, and her announcements have aroused a keen local interest.

Mrs. Thompson will pursue unique methods for winning votes of local people. On the following respective dates she will appear at the five halls of Hood River county granges, where she will deliver dramatic readings: Pine Grove, Sept. 25; Park, Sept. 26; Parkdale, Sept. 27; Dea, Sept. 28, and Odell Sept. 29.

Each program will be closed with a discussion of political topics.

One County Road Supervisor

Hood River, Ore., Sept. 20, 1916.
Editor Glacier: Will you give me space to blow my bugle regarding the proposition of having one road supervisor for the county in the place of the many we have. Looking at it from one angle it might be a move in the right direction, but from another it doesn't look so good. If a competent road builder was given the position and had absolute control of all the road construction it might be a business proposition, but under the present conditions it would be a failure with a big F. Under our present law the county court has the last say, and as a rule they say it. The county courts, the state over, know but little more about road building than a hog knows about a holiday. Our county court is no exception to the rule. We have samples of their work all over the county. The East Side grade is one; their refusal to take over the Highway and maintain it is another, and a two or three thousand dollar piece of road that is being built at Winans that has't any way to get onto it from either end, only mud roads, is another, to say nothing about what they do not do that they ought to do. We have some good road supervisors in the county—good road builders. We have one in Frankton. But they are all handicapped by the "higher-ups." And so would the county supervisor be. Better change our laws covering those points before making any changes that might be jumping out of the frying pan into the fire. We tried the county supervisor proposition once and it was a failure. About the only thing that it accomplished was the recall and that could happen again very easily. One solution of the problem would be to start from Hood River, as all roads meet there, and build what we did build good. In time the county would be covered and then if a patrol system were adopted that would look after the little hills there would be but few big ones. This cannot be done under the present system and the other plan has been tried and found lacking. Friends of good roads in this county, think this over by Saturday. M. R. Noble.

Water Investigation Made

Percy A. Cupper, an assistant state engineer, has been here making ready for an exhaustive investigation of the watershed of the Hood River valley. Mr. Cupper comes here for the State Water Board, to which the Supreme Court recently referred the case of the Oregon Lumber Co. vs. the East Fork Irrigation District, a suit involving the waters of the East Fork. When the case is again taken up, however, it is expected that all rights of the watershed will be adjudicated.

Butter wrappers at this office.

"Divvy Up!"

"Butter-Kist" Pop Corn is so crisp, fresh and pure, it's almost too good to share. The very choicest, seasoned pop corn, popped just right and the excess moisture dried out, then buttered with pure creamery butter—untouched by hands.

"Butter-Kist" Pop Corn

is popped in a new, automatic machine that does nearly everything but make change. We simply put the raw corn in at the top and the "Butter-Kist" Popper turns it out in big, snowy, tempting flakes, freshly salted and buttered—a delicious treat.

SAD ACCIDENT ON HIGHWAY MONDAY

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Ford, who arrived here Monday by automobile over the Columbia highway, report a pathetic accident four miles east of Cascade Locks, where that morning at a narrow point in the road the fine horse driven by an Astoria Swedish family, en route to Bend, became frightened at a westbound automobile and plunged over a precipice.

"My wife and I arrived just after the accident," says Mr. Ford. "In the excitement I failed to secure the names of the parties. The occupants of the machine, I think, were from Portland. Fortunately, in order to save the strength of the horse, the man, with his wife and daughter, were walking up the long hill, else all would probably have been hurt."

"A team was brought from a neighboring farm, and an effort was made to draw the horse up to the road. It was finally determined, however, that he was fatally injured and the animal was shot. The rig was smashed almost into kindling wood."
