ODELL

D. G. Crosby is now proprietor of the barber shop at Odell. Mr. Crosby purchased the business from Jack Craig last week and took possession gone to Portland, where they expect to

Geo. Schempp, of Heppner, spent-last week here visiting at the home of his brother, A. H. Schempp. Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Folts went to day, February 5, a son. Mrs. Alma Howe reports that the Humane Society took action upon a local case of cruelty to animals and ordered a horse killed. She states that prosecutions will follow where similar cases are reported.

Born- To Mr. Mrs. A. J. Hull, Mon-

Mrs. J. W. Haviland returned home Sunday after a few days stay at Farmington, Wash., where she was called by the death of her sister's husband. Will Sheppard has gone to to Corvallis, where he will continue his course stating that L. C. Weinheimer is seriously iil, Mr. and Mrs. Weinheimer went to Eugene just before Christmas to spend the remainder of the winter with their son, A. L. Weinheimer, who is a student at the U. of O. Two should be made by all members to be weeks ago Mr. Weinheimer became ill and was taken to Salem, where his brother and mother are residing. Friends here hope to hear favorable reports regarding his condition.

Mrs. J. E. Ferguson went to Central Vale Saturdaty evening when an en-tertainment was given for the benefit of the scholarship loan fund. Mrs. Ferguson's part was an illustrated lec-ture entitled "Art and Architecture of the Exposition. A similar lecture with more slides illustrating the same sub-ject will be given in Odell soon, probably next week.

The formal opening of the nev grange hall Saturday was the occasion for gathering a crowd that fairly well filled the roomy hall. Since the days of childhood the Odell correspondent dleton where her husband is working, has heard the statement made that a She has been visiting her parents, Mr. grange dinner was one unexcelled for quality and quantity, and the dinner of Saturday was proof positive that a truth of years gone is also a truth to-day. After dinner had been served a musical and literary program was en-joyed. Master E. W. Dunbar gave a veriew of Odell grange extending from the date of organization, Feb. 14, 1914, with 38 charter members, to the present date with 102 members. Mrs. E. W. Dunbar. John Krosper M. I. W. Dunbar, John Kroeger, M. L. Hawthorne, Mrs. W. C. Ehrck, and M. days. D. Odell are members of the building committee, under whose direction the hall thas been built. E. W. Dunbar has been in charge of construction, which has gone rapidly through to completion. One month from the date when the first timbers were laid the hall was ready for the meeting of Sat-urday. This building is a fine example of the results of coopertion on the part

Born-To Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Miller, February 6, a daughter. J. M. Kuhn, of Portland, was a business visitor in Odell Monday. Friday evening, Feb. 9, a double header basket ball game will be played in the gymnasium at Odell. The first game will be Odell versus Stevenson and the other, Odell second team versus Parkdale. Good games are expected. Aubrey Davis was a Portland visitor Friday

The regular meeting of the grange will be held in Grange hall tonight. There will be a masquerade ball at Odell Grange hall on Wednesday evening, February 14. No sooner is one improvement don than another is contemplated. It is confidently expected that a blacksmith shop will be located in our little vil

A modest venture in the hotel busi ness is much needed and would prove profitable to the owner should one decide to locate Misses Jamieson and Anderson con tinue evangelistic services at the Union Usual anouncements for next Sunday. The hour for Suday school and sevice at the Methodist church has been changed to one half hour later in order that the pastor may come to Odel! on the rail auto due here at 3:30 p. m. Sunday school at 2:30 p. m. service at 3:30 p. m. next Sunday.

On Feb. 9 the annual Pine Grove minstrel conclave will be held by the Pine Grove niggers. No doubt they will make the South ashamed of their

Odell High School Notes

By Letha Davis

Literary was well attended Thursday night. The program consisted of several musical numbers, a reading by Prof. Vose, and a dramatization, "Sohrab and Rustum," by Everett Vose, Merton Folts and Maurice Graff. The box social after the program was a success socially and financially. Everyone had a good time, plenty of good things to eat, and the sale of boxes

The Parent - Teacher Association meeting has an especially fine program for next Monday evening. A picture, The Dance of the Nymphs," will be presented by the association to the room represented by the largest attendparents. This should insure a good crowd. Remember the time and place, Monday evening at the high chool building.

The double-header basket ball game at the gymnasium promises to be more interesting than the game with Golden-dale two wees ago. Odell second team plays Parkdale and this will be especally exciting as the Odell boys lost the game when they played at Parkdale, and are resolved to win or die this time. In the first game two of their best players were out of the game, having gone to White Salmon as subs. This broke into the good teamwork and took a good deal of pep out of the team. The first team is matched with Stevenson. This aggregation has a promising team, noted for their fast teamwork and their standing in the league up to the present time is 100 only with White Salmon, from whom they won by a large score

The boys on the local first team are his memory good condition and practicing hard in the hope of getting another try at Goldendale. Their team work is excellent and their coach is confident of victory in the contest with Stevenso The first game will be called at eight o'clock sharp. Admission, 15 and 25

First Church of Christ, Scientist

Services will be held in Church Building, 9th and Eugene, Sunday, 11:00 a. m.; Subject: "Spirit." Sunday School at 11 a. m.

Wednesday service, 8 p. m.
The reading room is open daily from to 5 p. m., in the church building. The reading room is maintained in the Hall Building.

PINE GROVE

Bobby Brock underwent an operation at the Cottage hospital last week on Monday night and is recovering nicely. He experts to be home this week. Florence Cooper spent the week with her cousin, Ada Laraway.

J. G. Jarvis was a Portland visitor Sunday and Monday. Several grangers from Pine Grove attended the dedication of the new grange hall at Odell last Saturday.

A. J. Graff went to Portland the early part of the week with several head of stock for the market on the

After a year's absence Sam Freeman and family returned home last week. The Ladies' Aid will have an all day's meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. Grace Laraway, on Friday, of this week. Mrs. H. M. Vannier is chairman of the lunch committee. The social meeting of the grange was held last Saturday evening with a large number in attendance. A good program was rendered. Miss Ina Elmlund was a week end guest of Mrs. F. H. Blackman present at this session. Attorney L. R. Mahone, of Portland, will talk on public utilities.

Forrest Moe, from Odell, visited among friends and attended the grange

The W. C. T. U. met with Rev. and Mrs. Newham last Thursday afternoon in pleasant session. The program con-sisted mainly in reading from eminent authorities by the different members. The harmfulness of the cigarette and using the influence in the legislature towards the abolition in our state of this demoralizing article of commerce There will be regular services at the church next Sunday morning. Sunday school will start at 10 o'clock.

OAK GROVE

and Mrs. Horn, since Xmas.

Z. Annalia has purchased the Ford owned by Mr. Wedemeyer. The boys of the school have organized a Boys' Club, to meet every other week. They held their first meeting Monday night at the school house. Mr. Angus and children have moved into the A. L. Norton house.

R. B. Lindsay is visiting his son Voyle, in Stevenson, Wash., for a few

Miss Ina Elmlund spent the week's end at Mr. and Mrs. Blackman's, of B. Hunt and son, Jamie, who have been visiting Mr. Hunt's daughter, Mrs. W. A. Miller, left last week for their home in Gooding. Idaho. The music supervisor, Miss Bartmess was at the school one day last week and will come regularly each week to teach

Friday evening, at 8:00 o'clock, wil be the regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association, After business matters are attended to, Dr. Waugh will give a very interesting talk on "contagious diseases and their preven-Everybody come

BELMONT.

Mrs. Will. Metcalf and two children were guests part of last week of Mrs. Anna Sawyer at the Rainbow ranch in Oak Grove

The neighborhood Social club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. L. W. Bishop. In spite of the stormy weather a goodly number were there and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. The next meeting will be held February 13 at the home of Mrs. Hosmer Arnold.

Mrs. J.W. Davis received a telegram Saturday announcing the death that morning of Owen Davis, brother of the late J. W. Davis at his home in Minne-Wollum, of Edmonton, Can. arrived last Wednesday to visit his brother and family for a few weeks. L. J. Simonds and family were enjoying the nice weather Saturday by a little drive.

FRANKTON.

This space is reserved for an obitu-ary and will be used next week for that purpose, if the Frankton people don't want their comings, goings, and doings recorded in this column. They will have to be more generous in send-ing in items-Frankton Pencil Pusher.

HEIGHTS NEWS

Mrs. Hayes, sister of Mrs. Marybeth Crowell arrived a week ago to make her home among us again. She occupies her old home on Taylor street. Mrs. Crowell and her sister-in-law, Miss Carrie Crowell, are living there

Dr. E. L. Scobee is in the hospital again, having undergone an operation.
Mr. and Mrs. Lafferty and children are located in Mrs. Gertrude Merrick's duse on Taylor street.

J. H. Gill has been on the sick list Curtis, the past week. While not down sick, kithell. he was not able to be on the street. Mr. ar Several of the W. R. C. ladies found out last Sunday that Mrs. J. H. Gill had a birthday. They called on her and left a nice blooming plant, for which she was very much surprised and greatly pleased. Mrs. Gill also received year's subscription to a mag-azine from another W. R. C. friend. Miss H. C. Floyd came up from Salem, where she is acting as stenog-rapher for Senator Wilbur, Monday night, and returned Tuesday. Mrs. George R. Wilbur spent the week end in Salem with Senator Wil-

Mr. and Mrs. George Gray celebrat-ed Mr. Gray's birthday Sunday with a few invited friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean, daughter and son in law of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Evinger, left for California Monday to make their future home.

and their standing in the to the present time is 100 how built by Bayard Simonton on Hull White Salmen form the street in 1909 has been named "The Bayard" by his widow and will be known by that name as a monument to

George Poe, while still confined to his home on Pine street, is recovering nicely from the accident received a

3rd Credit Association Formed

The third Federal Rural Credit Asso-ciation for the Hood River Valley was organized last Friday at Odell. The new group of ranchers will be known as the East Hood River Association. The total of loans applied for by local

Directors elected by the East Side organization were: A. J. Nelson, W. D. Allen, V. Winchell, A. J. Krumenacher, F. P. Friday, C. R. McCoy and

CASCADE LOCKS

It looks like spring. The snow is all gone, people are cleaning up their yards. Pussy willows and illac buds are swelling now and then we see a robin, and to cap all, the ground hog did not see his shadow on the second day of this month. Possibly Germany is making it hot for this country and causing an early spring.

H. W. Taylor put his whole force on the highway Monday clearing it of rocks that have fallen during the win-ter, which was a much needed im-

Sunday here with his family.

Ed. Dittebrandt, the helper at the depot, his quit his job to go to school. He went to Portland and will enter the Benson Polytechnic school. Mrs. W.

M. Lane has taken his place.

Benson Polytechnic school, Mrs. W.
M. Lane has taken his place.
A. O. Adams, Jr., his wife and father, autoed to Portland Friday, returning Saturday evening. Mrs. A.
O. Adams, Sr., held down the postoffice while they were gone. The entertainment at the K. of P.

hall Saturday evening was a success but the dance following it kept up until nearly time for church. The mo-thers say: "Our young people must be entertained."

There is some demand for empty houses although the mill is still shut The Ladies' Aid met with Mrs.

Adams last Thursday, 22 ladies being C. W. Thompson is in the hospital at Portland after an attack of pneumonia while in LaCrosse, Wis. Mrs. Thompson is with him. Nick Pollon has moved into A. Meyer's house on Fifth street. Mrs. E. L. Barnes, from California, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs.

A. Brolliar. Mrs. Edna Bellville, who has bee working in a telephone office in Port-land, has returned and is helping Mrs. Taylor while she has a house full of

Mrs. Val. W. Tomkins was in Hood River Saturday and in Portland over

DEE

L. F. Parker, of Hood River, who was recently elected presiding officer of the Dee grange, came up Saturday to attend a meeting of that organization which was held at the schoolhouse. Three new members were initiated and number of matters of interest were discussed. H. S. Krauss, worthy mas-ter of the Parkdale grange, was pres-ent and was accorded the honor of presiding over this session.

Nearly thirty residents of this community attended the masquerade ball given by the Patrons of Industry at Parkdale last Friday night. Dressed as a colonial dame, Mrs. E. H. Green was awarded first prize for the most attractive costume and best sustained character part. The affair, which was held in McIsaac's hall, was highly enjoyed by a large crowd.

J. E. Ford drove to Hood River Friday on business and to visit his new granddaughter at the home of M. and Mrs. L. F. Parker.

Mrs. Allen Fisher, of Memphis, Tennessee, an actress of recognized ability in the theatrical world, arrived Tuesday for a brief visit with her fa-ther, E. H. Green.

Progressive five hundred formed the principal divesion at a delightful card party given at the home of Mrs. Frank Anderson Saturday evening, T. S. Shepler won the first prize and Frank Bingham was awarded the booby hon-

C. B. Compton returned Sunday from Corvallis, where he attedned the win-ter short course in horticulture at the Oregon Agricultural College. He speaks in terms of highest praise of his four weeks' course and is planning to attend next year.

A special meeting of fruit growers was held Sunday at the ranch home of L. F Parker to discuss matters of moment to orchardists. Among those present from the Upper Valley were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hann and H. S. Krauss, of Parkdale.

R. A. Collins sustained painful injuries to his knee last week, but is again able to attend his ranch and dairying interests. Clarence Bingham has taken charge of Orlo Engles' ranch. With an unusually prosperous season in sight, the Dee hotel is undergoing extensive renovations under the direc-tion of Manager George Weaver. Paper hangers and painters are now put-ting on the finishing touches in artistic

MOUNT HOOD.

The Parent-Teacher Association held ts regular meeting at the school house discussion was "Loyalty to the House and to the School." The next meeting will be a social Friday evening, Feb. 23. The committee in charge are Mrs. Curtis, George Wishart and Alma

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Rush and chil-dren were in Hood River several days Mrs. Alice Sandman spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Henry Tom-

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner and children of Alberta, Canada, are visiting at the W. F. Wyatt home.

County Superintendent Gibson was ecent visitor at the Mt. Hood school. Many from Mount Hood attended the masked ball at Parkdale Friday night

The Young People's Endeavor of the church will give a box social in the Odd Fellows hall Friday evening, Feb.

Dave Cooper, Jr., won one of

Rev. Boddy held services at the Mt Hood church Feb. 4 at 7.30 p. m. next service will be at 11 o'clock, Feb

Mrs. J. H. Sheldrake, who is at Hook River under the care of Dr. Kanaga, is much improved. Charles Kitchel and son, Clifford Roy Blagg is pruning for W. A. Lan-gille this week. George Hanel is visiting his brother Lewis, at Odell.

Little Johnnie Sheldrake fell against the stove and burned his hand quite Herman Wyatt, of Hood River, has purchased the Mt. Hood store from the Bridal Veil Lumber Co., and will move

CHENOWITH

Although we had 18 inches of snow it is now all gone and we hope that the old prophet, the ground hog, is correct and that spring is on her way.

Mrs. Cors Yandle, of Bull Run, was up visiting her mother, Mrs. B. Young. As there seldom is much snow where she lives she received a treat by a good old sleigh ride to Cooks, when she was leaving for home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Fowler, of Mill A, spent the day with C. H. Cromwell Sunday.

DAY SUCCESS

(Continued From First Page)

But an omission of fruit would occasion a laugh. So use four pounds of raisins, and cur-rants,—just two

And one generous pound of citron And to keep this rule free from censure or fault,

Add your own choice of flavoring, and a large pinch of salt. Beat lightly together, place in a large And with oven just right, set your lovely cake in. Bake slowly two hours or 'till its baked

When cold, you may frost and 'twill surely look fine

And grace any table when ready And I'm sure you'll agree, that we've made no mistake

In using this rule for our club's birth-Eight years we have struggled and labored together Sometimes in bright sunshine, some-times in dark weather.

But whether in sunshine, in clouds or Or whate'er may befall us, the moral is plain Our Clubs like this fruit cake in various ways. There are elements here which surely should praise, And we'll win great respect here without the least dou dissension and envy we will only cast out. And let us resolve ere the year runs Sybil C. Lewis. Those at the September table called themselves the "Septemer Morns" Beautifuly tinted leaves and a decidedly novel decoration of ordinary vegetables gave the table, which was presided over by Mrs. W. H. McClain, who also responded to the toast, "A Look of Autumn Days."

union there's strength.

peering into the depths of a huge pumpkin formed the centerpiece. Mrs. J. W. Iugalls at this table asked to be excused from a response Mrs Ingalls the fences around the lawn, declared that she had called at the "When I first saw Lincoln". Gregory Ford returned recently from High School, only to find the professors he was the and students all busily engaged in the seen, but a > the club, who is now seriously ill at her home, was to have been a member of the October birthday party. Ex-pressing deepest regret at her inabil-ity to attend the meeting, the entire assemplage of women stood up at men-tion of her name. Souvenirs and pieces of cake from all birthday tables were > sent to Mrs. Lucas. A real fireplace was constructed as a center piece for the November table, and over the fire a little pot steamed away merrily. The Thanksgiving idea was predominant. "Despite the high cost of living," said Mrs. A. D. Ramsay, hostess, who responded to the toast, "we are going to have some> thing good to eat. From the center of the December table was reared a little Christmas tree, and the spirit of the Christmas tree, and the spirit of the Christmas tide prevailed. Mrs. Geo. F. Strana-han was hostess, and in her toast told of the worldwide joy that Christmas-time brings. Mrs. Stranahan ended hre talk by giving a horoscope of her December born quests.

December born guests. The novel program was the result of months of work on the part of Mrs. William Monroe, chairman of the commitee in charge of the day's program.
Other members were Mrs. A. C. Lofts,
Mrs. J. W. Sifton, Mrs. Alberta Steed,
Mrs. Frances Otten and Mrs. Harvey lones. Over 150 members of the club participated in the event. From the contributions of the members and from other sources the sum of $72 was added to the scholarship loan fund. One of the means of raising money was provided by sale of a huge 20 pound fruit cake, baked by Mrs. William Stewart and Mrs. Munroe. The cake was baked from a recpe of the late Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. stewart's mother, who was a moving spirit of the womans organization during her lifetime. Copies of this rece, incorporated in a toast rendered Mrs. A. G. Lewis, sold readily at ive cents each as a souvenir of ay's meeting Five Hood River girls have been assisted in securing educations at institutions of higher learning through the cholarship Loan fund.

Dufur Needs Many Pruners

R. C. Stockdale, an official of the Dufur Orchard Co., was here last week endeavoring to secure pruners to work in the company's 4,000 acre orchard near Dufur. Mr. Stockdale says that his company still has 3,000 of the big tract remaining unpruned.

'We can use 150 pruners," he said. The Dufur Orchard Company's tract is the largest individual, one piece holding of orchard property, planted to trees, in Oregon. The huge orchard, a show place of southern Wacso county, is one of the largest places devoted entirely to fruit in the Northwest.

Ferry Rates to be Reduced

Al. Sheplar, who with Commodore O. C. Dean, operates the Hood River-White Salmon ferry system, stated that a material reduction would be Ferguson Now City Councilman purchased the Mt. Hood store from the Bridal Veil Lumber Co., and will move with his family to Mt. Hood.

John Sheldrake has bought a lot in Parkdale and will build a store at that place and move as soon as the weather permits.

Mrs. Beth Scarth, of Portland, arrived Monday for a visit with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. Edgington.

that a material reduction would be made the coming Spring in the rates of the succeed J. F. Carnes on the city council. S. A. Mitchell was appointed as distinct and 25 cents additional for each passenger, raised a howl of protest last year from touring motorists. The ferry system made a special rate of six passages, for car and four passengers, a retired business man, was appointed Monday night to succeed J. F. Carnes on the city council. S. A. Mitchell was appointed as occuncilman, found that it would be necessary to resign from the cheirman-ship of the Hood River County Lirbary board.

Harry Bailey was reappointed as city night policeman.

LINCOLN'S NOMI-ATION RECALLED

(Continued from First Page.)

disappointment was very evident. Soon, however, each with two of those from other states attending him, one on either side, the members of the New York contingent were lifted bodily to their feet. After a moment they proke into smiles and it was moved that the nomination be made unanimous, and the New York delegation joined the general shouting. "Chicago went wild. It seemed that every citizen of the state was there to shout for 'Old Abe., No sooner had the result been announced than a crowd of men appeared bearing black walnut rails from Sangamon county, rails made by the future president himself. Shouldering these, the Sangamon county men headed a monster parade. The city of Chicago was crowded to the limit. Trainloads of Seward supporters had come from New York. Previous to the construction of the ous to the nomination a parade of these men, several abreast and three miles long, had marched through the streets of Chicago."

"I have never seen such a campaign as was waged in the state of Illinois just before the general election at which Lincoln was named president of the United States. Men even forsook their families to work in behalf of their beloved leader. Both parties had companies of boys and old men, 'wide awakes' they were called, to light up the gigantic parades. The lightbear-ers were coats and hats of black oil-cloth and bore oil burning torches, For raw inside, you know never would tion, I attended the Illinois State Re-'Subsequent to the Chicago convenpublican Convention at Springfield. All trains from every part of the state were overcrowded and from the surrounding country farmers and their entire familes journeyed to the capital in prairie schooners, camping in the broad fields outside the town. I accompanied Col. Jack Miles, a native Kentuckian, who had entered business at Galesburg, to Sprinfield. I had been a fellow student of his son and daughter at Lombard. We had been a client at different times of Abraham Lincoln, and he told me that he would be honored to introduce me to the future president. He went early to the Lincoln home and I was presented by Col. Miles to Abraham Lincoln, Mrs. Lincoln and their children. Lincoln shook hands with me and immediately expressed his appreciation of a reception at the hands of the Lombard students on the occasion of a debate at Galesburg between himself and Stephen A. Douglas. He had a great many admirers among the Lombard students, and at the time of the debate That we'll stand by each other, for"In the students had presented him with a silken banner. He asked me about the political situation in my district and touched on general phases of the coming election. "We had gone to the Lincoln home early in order to avoid the crowd While we were there people began to arrive by the hundreds. Lincoln, in order to pay his respects to the fast increasing visitors again shook hands with us, and we left, watching the Witches, ghosts and goblins ruled at the table of October, where Mrs. G. A. Molden was hostess. A weird spectre, They climbed apple trees in the garden and stripped the trees of green fruit, which was taken away for souvenirs. The pickets were torn from "When I first saw Lincoln I thought and students all busily engaged in the preparation of "Red Letter Day" after his eyes lighted with that animation for which he was famed, I forgot his long rugged face and his huge ungainly figure. Something about him ungainly figure.

confidence and love. 'The state convention was a mer formality. One of the things I remem ber was that a manager was elected for the Illinois State Canal. I had not known that such a canal existed. Th chief event of the convention was the public reception of Mr. Lincoln. Mounted on a great platform in from of one of the public buildings, the plat form reached by steps capable of accomodating several men abreast from both sides, Lincoln shook hands with day, as I passed over the platform with great audience, I shook the hand of the great president. "In the afternoon speaking of im-portance was held at the fair ground. At least half a dozen stands had been reared for the orators of the day Deacon' Bross, of the editorial staff of the Chicago Tribune, presided at the central stand. Wnile the orators were varming up some one shouted,

The gates to the fair grounds were drawn by four horses in shining har-nes.s Scarcely had the equippage the gates when a great crowd of men bore down upon it. The horses were unhitched from the vehicle and 20 men took their places about the pole. The carriage was drawn around the fairground to the central stand. The crowd, however, had become so dense that it was impossible for Lincoln to pass through the mass, and he was lifted bodily, his long legs dangling, and carried over the heads of his shouting admirers and placed on the speak-er's rostrum. When the cheering had subsided he said, 'I understand that you want to see me. I know that I want to see you. After a few other remarks he left the platform, and I never again saw Abraham Lincoln, a man admitted to the be the greatest of Americans. Mr Smith closed the interview with very beautiful tribute to Lincoln. "Not long ago," he said, "I was talking with a man about Lincoln. 'Oh,' he said, 'Lincoln is dead—let's discuss some man that is active and alive today.' I replied: 'Abraham Lincoln is not dead. A umber of years ago I was coming by water from Asbury Park, N. J., to New York City. As we approached the mouth of the harbor, I saw where tall column had been reared, crowned by a representation of the Goddess of Liberty, in her extended right hand she the torch of Liberty, enlightening the world. And then and there I conjured up a monument more lofty than that of the Italian artist, and mine was crowned by the tall and rugged figure of Abraham Licoln, and there he stands a beacon, as it were, lighting up by his life service, by his un-swerving fidelity to the vast trusts imposed upon him, by his love of country and of liberty, all of the nations of the earth now and forever

J. H. Ferguson, a retired business man, was appointed Monday night to succeed J. F. Carnes on the city coun-

The Four Leading in Oregon

The 1916 Automobiles Registered in Oregon places the four leading makes as follows:

FIRST-FORD SECOND-DODGE THIRD-OVERLAND FOURTH-BUICK

Taking into consideration the number of different makes of cars represented in this state, and that the above figures total 6,743, and that the total registration for 1916 models was only 10,542, leaving ALL other cars sold during the year of only 3,799, the showing of the above four makes is remarkable.

There is a REASON Why Oregonians Buy Them

Great durability, power and absolutely the best service of any cars manufactured. Let us tell you more about them. Demonstrations at any time. Call or phone.

Gilbert @ DeWitt

We are selling Schillings Best Line with a Money Back guarantee if you are not satisfied after using them.

Kaesser's Grocery

Grocery of Quality

E. E. KAESSER, Proprietor

Phone 3192

COAL AND WOOD

Transfer and Livery Co. Rock Springs and Utah Coal, Best Grades only

Wood of All Kinds--special quotations on car load lots. Crushed Rock, Sand and Gravel.

STORAGE

Remember we are always at your service for any of the above items or for the transfer of your trunk or other hauling.

Telephone 4111