E. L. Smith Plows Up Lawn
An evidence of the keen interest taken by the people of Hood River in the food preparedness campaign inaugurated last week, a man with team and plow was busy Monday morning turning over the sod of the big lawn around the home of E. L. Smith. Mr. Smith, who has won the name of Hood River's Grand Old Man, planter of one of the valley's first commercial orchards, although he is now in his 80th year participated actively last week in the food preparedness meeting and stimulated the local work by his eloquent appeal.

Many other representative citizens are sacrificing portions of their lawns to plantings of potatoes and onions.

Loggers Are Patriotic
An impressive patriotic ceremony was observed Saturday afternoon at the logging camp of the Oregon Lumber Co. in the depth of the Cascade forests on the West Fork of Hood River, where the 200 loggers, nearly all of foreign birth, participated in a flag raising.

Under the direction of the woods foreman, R. M. Stone, a straight fir over 100 feet in height was trimmed and barked. A hole was blasted in the earth near the cook camp beside a huge stump, to which the pole, its butt end in the excavation, was lashed with iron bands made by the camp blacksmith. All hands were called in from the woods for the flag raising.

Fashion Auto Stage Begins Tomorrow
The Hood River-Parkdale automobile stage of the Fashion Livery Co. will begin the season's business tomorrow afternoon. The schedule of the Fashion Co., which has won a great popularity with Upper Valley people because of the overland automobile service, is announced as follows:

Car leaves Parkdale each day at 7.30 a. m., except on Sundays. Each Saturday evening, leaving at 6.30 o'clock, a trip from Parkdale to this city will be made. The car will leave Hood River daily at 4.30 p. m.

Davidson Again Heads Ass'n Board
The 1917 board of directors of the Apple Growers Association elected at the annual meeting met Saturday and organized. Officers were re-elected as follows: P. S. Davidson, pres.; W. B. Dickerson, vice pres.; and A. G. Lewis, secretary. William Irwin was re-elected as the sale organization's treasurer.

BAPTIST ASS'N HERE FOR ANNUAL SESSION

Approximately 75 delegates to the ninth annual session of the Willamette Valley Baptist Association, which opened at the First Baptist church Monday night, arrived at 7 o'clock Monday evening from Portland aboard the steamer Inland Empire. The visitors were met at the local boat landing by a battery of automobiles and then taken to the homes of city residents where they were entertained.

The annual convention of the Baptist Association opened with an address of welcome by Mayor Dumble. Addresses of welcome were also delivered by the following other speakers: Rev. J. L. Allen, pastor of the Baptist church; Rev. E. H. Longbrake, pastor of Asbury Methodist church, Rev. A. B. Waltz, moderator of the Association, delivered the response. The annual sermon was preached by Rev. J. M. Nelson.

Tuesday morning an impressive patriotic service was participated in. About 500 of the children of the city schools appeared before the visiting ministers and sang patriotic songs. The music of the meeting has been in charge of J. A. Epping.

Sunday School Convention Plans

All local church folks are making preparatory plans for the annual convention of the Hood River County Sunday School Association, which will be held this year at Parkdale May 11, 12 and 13. C. A. Phipps, of Portland, state Sunday school superintendent, will be present for the meeting and W. H. Boddy, pastor of the Upper Valley Union church, has extended an invitation to Dr. Coleman, of Reed College, to attend the convention and deliver an address.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation to our friends for the many helpful deeds and kindness shown us during the sickness and death of our mother.

J. W. Dickinson and Wife.

Correction

It was erroneously stated in last week's Glacier that the late Mrs. Abbie Force, whose funeral was held last Thursday, was the mother of Mrs. J. W. Dickinson. Mrs. Force was the mother of Mr. Dickinson.

LATE SEASON WILL RETARD ALL CROPS

From present indications, according to orcharists, the strawberry crop will be even later than last season, when the first carload of berries was shipped June 3, two weeks later than in normal seasons. The berry plants as yet show but little growth, and because of the recent wet weather growers have had no opportunity to cultivate their tracts. While a few scattering plum trees are in blossom in the city, cherry and apple trees are very backward. Apple blossom time in the Hood River valley comes usually about May 1. The trees will not be in full bloom this year, according to estimates, until about May 10.

Spraying Suggestions Given
—By Leroy Childs—

In most sections of the valley pears are now in the proper condition to receive the spray for the blight mite. Lime-sulphur 1-12 should be used. In order to control the blight mite, it is very essential to get the spray on at the proper time. But little success will be attained in making the applications after the leaves show.

Some growers have been applying lime-sulphur during the past few days. To get the benefit from the semi-dormant spray for the control of apple scab the first leaves should be showing before the application is made. No protection so far as scab is concerned will result from spraying buds which show no unfolded leaves.

The continued rains are still delaying the application of the oil. From the present development of the fruit buds in the sections which are infested with leaf roller, it appears at the present time that it will be safe to use oil for at least a week. In the case of earlier varieties perhaps this should be limited to a week.

Boy's Eye Injured in Explosion

Cecil, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Tomlinson, of Parkdale, whose left eye was injured by the explosion of what is thought to have been a dynamite cap in the kitchen stove Sunday, was brought here for treatment Monday. It was thought that a piece of the copper cap was lodged in the eye and the boy was taken to Portland for an examination. The kitchen stove fire was started from shavings picked up from the floor of the blacksmith shop operated by Mr. Tomlinson. It is thought the percussion cap was in the debris.

T. & L. Co. Gets Contract

The county court Monday afternoon awarded to the Transfer & Livery Co. the contract for the construction of a section of the new highway in the East Side orchard district. The contract, which calls for the straightening of a section of valley road in one of the most thickly populated orchard districts, will require the excavation of approximately 4,000 cubic yards of earth. The bid of the successful contractor was 24 cents per yard.

Four other bids were submitted. Work was begun on the road yesterday.

Railroad Ave. Improvement is Aim

Plans are under way for the permanent improvement of Railroad avenue. The city council discussed the proposed improvement Monday night and City Engineer Henderson has been asked to make estimates of the cost of the work. The county will be asked to assist with the improvement, since ranchers make most use of the street.

Abutting property owners offer to hard surface the street if the city and county will grade it.

Columbia Rises

After a total rise of five feet, on Sunday came to a standstill, due to the cool weather that has been prevailing over the mountains.

Local river men have received information from up river points that lead them to expect almost as heavy a volume of water as last year. During the past several weeks heavy snows have fallen at the higher levels. Men from Upper Valley communities say that the snow in the forests is now deeper than it was on the same date last year.

WEDDINGS

Jacob-Fuhrman
Plans of Joseph L. Jacob, a young forest ranger of the southeastern part of the valley, to slip into the city Friday and claim Miss Margaret Fuhrman, formerly of Goldendale, Wash., but who has made her home for a year in this city, as his bride, were frustrated by City Marshal Carson. The young ranger is a member of the Masonic lodge, and when Mr. Carson heard the news of the wedding he tipped it off to numbers of Mr. Jacob's fellow lodge members who began mysteriously to file into the office of Justice of the Peace Onthank at the time announced for the wedding service.

After the words of the wedding ceremony, the first at which Mr. Onthank, recently appointed to the office, had ever officiated, the fraternity men presented Mr. and Mrs. Jacob with a handsome cut glass sugar bowl and creamer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob left for an East Side ranch, where they will reside.

Salsbury-Newton

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Newton, in the Belmont district the wedding ceremony of H. R. Salsbury and Miss Donna Faye Hutchins, both of Portland, was performed at 8 o'clock Saturday evening. Rev. Elijah Hull Longbrake, pastor of Asbury church, officiating. The wedding was witnessed by only a few relatives and close friends. Mr. and Mrs. Salsbury have returned to Portland.

FISH, FURS AND FEATHERS

The spring run of steelhead salmon has begun in the Hood River, and local nimrods report excellent catches during the past several days. R. Evinger landed four 24-inch steelheads Friday, and three of the big fish were caught by Al. W. Bishop.

Scores of local fishermen were on the steam Sunday to try for the big fellows.

"It is entirely too early for good fishing," says Earl Franz, who with his father and brother, respectively E. A. and Edgar Franz, and Geo. W. Thomason, motored Sunday up the White Salmon river on a fishing trip.

"We struck a foot of snow at a point about 18 miles from the Columbia. In places the roads were dusty. But there were many mudholes, and we found several places that were frozen over. We didn't catch any fish."

E. J. Middelwart was displaying a fine catch last Saturday afternoon.

Notice of the Holding Open of the Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Hood River Apple Growers Union

Notice is hereby given that the Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Hood River Apple Growers Union which was called to be held at Heilbronner Hall, Hood River, Oregon, on Saturday, April 7, 1917, at one o'clock p. m. for the purpose of electing a Board of nine directors for the ensuing year; for the purpose of submitting to the Stockholders at said meeting a proposition to dissolve the Hood River Apple Growers Union, of Hood River, Oregon, as a corporation, for the purpose of selling all of the property of the Hood River Apple Growers Union to the Apple Growers Association, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting.

Was by the unanimous vote of the stockholders present, there being a quorum present, held open until Saturday, April 21st, 1917, at 7:30 p. m. and the ballot box and polls were ordered to be kept open and voting permitted for one hour each day, namely from 11 o'clock a. m. until 12 o'clock noon, each week day up to and including Saturday, April 21st, 1917, said polls to be kept open and voting to take place at the office of the Apple Growers Association, Hood River, Oregon, at 7:30 p. m. April 21st, 1917, at the office of the Apple Growers Association, Hood River, Oregon, said meeting will reconvene and will receive and announce the result of ballot.

Dated at Hood River, Oregon, the 7th day of April, 1917.

IN EVENT OF WAR

In event of WAR or THREATENED WAR, men are thinking over all, or some of the following FACTS:—

Is the title of my property good, and in such shape that my wife or dependents are protected; does my abstract show it; where is my abstract?

Is the loan on my property past due and should be refinanced for a term of years; or is it about due and should be refinanced?

Are my buildings and their contents insured against loss by fire?

Is my life insured in favor of my wife, my dependents or my estate?

Let us serve you.
