ODELL

Geo. Sheppard is now looking after the interests of the Consolidated Mercantile Co. in their Odell store.

Mrs. Job Sheppard arrived home Sunday from an extended visit with her three daughters who reside in Indiana.

L. A. E. Clark has gone to Stanfield, Ore., where he is engaged in pruning Page & Son's orchard. He reports dry, dusty weather there, while we are having rain a plenty. Page & Son have developed a fine property. The season just closed they sold 500 tons of alfalfa hay at $12 per ton in the stack. They have built a modern house and barn and have arranged every convenience for the use of their foreman.

Z. O. Annals and Aalto Annals returned home Saturday after having spent the week in Portland. Aalto submitted to an operation to remedy eye trouble. He returned to Portland Tuesday to have stitches removed.

Loyal Rhoades returned home Sunday after having spent several weeks with relatives in California.

Mrs. E. T. Folts is in St. Vincent's hospital recovering from an operation which was performed Saturday. Her condition is reported as satisfactory as could be expected.

Grade school teachers, with the assistance of the high school, are preparing for a community Christmas tree in the high school auditorium Friday evening. Programs arranged by the school are always fine and we expect this to be equal to the usual high standard.

Teachers in both high and grade schools will spend their holiday vacation at home. Miss Johnson and Miss Thickens go to Seattle, Miss Swanson to Portland, Miss Ferdine, The Dalles, Mrs. Yeates, Fossil. Miss Hukari and Mr. Vose are residents of our valley.

While a party of relatives and friends were at Vancouver to visit Odell boys who have enlisted and were ordered to Texas, Edward Jeppesen and Edna Trusty were married. Other members of the party were greatly surprised.

Mrs. Manzanita Pillen, whose home is in Alabama, arrived in Hood River Monday night and is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Allison Fletcher.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McFarlane went to Portland last week to look up a house. They expect to make their home in Portland after January 1, when Mr. McFarlane will be employed by the Custer Fruit Grader Co.

O. H. Ehrek spent the week end in Portland.

Chas. W. Gunn, of the quartermaster's corps, has been ordered to Florida.

Horace Gilkerson, LeRoy Krohn, Edward Jeppesen and Walter Plog were ordered to Texas and later Nate Gilkerson was ordered to Texas. The latter spent a few hours Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gilkerson.

We intended giving a summary of apples shipped through local warehouses, but have not secured necessary information and must wait until next week.

FRANKTON.

E. T. Kruger, from Kansas City, Mo., was a week end visitor at the home of C. D. Hollenbeck, where his two children are living.

There has been some sickness reported. Mrs. Ernest Maurition and Mrs. Dan Malner have been under the doctor's care.

Miss Lucille Craven, one of the intermediate teachers in the Frankton school, left today for her home at Independence, Ore., to spend Christmas with the home folks.

Tomorrow is the shortest day in the year and it will with two more days, and they are short, are all you have to do that Christmas shopping in. From a letter just received from C. F. Gray and family, old Frankton residents living in southern Arizona, we learn that it hasn't rained a drop there in the past five months.

We have made about a dozen inquiries after news and the answers have all been "Yes, it rained." We called up E. W. Birge, weather observer, and asked him how much rain had fallen recently. He said that the average was about six feet—no, inches, so it has rained some.

Virgil Abaten, who recently enlisted in a cavalry troop and was assigned to duty as broncho buster, breaking horses for the service, was thrown and very seriously hurt last week. His brother, Homer, is also a member of a cavalry troop. They are stationed at Camp Lewis.

We understand that when the county commissioners meet next week to consider the budget problem for the coming year that an effort will be made to have some provision made for getting the Hood River Volunteer fire company boys to and from fires that occur out in the country. Last year during the dry season they responded to every call and did splendid work in saving property menaced by forest and other fires. They are handicapped by not having any way to get to these fires. We hope that something can be done to help them to help others.

The big Christmas Red Cross drive is on in Frankton this week. Chas. Galloway, one of the captains for the West Side, has appointed M. J. Foley, E. J. Cooper, E. C. Rand, J. I. Moreland and M. R. Noble to assist. Every family will be requested to do their bit.

Merry Christmas to all the Glacier readers.

At a special school meeting held last Tuesday evening George Galloway was elected director to fill out the one and a half years of the unexpired term of F. R. Absten.

MIDDLE VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Ireland have moved to Portland for the winter.

Mrs. E. R. Bradley, of Hood River, spent a few days recently with Mrs. O. L. Worden.

Fred Ries and family have moved to Odell for the winter.

Capt. Winfred Arens and bride, who have been home at Walegwin for the past week, spent Wednesday calling on friends. They left for Camp Lewis Thursday evening, where Capt. Arens will be stationed as a training officer.

W. H. Austin was called to Red Oaks, Ia., recently on account of the serious illness of his mother.

We understand that John Hillstrom has gone to enlist or get married. Either one might be serious.

There is to be a short program and Christmas tree at the Middle Valley school Friday afternoon. The community is invited.

Mrs. Elizabeth Curtis will spend the holidays at Fossil with her mother and children.

Among the Hood River shoppers from Middle Valley Saturday were the Hodges, Hillstrom, McFarraths, Austins and Mrs. O. L. Worden.

Very effective work was done by the Ladies' Aid at Mrs. M. H. Craft's Saturday. The Red Cross will meet at the Worden home next Saturday.

A Merry Xmas

Let's All Do Our Best to Make this Christmas a Merry One. We Need It.

While it is true we are at war, and both as a Nation and as individuals we are pledged to our last drop of blood and our last dollar to win this war, and it is worth every sacrifice we may be called upon to make. This is Our War because it is for humanity and Freedom against brutality, oppression and greed. Our country has ever been champion for the right, and it is up to each one of us to do all in our power to prosecute this struggle to the end that right will triumph and brute force will be wiped out for good and all.

At the same time there is no reason why we should ignore the Christmas Season.

Christmas means a great deal to the World and to Each One of Us.

Our Children Need a Merry Xmas

and it won't hurt the old folks, so let's all get busy and spread the Christmas spirit as far as we can. The price of good cheer has not gone up; a pleasant word and a smile remain at the old prices; the supply is unlimited and there is no embargo on the distribution of these good things. Here is one line you are not asked to Hooverize in.

So Here Is To a Merry Christmas to All.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(By Betty Epping)

Last Friday the most delightful party of the year was given by the senior and junior classes in the form of a hard times party to the under classmen. Special prizes were given to the ones in best costume, Jessie Lewis capturing the girls' prize and Earl Tucker the boys' prize.

Friday afternoon the senior girls' basketball team was humbled by the freshmen sextette to the tune of 11-7. The senior girls were in the lead by four points at the end of the first half, but in the second the babes sort of roused up and you know the score. The senior boys put it over the freshmen 21-5, so both sides were equally happy and sorrowful. Next Friday at 3 o'clock there will be another class game.

Olive Wildin was elected captain of the girls' basket ball team. The team will play Camas a week from today at Camas.

A change of school schedule has been made during the winter months. The periods have been arranged so that we now get out at 3.15. Many are hoping that this will last throughout the whole spring term.

Harry Post and Si Sonnicksen have been home on furlough the past week.

Carl Houston is now in the marine training camp at Quantico, Va. Sid Carline is at Fort Monroe studying radio.

Lloyd Blowers had a little scare Saturday afternoon when his car skidded and turned over near Mrs. Alma Howe's. Three other boys were with him, but none were seriously hurt.

All the schools let out tomorrow for the Christmas holidays. The high school will take up Wednesday, January 2, and the grade schools Monday, January 7.

Hereafter grade pupils will not be allowed to come to the high school libraries unless accompanied by their parents or some other person.

Wednesday morning the Adelphe society presented its assembly program in the form of a play. It was amusing and well given.

Plans are under way to give the foot ball team a banquet just after the holidays.

Escher Spackman, of White Salmon, is now here on a school leave. She is a member of the junior class.

WEDDINGS

McLucas-Gould

Local friends of Miss DeForrest Gould, teacher of the Oak Grove school, have just learned of her wedding Sunday afternoon at St. David's Episcopal church in Portland. Her bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLucas, of Gateway. Rev. Thomas Jenkins, pastor of the Portland church, officiated. Mr. McLucas, who formerly resided here with his family, has just enlisted in the United States engineers corps and expects to be called into training at once. Both young people are popular graduates of the high school.

Mrs. McLucas has returned here to resume her work as teacher.

Burpee-Fisher

Miss Irene Fisher, formerly of the local telephone office, and J. M. Burpee were married last Saturday in Portland where they will make their home. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Winkler were present for the wedding.

Thompson Discusses Potato Grading

Parkdale, Ore., Dec. 18, 1917. Editor Glacier: In regard to Mr. Grampa's potato spiel, I quite agree with him on grading. But I did not know Mr. Grampa was so high an authority. I thought probably he had reference to the potatoes he bought in the Upper Valley. Mr. Skelley bought about $22,000 worth of potatoes in the Upper Valley, and he told me he had no kick coming on grading and quality. It is very hard to grade when you have nothing to grade from. J. F. Thompson.

Half Breed Arrested for Abduction

Harry Clark, a halfbreed negro, arrested here Saturday by Deputy Marshal Frazier on a charge of the abduction of Winifred Symenire, a 15 year old Indian girl who has been attending the Warm Springs Reservation school, attempted to escape by burning a hole in the ceiling of the jail Sunday afternoon. The man, of huge size although only 20 years old, had succeeded in firing the ceiling by means of heated bars which he had pried from a window. When Marshal Carraz returned to find him trying to escape Clark threatened fight and the officer had to use force in locking him in a steel cell.
