"In Time of Peace Prepare for War"

Such were the notable words of the Father of Our Country. And we see today that they are true now as then. And we urge the Hood River Orchardist right now to make ready for the coming war on the weeds and pests and insects of the Hood River Valley. If your implements need repairing, attend to the work at once, or allow us to do it for you at our fully equipped blacksmithing and woodworking shops at the corner of Fourth and Columbia Streets.

MRS. AUGUSTA PRICE SUCCUMBS SUDDENLY

Death came suddenly last Thursday night to Mrs. Augusta Cornelia Price, aged 73, while accompanying her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Davidson, she was motoring from the city home of Mr. and Mrs. Davidson to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Van Horn, where she was to have been a guest at the wedding of their daughter, Miss Marion, and Anson G. Allen. Mrs. Price, although she was apparently in the best of health and has never suffered other than minor illness during her long life, was stricken with an attack of heart trouble, and death came before she could be returned to the city home.

Mrs. Price, whose maiden name was Price, was born October 3, 1843, at Savannah, Mo. Her father, William Burnett, was a native of Virginia and her mother was of Kentucky birth. At the age of 14 years she crossed the plains with her family, emigrating to California. She was married at Petaluma, Calif., to Jacob Price, who on April 5, 1865, 22 years before to the day, passed away at Racine, Wis., where he and his wife moved from California in 1859.

In 1899 Mrs. Price came to Hood River to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Davidson. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon from the Davidson home. In addition to the local mourners, Mrs. Price is survived by two sons, Lester Price, of Wenatchee, Ill., and William B. Price, of Oakland, Calif. Two sisters, Mrs. George Richardson and Miss Stella Burnett are residents of Portland.

MRS. FORCE, AGED 80 YEARS, PASSES

Mrs. Abbie Force, aged 80 years, passed away Monday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Dickinson. Mrs. Force was born in Elkhart county, Indiana. In 1878 she moved with her family to Michigan. In 1885 the family moved to Kansas, returning to Michigan in 1899.

Mrs. Force, with her husband, came to Oregon in 1904. The husband passed away in Yamhill county in 1912, and since 1914 Mrs. Force has been residing here with her daughter. Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, Rev. Morris Goodrich, pastor of the United Brethren church, officiating. Mrs. Force is survived by a sister, Mrs. Lydia Blaisdell, of Mantion, Mich. Two sisters and two brother residents of Indiana, also survive. The funeral was directed by S. E. Bartmess.

Pine Grove Ladies Meet

The ladies of the Pine Grove Aid held a very pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. Hans Lange on Friday afternoon of last week. The occasion was a silver tea, the proceeds to be used for the new church carpet. About 40 ladies were present and the sum of $5.05 was received.

A reading by Mrs. J. E. Ferguson, of Odell, and a violin solo by Miss Fern were appreciated. Mrs. A. G. Lewis presented the work of the auxiliary of the Coast Artillery of Hood River and suggested that such an organization be formed on the East Side.

Dr. Thrane then talked on the work for the Red Cross which the stay-at-homes may do, and offered to conduct classes in practical nursing, preparation and use of bandages, dressings and economy in food. Both married women and young ladies are welcome to these classes free of charge. Dr. Thrane also proposes to give "First Aid" instruction to the Boy Scouts. He urged the necessity of planting larger gardens, and the raising of fruit and vegetables on a larger scale for the use of the soldiers.

Dr. Thrane's offer shows great patriotism and should meet with a hearty response in Pine Grove. Such training for the household is of great benefit in the home in peace as well as in war. All interested in this Red Cross work, or the auxiliary to provide comforts for our soldier boys are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. F. H. Blackman Friday afternoon, April 13.

Whitman Adopts Military Training

The board of trustees of Whitman College, on petition of the men students of the institution, has adopted compulsory military training. President Penrose, who has just returned from the east, has advised the men not to enlist as privates, but to remain in college for the present and prepare themselves for the army. Both military instruction will take the form of drill and class work. The drill will be in charge of Captain Holm, an alumnus of the college, and the class work will be given by Captain Weyrauch, of the state militia. Both branches of training will be inaugurated immediately after the Easter vacation. The girls of Whitman College have volunteered their services to the D. A. R. of Walls Walls and will assist in the preparation of hospital supplies.

McCullagh Here Saturday

C. W. McCullagh, who was recently elected sales manager of the Apple Growers Association, was here Saturday to attend the annual meeting of the local organization. Mr. McCullagh announced that he expected to move to Hood River about May 1, when he will take active charge of the sales and distribution of the 1917 strawberry crop. Wilmer Sieg, whom Mr. McCullagh succeeds, will leave May 1 for Spokane, where he will become sales manager for the Northwestern branch of the Earl Fruit Company, which has hitherto participated exclusively on the Pacific coast in California districts.

Had Trouble Four or Five Years

No one appreciates good health like those who are ill. W. J. Furry, R. F. D. 2, Salem Mo., writes: "I have been bothered with bladder trouble four or five years. It gave me a great deal of pain. I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good until I got Foley Kidney Pills." Many persons suffer from kidney and bladder trouble when they can be relieved. Backache, dizziness, rheumatic pains, stiff or sore joints and other symptoms yield to Foley Kidney Pills. Sold everywhere.

Insomnia

Indigestion nearly always disturbs the sleep more or less, and is often the cause of insomnia. Eat a light supper with little if any meat, and no milk; also take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper, and see if you do not rest much better. Obtainable everywhere.

WILLIAM A. CASS WINS A PRIZE

William A., "Bill," "Sage of Podunk," Cass, who won a reputation as a student, poet and philosopher while at the University of Oregon, and who is now winning laurels as an educator, is adding further renown to his "scutcheon" as a devotee of the muse of poetry. Mr. Cass has won a prize in a contest put on by The Shovel, a house organ issued by the Rock Springs Coal Co. By the following poem, called "A Rock Springs Romance," Mr. Cass has won third prize:

There was a maid that lived out West,
Who with no suitor had been blessed,
But was that cause for her to sob,
While Rock Springs Coal was on the job?

On one cold night our maiden wise,
She fed a "friend" on hot mince pies.
With Rock Springs Coal she kept her home
So none who came would care to roam.

At last the daring man grew bold,
"You burn that Rock Springs Coal,
I'm told,
Which passes away a durned good head,
Will you be mine?" he all he said.

And then he whispered with his fifth,
"I'll give you as a wedding gift,
Five tons of Rock Springs Coal so clean,
And we'll be warm thru fat and lean."

In a letter answering a request for a photograph, Mr. Cass breathes the spirit of a style similar to that of O. Henry. The letter follows:

Hood River, Ore., March 13, 1917.
Rock Springs Shovel,
Gentlemen: An enclosing requested photograph which I regret to state is exceedingly complimentary. I wish to thank you for the insinuation in the question, "Where did you learn to write poetry?" Honestly forces me to confess that I never did learn and aside from advertisements and shop-worn philosophy my previous literary achievements have caused no very great seismic disturbances on this globe's crust.

As for biography, two towns are in litigation over my birthplace, Virouna Wis., claims that it was Liberty Pole (Wis.) and Liberty Pole denies the accusation with great firmness. When fourteen I came west to finish growing up with the country and Hood River has enjoyed the honor of being designated as my native heath ever since. I am now 25 and if I live I hope to be a great deal older.

We have been enjoying the pleasure of Rock Springs Coal this winter and true to the old adage, "Absence makes the heart grow fonder," but I would like to add that it does not make the feet grow warmer.

With all due apologies, I remain,
Yours sincerely,
Wm. A. Cass.

UPPER VALLEY MEN SHIP HAY ABROAD

C. P. Johannsen last week set the record of shipping the first carload of hay ever shipped from the Hood River valley, to eastern Oregon. Mr. Johannsen shipped the provender, alfalfa to Cove. A second carload from Mr. Johannsen's place and six from other Upper Valley ranches, will follow soon. The product is shipped here over the line of the Mount Hood Railroad and routed from here over the Union Pacific.

"Heretofore," says Ashley Wilson, "we have hauled numerous carloads of hay into the apple districts, but never before have we had a surplus to export."

L. A. E. Clark Offers Services

L. A. E. Clark, aged 53, a retired rancher of the Odell district, returned home last week bitterly disappointed. Mr. Clark, who recently sold his orchard place, came to the city for the avowed purpose of offering his services to his country. He visited the office of Capt. Wilbur there to learn that his country would not accept the services of one so old.

"I know I'm pretty old for a fighting man," said Mr. Clark, "but can't I be used for some guard work? I am free to leave, and believe I would be fit for such duty."

Dee Progress Marked

Progress will be more marked here the coming season in the Dee apple section than in any other district. Plans are under way by the Apple Growers Association for the construction of a receiving warehouse at the Dee station of the Mount Hood Railroad Co. A. W. Stone, accompanying Chas. T. Early, has visited Dee to choose a site for the proposed structure.

It is also proposed to erect the coming summer a community packing house some centrally located point on the Dee flat.

O.-W.R. & N. Co. Flies Flag

When a crew of men finished erecting a handsome flagstaff over the building, a great American flag was raised last week over the O.-W. R. & N. station. The total cost of erecting the flagstaff reached $85. The company, it is stated, is raising similar poles at every station along its line, where provisions for the display of the flag had not already been made.

Local Men do Underwood Plumbing

B. B. Powell and R. B. Snyder, of the Hood River Plumbing Co., have the contract for putting in the plumbing of the new addition being erected by the D. G. Jackson Co. at their big store in Underwood. The new building is three and a half stories in height. The second story will be devoted to apartments in which will be installed running water and baths.

MODERN CORPORATIONS NOT SOULLESS

Affairs in some of the war-torn nations today would hardly warrant the general statement that the world is growing better; and yet normally there is evidence that it is. Two hundred and fifty thousand workmen employed in American industries have had their lives insured by their employers. This represents insurance policies to the total amount of about $250,000,000. The premiums on these insurance policies are paid by the companies for which the men work. This system of insurance for employees, paid for and maintained by the employers, has been growing over a period of about five years, but has attracted little public attention. The whole subject was forced to the front the first of the year by the action of the board of directors of the Union Pacific system, which took out insurance policies covering every one of its employees from 16 to 70 years of age who have been in service one year or longer and who are not receiving more than $4,000 a year in salary.

This one instance means an insurance policy of $30,000,000 and includes some 30,000 employees at work on 8,000 miles of railway. Men and women are included, the office boy as well as the oldest employe. There was no examination, notwithstanding the fact that on the first of the year the Union Pacific system had more than two hundred men in its employ who were 65 years of age and over. No distinction was made between the clerk in the general office and the men employed in hazardous occupations, nor between union and non-union employees.

OREGON PROTECTS SOLDIERS' PROPERTY

The state of Oregon, through a bill introduced in the senate by Senator Wilbur and adopted by the legislature, will protect the property of her soldiers during a period of war. Mr. Wilbur's bill, which goes into effect on May 21, will prevent the foreclosure of a mortgage on the property of any soldier or sailor, volunteer or conscript, or member of the National Guard.

One of the first exponents of the military moratorium was Roy D. Smith.

I Didn't Raise My Boy to Be a Piker

Oh, I didn't raise my boy to be a piker
The kind who waits for dad to till the dirt,
And lets the other fellow do the fighting,
And hides himself behind his mammy's skirt.
Nor I didn't raise my boy to be a soldier,
But if his country needs him more than me,
Oh, I hope my boy will have the sand and courage
To fight for Uncle Sam and Liberty.
Pollyanna in the Oregonian.

Glad to Learn of It

April's changeable weather causes colds that lead to expensive doctor bills—bills that could be avoided if the cold were checked in time. C. Smith, 1421 12th St., Augusta, Ga., writes: "I got one 25c bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and my cough and cold is about well. I was glad to learn of a great medicine like that." Foley's Honey and Tar enjoy such a splendid reputation that it is often imitated. Of course, no substitute or imitation is as good as the genuine. Sold everywhere.

Sulphur Burns at Bridal Veil

A 40-ton carload of sulphur, ordered by J. C. Butcher for spray manufacture, was burned last week at Bridal Veil. Mr. Butcher says that because of the surplus of such stock on hand he will not be delayed in preparing spray supplies for orchardists.

E. U. Rodger, railroad brakeman, 1301 Columbia St., Hood River, says: "I haven't had occasion to take Doan's Kidney Pills for a number of years, but, speaking from past experience, I recommend them. For I found them just the thing for backache. I took two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, when my back was hurting, and since then, I haven't had to use anything for backache or kidney trouble."
