

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION

Misses Addie Perkins and Paulina LeFranc spent the week end in Portland with friends. Benjamin Breed, a student at the University of Oregon, spent the New Year's holiday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Breed. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bone, who spent the holidays in Portland with relatives, expect to remain in the Rose City for the next month. Having bought the Hotel Oregon Barber Shop, and taken possession, J. Barber Shop, and taken possession, J. Barber Shop, and taken possession, J. Barber Shop...

R. G. Seacore, a member of 2nd Co., O. C. A., stationed at Fort Stevens, spent the Christmas holidays here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Seacore. Dakin & Dakin have opened a specialty electric shop in the basement of the Hood River Bank building. Particular attention is given to particular work for particular people. Frank Vannier has been in Vancouver visiting his brother, Joe, who is stationed at the barracks there, and in Portland visiting friends. He returned Monday. Mrs. W. L. Clark and son, Newton, after having spent several days here visiting friends, have returned to Portland, where young Mr. Clark is attending Lincoln high school. Amos Perkins, who is now in the navy, stationed at the University of Washington on a special training task, spent the holidays here with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon G. Brown are at Corvallis, where Mr. Brown will spend the next three weeks engaged in work connected with the local experiment station. Mrs. Dean Ballard, of Seattle, and Miss Helen Knight, the latter of the University of California, are home for the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Knight. Dakin & Dakin have opened a specialty electric shop in the basement of the Hood River Bank building. Particular attention given to particular people. Mrs. R. D. McKinnon, of La Grande, is here to spend several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carter, on the East Side. H. F. J. Sieverkrupp left Saturday for Kansas City, Mo., where he will spend the next three months on business. L. O'Brien, of Centerville, Wash., has been here the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Sherman J. Frank, and husband. Ray Furrow, who has been in training in California as a member of the Engineers Reserve Corps, spent the holidays here with his family. Mr. and Mrs. Karl Onthank, of Eugene, were here for Christmas to visit Mr. Onthank's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Onthank. Henry Blagg, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Blagg, a graduate of O. A. C., is now member of an engineering regiment at Vancouver, Wash. Now is the time to have your battery inspected and put in condition for the season's service. See Dakin, the batteryman, State Bank Building. Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Gillam, of Underwood, spent Christmas here with Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Jackson, Mrs. Gillam's parents. Mr. and Mrs. J. McFarland, who have been residing on the West Side, returned last week to Portland, where they will spend the winter. Mrs. Fred Donnerberg, of Bremerton, where her husband is stationed in the navy, was here for the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Dethman. Mrs. Mary A. Congdon, of Portland, after having been here to spend the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. R. N. Young, and family, has returned home. Raymond G. Moore, of Underwood, who recently enlisted in radio service of the army, was here last week visiting friends. Miss Mari Whitmar Whitehead is home from Portland spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Whitehead. Don't neglect your storage battery this winter. Save yourself trouble and expense. Leave it with Dakin, the battery man. Miss Gertrude Nickelson, who is teaching at Union, spent the holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Nickelson. Miss Mary Olinger was recently here visiting at the home of Judge and Mrs. L. N. Blowers and to see her father, E. S. Olinger. J. D. Wall, after spending Christmas here with his family, returned to Portland last week. He will spend the winter here. J. E. Robertson, who is with the Hammond Lumber Co. at Astoria, spent the holidays here with his family. Searches of records and reliable abstracts made by Oregon Abstract Company, A. W. Outhouse, Manager, 305 Oak street. Phone 1920-f. Mrs. Phoebe Couchman recently visited her nephews, Amos Perkins and Charles Losier, both of whom are in the navy in Seattle. Miss Evelyn Hasbrouck, who is teaching at Enterprise, has been home for the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hasbrouck. F. E. Batten and family have moved to Portland where Mr. Batten will be associated with Cutler Bros. in the manufacture of grading machines. Your storage battery properly cared for by Dakin, the battery man. Work guaranteed first class. State Bank building. Miss Helen Davidson, after a visit with relatives and friends here, has returned to Wasco, where he is in charge of the domestic science of the high school. Ellsworth Rickett, who was formerly a member of Kolstad's orchestra, was here from Portland Monday night to augment the orchestra for the firemen's ball. Miss Estella Rich, who is teaching in Seattle, was here over the holidays visiting friends. Miss Rich was formerly a member of the local school faculty. S. J. Moore spent New Year's in Portland with Mrs. Moore and little daughter, who have been there for the entire holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Furnish. C. C. Hutchins, secretary of the White Salmon Commercial club, was here Saturday on business. Mr. Hutchins is getting out a new road map of the mid-Columbia. J. W. Anderson will leave the latter part of this week for eastern Oregon in the interest of the Republic truck and Cleveland 12-20 tractors, which he represents. We have 7 per cent money for Farm Loans with prepayment privilege, and can give you prompt service. Abstracts, Insurance and Surveying. Hood River Abstract and Inv. Co. Phone 1331. f. Miss Edna Jones, of Los Angeles, was here last week visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. I. Slocom. Miss Jones formerly resided with the Slocom family. Mrs. L. J. Butterfield and two sons spent Christmas in Portland with Mr. Butterfield, who joined them there from Astoria where he is now engaged with the Budget. Business Opportunity—I have for sale or lease, sale preferred, excellent site for box factory or other manufacturing plant, 3 1/2 acres land, good water power partly developed. Two miles west of Hood River on Columbia Highway. Address J. B. Phillips, R. F. D. No. 8. d13-tf mother, Mrs. Chas. Kaestner, a Hood River booster, expects to visit here next spring. A family reunion was enjoyed during the holidays by the children of L. H. Huggins. All were present for the Yuletide festivities at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Huggins. Lieut. Chester Huggins is now stationed at Camp Lewis, Wash. William is engaged in the office of the Pacific Power & Light Co. at Sunnyside, Wash., and Charles is engaged on the Heights with his father in the Sanitary meat market and grocery. Mrs. J. J. Van Dellen was here from The Dalles. BILLY SUNDAY ISSUES NEW YEAR GREETING Billy Sunday, who grapples Satan for a month beginning in Washington January 6, issued this New Year's greeting: "When the curtain drops on 1918 may it see the Kaiser on his knees pleading with Uncle Sam to call off the dogs of war. "To that end we will go without bread. "We will go without meat. "We will go without shoes. "We will sit by fireless stoves. "We will lift our hands to Heaven and vow we will win or die." HIGH SCHOOL NOTES (By Betty Epping) Happy New Year! Everybody got back to work yesterday on the job with new resolutions to make the most of the year 1918. The alumni party was held at the auditorium last Friday evening and officers were elected. Friday evening, January 11, our boys' team of basketball players will meet the Odell high school team here. The local girls' team will meet that of Odell or the crack girls' team from Pendleton. Daniel J. McGill, of the internal revenue service, arrived here yesterday from Portland and will be located at the courthouse for the next two weeks to assist Hood River county citizens in making their reports on income taxes. Crawford C. Lemmon, who is now stationed at Tacoma, Wash., for the Pacific Fruit & Produce Co., was here over the holidays with Mrs. Lemmon, who was visiting her parents Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Hersher. E. B. Michaels will leave about January 18 for Salt Lake, where he will attend the annual convention of the managers of the J. C. Penney Co. stores. Mr. Michaels expects to be away about three weeks. H. K. Love, an Underwood orchardist, has been here the holiday guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Slade. Mr. Love's mother, Mrs. Pattie B. Love, spent the holidays in Seattle with relatives and friends. Miss Pearl Stewart, who is a student at the Oregon Normal at Monmouth, after having been here to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart, has returned to her studies. The committee that solicited the Heights Red Cross drive, turned in a total of $228 membership. The committee has issued the following expression of thanks to those who assisted them: We wish to thank the people on the Heights for their kindness and courtesy toward us on the recent Red Cross drive, when the elements seemed allied with the Kaiser's forces. Their kindly greetings and generous response to our cause made the gloomy days seem brighter. Mrs. Chas. N. Clarke, Mrs. Geo. I. Howe, Mrs. Carrie Bailey, Mrs. J. L. Hersher, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. K. C. Bucklin, Mrs. S. G. Campbell, Mrs. E. L. Scoobe, Mrs. Keller, Mrs. L. B. Gibbon, Mrs. J. K. Carson, Mrs. J. F. Volstorff, Mrs. Lenora True, Mrs. Frank Chandler, Chairman, Mrs. J. W. Ingalls, Secretary. A. G. Aiken is Dead A. G. Aiken, who died Sunday night at the Soldiers' home in Roseburg, was the first man to climb Mount Adams, the ascent being made when he was working in a survey crew on a military highway. He was the first white man to come to Coos bay, once owned the townsite of North Bend, which he purchased for a horse and saddle, and discovered the first coal in the Marshfield locality and mined it and transported the coal to settlements by ox team. Mr. Aiken was 81 years old and a native of Pennsylvania. Laraways Hold Reunion With the exception of their daughter, Mrs. Amy Gove, of Idaho, all of the children of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Laraway joined their parents in a New Year's reunion at the orchard home of their older daughter, Mrs. F. Cooper, and family, on the East Side. In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and children those present were Ralph Laraway and family, of Marshfield; Seth Laraway and family, of Eugene; Percy B. Laraway and family, and Thurston Laraway, a student of the U. of O. Mother Confers Degree When Thurston Laraway, home for the Christmas vacation, was initiated into the Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star Friday night, the degree was conferred by his mother, Mrs. W. F. Laraway, who for many years has been prominent in the organization. When home for the Thanksgiving vacation young Mr. Laraway was initiated into the Masonic lodge, the charge being delivered by his father, who last year was Grand Chancellor of the Knights Templar of Oregon. Congregational Church Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Sermon at 11 a. m., subject, "We are Laborers Together With God." Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m., Mrs. L. R. Acheson, leader. Preaching at the Odell Union church at 7:45 p. m. Subject, "The Church That Wins." M. L. Hutton, Pastor. First Church of Christ, Scientist Services will be held in Church Building, 9th and Eugene, Sunday, 11:00 a. m.; Subject: "Is the universe, including man, evolved by atomic force?" Sunday school at 11 a. m. Wednesday service, 8 p. m. The reading room is open daily from 2 to 5 p. m., in the Hall building. Lovell Infant Dies The nine months old infant of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lovell passed away at the Lovell home Tuesday. Following funeral services at the Bartmess chapel this morning interment will take place at Idlewild cemetery. Christian & Missionary Alliance Evangelistic services are being held every night this week at the Christian and Missionary Alliance, Dr. A. C. Eaton is assisting the pastor, Rev. D. M. Carpenter.

WEDDINGS Monroe-McLucas Local friends have received announcements of the wedding on Sunday, December 30, of Miss Dorothy McLucas and Herbert D. Monroe, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLucas, of Gateway. The bride removed from here to Gateway with her parents last year. The bride groom is the son of a well known stockman and farmer of Trout Creek, Perry Monroe. Mr. and Mrs. Monroe will make their home at Gateway, where the bridegroom is interested in a garage. Heights Committee Turns in $228 The committee that solicited the Heights Red Cross drive, turned in a total of $228 membership. The committee has issued the following expression of thanks to those who assisted them: We wish to thank the people on the Heights for their kindness and courtesy toward us on the recent Red Cross drive, when the elements seemed allied with the Kaiser's forces. Their kindly greetings and generous response to our cause made the gloomy days seem brighter. Mrs. Chas. N. Clarke, Mrs. Geo. I. Howe, Mrs. Carrie Bailey, Mrs. J. L. Hersher, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. K. C. Bucklin, Mrs. S. G. Campbell, Mrs. E. L. Scoobe, Mrs. Keller, Mrs. L. B. Gibbon, Mrs. J. K. Carson, Mrs. J. F. Volstorff, Mrs. Lenora True, Mrs. Frank Chandler, Chairman, Mrs. J. W. Ingalls, Secretary. A. G. Aiken is Dead A. G. Aiken, who died Sunday night at the Soldiers' home in Roseburg, was the first man to climb Mount Adams, the ascent being made when he was working in a survey crew on a military highway. He was the first white man to come to Coos bay, once owned the townsite of North Bend, which he purchased for a horse and saddle, and discovered the first coal in the Marshfield locality and mined it and transported the coal to settlements by ox team. Mr. Aiken was 81 years old and a native of Pennsylvania. Laraways Hold Reunion With the exception of their daughter, Mrs. Amy Gove, of Idaho, all of the children of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Laraway joined their parents in a New Year's reunion at the orchard home of their older daughter, Mrs. F. Cooper, and family, on the East Side. In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and children those present were Ralph Laraway and family, of Marshfield; Seth Laraway and family, of Eugene; Percy B. Laraway and family, and Thurston Laraway, a student of the U. of O. Mother Confers Degree When Thurston Laraway, home for the Christmas vacation, was initiated into the Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star Friday night, the degree was conferred by his mother, Mrs. W. F. Laraway, who for many years has been prominent in the organization. When home for the Thanksgiving vacation young Mr. Laraway was initiated into the Masonic lodge, the charge being delivered by his father, who last year was Grand Chancellor of the Knights Templar of Oregon. Congregational Church Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Sermon at 11 a. m., subject, "We are Laborers Together With God." Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m., Mrs. L. R. Acheson, leader. Preaching at the Odell Union church at 7:45 p. m. Subject, "The Church That Wins." M. L. Hutton, Pastor. First Church of Christ, Scientist Services will be held in Church Building, 9th and Eugene, Sunday, 11:00 a. m.; Subject: "Is the universe, including man, evolved by atomic force?" Sunday school at 11 a. m. Wednesday service, 8 p. m. The reading room is open daily from 2 to 5 p. m., in the Hall building. Lovell Infant Dies The nine months old infant of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lovell passed away at the Lovell home Tuesday. Following funeral services at the Bartmess chapel this morning interment will take place at Idlewild cemetery. Christian & Missionary Alliance Evangelistic services are being held every night this week at the Christian and Missionary Alliance, Dr. A. C. Eaton is assisting the pastor, Rev. D. M. Carpenter.

INVEST YOUR SAVINGS Dividends From Preferred Stock Will Pay Your Lighting Bill A LIMITED AMOUNT OF Pacific Power & Light Company 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock Still Available Dividends payable quarterly: Feb. 1st, May 1st, Aug. 1st, Nov. 1st. Terms of Offering PLAN NO. 1 (Cash Payment) Under this plan you may buy as many shares of Preferred Stock as you desire, the price being $100 per share, plus accrued dividends to date of payment. PLAN NO. 2 (Time Payment) Under this plan you may buy any number of shares up to 25, paying $10 per share down and $10 per share each month until the purchase price of $100 per share is paid up; the final payment to include accrued dividend from the last preceding dividend date. Interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum will be allowed and paid quarterly by the company to you on all partial payments (including unpaid interest thereon at the rate of 6 per cent per annum) on ten days' notice at any time prior to the date of final payment. On the other hand you may pay up your stock in full at any time during the time-payment period. Your stock certificate carrying the regular 7 per cent per annum dividend will be delivered to you when final payment is made. Where You Can Buy the Stock You may secure full information regarding Preferred Stock—or you may make your actual purchase of this stock—at any of our offices, in all communities served. Any employee of the company will be glad to give you all the information you wish—or on request we will mail you same. Pacific Power & Light Company "Always at Your Service"

TAXIDERMIST Give us a trial with your next specimen. All kinds of scientific taxidermy work done. Birds mounted true to life. Rug work of all kinds. FRED EVANS MOSIER

WRITE YOUR Apple Insurance WITH J. M. Culbertson & Co.

Of course in healthy I trade with PERIGO & SON AT

"The Star Grocery" where I get all kinds of "good things to eat." Especially do I like— Campbell's Soups —so easy to make in a hurry and it just hits the spot when you are hungry. Better order a dozen cans today. Call 1181 W. F. LARAWAY JEWELER When in Portland stop at the modern Palace Hotel, at Washington and 12th streets, in center of shopping and theatre districts. t1-tf

We wish our Patrons and Friends A Happy and Prosperous New Year! And we wish to announce that in our recent deal with the Snow & Forden Co., we merely sold our lease on the Cascade Avenue building and not our business. For the present we will continue our downtown and Heights business all at the Heights Garage, but as soon as possible we will secure new downtown quarters and operate both branches. We will be pleased to have our patrons accustomed to visiting our downtown garage to call on us on the Heights. J. F. VOLSTORFF. C. A. TUCKER.

THE DEMAND OF THE HOUR Military Wrist Watches for U. S. Soldiers Elgin Military Watches are especially adapted to hard outdoor use. Complete in sturdy, compact case of special design. Strong, mannish looking, silvered dial with luminous hands and figures. Heavy cow-boy style strap of battle-ship gray. Other designs, built upon substantial lines, all of moderate price and time-keeping qualities. Come in and let us show them to you. W. F. LARAWAY JEWELER