EXCHANGE TO ROUTE APPLE SPECIAL

With New York city its destination, one of the most unique fruit trains ever routed from the mid-Columbia district will leave here Sunday evening. The apple special, cars of which are now being loaded by the Fruit Growers Exchange, will consist of from 16 to 20 box cars, an average of about 1,000 boxes to the car. False floors have been laid in the cars and heavy layers of tarred paper will line roof and sides. Each car will be equipped with a coke burning stove, the pipes of which will be extended through the sides of the cars. A special crew of five men will be in charge of the special.

The entire trainload of fruit will go to fill orders for apples that are already sold. The shipment will consist of the three grades, extra fancy, fancy and C grade. The apples have been sold at a price ranging from 90 cents for the C grade product up to $1.50 for the extra fancy. Kenneth McKay says that the average price will reach about $1.25 per box, and the total value of the special train's cargo will be almost $25,000.

COMMUNITY TREE PLANNED BY CITY

A community Christmas tree will be reared on Christmas eve at the corner of Oak and Third streets. Traffic will be halted for an hour and presents for every child attending the celebration will be distributed.

A huge fir tree, its branches twinkling with varicolored electric bulbs, will bear the burden of gifts.

WEDDINGS

Erle-Barr
Hood River society received a surprise Tuesday afternoon, when the wedding of George Erle and Miss Marjorie Dale Barr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Barr, of Mount Hood, was announced. The wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Morgan, and was witnessed by only a few close friends of the parties. Rev. W. B. Young, of Asbury M. E. church, officiated. The news spread rapidly and a large number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Erle were at the station, burdened with bags of rice and old shoes, when the newly-weds took the Pendleton express for Salem, where they will visit Mr. Erle's mother.

Mr. Erle, a successful bakery man of the city, was considered one of Hood River's confirmed bachelors. His winsome bride for the past year or more has been engaged at the Model Bakery. Mr. Erle's place of business, as bookkeeper.

Mrs. Erle came to Hood River with her parents six years ago from Greenfield, Ind. Her family and that of James Whitcomb Riley were friends and neighbors, and at the time of the birth of Mrs. Erle the Barr family were living in the old Riley home in which the great Hoosier poet was born.

MR. HANNUM OFFERS SITE TO MAZAMAS

County Commissioner Hannum, re-elected to office on November 7, is 57 years of age. Mr. Hannum is a native of Guernsey county, Ohio. His young manhood days were spent in the middle west. He has been on the Pacific coast for the past 12 years, having first settled in Los Angeles, Calif. Ten years ago he went to Portland. In 1907 he homesteaded a place in the Upper Valley. He has long been engaged in construction work and the general contracting business.

Mr. Hannum was one of the moving spirits among Upper Valley people, who have worked to secure a new and easy way to the foot of Cooper's spur. This new road has already been partially completed.

Mr. Hannum, who left Tuesday for Portland, will renew an offer made this summer to the Mazamas, Oregon's mountain climbing organization, to give them an acre of land on his homestead for a permanent clubhouse. The plot offered is ideally situated in a virgin forest and with adequate water for domestic purposes at hand.
