

The fresh, crisp air of these October mornings, and chilly nights, is creating a demand for warmer clothing. CRAM'S always up-to-date store is splendidly prepared to meet the conditions . . . Warm Union Suits for men, women and children; Campers Comforts and Blankets and beautiful Woolen Blankets; Comforter size Wool Bats, 20% under price; Boy's and Men's warm Kersey Pants, Mackinaws and "Stag" and Flannel Shirts; Knitted Sweaters, Caps and Scarfs, Gloves and Mittens, etc., etc., in wonderful variety

CRAM'S

Cull Apples

Orchard Run Sound Cull
$8.00

Per Ton Delivered to Factory.

Having increased our grinding and storage capacity, we will be in a position to take care of your 1917 tonnage.

HOOD RIVER APPLE VINEGAR CO.

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION

H. L. Hasbrouck, Optometrist. Shoes made or repaired at Johnson's. The new paved street past Kelly Bros. is finished. Try it. Sheriff Johnson was in Cascade Locks Monday on official business. The new paved street past Kelly Bros. is finished. Try it. Mrs. C. H. Vaughan visited Portland friends the first of the week. If you want shoes that don't go wrong go to Johnson's. Ask at the theatre box office for your copy of the monthly program. Mr. and Mrs. F. Davenport were week end visitors in Portland. J. W. Morton was a business visitor in Cascade Locks the first of the week. The new paved street past Kelly Bros. is finished. Try it. Geo. Diabrow is now located with Sloom & Canfield. "Broadway Jones" at the Gem Monday and Tuesday. If your shoes have gone wrong take them to Johnson. B. L. Murphy has left for Tracy, where he will spend the winter. The new paved street past Kelly Bros. is finished. Try it. Mrs. W. F. Laraway visited Portland friends the latter part of last week. R. E. Early was in Portland the first of the week visiting the family of his brother-in-law, F. W. Witham. Mrs. Frances M. Otten left Tuesday for Portland, where she will visit her son, E. F. Douglas. Mrs. C. O. Huelat was in Portland the first of the week to see the grand opera performances. I have taken the agency for the Spiridella Corset. Call at Buelow Tailor Shop. Mrs. Carl Buelow, Hood River, Or. Mr. E. A. Imbler, of Paisley, was here last week visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Imbler. Val. W. Tompkins, of Cascade Locks was a business visitor in the city last week. Eyes scientifically examined by H. L. Hasbrouck, Optometrist, Heilbronner Bldg. See Dr. A. C. Eaton in regard to your eyes and glasses, 1017 Hull street, Saturday. A. W. Meyer, of Cascade Locks, was a business visitor in the city the first of the week. L. G. Morgan, furniture packer and offer. Phone 3183. Residence, 423 1st street. Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Brosius were at Fort Canby last week visiting their son, Lieut. E. E. Brosius. A. B. Kelsay, of Salem, was here last week visiting his niece, Mrs. Geo. I. Sloom and family. Prof. John W. Huff, principal of the Parkdale high school, was in the city last week on business. Highest cash price paid for your used furniture, stoves and rugs. Call McClain at E. A. Franz Co. C. P. Johannsen is recuperating at a hospital at The Dalles from a recent serious operation. Chas. Hall, of Marshfield, has been here the past week attending to matters of business. H. L. Fording is here this week from Portland looking after matters of business. Wanted—Potatoes. Best price for present or future delivery. J. F. Batchelder. P. O. Box 86. Miss Hazel Holland, the popular organist of the Electric theatre, is recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schiffer, of Pendleton, were here last week visiting friends. C. W. Clark, of Mount Hood, was here the latter part of last week attending to matters of business. T. R. Coon has been here this week from Lyle, Wash., looking after ranch interests. Chas. Huggins, of Salem, has arrived and is residing with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Huggins. Mrs. J. J. Luckey, of Eugene, has been here the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hunt and other friends. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Campbell and baby, of The Dalles, were here last week visiting friends. C. E. Kempton, of Portland, was here last week visiting friends and on business. M. M. Hill spent Sunday in Portland with his daughter Miss Ruth, who is there attending school. Mrs. Clara Whitcomb, of Mitchell, Ore., is her visiting her mother, Mrs. Jennie Whitcomb. C. Siegenthaler, of Mount Hood, was a business visitor in the city the first of the week. Mrs. I. R. Acheson and children spent the week end in Portland visiting friends and relatives. Mrs. F. H. Coolidge, after a visit with friends and relatives in Wasco, returned home last Friday afternoon. Chas. T. Early was up from Portland the latter part of last week looking after business interests. Good income property at Hood River to exchange for property in Portland. Attorney Sam W. Stark, 806 Northwestern Bank Bldg., Portland, Ore. Julian Jacobsen after spending the summer in eastern Washington harvest fields, has resumed his studies at Whitman College. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kelsay and baby, of La Grande, have been here visiting the family of Mr. Kelsay's sister, Mrs. Geo. I. Sloom. Doug Fairbanks will be shown at the Electric in "The Man from Painted Post," Monday and Tuesday, November 26 and 27. Mrs. H. S. Butterfield arrived last week from Portland to look after the harvest of her apple crop on the West Side. W. W. Hardinger, of Tacoma, who has been here looking after the ranch owned by him and E. A. Baker, returned home Saturday. Columbia Garage for rent for warehouse or garage purpose. Ready for occupancy Sept. 1. Hood River Abstract & Investment Co. Miss Martha Bechen, of The Dalles, county agent for Hood River and Wasco counties, after an official visit here returned home Tuesday morning. Doc Tomlinson, accompanied by his brothers, L. F. Tomlinson, of Banks, and Frank Tomlinson, of Tillamook, was in Bend last week on business. Mary Pickford will be seen at the Electric soon in her great play, "The Poor Little Rich Girl." A positive Pickford success. If you don't want to buy a dollar. Where? With the rummage sale Saturday next, and receive the thanks of the committee. The young people, and old folks too, at Wyeth are now enjoying a series of dancing parties given every other Saturday night at the Simm hall. We have 7 per cent money for Farm Loans with prepayment privileges, and can give you prompt service. Abstracts, Insurance and Surveying. Hood River Abstract and Inv. Co. Phone 1331. George Cooper, who recently left here for the Army and Navy hospital at the Presidio, San Francisco, has improved very much. Mr. Cooper and his mother, Mrs. Rebecca Cooper, are now living in Los Angeles. A. P. Sprague, formerly a local orchardist, who is now located in Portland, was here the latter part of last week calling on friends. Harry Wilson, of Portland, was here the latter part of last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Weber, his wife's parents, and attending to business. Why the Red Cross rummage sale? To benefit the local Chapter by the cash taken in and to offer bargains to those who can use them. A specially fine riding and driving horse to responsible party for her keep. Phone J. Stranahan, 1201, for particulars. J. E. Robertson, assistant general manager of the Silver Falls Lumber Co. at Silverton, has been here for a visit with his family. Miss Helen Davidson, of the domestic science department of the Wasco high school, spent the latter part of last week here visiting relatives and friends. H. M. Francis and family are planning to move from their Oak Grove home to the city this winter, in order that Mr. Francis, acting county clerk, may be closer to his business. Mr. and Mrs. P. Bruhn, after a visit here with the family of Mrs. Bruhn's sister, Mrs. Martin H. Nielsen, left Monday to return to their home at Petaluma, Cal. Miss Hyde, of Atascadero, Calif., arrived last week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bone. She will spend her vacation on the Central Yale orchard place. Announcement has been made of the engagement and approaching wedding of Miss Addie Freeman and Paul E. Sosey. Mr. Sosey is now located at Ritzville, Wash. Mrs. Kent Shoemaker and son left Tuesday evening for Fort Canby, Wn., returning there for a visit with Mrs. Shoemaker, who has been here on a short furlough. Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Beacham, of Chicago, are here looking after extensive improvements to their newly purchased home, formerly the property of Mrs. W. P. Moran. R. A. Copple, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Copple, has resigned as mayor of Marshfield. Mr. Copple and family will move from the Coos Bay town to southern California. Brage & Huggins will buy your apples or handle them on commission. Personal attention will be given to all consignments to us at Portland. Call H. Huggins. Tel. 3141. Mrs. A. Simm, of Wyeth, was here Saturday taking the civil service examination. Mrs. Simm has applied for the position of postmistress of Wyeth. L. Gross, formerly in business here with his brother, H. Gross, the second-hand man, is now interested with W. Margulis in the Hood River Valley Products Co. The music department of the Women's club will resume work for the winter at a meeting to be held next Thursday evening at Library hall. A program will be rendered by Miss Ruth Humes and Mrs. Ralph Root. J. M. Berry, formerly of La Grande but who is now residing in Portland, was here the first of the week on business and visiting former customers and friends. Mr. Berry and J. L. Carter are oldtime friends. For Sale—Clifton. One of the finest locations along the Columbia River Highway for a summer home, at a bargain. No agents. See the owner for price and terms. Mrs. S. J. Moore, of Hood River, Oregon, Rt. 3, Tel. 5953. C. A. Bell has received a letter from his son, Fred H. Bell who announces that he has been transferred from the Second Idaho Infantry to a regiment of light field artillery. Mr. Bell is at Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C. The members of St. Mark's Guild will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. E. D. Kanaga on Columbia street. Reports of the work of individual members for the summer will be made at this meeting. L. B. Aplin spent last week at Moro securing machinery for the new flouring mill now under construction here by him and his father, J. P. Aplin. Mrs. Aplin and son visited in Portland during Mr. Aplin's absence. After a visit with her son, W. E. Furnish and wife, at Parkdale, and with her daughter, Mrs. S. J. Moore, and family, of this city, Mrs. W. J. Furnish returned to Portland last Saturday afternoon. Accompanied by his father, who was returning to his home in New York city, Homer A. Rogers, of Mount Hood Lodge, passed through town the latter part of last week en route to Portland. The Transfer & Livery Co. has just received from the Hood River Garage a large Indiana truck, which will be put into commission in local service. The big vehicle has been painted a bright yellow by the Franz Hardware Co. Some of the finest delicious apples grown in the valley this year have come from the West Side orchard of Dr. J. W. Sifton. A box of the handsome big apples, all well colored, are on display at the Stewart Hardware store. Kay Yamahiro, who has spent the summer in Portland handling the commission business in a number of lodge Japanese ranchers, was here last week. He stated that he expected to return here for the winter within the next few weeks. R. W. Wood, who recently arrived at Seattle from Alaska, where he spent the summer, arrived here last week for a visit with the family of his cousin, Mrs. O. B. Nye. Mrs. Nye's sister-in-law, Mrs. Wallace Wood and son, of Kent, have also been here on a visit. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Frederick yesterday received a letter from their son, Milo Frederick, who announces his safe arrival in England. Young Frederick recently enlisted in Portland with the British Royal Engineers. He states in his letter that he has been detailed for service in the inland water transportation department.

"We are now at Orange, Calif. where we will be located until spring," writes John Walters, who with his family left for southern California several weeks ago. "We like this place, but still have a mighty warm corner in our hearts for Hood River." Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Heilbronner, of Butte, were here the latter part of last week visiting friends and Mr. Heilbronner attending to matters of business. Both expressed a keen enjoyment of the fine autumn weather prevailing, saying that Hood River was still looked on by them as home. The following members of 12th Co., O. C. A., arrived Sunday for a five day leave of absence: Joe Carson, Sidney Carrine, Kent Shoemaker and Forrest L. Moe. The local men were accompanied as far as Portland by Jack Morrow, who stopped there to visit his parents during his leave. Frank Stenzel, proprietor of the Hotel Raymond at Raymond, Wash., was here last week visiting F. W. Stenzel, of the Hotel Oregon. Mr. Stenzel stated that all of the big lumber mills of Raymond had resumed operations. He also stated that one of the largest ship building plants of the coast was being constructed. Roy Dart, who enlisted last spring in the navy, arrived home last week for a short leave of absence, here visiting his family and friends. The young man, formerly a student at the local high school, is looking mighty well. He says that he has gained six pounds since he went into training. He is all muscle and no fat. H. M. and Truman Bailey, sons of Fred Bailey, of Portland, were here this week visiting the family of their uncle, Harry Bailey. The former serving in the navy, was home on a leave of absence from Mare Island navy yard. On their return to Portland the young men were accompanied by their grandmother, Mrs. Fanny Bailey. "Am still alive and falling in for mess regularly," writes Jack Allen, member of 3rd Co. Washington Coast Artillery at Fort Worden, Wash. "Like it up here pretty well, but we are all pining away for action. Getting lots of good artillery training. After several more months in the regiment will be a valuable asset of Uncle Sam's. Just back from a trip to Washington State Fair at Puyallup. We have also just drilled in a Liberty Bond parade at Seattle." Lieut. Pineo, stationed with the 340th regiment, heavy field artillery, was home over the week end on a short leave. Lieut. Pineo declares that Camp Lewis is growing every day. Soon 60,000 men will be in training at the Washington cantonment. "It is a wonderful sight," says the local officer, "to see the street after street of barracks. You can imagine the size of the big army camp when I tell you that my quarters are three miles from headquarters."

New Arrivals in Good Things to Eat

- New Coconut Macaroons 40c lb.
- New Crop Walnuts 30c lb.
- New Crop Almonds 30c lb.
- New Crop Brazil Nuts 25c lb.
- New Crop Figs 15c lb.
- New Pack Dill Pickles 20c doz.
- New Pack Sweet Midget Pickles, 20c pt.
- New Pack Veribest Mincemeat 35c bucket
- New Citron, Orange and Lemon Peels

"The Star Grocery" PERIGO & SON

Every day brings more new crop goods of finest quality to

Christian & Missionary Alliance

The Christian and Missionary Alliance may be looked upon as one of the weaker churches, yet they support their pastor and pay into the foreign missionary board $500 or more a year. Sunday school at 9.45, preaching at 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Young People's Society at 6.30 p. m. Bible study on Tuesday nights. Prayer meeting Thursday nights. Dr. A. C. Eaton will occupy the pulpit next Sunday night. Everybody welcome at all these services. D. M. Carpenter, Pastor.

Christian Church

The Endeavor Society of the First Christian church has won the distinction of becoming the first, excellent society of the state. A night letter was recently sent to the state union president announcing this victory. Meetings Sunday at 6.15 p. m. The Bible school will start on its journey across the continent next Sunday at 9.45 to embark on two ocean liners for a trip to Palestine. The third of a series of sermons on "Revelations" by the pastor next Sunday evening.

First Church of Christ, Scientist

Services will be held in Church Building, 9th and Eugene, Sunday, 11:00 a. m.; Subject: "Doctrine of Atonement." Sunday School at 11 a. m. Wednesday service, 8 p. m. The reading room is open daily from 2 to 5 p. m., in the Hall building.

Congregational Church

Sunday school at 9.45 a. m. Sermon at 11 a. m. Subject, "Blight and Bloom." Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. M. L. Hutton, Pastor.

Methodist Church

Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching services at 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Special music at both services. Junior an Epworth League services at 6.30 p. m. E. H. Longbrake, Pastor.

No Meeting Friday

Because of the patriotic meeting of Monday night and the busy season of apple harvest, the proposed mass meeting at Heilbronner hall tomorrow night has been postponed.

O. E. S. Anniversary Dinner

The anniversary of the organization of Hood River Chapter, No. 25, O. E. S., will be observed Tuesday evening, October 23. Dinner will be served promptly at 6.30. Attendance is limited to members of the order. Visiting members cordially invited.

Can You Play YOUR Records 1000 Times?

OR do they show surface-wear after a fair performance. $25 to $225. Do you want to have longer-lived records? Do you want freedom from the endless bother and expense of changing needles? Do you want a fuller, more genuinely lustrous tone? Then come into this store and hear the Pathephone. Today is the best time.

Pathe records introduce you to a new world of music. The greatest artists in America. The stars of foreign opera houses. Famous European orchestras and bands; and countless musical novelties.

Pathe records introduce you to a new world of music. The greatest artists in America. The stars of foreign opera houses. Famous European orchestras and bands; and countless musical novelties.

Pathe records introduce you to a new world of music. The greatest artists in America. The stars of foreign opera houses. Famous European orchestras and bands; and countless musical novelties.

Pathe records introduce you to a new world of music. The greatest artists in America. The stars of foreign opera houses. Famous European orchestras and bands; and countless musical novelties.

Now Ready to receive cull apples at Odell Plant; also at Van Horn, Fike's Warehouse across from Grange Hall.

$8 for Ciders (Sound Culls)

Parkdale station will be ready the later part of this week.

Odell Pland Telephone, Odell 242. Van Horn, call Mr. Boles, Van Horn Hotel.

WE PAY CASH!

Hood River Valley Products Co.

MAIN OFFICE AT ODELL
W. MARGULIS, Mgr. GET IN TOUCH WITH US

ANNOUNCEMENT

I wish thus to notify my old patrons that I have returned to Hood River and am again open to engagements for all lines of electrical work. Will be glad to give you figures on your jobs.

ALVA L. DAY, ELECTRICIAN

Telephone 3362

HAVE YOUR PIANO ALWAYS IN TUNE

and in the best possible playing condition. You can do this by taking advantage of the following offer:

Woolsey Piano Tuning Club TUNING CARD

Name _____
Address _____
Phone _____
Piano, Make _____
No. _____
This card calls for three tunings and immediate service by request during club year of _____ 191_____ to _____ 191_____
Upright pianos $5.00 per year; $3.00 down and $2.00 on second tuning.
Grand pianos and players $7.50; $3.50 down, $2.50 second tuning and $1.50 the third.
Prices outside of this offer $3.50 per tuning, and $4.00 respectively.

PAUL WOOLSEY

PIANO AND PIPE ORGAN TUNER
PLAYER PIANO EXPERT!

THE DALLES HOOD RIVER
Mon., Tues., Wed., 101 W 3rd St. Thurs., Fri., Sat. at Electric Theatre
Phone, Black 6272 Phone 2742

This Card Taken Second Tuning	This Card Taken First Tuning
Piano _____	Piano _____
No. _____	No. _____
Name _____	Name _____
Date _____ 191____	Date _____ 191____
Tuner _____	Tuner _____

Your instrument will be highly improved at the first tuning and will be at its best as long as it is in my care. Investigate this offer. References given gratuitously upon request.

PAUL WOOLSEY