What would you think of your local grocer if he tried to sell you any apples other than those grown in Hood River?

Hood River has a creamery, supported wholly by cream from Hood River Valley. Experts have pronounced the butter put out by the creamery as second to none in the state.

Your Grocer Is Not Handling This Butter---Why?

The large butter manufacturers in Portland are waging war on country creameries. They have made an unnatural market. They have forced the creameries to buy butter-fat for a higher price than they sell the made butter for.
The country creamery can't do this and live. They must have some differential to cover the cost of manufacture. Until the recent unfair market the Hood River groceryman has sold his butter at a profit to him of from 12 to 17c a roll. We asked him to cut his profit until the market grew normal. He refused.—Why? Outside creameries are dangling a prize before his eyes.
They are offering him cheaper butter and a bigger profit. Do you as a consumer gain?—No. The farmer is paying freight to Portland on his butter, which should be sold here. You are paying the freight on Portland made butter to Hood River. Is this just to either? No.

In order to give our patrons who wish to be loyal to a home-made Hood River product the opportunity to buy this article, the Creamery will retail butter at wholesale prices, for cash, at the Creamery. You will save the grocer's profit for yourself—the farmer will get more for his cream—he will save the freight to Portland and the commission for selling his butter. It will be a healthier condition all around. We need YOUR help and support.

ODELL

Ollie Lester, of the United States navy, visited his parent, Mr. and Mrs.
J. S. Lester, recently while on furlough. He transferred from the Atlantic coast to the Pacific, and last week when he left here to report for duty his brother, George, accompanied him with the intention of enlisting in the navy when he arrived in Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Lester now have three sons who are serving in the navy, one just beginning, the others both resisted men.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Sexton are now residents of Hood River, town.
Miss Emily Lester is spending the winter at the home of Mrs. Sexton, who is her sister, and attending school in Hood River.

Miss Georgia Chambers, of Portland, is the guest of Mrs. D. E. Clark. Miss Chambers owns an orchard tract joining the Dr. E. T. Hull property and she contemplates building a cottage and residing on her property. Noel Davis has cared for the orchard and apples of exceeding beauty and great size were harvested there this season.

Lynn Davis has gone east, where he expects to become a member of the coast artillery of the regular army stationed at Fortress Monroe, Virginia.

Mrs. C. D. McIlroy expects to go to Bend, Ore., soon for a visit with her mother and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wieden and daughter, Miss Hazel, have gone to Portland, where they will spend the winter.

Miss Tisdale, of Portland, has been visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs.
Sarah Hunter.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hammer, Saturday, December 9, a son.

Prof. Brumbaugh, of O. A. C., will lecture at the high school rooms Saturday evening. Boycraft has been announced as his subject.

Miss Godderson is in school after having spent a week at her mother's home, because of ill health. During her absence Mrs. W. A. Cass taught her room.

Plans are under way for a dedication program to be in readiness for the completion of the new union high school.
The date is not definitely known, but it is believed that the third week in January will find the building ready for the opening ceremonies.

Next Friday in the late afternoon and continuing through the evening the Ladies' Aid society will hold the annual sale, or bazaar. Because of a stopped drain the church basement is too damp for health or comfort, and the bazaar will be held in the Odd Fellows hall.
A jitney supper will be served.

Wm. Macbeth, of Portland, representing R. L. Sabin, trustee, has completed his work in connection with the settling of affairs of Wood's grocery at Odell and returned Saturday to his home in Portland. Gordon Baskins, who has been known to residents of Odell as one engaged in business for himself or employed in one of the stores of the community for quite a number of years, secured the real estate and stock of groceries and will continue in business in the building.

The war in Europe came home to orchardists of Odell recently when word was received stating that a ship laden with apples had been torpedoed while crossing the Atlantic bound for England. While being brought in this way to a realization of the existence of war when compared to the awful consequences which must be felt by those actually engaged in war, this seems almost trivial.

To the newspaper correspondent is given the pleasure of writing of all that is cheerful and that brings happiness and pleasure—the coming of guests, the going on journeys, improvements in homes and property, the dawning of new lives and the sadder story of the going out of life. Today with the keenest regret we must tell of the passing away of Mrs. J. G. Ogden, who has been for the past several months seriously ill at her home in Madison, Wis. To those whose privilege it was to know the beauty of character, the kindly deeds, the personal charm of Mrs. Ogden, pleasant memories will ever linger through sadness and a feeling of personal loss hovers over all because of her absence in accustomed places. To the sons, who have been near their mother and received such assistance as was possible, to the sister who ministered with loving hands, to all the relatives who are lonely today, friends in Odell extend sincere sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Cutler, who were married November 25, are now on the homeward journey, though perhaps two months will have passed when they arrive in Odell, as they will visit brothers of Mr. Cutler in the east before going to California, where they will stop for a time at the home of Mr.
Cutler's parents and sister.

From the Oregon Emerald we learn that Algie Weinheimer with four others will put on one of the "stunts" that are mixed with the musical selection which will be rendered by the mens' glee club of the U. of O., who will leave on December 26 for their annual trip, Coos Bay county being the goal this year. The stunt in which Mr.
Weinheimer's Odell friends are interested, is called "An Extract of Grand Opera."

The regular meeting of the grange will be held Thursday, this evening at 8 o'clock in the Odd Fellows hall. Institution, election of officers and other important business should result in a good attendance of members.

Local members of the grange attended Pomona grange, which met with Park grange this week.

Sunday school 2 p. m. Service, 3 p.

day.

PINE GROVE

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hosick returned from Portland last week, where they spent Thanksgiving among friends.

Mrs. Stanton Allen left last week for the east and will spend the winter with her son in Milwaukee, Wis. Mrs. Allen will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Huff and family moved recently and will make their future home in Colorado.

Mrs. E. F. Batten and her sister, Miss Flora Lewis, went to Portland last week Wednesday to join Mr. Batten, all returning home Saturday.

J. D. McCully has recently returned from Joseph and will spend the winter with his family on the ranch.

Walter Wells spent Thanksgiving in Portland and it is rumored he will not return home.

Guy Linville joined his wife and baby at the G. H. Stanton home Saturday and the family may remain some time in the vicinity.

Mrs. Chris Moore and baby have gone east and will spend the winter with friends.

William Stone and two children have gone to California on a month's vacation.

Misses Lizzie and Lena Jenny, who have been working in the apples for J.
G. Jarvis the past 10 weeks, returned to their home near Washougal Sunday morning.

Mrs. J. L. Davis returns to Newberg this week, where she will spend the winter with her son, Ammon.

R. H. Waugh, who has been ill for some time, was taken much worse last week and a specialist was summoned.
He is better and when given sufficient strength will be taken to Portland for further treatment. His son, Robert, is home and probably will stay until after the holidays.

Ollie Lester, who is in the naval service, and who has been enjoying a leave of absence visiting among friends, returned last week to Bremerton, Wash., where he will take his ship, having one more year to serve.
His brother, Elumett, who is also in the service, has four years more.

The Ladies' Aid society will hold their bazaar Friday evening of this week at Grange hall. A chicken pie dinner will be served at 6 o'clock. After the dinner a short program will be given, Miss Eula McCully having charge. A large number of useful articles will be on sale in the evening, and prices will be reasonable. We understand the apron sale will be a prominent feature.

Preaching services next Sunday morning as usual, at 11 o'clock. Sunday school at 10 o'clock. In the evening the Bible study will take place at the parsonage.

The special music last Sunday morning consisted of an anthem by the choir and a duet by Elmer House and Mrs.
M. Thrane. Mrs. Madel Lage's class of children at the Sunday school has for the past three months made the highest record of any of the classes.

Fine Grove grange will hold an all day meeting December 20 and as it is election of officers a good attendance is desired. Meeting begins at 10 a. m. dinner at 12 o'clock and lecture hour at 2.30. Closes at 4 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Griffin and Mrs.
F. G. Willard, of Winona, Minn., arrived Friday to visit Mrs. Ralph Job-son and family. Mrs. Griffin is a sister of Mrs. Johnson.

FRANKTON.

Did you take in the big stock show at Portland? No? Well, you should have. Warren Miller did and he says it was a big success. Mr. Miller didn't bring home any of the blue ribbon prize winners. Perhaps Warren thought that $21,500 was more than he wanted to pay, so left it to the Seattle man.
Frankton's loss was Seattle's gain—maybe.

Dan Garrabrant's new house is nearing completion. He thinks he will be able to occupy it by the first of the new year.

The Clifton hill is almost impossible. After the mail carrier has to stop going over it somebody will begin to howl. Too late to lock the stable after the horse is stolen, better howl now.

The report is being handed around that something will soon be doing on the Rukhton Hill, but that report has been circulated so often that we are going to wait and see.

In last week's Frankton items we said Roy Rash was principal of the Frankton school and was having some needed work done. With all due respect to Mr. Rash and his ability to fill the position of principal, it was just a mistake. Miss Pearl Seebae is the principal and to her is due the credit of having the work done. Mistakes don't count for much; if they did we would all be rich.

Barrett P.-T. Meeting

The Barrett Parent-Teacher Association will meet at the school house Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The following program will be given. Music; report by lunch committee, Miss Hukari; a school saving bank system discussion; Where do our pupils go, F. E. Knowles; recitations, East Barrett pupils; paper, Courtney in the school room, Mrs. B.
L. Murphy; music.

All are cordially invited to attend the meeting.
